Views About It. The editor of the State Chronicle writes a long article from New Berne concerning the A. & N. O. R.

Before noticing the points made by the Chronicle we wish to assure the people outside of New Berne and Craven county that the people here feel a much greater interest in the management of the road than in who shall manage it. To be sure they desire and demand that 'the Directors and State proxy be appointed from the section of country interested in the management and eye-glasses have attained throughand not from Raleigh and Chatham out the U.S. has led unscrupulous percounty, places that have but little or no interest in it.

Now we wish Governor Fowle to understand, that however unpopular Mr. Bryan may be, or however great the demand for his removal, the movement set on foot here is not for the purpose of securing positions for any particular persons, but for the purpose of making the A. & N.
