GO with the crowd to John Duan's and try his fine groceries and be made happy. Every one is delighted with his goods and his low prices.

TO those who have been smoking Proclamation Cigars, manufactured at Factory No. 1017, and sold in this city to the wholesale and retail trade by The Grocer, E. B. Hæckburn, I would say that since some merchants have been so very kind as to have a cigar put up at another factory bearing the same name, brand, caution label, etc., as the cigars which I have advertised for over a year, I have had a still better cigar manufactured and the brand registered, and it is really the best 3 for 5 in the United States. Remember the brand, Old-Hickory, Factory No. 1017. Try them.

IMPORTED FRENCH BRANDY AND HOLLAND GIN, just received and for sale by JAMES REDMOND.

CORN SHELLERS, Grain Fans, Feed Cutters at GEO. ALLEN & CO.

COTTON TIES and Cotton Gins at GEO. ALLEN & CO.

We only ask one trial on Old Virginia Cherokees. 5 for 10 cents. oct23 F. ULRICH, Wholesale Agent.

WE are not yet informed how the election went in West Virginia.

AN attempt has been made to assassinate Prince Ferdinand, ruler of Bulgaria.

THE Legislature of Georgia will probably return Alfred H. Colquitt to the U. S. Senate.

REVENUE collections at the Winston branch office for October amounted to $60,399.57.

PENDING negotiations for the sale of one-half interest in the Greenboro Patriot, the daily will be discontinued for the present, until the transfer is made.

THE North Carolina Baptist Convention now in session at Greensboro is very largely attended. There are not less than three hundred delegates present.

GOVERNOR GORDON of Georgia, was inaugurated for his second term Tuesday. Gordon is popular all over the South and deserves to be. A brave soldier, an able statesman and a Christian gentleman.

THE Alabama Legislature is now in session. A United States Senator is to be elected, and we have no doubt John T. Morgan will be his own successor. He is a champion of Democracy and one of the ablest men in the Senate.

IT is possible that John G. Carlisle will lose his seat in the fifty-first Congress because 7,502 of the ballots he received were perforated. This would prove a great misfortune, not only to Mr. Carlisle, but to the country at large.

THE twenty-ninth annual session of the Missionary Council of the American Episcopal Church began on Tuesday at the Epiphany Church in Washington City. About 250 delegates were present, among whom were many prominent bishops of the church.

AT noon, yesterday, Joseph Chamberlain and Mary Bedford were married before the altar of St. John's Church, the most fashionable Episcopal place of worship at the National Capitol. The wedding was a very quiet affair, neither bridesmaids nor best man were present. There were no guests save a few near relatives of the bride, and President and Mrs. Cleveland, and some of the higher officials in Washington.

WE are gratified to notice that all of our National Democratic and Independent exchanges without exception (unless the Herald is to be omitted) are for continuing the reform battle with renewed vigor and destruction. There should be no intermission in the work. There ought to be reform clubs organized and perpetuated in every village and town in the North Carolina. Fellow Democrats, let us not relax for a day in our labors to secure genuine, much needed tax reform.—Wilmington Star.

A DISPATCH from El Paso, Texas, says: "Capt. T. H. Logan, commanding the United States troops at Fort Hancock on the Rio Grande some seventy miles below El Paso, has been forcibly reminded that Mexico will not permit her territory to be invaded by the troops of a foreign country. He thought there would be good hunting on the Mexican side, taking with him a number of his command. After having some fine sport they came across a force of Mexican frontier guards who took them into custody as soldiers of a foreign power found on Mexican territory under arms."

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
L. S. SMITH—Wanted.
J. C. WHITTY—Fairbanks scales.
C. E. SLOVER—Corned beef, etc.
R. P. WILLIAMS—Be not alarmed.

Remember the Board of Trade meeting tonight. Important business.

Carpenters have commenced repairing the brick law office of P. H. Pelletier, Esq., recently damaged by fire.

The rainfall on Wednesday night was considerable, but the prevailing winds yesterday soon blew it from the earth's surface and travel became easy.

The brick walls to the new store of Dr. Hughes on Middle street have been completed and soon another elegant store will be numbered with those on Middle street.

The horses that draw the Atlantic fire engine are not easily managed whenever the fire bell rings, and to better train them the fire-bell will be rung Monday morning for practicing them.

Prayer meeting of the Y. M. C. A. tonight at 8:30 o'clock. Subject, "A Wise Merchant." Matt. xiii: 45, 46; Luke xiv: 33. Rev. E. W. Bull, leader. All the young men are invited to be present as numbers always add interest. The hour is made late to avoid interference with business as much as possible.

