THE TRIBUNE'S CORRESPONDENT. The article recently published in the New York Tribune, and commented upon in our issue of yesterday, we find upon farther inquiry is a tissue of slander and falsehood from beginning to end, and was, it is said, written for that sheet by a certain carpet-bagger, now living in this district, whose abusiveness of everything Southern has not only sorely tried the patience of the people among whom he lives but has made him especially obnoxious.
The article referred to is a lie out of the whole cloth. No single statement made in it seems to be supported by the truth. It says, for instance, 5,000 votes were thrown out in Vance county. A bald faced lie. Not a single Cheatham vote was thrown out in that county. So, likewise, it is absolutely false that any Cheatham votes were thrown out in Halifax county as therein alleged.
The number of Republican voters which this slanderous and lying correspondent says were thrown out in Warren and Edgewood exceeds by more than fifteen hundred the entire Republican vote of these counties.
The truth is a few hundred votes were rejected by the Boards of Canvassers of these counties, not however upon the grounds stated by this foul mouthed abuser of the South, but upon good and sufficient reasons going to the integrity of the ballots cast in the rejected precincts.
When a negro, who wishes to vote the Democratic ticket, is driven from the polls, he is hindered, all over the district, who wished to vote for Simmons—when they are forced by threats of murder, burning and social and religious ostracism, to vote against their wishes, does any fair minded and honest man say that such a forced vote should be counted?

At least four hundred negroes in this county who wanted to vote for Simmons and the Coalition ticket were not allowed to do so because of the brutal and savage treatment and intimidation of their own race urged on by unscrupulous white allies, and we feel entirely safe in saying if there had been no intimidation by the Republican party Simmons would have been returned to Congress by a large majority.
The Tribune's correspondent, cynically says that, after the canvassing boards of certain counties had adjourned, they were reconvened by the Democratic Executive Committee of the State to further reduce by manipulation the Republican majority. Of course this is a statement which this dirty correspondent knew every man in the State would know to be false, but the low slanderer did not care for that—he was not writing for home consumption, but to feed the hatred of the malignants of the North, and to degrade in the eyes of strangers the white people of the South.
The truth is, the Democrats of this district, and especially of Craven county, have dealt too leniently with Republican methods, and it may as well be understood now, once for all, that their method of carrying elections by intimidation and oppression of votes has been tolerated for the last time.

Mr. Beaden informs us that he made this year nineteen hundred and thirty-five pounds of seed cotton to the acre, the result of judicious manuring and cultivation and the use of good seed. He has the Johnson-Early variety and will have some of the seed on exhibition at our next Fair.

