WHITE CAPS have made their appearance in Pennsylvania.

GEN. BOULANGER is pressing to the front, and speaks of being President of France.

HAPPY is the man who at the close of the year has his accounts all settled and cash in the bank.

AS THE year closes let us forget the bitterness of political contests and the acrimony of personal jealousies and be at peace with God and all mankind.

GOV. GORDON, says the Macon Telegraph, sold his plantation near Etter a few days ago to the Flint River Land and Live Stock Company for $240,000.

THE tariff question is here to stay. Men will not be silent under a system that robs them of their hard earning and puts them in the pockets of monopolists.

ANOTHER terrible disaster has occurred on the Mississippi river. A steamer was burned Monday night, and of one hundred persons on board only fourteen are known to be saved.

It is reported that Senatorial candidates are presenting their claims, and that Minister Jarvis is running on his looks. His picture has been taken and appears in several newspapers.

THE Comptroller of the Currency has declared a second dividend of 10 per cent. in favor of the creditors of the National Bank of Raleigh, N. C., making in all 30 per cent. on the claims proved.

A LATE cablegram from Pan, France, states that Rev. Dr. Boyce, chairman of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, was dying at that place. He went abroad for his health several months ago.

It is probable that the management of the Panama canal will pass into the hands of the French Government, and in that event, serious complications may arise between France and the United States.

THERE is a conflict of National and State authorities at Austin, Texas. Gen. Stanley and his aide have been arrested while executing an order of ejectment from the Secretary of War. What further action in the matter will be taken by the government has not yet been determined.

THE Charleston Cotton Exchange on last Wednesday unanimously resolved to appoint a special committee to investigate changes made in the Legislature and elsewhere, that combinations exist in Charleston whereby the underwriters and others are systematically defrauded.

THE Republicans insist on the division of the Southern vote, but they only mean the division of the Southern white vote. They want the Southern colored vote polled in full, and they expect it to be solidly Republican.

Nettie Hatch, a colored woman living up town, and whose mind has been partially deranged for some time, is now reported to be insane.

A colored woman, about sixty years old, named Sylvia Lucas, dropped dead of heart disease at Craven Corner church, near Hatlowe Creek, while leading in the last prayer at a sunrise meeting on Christmas morning.

This issue of the JOURNAL contains accounts of several accidents in this community and adjoining counties during the holidays. Some of them are sad, and stories and have left grief stricken families who have the deepest sympathy of many friends.

The Cora Van Tassel Dramatic Company make their first appearance in New Berne Monday night in "Cherry Ripe," a scene of rural life in New England. They will continue through the week at popular prices. Tickets for admission to the gallery will be sold at the west door of the theatre building at 15 cents each.

Fatal Accident.
On Christmas day Mr. Augustus Riggs, a young man living on Bear creek, Onslow county, was in the act of firing a gun, the gun burst and blew his brain out, killing him instantly. Mr. Riggs was about twenty years old and was employed on the farm with Mr. Robert Freshwater.

Tournament at Bell's Ferry.
The young people of Bell's Ferry and community will have a grand tournament and ball on the 3d day of January, 1889. Music will be furnished by the New Berne band, and the public are cordially invited. Dr. S. E. Woods, Messrs. C. P. Gaskins and C. M. A. Griffin are the judges; F. P. Johnson and W. S. Blount, marshals.

Neck Broken.
Mr. C. D. Meadows, an old citizen of about sixty years, of Jones county, near Mayville, was found dead in the road near Capt. C. D. Foy's on the night of the 27th. He had started to Mayville in his buggy and being under the influence of liquor, fell out of the buggy and broke his neck. It was so clearly an accident that an inquest was deemed unnecessary, and he was taken to his home for burial.

Personal.
Mr. K. P. Partlow and daughter of Makenfield, E. L., are on a visit to New Berne stopping at the residence of our townsmen, Mr. R. F. Williams.
We are pleased to see Rev. H. W. Estle, who was confined to his room a few days ago, out again and attending to his pastoral work.
John E. Nunn, Esq., of Logan county, Arkansas, is on a visit to his brother, H. S. Nunn.
Major George Credle of Hyde county is spending the holidays in the city. He looks as fresh and trim as a college boy of sixteen. Don't believe he does much work in the sun.
Mr. Ned Farnell of Onslow county is in the city.