Steamer Movements.
The Vesper of the E. C. D. line sailed yesterday afternoon with full cargo of cotton and general merchandise. The Eaglet of this line will arrive today. The Tahoma will arrive tonight from Bay river.

Rapid Writing.
Prof. Martha, stenographer, who has been in New Bern awhile teaching short hand, says that some of his pupils here have shown remarkable aptness in their progress, in fact, he tells us that one of our young ladies has surpassed the highest record that he has ever known of—writing a hundred words in one minute with only two weeks study.

Personal.
Rev. H. W. Battle is now in attendance upon the Baptist Convention now in session at Greensboro, but will return in time to fill his pulpit on Sunday. Marshal V. V. Richardson arrived last night. He comes to take a prisoner to the prison at Columbus, Ohio. Miss Sadie Manly has returned from Raleigh. Misses Bessie and Johanna Whitford made a visit to Goldsboro yesterday. L. E. Duffy, Esq., and Mr. Taylor of Dover, arrived last night.

From the New York Herald.

We copy from the New York Herald a short article which is anything else but in good taste, and coming from what has been generally termed the newspaper of the Western Continent, makes it the more out of place. The Herald was fully aware of the warm feeling exercised by Cleveland toward the South and during his four years' administration the columns of the Herald contained no such denunciatory utterances as those we copy. Can the Herald have deserted principle and turned its aim entirely towards what it considers to be popular with the majority of its readers? Read and judge. "A solid South against a solid North. This is one solemn fact. While the Democrats carry New Jersey and Connecticut, the Republicans win West Virginia, New Jersey and Connecticut are only the political overflow of the metropolis, and we may as well accept it as the solid South against the solid North. And in this we note the one circumstance most to be regretted, something that our Southern friends should think over seriously. That solid South delusion, that holding in an inextricable political embrace the dead and damned Confederacy—truly, truly, it is a miserable business, and now we see that becomes of it. If our Southern friends—those who have sense enough to remember that some things have happened since 1865—would only set themselves to the abandonment of this former fanaticism it would be a national gain. It is really such politics as we hear about in Belgium and other stricken resorts and should be abandoned now and forever."

Contradicted.
We are glad to learn that the statement that the good people of Durham had run from their midst an innocent man and his family to their native home in one of the Northern States, is untrue. It did not seem only inconsistent, but not at all characteristic of the South. The truth in the matter seems to be that the party in reference was of bad character and believed to be dangerous to the community, consequently walking papers were furnished him, but not before the citizens of Durham had furnished him with ample funds for traveling expense. Instead of showing a spirit of gratitude, said character is now delighting in strewing news in the North of a Southern outrage and barbarism. We have no fear of any Southerner living North as long as he behaves himself, and vice versa, no Northerner need think for once that his liberties will be interfered with so long as he properly acquits himself. They are not only allowed their rights and privileges, but are invited and welcomed among us.

New Berns Graded School.
The following is the report of the New Bern Graded School for the month ending Nov. 9th:

4th Grade—Bertha Kafer, Willie Schissler.

The Parade Last Night.
The colored Republicans had a grand parade last night. The women joined in, but the white Republicans were conspicuous for their absence. A correspondent enquires in another column why they were not out.

The crowd was jubilant but orderly. We like to see people rejoice in their good luck when they do it in a becoming manner.

A Tempting Repast.
That was a splendid dinner prepared at Hotel Albert yesterday. Both foreign and domestic markets were drawn upon for the delicacies furnished. The bill of fare will explain:

- SOUP.
- Purée of tomato with oregon.
- ENTREES.
- Venison with currant jelly, macaroni with cheese.
- BOILED.
- Corned beef and cabbage.
- ROAST.
- Roast beef, roast lamb—mint sauce, vegetables.
- Rusticage, boiled white potatoes, baked sweet potatoes, sugar corn, lima beans.
- SALADES.
- Celery, cold stew.
- DESSERT.
- Apple pie, cocoanut, custard, omelet pudding—wine sauce.
- FRUITS.
- Mixed nuts, raisins, oranges, grapes, bananas.
- BEVERAGES.
- Milk, tea, coffee, claret, champagne wine.
- SPRINGING GLASSERS.
- To millions, pleasing their palates and cleansing their systems, arousing their Livers, Kidneys, Stomachs and Bowels to a healthy activity. Such is the mission of the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Washington Items.

The tug G. M. Hill is undergoing extensive repairs.

We notice a change since the 8th, bows and salutations are not so profusely indulged in by some as before. The steamer Washington, being overhauled, and the steamer Beaufort will run her schedule until she resumes.

Mr. Chas. Olen of Hunter's Bridge, has commenced a dwelling in this town and expects to locate here and engage in business.