The Bond Question.
Endorsement of the JOURNAL'S position as to the propriety of Democrats aiding Republicans in giving their official bonds comes from every quarter. Democrats of this county have never seen a man who would do such a thing. Ordinarily when a candidate, if he is a good man and competent, has succeeded in obtaining the nomination in obtaining a majority of votes he is expected to make a fight against him or to throw any obstacle in his way. But when appeals are made to the prejudices of the ignorant, and the bitter feelings of the colored people are aroused against their true friends, the white people of the South, in order to carry an election, then the parties who adopt such modes of political warfare ought not to ask men of the opposite party to help them into office by going their security.
Can any Democrat become security for a Republican who votes against such a representative as Simmons? Will any Democrat think of going on the bond of a Republican who votes to send Jack Hussey to the General Assembly instead of such men as Wm. B. Lane and R. A. Russell? Yet there are Republicans in this county who always vote for Hussey, and would vote for him against the ablest and best man in the county, and then have the cheek to goad invite Democrats to help them into office. It sounds like an insult to ask a Democrat who feels an interest in his community to be invited by such Republicans to go on bonds for an office. They virtually say this:
"I must vote for Hussey and Cheatham as a matter of principle, though I know they are totally unfit for the positions; and their opponents are among the best citizens of the State and district. I am elected to this office; the Democrats are not governed by principle anyway, so I will ask them to help me give bond. Do not care if I did help to defeat their candidates and do all I could against the best interest of my country."
This is about the way the thing strikes us. Let Democrats have principle and backbone enough to stay off their bonds.
Personal.
Rev. C. W. Porter, the blind man, who has been in the city a few days, left yesterday for points West of here. Mr. Porter did some work here in tuning pianos and he seems to understand the business well. We commend him to all who desire work in that line.
P. H. Pelletier, Esq., has returned from a visit to Baltimore.
Miss Lena Dillshunt, Miss Julia Cox and Miss Annie Hammond, all of Jones county, are in the city.
W. S. Wooten, Esq., of Pitt county is in the city. He says the people of his county were much concerned about the election of Simmons and feel that his defeat is a calamity to the farmers of the South.
Washington Items.
A large quantity of lime is being brought here.
Mr. Thos. Bowen, the popular book-keeper for Joo. Myers Sons, lost a child last week.
Rumor has it that a large real estate transaction made some weeks ago is off. We do not know.
Died in this town on the 17th inst., Mrs. C. H. Horton, wife of the foreman of the Progress.
Report says that one of our doctors had a fee of $1,000 recently to go North with a man who was out here on a hunting expedition and was taken sick.
The steamer Washington, Captain Wallace, went to New Berne on the 17th for Mrs. Wallace who is to spend some days on a visit. Will be glad to see her with us.
The "Volunteer Fire Company" of this town (boys) have just received a new engine and turned out in force in the afternoon of the 19th inst. They appeared to be well pleased with its performance.
The steamer Benito while coming out from Lynchville on the morning of the 19th inst. struck on a small island and the side was full of falling, and she remained until the Federal pulled her off. The damage very small and it is very difficult to see.

Harrison's Intimations.
HARRISON'S INTIMATIONS. Nov. 19.—A few days ago Col. J. W. Jefferson, a prominent business man and planter who recommended a Michigan regiment during the war, wrote to President Harrison asking him to indicate as far as his rights properly do so the probable policy of the Administration towards the South. The following answer was received and was made public today:
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 15.
Col. J. W. Jefferson, Dear Sir:—I have received your letter and I am glad to know that the result of the election brought satisfaction to some army command living in the South. I notice what you say about the situation here and assure you that I sympathize in gravity and have the most sincere desire to be well-informed both as to men and affairs in the South. I do not sincerely desire to prevent the general good of our whole people, without reference to State lines, and I shall be glad to have the friendly advice and co-operation of all law-abiding and conservative people in all the States.
Very truly yours,
BENJAMIN HARRISON.

At his home in Dundy Institute on the 20th of August, 1888, Mr. James E. Kennedy in his 43d year. He was devoted member of the Free Will Baptist Church, and seemed willing to go when his Master called. Though he was greatly afflicted, yet he was ever bright and cheerful and seemed to think more of the comfort of others than his own. Deeply do we mourn his absence, yet we feel that he is only waiting for us on the other shore where parting is never known.
Kind friends and loved ones watched a loss.
New growing pains in death. Whose presence was forever borne away from scenes of earth.
His little ones too young to know "How great the loss sustain. And yet they felt that it was one that could not be regained.
Tis sad this young to be deprived of his protecting care, And aft' through life to be denied A father's love so dear.
I hope that each in passing through the checked scenes of life May live as much in peace and rest And cease as little strife.
His life like all was one of care. Since none from sin are free But pleasant words be said for all With whom he chanced to be.
I grieve to think that I'm earth No more my love I'll meet. Or on this side the vale of death His pleasant welcome meet.
Yet how supremely blest I feel. To know beyond that part There is a land where we shall meet. That's freed from sorrow's wail.
His form lies low beneath a sod. Of white and evergreen. That emblem of the life across. Death's dark and misty stream M. F. K.
