METHODISM

The meeting of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South...

It was not the design of Wesley to organize a church. He loved the church of England. It was as sacred to him as was the temple to the Jews at Jerusalem.

But, through Wesley, God was fitting up a banner that would be an ensign to the nations. He was laying the foundations of a church that should be to His praise and glory world without end!

At the Conference of 1755 the question of separate and independent organization was discussed, but after protracted debate, it was decided to be inexpedient to form a separate church.

In 1770 the members of Wesley's societies had increased to 29,179. Methodism in America, as in Great Britain, was at first an arm of the church of England, without ordained ministers and without ordinances.

West Indies. In 1791 it numbered 233 circuits, 549 traveling preachers and 134,000 members.

Political agitations had entered the Methodist Episcopal Church, and in 1844 the Methodists of the South withdrew from that body and formed the Methodist Episcopal Church South...

It is the vanguard of civilization. Wherever on this sin-cursed planet there is an aspiration for holiness, there Methodism goes with its enlightening and christianizing power.

Jones County Items

Eggs are remarkably scarce. What has become of the annual fruit tree agents?

Farmers report a very sorry yield of sweet potatoes.

Farmers say the weather is rough for gathering crops.

We learn that the cholera has caused a short crop of hogs for fattening with us.

Gardens are extremely sorry and the terrapin crop has been badly damaged by the heavy rains.

Mr. Lewis King put up a new steam saw mill about three miles from Trenton and is sawing some very fine lumber.

The members of Trenton Farmer's Alliance are earnestly requested to attend at Trenton on Saturday, the 8th of December next.

On Tuesday night last the jail fence was discovered to be on fire. A few buckets of water extinguished it.

Farmers around here will soon feel real independent as hog killing is near at hand.

Our weather and crop prophets are again prognosticating that short crops and bad seasons will end after 1890, then will come seven years of 'bounteous yields' which will make the farmers' old barns creak and groan so they say.

We would like to see our farmers in Jones unite together and establish a tannery and utilize our beef hides instead of selling them at a low price and then depend on buying even our back bands and hame strings as we are now doing.

Robert Smith and his son, J. H. Smith, with William Simmons, all colored, were before Esquire Page on the charge of stealing and secreting the meat of one of Mr. Andrew Banks' hogs.

Trenton had quite a crowd on Saturday, some trading, some selling farm products, some discussing politics while a considerable portion had imbibed very freely of the "O be joyful" and felt just able to buy out Jay Gould or Vanderbilt and then have a remainder left; some looked like they could thrash a Sampson.

We heard a Republican remark on Saturday last that it was useless for the Southern States to vote so strongly against the Northern States to keep up the solid South that the North were too strong for us.

We would like to have Blaine, Foraker and Ingalls attend a Republican county nominating convention in Trenton composed as it generally is with about 20 colored delegates and a white ones and let about one quarter of the white delegates be candidates and let times wax hot.

ADVISE TO MOTHERS. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children's teething.

Washington and Vicinity. Mr. D. L. Burgess was in town on the 21st.

Business is dull and the prospects are not at all flattering for a revival.

The Washington and Myers are awaiting a red tape process—in-spection.

Court convales on the 21st. A large criminal docket will engross its whole term.

The Disciples of Christ held on Sunday their first communion service in this town.

The steamer Beaufort did not get in on Thursday the regular day, but got in on Friday with the biggest freight of the season.

Married at Bath, on the 21st inst., Mr. Jas. Marsh (representative elect) to Miss Mattie Binbor, Mr. N. C. Price officiating.

The small ball on the court house being worn out or broken by the constant ringing during the campaign, a larger one is being put up in the yard.

There was a small building used as a store and owned by a negro named Oscar Hodges burned about 7 o'clock p. m. on the 22d inst.

We note with great pleasure that Mr. H. A. Latham, editor of the Gazette, whose zealous labors during the campaign contributed in no small degree to the success of the Democracy in Beaufort county, is an aspirant for the position of reading clerk of the House of Representatives.
