strongest and best message. There will be no going back on his record, and it may be that his last efforts will be his brightest.

A COLORED gentleman who wants to be appointed "educational inspector" of this district, and expects the support of Cheatham, is badly disgruntled by a report that Harrison voted against the Blair bill, and would probably veto it if Congress passes the bill.

FRANCE declines to give England and Germany permission to search vessels sailing under her flag on the African coast and suspected of being engaged in the slave trade. According to M. Goblet, Minister of Foreign Affairs, France will attend to her own searching.

A DANVILLE, VA. special of Nov. 21, says: "Danville's great Tobacco Exposition and Trades Display opened today with an immense crowd in attendance, in fact the largest assemblage ever seen in the city. The tobacco exhibition embraces 1,800 samples of all grades of tobacco from Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee, and is a magnificent display of the week."

In a far distant corner of the British Empire—in Victoria, British Columbia—a young nobleman, Lord Elnamore, lay stricken with a serious illness. It was necessary to have the best London advice, and Victoria was brought into telegraphic connection with that city. A conversation lasting three hours took place between the patient's attendants in British Columbia and the physicians in London, and replies to questions came in three or four minutes.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
J. F. TAYLOR—Pickles.
MRS. WOMBLES—Oysters.
F. E. MORTON—Last day.
B. SWERT—Stall fed beef.
A. M. BAKER—Low, low prices.
C. E. SLOVER—Thanksgiving adv.
JNO. DUNN—Thanksgiving supplies.
W. P. BURRUS—Mattamuskeet apples.

High tide for three days. But few oysters in market yesterday. We presume the oystermen are loading up for next week.

Maj. Britton, of the Salvation Army, will arrive today and will be with the Army at this place a few days.

It affords us pleasure to announce that Mr. A. M. Baker has adjusted his late financial difficulties and is again to the front.

The bad sidewalk on Middle street was being patched up yesterday. The public entertained the hope that the concrete pavement which covered a large part of that walk would be continued until the whole from Meadows corner to South Front would be made of concrete.

The Board of Trade meeting was not largely attended last night but the meeting was interesting. In a few days we will publish the report of the committee on manufacturing industries which will show what New Bern is doing and what it can and ought to do. A committee was appointed to canvass the city and ascertain what can be done in the way of entertaining Northern visitors for the winter.

The Theatre Last Night. Hamilton's Church Choir Opera Company presented the Bohemian Girl to a large and highly appreciative audience. To say that public expectation was fully realized but poorly expressed that great pleasure experienced by all who had the good fortune to be present. The company is far above the average, and we commend it to the favor of the public.

SAVED HIS RIGHT. MA. A. K. HAWKES—About a year ago I procured my first pair of glasses from some dealer, but they strained my eyes and caused them to ache. I then bought a pair of your Crystallized Lenses, and the effect has been wonderful, as a proof of which I do not use any glasses now and see as well as ever. F. E. DANIEL, M. D., Ed. Tex. Med. Records.

All eyes fitted and guaranteed by F. S. DUFFY, New Bern, N. C. 01301m

Ask your dealer for Old Virginia Cigarettes. 5 for 10 cents. F. ULRICH, Wholesale Agent.

Special Premiums—Important to Farmers.

We beg to call the attention of farmers in the adjoining counties to the fact that our Fair Association has prepared a list of premiums aggregating about two thousand dollars in cash and a good amount of this is offered on stock and farm products. In addition to the regular premiums which will be offered by the Association, many valuable special premiums will be offered. We now the following already made and appeal to our merchants and business men to think of the matter and augment the list and do it at once so that the farmers may begin in time to compete for the same.

Mr. J. C. Whitty offers as a special premium for the largest amount of hay made on ten acres for the year 1888, one Clark's Outaway Harrow; for the best yield of hay on five acres, one Avery steel and horse plow; for the best yield of oats on five acres, one Bow's X plow.

Mr. Charles Reinsch offers as a special premium for the best yield of corn on ten acres, one improved corn-sheller; for the best yield of farm products, exclusive of cotton, produced on the farm of the exhibitor or contestant, one Iron Age Cultivator.

These are very liberal offers on the part of these gentlemen, and if others will follow their example a list of premiums will be made up that will stimulate the farmers of this section to make the finest exhibit of farm products ever seen at a Fair in this State.

We expect to keep the above list standing in the columns of the JOURNAL for a while, with the hope that others will soon be handed in.

The Fall Races. To those who were on Middle street early yesterday morning the time for fall races came vividly before their minds.

A gentleman from the country, a rather high spirited one, challenged the "Little Giant" of New Bern for a foot race. The "Little Giant" offered a wager of ten dollars that he could beat the country gent, and he added, "we will run down Middle street, and whoever gets wet first can take down the stakes he puts up." The countryman, not noticing the phraseology of the proposition, accepted the offer and the race was on.

Getting in the middle of the street the command was given, one—TWO—THREE! Off they dashed, "stop!" said Little Giant, "I lost my step." They went back to the mark and the command was repeated, one—TWO—THREE! Away they went! Jimmy! didn't they make the mud fly. "Little Giant's" legs were short, but didn't he get over ground? Neck and neck they crossed South Front street; the draymen moved aside as though a cyclone was coming. On they dashed like gusted lightning, passed Watson's and Daniels' ice house; the countryman's long legs are beginning to tell and he is soon several paces in advance; on he goes and dashes headlong into the dock, high tide at that. A boatman was on the lookout to rescue the successful runner. "Little Giant" hurried back to the stand and took down his ten dollars. The countryman came up dripping and shivering and demanded the stakes. The judge quickly handed him his ten dollars. "Where is the other ten?" asked the shivering man in astonishment. "The bet was," replied the judge, "that the one that got wet first was to take down the stakes he put up. You put up ten dollars and there it is. The countryman no longer shivered from cold but was infuriated at the manner in which he had been duped by his own folly. He turned to look for "Little Giant," but knowing the truth to come he had sought protection as city headquarters.

