TO those who have been smoking the Poolamont Cigarettes manufactured at Factory No. 1017, and sold in this city to the wholesale and retail trade by The Grocer, E. B. Hackburn, I would say that since some merchants have been so very kind as to have a cigar put up at another factory bearing the same name, brand, caution label, etc. as the cigars which I have advertised for over a year, I have had a still better cigar manufactured and the brand registered, and it is really the best for 5 in the United States. Remember the brand. Old Hickory. Factory No. 1017. Try them. IMPORTED FRENCH BRANDY AND HOLLAND GIN, just received and for sale by JAMES REDMOND. CORN SHELLERS, Grain Fans, Feed Cutters at GEO. ULRICH, Wholesale Agent. WE think Mr. Blaine will not be in Mr. Harrison's Cabinet. THE shares of all the Trusts have gone booming up since the Republican victory. The monopolists know their friends. "Our esteemed Republican contemporaries are respectfully reminded that it is not in good taste to make the President's Thanksgiving Proclamation the subject of partisan sneer and jibe." "A TERRIBLE duel was fought at Mountevalle, Ala., last Saturday between W. W. Shortridge, a lawyer, and Robert Nabors, a physician. Both were killed. They fought with bowie knives in a darkened room. THE demand for Mrs. Cleveland's photographs shows no cessation, and everywhere there is genuine sympathy for the woman who has become universally popular on account of her modest demeanor as the first lady of the land. THE New York Times of last Thursday says it is a simple fact that the electoral votes of the State of New York were sold by Gov. Hill to secure his own election; and to this the World responds, "What the Times asserts as a 'simple fact' is a simple lie." It is reported that John Wanamaker, the Philadelphia merchant, contributed $50,000 to the Republican campaign fund and is to have a Cabinet appointment. It strikes us that, while he is a good merchant, he would make a poor Cabinet officer. Perhaps he will be master of the wardrobe and keep the breeches mended. A LETTER was received from Jefferson Davis at Richmond last week declining an invitation to visit the Exposition, in which he says: "Though well enough when at rest to permit the hope that I may see my friends of Virginia at some future time, I am now painfully conscious that I could not perform the journey without serious if not fatal consequences. To state the fact will, no doubt, assist you in all your efforts in the direction I have been compelled to make."

THE World has this to say of the Congressman elected from this district: "Henry P. Cheatham, member elect from the second (or black) district, is a bright mulatto, and was born in what was then Granville, but is now Vance, county. He is not yet thirty years of age. He obtained his education at Shaw University at Raleigh. He is tall, quite stout and quiet in manner. It is his first experience in public life. By profession he is a lawyer."

An Important Movement.

The Board of Trade of New Berne at its meeting on Friday night last, after a full discussion of the subject, adopted the following resolutions: Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to confer with Governor Hunt, Hon. H. P. Cheatham, and ascertain upon what conditions he will cooperate with the people of this section looking to an extension of the A. & N. C. R. to such points in the interior of the State as may be deemed for the best interests of our people. Resolved further, That the people along the A. & N. C. R. and the proposed lines of extension and the individual stockholders be requested to cooperate in this movement. We regard this movement as one of vital importance to the business interest of New Berne, Morehead City and in fact to all the people along the line of the A. & N. C. R., and to the counties of Johnston, Harnett, Moore, Montgomery, Granville and Weldonburg. It is of special interest to Charlotte, because if an extension of the road can be secured to that city the business men will have a new and independent line to deep water. It is an important movement to the whole State, as an extension of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad would develop and improve a large section of country now without transportation facilities and would enhance the value of the present property which has never been paid a dividend. The General Assembly ought to give a portion of the convict labor of the State to this extension. It is true the associated railways will fight the proposition from the start, but it can be shown that the plan of extension is feasible, and that it will not cost the State one cent, save the convict labor which the General Assembly can and ought to give. Will the influence of the associated railways overawe the members of the General Assembly? We trow not. The extension of this road from Goldsboro to Charlotte, intersecting the C. F. & Y. V., another independent line, at Sanford, would in a great measure reclaim the transportation of Middle and Eastern Carolina, or would wield such an influence as to hold in check the great combinations that have divided the State and claim a fee simple on all its transportation which they use to build up points in other States while the business of our own towns drains causing property to depreciate in value and leaving our forest and fields and manufacturing industries undeveloped. This movement is not started in the interest of any class that may want to get control of the A. & N. C. R. The idea is to get the business men along the line of the road interested in the extension with the hope of improving our business and developing this Eastern section. The effect of the policy pursued by the associated railways has been to destroy all community of interest between the people of the Eastern section and those west of Goldsboro. The object of this movement is to counteract that influence and secure to our own seaport towns the business that legitimately and rightfully belongs to them, and to bring about such an interchange of products as will redound to the good of the State and the prosperity of all. Let the committee go to work and push the matter vigorously. The General Assembly will meet in January. We desire to have the members well informed as to the movement, and to this end the committee should direct its most strenuous efforts. Found Dead. Mr. John R. Simmons, an aged citizen who lived on the north side of Neuse river in this county, and who was in the mill service on the route between this city and Washington, N. C., was found dead near Walter's store on East Front street on Sunday morning. He was over sixty years old, and on Saturday complained of pain in his breast. He had brought the mail across on Saturday night and is presumed he was on his way to the ferry to cross for home when he died. As there was no evidence or signs of foul play no inquest was held, and his remains were taken across the river to his former home for interment. SAVED HIM SIGHT. Mr. A. E. HAWKES—About a year ago I procured my first pair of glasses from some dealer, but they stained my eyes and caused them to ache. I then bought a pair of your Crystallized Lenses, and the effect has been wonderful, as a proof of which I do not use any glasses now and see as well as ever. F. E. DANIEL, M. D., Ed. Tex. Med. Record. All eyes examined and guaranteed by F. S. DUFFY, New Berne, N. C. 01341m. When you can get 5 Old Virginia Cheroots for 10 cents, why do you pay 9 cents for one cigar? F. ULRICH, Wholesale Agent.

