BUSINESS LOCALS.

FRESH lot of San-Berth Cigars just received at Mrs. Wooten's Saloon, Middle St., served in all styles. Open all night.

Go with the crowd to John Dunn's and try his fine groceries and be made happy. Every one is delighted with his goods and his low prices.

Those who have been smoking Proclamation Cigars, manufactured at Factory No. 1017, and sold in this city to the wholesale and retail trade by The Grocer, H. B. Hackburn, I would say that since some merchants have been so very kind as to have a cheap put up at another factory bearing the same name, brand, caution label, etc. as the cigars which I have advertised for over a year, I have had a still better cigar manufactured and the brand registered, and it is really the best for 5 in the United States. Remember the brand, Old Hickory, Factory No. 1017. Try them.

IMPORTED FRENCH BRANDY AND HOLLAND GIN, just received and for sale by JAMES REDMOND, Cutlers at GEO. ALLEN & Co.

DEMOCRATS and Republicans alike have settled down to business.

THE Herald is happy because it got the bad news sooner than anybody else.

MRS. CLEVELAND shows no signs of undue disappointment over the result of the election.

THE Republicans have carried the country. It remains to be seen what they will do with it.

EVERY tenth man in the city has remarked, "I told you so," and really believes himself a prophet.

THE World of Thursday says: "Chairman Brice has not given it up yet, and will not until all the returns are in."

WITH a reliable Democratic majority in the House and possibility in the Senate, Mr. Harrison can do no particular harm.

CAPTAIN GROVER CLEVELAND, of the Salt river expedition, is in good spirits and expects to effect a landing about the 4th of March.

We are pleased to learn that Salt river is in excellent navigable condition. It is crowded with large and small crafts in great variety.

THE World says: "The party lost by a scratch only. But for the Hewitt division in this city and gross rascality in Brooklyn it would have won."

THE opinion is general that the Democrats were beaten mainly because they undertook in a Presidential year to spring a question on the people upon which they were unprepared and easily misled.

SECRETARY WHITNEY, of Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet, expresses the opinion that the Prohibitionists defeated Mr. Cleveland. Republican Prohibitionists voted for Gen. Harrison and Democratic Prohibitionists voted for Gen. Fisk.

So far as the Democratic party is concerned, even should later intelligence demonstrate its defeat, it cannot give up the contest upon which it was entered. Sound economic opinions need time for their popular appreciation.

It will take years to kill a superstition that has brought so much profit to its votaries at the expense of the public. But the process of extinction has begun and will continue until protection becomes by common consent an incident, and not the explosive object of our wrath.—Baltimore Sun.

CERTAIN New York Republican papers had exclusively the news of election outrages in the South, of guns and knives and of every quality of bloody spirit. Legitimate news will lag after (for something over three years) take the place of such exclusives.—New Haven News.

In the chief centres of thought and intelligence, where the people had the fullest information and voted with the greatest independence and discretion, the President's reform policy was sustained. It is one of the compliments which the logic of events says to Grover Cleveland.—Boston Globe.

- Secretary of State—John Sherman of Ohio.
- Secretary of the Treasury—William B. Allison of Iowa.
- Secretary of War—Russell A. Alger of Michigan.
- Secretary of the Navy—William P. Frye of Maine.
- Secretary of the Interior—Warner Miller of New York.
- Postmaster General—William Mahone of Virginia.
- Attorney General—Shelby C. Case of Illinois.

LOCAL NEWS.

Manteo of the O. D. line arrived last night and will sail tomorrow for Norfolk direct.

The Eagle of the E. C. D. line sailed with a full cargo of cotton, lumber and general merchandise. The Vesper of this line will arrive today and sail tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

KIND WORDS. The Wilson Mirror speaks kindly of one of New Berne's most popular and able ministers. We appreciate such kind words because they contain truth and we believe were written because they are true.

We have never met a more delightful gentleman than that charming preacher, Rev. Mr. Baine, of New Berne. Exquisitely polished and most beautifully refined his presence is a benediction to any community, and fortunate indeed are those who enjoy the luscious and delicious fruits of his blessed ministry.