This countryman will never bet again with a man in town without putting it in writing.

County Commissioners' Proceedings. A special meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of Craven county was held on Thursday, Nov. 22d. Present: W. G. Brinson, S. W. Latham, T. H. Mallison, W. M. Watson. One motion: On S. W. Latham was elected chairman pro tem. The double tax charged to John J. Bryan of No. 3 township for 1888 was remitted upon payment of single tax. The valuation of the lot listed by James Kellum in No. 8 township for 1888 was reduced from $1,000 to $500. Doubled tax on the property of Henry E. Benjamin of No. 8 township for 1888 was remitted upon payment of single tax, the agent authorized to list the property having failed to do so. The bond of J. L. Fowler, keeper of Neuse river ferry, for $1,500 was presented and approved.

The county treasurer presented one hundred and three ferry tickets for various amounts aggregating $880.70 which had been received by him from the Sheriff. It was ordered that a voucher be issued to Isaac Patterson, treasurer, for that amount and the tickets be cancelled and filed.

The petition of Stephen E. Whitford and others asking for a public road in No. 3 township was granted.

The petition of Barney Fulcher, Brice Roe and others was laid over until first Monday in January.

The petition of A. K. Parry and others asking for a public road was granted and the Sheriff ordered to summon a jury for that purpose.

The bond of Ismet Petcher, keeper of ferry across Neuse river was presented and approved by the board.

The committee appointed to audit the accounts of Jas. A. Bryan, chairman of the board, covering the construction and building of the court house, submitted the following report, which was approved and adopted and ordered to be spread upon the minutes of the board.

To the Commissioners of Craven County GENTLEMEN:—The undersigned committee appointed to audit the accounts of the chairman of the board, covering the cost of construction of the court house, and the amount of "back taxes" collected by him for account of Craven county, beg to report, that they have examined said accounts and vouchers and receipts submitted therewith and find them correct.

They beg further to report that the total expenditures involved in the erection of the court house, beginning January 8th 1882, and ending July 17th 1888, including $102.50, insurance, and $117.18, interest on note given trustees of New Bern Academy for lot on which the building is partly located, amount to $34,213.74.

They also report that the back taxes collected for account of Craven county, the payment of the same beginning December 31st, 1886, and ending October 31st, 1888, amounts to $5,099.75, for which the chairman holds receipts of the treasurer of the county. In view of the fact that it has been customary since the creation of boards of commissioners to compensate the members of said board when called to perform public services other than those rendered in their official capacity, and in view of the further fact that the chairman of this board was called upon to superintend the construction of the jail and court house, which services involved the handling and expenditure of over $40,000, and his personal attention for several years, and in view of the still further fact that it appears, that by his personal supervision and care, he was enabled to save and did save to the county several thousand dollars in the reduced prices at which he purchased the materials and supplies used in the construction of said building, for all of which he has never received a penny, your committee suggests that the board issue to him as compensation for said services a voucher for $250 to be used in payment of county taxes.

S. W. LATHAM, W. M. WATSON, THOS. H. MALLISON.

The report was adopted, Commissioners Latham, Watson and Mallison voting in the affirmative. Commissioner Brinson voted aye as to the correctness of the accounts, but nay as to the amount recommended to be paid to the chairman for his services.

Vouchers issued since January 1st, 1888, amounting in the aggregate to $41.50, were presented by R. G. Mosley, for support of poor are made receivable in payment of county current taxes.

Vouchers amounting in the aggregate to $16.00 issued since January 1st, 1888, to Norman Ippock were made receivable in payment of county current taxes.

Petition of Silas Fulcher and others for public road was granted.

Petition of W. J. Stilly and others for a public road was granted.

Bi is were allowed and the board adjourned.

Murder and Robbery. SHELBY, N. C., Nov. 22.—The most horrible and cold-blooded murder in the annals of Cleveland county was committed last night. Shortly after dark James Philbrook, a thirty aged sedentary farmer, sixty years old, who lives four miles west of Shelby, was called to the back door of his house by a man who said he had a note from a friend, and shot down a most cold-blooded way, one ball entering his right breast and the other the roof of the mouth. Philbrook's wife, who had followed him to the door, was compelled to surrender all the money she had—a ten dollar bill and about three dollars in silver. The murderer then entered the house and said to his wife, as her husband had just sold seven hales of cotton, he offered him her legs and told him to search the house, and that the worst strike a light, the wind coming from the open door having extinguished the lamp. As the struck a match the burglar put his pistol to her face and shot her under her left eye, the ball ranging downward. She then made his escape.

Mrs. Philbrook was unconscious for about half an hour, when with great effort she made her way to the house of Harry Swelbelle, and another in-law, about fifty yards away. Her letter heard the shot, but thought Philbrook had been shot, and she did not know what to do.

She was taken to the hospital at Shelby, N. C., where she is now lying. She is expected to recover.

For Sale, ONE THOUSAND ACRES OF LAND, suitable for all tracks. Also stock ranch. Good site for lumber mill at Spikes Point on creek and river. J. F. CLARK, New Bern, N. C.

was unloading lumber. He at once summoned assistance, but the murderer had made his escape, leaving no track behind him. Mrs. Philbrook could not identify the man, but says she thinks he is either a white man or a bright mulatto. He was evidently acquainted with the premises. Philbrook and wife lived alone, their children having married, or being at school.

Sheriff Henrick with a posse is in search of the murderer, but has no certain clue. The people of Shelby are greatly excited over the tragedy, and if the man is caught tonight he will be lynched. The murderer was alone.