The Baptist State Convention.

The 55th session of the Baptist convention, which closed in the city of Greenville on Saturday last, was the most harmonious and successful ever held in the history of that denomination. It was found that the Baptists now marshal the vast army of 150,000 while members in the State of North Carolina to war against ignorance and vice and for God and humanity. During the year just closed they have contributed through the boards of the convention, which of course comprehends only a part of the work done. To State missions $13,000.00 Foreign 2,290.73 Education 4,038.31 Sunday-school work 2,943.16 Home missions 2,254.59 Orphanage 1,902.54 Colportage 1,230.46 Only a small part of the contributions to the orphanage is included in this report, and it takes no notice of the large collections made during the session of the body. The largest collection was for the Greenville Memorial Church, resulting in the almost complete lifting of a debt of about $5,000. The speeches made were of a high order. The denomination was represented by about 300 delegates and the congregations were immense. The next session will be held at Henderson, N. C. J. S. Hill of Goldsboro to preach the introductory sermon. The Way to Settle It. LENOIR COUNTY, N. C. NOV. 17, '88. EDITOR JOURNAL.—I see candidates are beginning to spring up for Senator Hanson's place. It is evident there will be a spirited contest over this important position, and I wish to suggest that the best way to settle the contest is to elect that able, vigorous, progressive and unswerving patriot and Democrat, F. M. Simmons, to succeed Senator Hanson, that is if the Senator is not his own successor. I write this without the knowledge of Mr. Simmons, and it will doubtless take him by surprise. But I know the man, and I know that the General Assembly of North Carolina could not do a better day's work for the good of the State than to elect F. M. Simmons to the Senate. Yours truly, LENOIR DEMOCRAT. The Mann Social. NEW BERNE, NOV. 16th 1888. EDITOR JOURNAL.—The above named society appeared over the signature of Rev. A. J. Chambers of Rue-a-Chapel Nov. 16th. The circular also announced that a prize would be voted for and awarded the most popular gentleman in New Berne receiving the highest number of votes. Prof. Isaac H. Smith and Rev. A. J. Chambers were the leading favorites in the race, and the friends of Mr. Smith were earnest in his behalf and expected nothing but fair play. Mr. Smith led in the race all along, and Rev. Chambers seeing his defeat took snap judgment before all of Mr. Smith's votes were cast and announced that Hon. Benjamin Harrison had won the prize. The participants in this so-called look upon it as a New Berne affair and not a national contest, and claim that they were mistreated in having their desires thwarted by the introduction of foreign competition. Had the social been managed as was supposed the receipts for the church's benefit would have been advanced at least $25, as a majority of Mr. Smith's votes were not cast for want of time. Give us fair play and no snap judgment in the future. Yours, CHRISTIANITY. The Davis School Cadets. RICHMOND, Nov. 16.—One of the features of the Virginia Exposition this week is the presence of the cadet battalion of the Davis School, at LaGrange, N. C., which has the honor of being the first corps of cadets from North Carolina which has ever visited Virginia. The battalion has won deserved commendation for drill and deportment. This afternoon it was reviewed by Gov. Fitzhugh Lee in Capital Square, and the ceremony was witnessed by a great crowd. The ceremony was handsomely performed. The battalion will leave for home tomorrow. After Thirty-One Years. DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 16.—The official returns received by the Secretary of State today, settled the closest election contest in the history of Iowa. Out of a total vote of over 400,000, Peter A. B. Fay, Dem., has about 5,000 majority over John Mahin, Rep., candidate for railroad commissioner. The other Republican candidates, Smith and Campbell, have large majorities. It is thirty-one years since a Democrat has been elected to any Iowa office.
