The Bergner & Engel BREWING CO.'S PHILADELPHIA LAGER BEER,

IS UNQUESTIONABLY THE Finest Beer Extant.

It is brewed from the finest Pale Canada West Barley Malt and Laazer Heps, and highly recommended for its TONIC and NU-TRITIVE qualities.

The high reputation enjoyed by the BERGNER & ENGEL As the Turk a moment waited to make OMPANY is due to the fact that only the FINEST AND BEST Swift the sabre fell, but swifter bent MATERIALS are used and that the greatest SKILL and CARE are exercised during its manufacture.

Stewart, Bainbridge, Rull, Decatur, how their names ring out like gold!

Lawrence, Porter, Trippe, Macdonough, and a score as true and bold;

Every star th stilights their banner tells the glory that they won;

But one common sailor's glory is the splendor of the sun.

Reuben James was first to follow when Decatur laid aboard Of the lofty Turkish galley and in bata dozen, undismayed.

Till a bullet broke his sword arm, and he dropped the useless blade.

Then a swinging Turkish sabre clove his left and brought him low, Like z gallant bark, dismasted, at the mercy of the foe. Little mercy knows the corsair; high his blade was raised to slay, When a righer prize allured him where Decatur struggling lay.

'Help!'' the Turkish leader shouted. and his trusty comrade sprung, And hist scimeter like lightning o'er the Yankee Captain swung.

Reuben James disabled, armless, saw the sabre flash on high, Saw Decatur shrink before it, heard the pirate's taunting cry,

Saw, in half the time I tell it, how a sailor brave and true Still might show a bloody pirate what dying man can do.

Quick he struggled, stumbling, sliding the sailor's head below.

And upon his renceless forehead Reuben James received the blow !

So was saved our brave Decatur ; so the common sailor died ; So the love that moves the lowly lifts the great to fame and pride.

Yet we grudge him not his honors, for whom love like this had birth, For God never ranks His sailors by the register of earth!

Washington's Treatment of a Debtor. One Reuben Rouzy, of Virginia, owed Washington one thousand pounds. While Washington was President of the United States, one of his agents brought an action for the money, judgment was obtained, and execution was issued against the body of the defendant, who was taken to jail. He had considerable lauded estate, but this of property could not be seld in Virginia unless at the discretion of the owner. lying in jail to selling his land.

A friend hinted to him that probably Washington knew nothing of the preceeding, and advised him to send the President a petition, with a statement of the circumstances. He did so, and the next peet from Philadelphia, after the arrival of his petition, brought him an order for his immediate release, together with a full discharge, and a reprimand to the agent for having so mand to the agent for having so retail Poor Reprint the second of the second acted. Poor Ronzy was consequently restored to his family.

Providence smiled upon the labors of the grateful family, and in a few years Rousy enjoyed the exquisite pleasure of being able to pay the money with interest to the Boot and Shoe Maker, HORER, LA., May 25, 1885—The Swift Specific Co., A tlants, Go.—Gentlemen I about two years ago my general health gave way entirely. I was a debilitated that I almost despaired of ever feeling well again. All that the physicians done for me brought so permanent relief. Friends insisted that should give S. S. S. a fair trial, although I thought is would be throwing away money. After taking a thorough course, my health and strength returned and I must say that S. S. S. alone cured me, as I discarded all others while using it. As a tonic I can most heartfly recommend it; for general debility, it certainly is a specific. W. F. Bringes, J. P.