CHRISTMAS.

Christmas has come and gone. Wherever the blessed light of Christianity has penetrated the day has been celebrated. Some hailed it with revelry; some greeted it with sportive movement, others welcomed the sacred morn. that gave the Saviour to the world, with reverent praise and hallowed prayer. All swelled the anthem that bathed in universal joy.

Little children were made happy; the sorrowing were comforted; and the kindly amenities of social life strengthened the ties of friendship, and made more beautiful a world rejoicing in the glad sunlight.

We should also be better because of Christmas. Better men, better women and better children.

The song of the angels, "Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, good will to men," is still sounding through the earth, making melody on land and sea; roaring in ocean billows; echoing along the mountains; whispering in the winds;—illuminating the minds and making glad the hearts of men.

In New Berne the day was perfect in its loveliness, and all was in sympathy with magnificent nature.

Appropriate religious services were held at the Catholic and Episcopal churches. We attended the former, and were especially charmed by the music. Miss Nellie Walker presided at the organ with consummate skill.

After church comes the Christmas dinner. All homes are not equally blessed, all dinners are not alike sumptuous, but every Christmas dinner is a joy and benediction.

After dinner a large number of citizens visited the Fair ground. And, what a surprise! Every one expected to see improvement but no one had imagined the beauty and elegance of the place. We do not believe that there is anything of the kind in the State that equals it. The buildings are elegant and admirably adapted to the purpose for which they are intended. The whole arrangement is superb, and the directors are entitled to a unanimous vote of thanks by the entire community.

When we arrived on the grounds a game of base ball was in progress. It was well played and most of the numerous spectators evinced their pleasure as it advanced. We confess that we knew nothing of base ball, but had we been the most enthusiastic admirer of the national game we could not have observed it close because of the marvelous display of beauty all around us. Troy had her Helen and Paris, her Eugene, but the beauty of New Berne's daughters will not suffer by the comparison.

The impulse given to the approaching Fair, on last Tuesday, insures the most brilliant success. Strangers will come from abroad, the North and the South will gather here, their beauty and their civility, but New Berne will suffer no eclipse by knights or ladies come they whence they may.

A Sad and Fatal Accident.
Our community was sadly shocked on Thursday night when the awful news was received that Johnnie Jordan, the only son of Col. and Mrs. J. V. Jordan, of this city, had been wounded unto death by the accidental discharge of a shot gun in the hands of Mr. Thomas Lane, one of his best and dearest friends outside of the immediate family. The accident occurred in the neighborhood of Mr. Enoch Lane's, father of the young man who carried the gun that fired the fatal shot, about twenty miles from the city.

It seems that a party of young gentlemen were out hunting, among whom were young Jordan and Mr. Lane. The latter jumped across a ditch, a briar or bush catching the hammer of the gun, the muzzle of which was pointing to the rear. The gun fired and the entire load entered the breast of Mr. Jordan, who was but a few paces behind.

This was about 9 p. m. on Thursday, and he died just before sun-set, having been taken to the house of a Mr. Daugherty near by. He was perfectly conscious up to within a few minutes of his death. His favorite dog coming up during the time he extended his hand talking to the dog by the foot and bade him good-bye. He remains were brought to the city yesterday and the lifeless form was gazed upon by many warm friends and relatives.

Col. Jordan and family are overwhelmed with grief; it is a heavy load to them; their numerous friends, deeply sympathizing with them, in Johnnie's behalf, made about thirteen years old, was much beloved by his relatives; and friends, especially those who were with him when the sad accident occurred.

The funeral will take place tomorrow, Sunday, afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Telephone Extension.

Mr. F. Ulrich, manager of the Jones, Carteret and Onslow telephone line, informs us that the line has been completed to Mayville, Jones county. Quick communication with every neighborhood in her territory is one of the needs of New Berne. We ought to have railroad connection with Onslow county; we have known this for many years; everybody in Onslow county knows it. The question now is, why can't we have it.

Caught at Last.
News comes from Carteret of the capture of Tom Hancock, a man who had been charged with a series of crimes recently, and who had succeeded in escaping the vigilance of the officers. He was captured after receiving a gun shot wound in the thigh, and was taken to the jail in Beaufort. He is charged with breaking into the store of Watson, Daniels & Bell at Morehead City; with stealing a horse of W. S. Bell at Newport; with stealing a horse and mule from another party in Carteret county, and with breaking into and robbing some other store. About eighty dollars worth of goods were taken from Watson, Daniels & Bell's store at Morehead City, a portion of which have been recovered.