Y. M. C. A. Service. Today begins the annual Week of Prayer, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, for young men. A sermon will be preached before the Association by Rev. I. C. Vass, D.D., in the Presbyterian Church tonight. This will be the annual Union Service, and our community should attend generally, and thus show their deep interest in their good work.

Reports of the past year's work of the New Berne Association will be read also of their financial condition. An opportunity will be given for contributions to the Association's operations. Let every body come; that every young man may feel a wholesome and helpful influence.

The meetings during the week will be held at the rooms on Middle street, each night beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

Of ultra "Rads" don't be so fond. As to go upon their official band, we've already "kissed" them to the hungry crowd, and I don't see how to make them stronger with our double "I see a star, Eye's first born, in whose train Comes the damp twilight that breatheth pain."

For aches of head, neuritis, and all kinds of neuralgias, try Salvation Oil; these will you lose. How can Mrs. Smith wear such a handsome velvet coat? My dear child, don't you know her husband saves doctors' bills by using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for the children?

The Board of Trade. We wish to understand that the JOURNAL is not trying to influence the board of county commissioners in their action in regard to accepting bonds of county officials. We would not presume to suggest what these gentlemen should do in the matter of their own men of intelligence and have a proper regard for their obligations to the county as well as to the county officers elected. Our purpose is simply to show the reason why the bonds should not go on their heads. Drawing the color line and appealing to the prejudices of the colored people in the strongest, bitterest partisan words, caused the defeat of not only the Coalition ticket but of Mr. Simmons who has done so much for the people of this county, without regard to party or color, during his first term in Congress. There is no question about the real sentiments of a large majority of the voting population of this county are for Simmons as a representative in preference to Chatham. But the balloting process was resorted to and the freedom of the ballot at many precincts made a farce.

Bonding with county officers of such a party is simply aiding them to sustain their party organization, and we hardly think that any good Democrat who wants peace, prosperity and good feeling in the community, wishes to sustain and keep in power a party that runs on such principles.

Mr. Hancock's Correction. We publish elsewhere a card from Robt Hancock, Jr., in which he denies being the author of the article addressed to the "Young Colored Men of Craven County" published in the "True Republican" just before the election and published in the JOURNAL of last Friday.

The article appeared in the True Republican as original. There were two or three other articles in the same issue credited to the People's Advocate of 1888, but this was not credited to any paper.

In the JOURNAL's comment on this article it was said that "it is believed that one of them (the office-seekers) who will now appeal to Democrats to give him bond wrote this very article." Mr. Hancock assumes that this led the public to believe that he wrote the address to the "Young Colored Men." We presume he takes it upon himself because it was generally known that he had much to do with the publication of the True Republican. In fact did he not have a sort of supervision over the matter that was to appear in the paper? And if he did, why did he allow this article to be reproduced without credit if he did not approve it and intend it for a purpose? He does not say in his card whether he approves or disapproves of that mode of political warfare, but simply denies that he wrote the article.

We wish Mr. Hancock to understand that we are not making a personal fight against him. We are simply endeavoring to show the Democrats of this county that as a matter of principle they ought not to aid Republican officers in giving official bonds, because in doing this they are simply providing money to run a campaign against themselves.

The Board of Trade. Although the rain kept many members away from the meeting of the Board of Trade Friday night there was a working force present and a very interesting meeting was held at the rooms of the organization. Matters of importance were discussed, and several important inquiries were put in motion, which will give us a basis to work on at the next meeting which will be held at the Board of Trade rooms on Friday night next. The discussion of the railroad question was deferred on account of the small attendance, and will be taken up at the next meeting of the board.

As long as our citizens sit still with long faces, and nothing proceeds from their lips except words of discouragement, there will be nothing done, but if every man will come and by his presence show that he is interested in the success of the labors of the board, then something can be done. Ample notice will be given of the next meeting, and let every member make it his business to be present.