The steam tug Lizzie Massey was inspected on the 13th inst. and her boiler was condemned—kind and paternal government.

The Masonic Hall will be completed in time for the next regular communication Tuesday night, the 20th inst. and will be a splendid hall.

The Washington Light Infantry have removed their armory from Crabtree's hall to the hall formerly occupied by the reform club, the club will meet at the town hall on their times.

Major T. Archbell and Miss Mamie Gaskill of this town, were married on the 14th at 5 o'clock a. m. by Rev. W. K. Ware. They left on the 6 o'clock train for a bridal tour of some days.

What They Would Do.
EDITOR JOURNAL—Your present postmaster has made a good and efficient officer. all will admit. Suppose you ask these so-called white Republicans to sign Mr. Manly's bond and retain him under Gen. Harrison's administration. Why, they would feel like spitting you on the face, yet these Republicans expect the Democrats to march forward and sign their bonds. Every Democrat who shall peremptorily refuse to sign a single Republican bond will immortalize himself in this world.
Respectfully,
Ed. Tex. Med. Record.

DIED.

STREET—At New Bern, North Carolina, Sunday morning, November 14th, 1888, at 4:30 o'clock, MRS. MARY JEAN NETTE STREET, widow of the late SAMUEL R. STREET, so long Proprietor of the Gaston House of that city, in the 67th year of her age.

Preceded to her grave by her husband fifteen months ago, and by her eldest son, William J. Street, only ten months, the hand of bereavement has been laid heavily upon this devoted family.

This announcement will cause sorrow to those of her early friends and companions who knew the young, the beautiful and the gifted Mary J. Dawson, of the Swift Creek region of Craven county. A large circle of the friends of later life will mourn her death; those poor and needy friends, the recipients of an open-handed bounty, will bemoan their loss of a benefactress. But they who knew her as MOTHER, weep. There shall be no tears of deeper sorrow than those which well up along with the wail of mature men and women at the grave of a mother, such as this one.

Stalwart of figure, grand in presence, kind of heart, affectionate toward all; a most devoted mother; a wife who was companion, counsellor, and helpmeet in the fullest sense; a refuge to her husband in every hour of trouble, and a sure guide out of all difficulties; a christian woman, a charitable neighbor, a universal friend, there has departed from among us one of the heroic women of our times.

Her house was a model illustration of domestic pleasure and happiness. Combining a most cheerful disposition with unusual gifts of mimicry and a keen sense of the ludicrous, dullness and deceptiveness were always where she was not. If trouble came in at the door it quickly took flight through the window. The gloom of unhappiness dispelled as lifting fogs in the sunshine of her presence. Animation, love, generous impulse, nobleness of soul, shone in her beaming countenance, flashed from her bright seeking eye, and generously diffused along with her hearty all-containing smile. She was the idol of her household. "Mother's room" was ever the favorite resort of her eleven.

She was mother to twelve children, seven daughters and five sons; eleven of whom reached the years of maturity, the youngest having just turned twenty-five years. All but two survive here: Mrs. John B. Shinn, Mrs. William E. Dulin and Mrs. William A. Hearne, of Washington City; Mrs. Charles C. Green, of Trenton, Mrs. Edward B. Roberts, Miss Georgia Street, Samuel R. Street and Edward B. Street, of New Bern; and Frederick D. Street and James L. Street, of Newport, Va.

A feeble hand essays a poor portrayal of the excellent traits of this good woman. A stricken heart would here lay the tribute of its grief at her tomb. To him she hath also been as a mother.

In the sturdy men and women left behind them, these noble parents have reproduced themselves, and may they each so live that at their final end they may be as revered and deeply lamented as the husband and wife who, after a brief separation, have met again on the other shore.
W. A. H.

NOTE—Be suspicious of persons who recommend any other article as "just as good," and take nothing else but Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

A party paid ten dollars for a horse at an auction sale. The horse was lame and bruised all over. A bottle of Salvation Oil costing 25 cents was used; he is now valued at two hundred dollars.

Where Were They?

EMORY JOURNAL—Will you please allow me to ask through your columns where were the straight-out white Republicans, who have been teaching such rank straight-out doctrine, last night during the parade? Why were they not in ranks? Were they looking up bondmen, or are they ashamed to be caught in a parade with colored men?
HENRY JAMES.

SAVED HIS SIGHT.

MR. A. K. HAWKES—About a year ago I procured my first pair of glasses from some dealer, but they strained my eyes and caused them to ache. I then bought a pair of your Crystallized Lenses, and the effect has been wonderful, as a proof of which I do not use any glasses now and see as well as ever.