The Kinsey School.
Joseph Kinsey, Principal of the Kinsey School, came in to insert an "ad" for the spring term of his school, which appears in this issue. Desiring to know something of the progress he is making, we questioned him about this way:

Judging from the liberal advertising you do, you believe in printer's ink.
Yes, it's the next best thing I can do.
If it's the next best thing what's the best?
Seeing the people in person.
How is your school this term, and what is your enrollment?
The school is still improving, and we have enrolled 97 to date. We have added an art department and it's quite a success. The class numbers 17.
How many teachers have you this term?
Well, we have Miss Tull in charge of the primary department. Miss Bettie Kinsey in charge of the advanced pupils in chapel, whose duty is to keep order and send out classes to the different teachers at the proper time. Miss Pell, the teacher of instrumental music and calisthenics. Miss Watson teacher of vocal and instrumental music. Miss Farnham teacher of German, French and painting and drawing. Also Miss Lulu Whitfield who renders general assistance in the school.
Do you do any teaching yourself?
Yes, I teach Latin and mathematics and keep busy all the time.
Where do you get meat of your patronage?
We get the meat of it from Lenoir. The 30 boarders are representatives of Hyde, Pamlico, Craven, Onslow, Duplin, Pitt, Greene, Martin, Washington, Johnson, Chatham and Jones counties, except four who are from Florida.
How is your music class compared with last year?
Better, as we have over 50 pupils and use six pianos.
The above is about the substance of the questions asked and answers received, and goes to show what can be done by determined effort and push. This school has grown up within three years in a village of less than a thousand inhabitants with two schools there when it began. We trust the readers of the JOURNAL who have daughters to educate will give the Kinsey School a trial, and cause the Principal to continue to feel that he is advertising in the right paper.

DIED.
In the city of Baltimore at the Carrollton Hotel on Tuesday, December the 18th, Thomas M. Keeri, in the 63d year of his age.
In the Baltimore Morning Herald of the 19th inst. we find the following:
Mr. Thomas M. Keeri, a wealthy retired lawyer, died suddenly about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon of heart trouble, in his room at the Carrollton Hotel. Up to Monday afternoon he was enjoying his usually good health and conversed cheerfully with the attaches and others about the house. That night he suffered with indigestion. Dr. Scarff was sent for, and Mr. Keeri was soon relieved. Yesterday he felt trouble came on, which in a short while resulted in death. Mr. Keeri was well known in Baltimore and in Europe, having been a descendant from a noble family of Bavaria. He was a graduate of Princeton College, and for a short while practiced law in this city. For many years he has devoted his time to the care of his property and to traveling, having frequently visited Europe. He was 63 years old, but active and energetic and an accomplished conversationalist and scholar.
His grandfather, Dr. Henry Keeri, came to Baltimore in 1793 and engaged in the practice of medicine. Dr. Keeri married the daughter of Jacob Myers, a prominent merchant of that time and one of the founders of the German Presbyterian Church, which for a long time stood at the corner of Baltimore and Front streets.

Mr. Keeri's father was George Henry Keeri. His mother was Miss Susan Mundell, of Prince George's county, Md., daughter of Thomas Mundell, a descendant of General Leslie, the famous Scotch commander of the 17th century.
Mr. Keeri married a daughter of Judge Donnell, of New Berne, N. C., who, with one son, Eversfield Fraser Keeri, survives him. Their oldest child, John Robert Donnell, was killed when 15 years old by a stage accident in the White mountains. Mr. Eversfield F. Keeri, who is practicing law in New York, was telegraphed for and came to Baltimore last night. In 1869 Mr. Keeri purchased the well-known residence, Woodley, on Lafayette avenue, and occupied it until a few years ago, since which time he has, when in the city made his home at the Carrollton. The family has been identified with the history of Baltimore ever since the Revolution. Their coat-of-arms is very old, and the genealogical tree in their possession dates back to 1650.
Mr. Keeri graduated at Princeton College in his eighteenth year, bearing off the first honors of his class.
At the time of his death he was a member of Grace Protestant Episcopal Church of Baltimore.