REMAINDER LETTERS OF Remaining in the postoffice at New Berne, Craven county, N. C., November 11th, 1888: Ed. Barrett, Bailey Clegg, Elizabeth Eiba, Anthony Howard, John Hubbard, Silver Mandy, Richard Whithead. Persons calling for above letters, will pay advertisement, and give date of issue. The regulations now require that one cent shall be collected on the delivery of each letter advertised.

Ask your Dealer for Old Virginia Cheroots. 5 for 10 cents. F. ULRICH, Wholesale Agent.

Mr. Moore's Card. Mr. J. Moore, Esq. publishes a card in this issue denying reports which he says are being circulated against him. We have not heard any one attribute to Mr. Moore the language which he quotes, but that there was a large number of colored women present, at the speaking on Monday night, as is usual on such occasions, and that appeals were made to them to see that their husbands voted the straight Republican ticket, and that the present board of commissioners was alluded to in not very complimentary terms is the evidence of more than one present.

THE JOURNAL wants to publish facts only; it has no desire to do any one an injustice, but when the prejudices of an ignorant race are aroused to such a pitch that a free election cannot be held, we think it time to call on all good citizens to keep off the official bonds of all who encourage such modes of political campaigning.

Correction. EDITOR JOURNAL.—I notice in your issue of Friday morning an article commented upon by you in such a manner as would lead the public to believe that I had written it, when in fact it was written by Samuel N. Hill and published by him, while editor of the People's Advocate in 1888. The article referred to above is the one addressed to the "Young Colored Men of Craven County" and reproduced in the True Republican of November 1st. Not wishing to deprive S. N. Hill of anything that is his property causes me to make this correction.

Respectfully, ROBT HANCOCK, JR. A Card. EDITOR JOURNAL.—I have heard today that some of Mr. E. W. Carpenter's friends have said that the statement which I made as to his having appointed a negro guardian for some white girls was untrue. Now as to the correctness of said statement, I beg to refer to the negro docket in his office, and I take pleasure in stating that I circulated a copy of said docket in the Western part of the State during the late campaign. Respectfully yours, RICHARD PATRICK WILLIAMS.

A Card. NEW BERNE, Nov. 10, 1888. EDITOR JOURNAL.—To my surprise I have heard that designing persons have been engaged in circulating in this community slanderous and ridiculous stories concerning me. Of course I haven't heard the one-thousandth part that has been told, yet I have heard that it is currently reported that I advised the "colored women" in my speech at West End "to fight before the election to whip their husbands if they did not vote the Republican ticket," etc. Also that I spoke of the outgoing board of commissioners as a body of thieves, etc. Now sir, permit me to say to the good people of this community that every report that has been put in circulation against me that is inconsistent with gentlemanly deportment and proper conduct is a lie of the whole cloth. In my speech I said nothing that could affront any one. For what purpose, these lies are told. I don't know, yet I have an idea. I am much more interested in the success of this county than those who have lied about me. Theirs is a home and in all probability will be the home of my children. I am interested in retaining the good will and respect of the entire community, and for this reason I publish these cards denouncing these slanderous stories. I am, very resp'y, L. J. MOORE.

ADVANCE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children's colic, flatulency, or other ailments, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

When you can get 5 Old Virginia Cheroots for 10 cents, why do you pay 5 cents for one cigar? F. ULRICH, Wholesale Agent.

The Revival. The series of meetings at the Baptist church continue with unabated interest notwithstanding the unusual excitement in town incident to the election, thus evincing the power of the spirit of grace. On Monday night the pastor buried in baptism 19 converts. Mr. Lide, the pastor, had the Rev. H. W. Bettle, pastor of the Baptist church of New Berne, with him last night, who will continue his aid till the close of the meeting. While not an evangelist or revivalist in the technical sense, yet he is a preacher of great, spiritual power, his ministry has been wonderfully blessed wherever he has been, and we may expect like blessings to follow his ministry here.—Wilson Mirror.
