THE World claims that the New York Legislature is "cutting the cancer, and that there will not be such wholesale buying of votes hereafter."

THE fact that Mrs. J. G. Blaine has been called to Washington is taken as an indication that her husband will be Harrison's Secretary of State.

THE election to fill the vacant seat in the French Chamber of Deputies for the department of Charante resulted in a victory for the Bonlangists.

GOVERNOR SCALES considers the laws of North Carolina ample to prevent corruption, and hence will make no recommendation to the Legislature on the subject.

THE inauguration committee informs all persons wishing to visit the Capitol during the Harrison and Morton inaugural ceremonies on March 4th next, that they can secure good rooms and board at private houses throughout the city, at prices ranging from $2 to $4 per day, by communicating with Col. L. P. Wright, chairman of the public comfort committee.

IT will be noticed that Senators Vance, Blackburn and Hampton were the only Senators who voted against the Edmond's resolution. We do not consider this vote evidence of their opposition to the Monroe Doctrine. Probably they considered the resolution as unnecessary, and really offensive to the nations with whom we are at peace.

THE following is the Edmond's joint resolution as it passed the Senate:

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the government of the United States will look with serious concern and disapproval upon connection of any European government with the construction or control of any ship canal across the Isthmus of Darien, or across Central America, and that no such connection or control as injurious to the just rights and interests of the United States, and as a menace to their welfare.

"Sec. 2. That the President be, and he is hereby requested to communicate this expression of the views of the Government of the United States to the governments of the countries of Europe."

The Eastern Carolina Dispatch.—Commencing Monday, January 7, 1889, the Eastern Carolina Dispatch will resume its tri-weekly schedule. The steamers Eagle and Vesper will sail from New Bern every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 4 p. m. GEO. HERRISON, Agent.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THOS. GATES—Notice of summons. J. C. WHITTY—Notice of summons.

The business meeting of the Y. M. C. A. has been postponed till next Wednesday night.

Mr. G. W. Moore informs us that canning of oysters will begin at the cannery as soon as the oystermen bring up the oysters.

Mr. Chas. Reizenstein, the energetic treasurer of the Fair Association, was mailing a large number of the premium catalogue yesterday.

We are requested by the Sheriff to state that the licenses of liquor dealers having expired, it is important that they be renewed as early as possible.

The committee of ladies in charge of the ladies' department of the Fair, held an important meeting at Mr. John Dunn's yesterday evening. Everything is getting in order for the most successful Fair ever held in North Carolina.

At the annual election of officers of the New Bern fire department held last night Mr. Wm. Ellis was elected Chief Engineer, E. M. Pavia, first assistant, J. McSorley, Sr., second assistant, and R. A. Richardson, secretary treasurer.

Miss Ednorah Nahar, of Boston, was highly applauded last night. She will appear again tonight at West Street St. Cyrius's school-house in an entire change of programme, including Ben Hur's Chariot Race, and the curse scene in Leah, the Forsaken. Miss Nahar will be in costume. The Raleigh Evening Visitor of July 1st says: "Miss Nahar is undoubtedly a genius. To equal her would be a task for many whose reputation is broader. The Chariot Race from Ben Hur and the curse scene from Leah the Forsaken were wonderful and overwhelming." Reserved seats on sale at John Brown's barber shop.

Complimentary. We have seen a letter in which Dr. Henry E. Sheppard, President of the College of Charleston, South Carolina, speaks in the most exalted terms of the genius and eloquence of our townman, John S. Long, Esq., and of his title to a national reputation. Dr. Sheppard is himself one of the most distinguished sons of North Carolina, and his good opinion is worth something.

Week of Prayer.—Thursday January 10. Reforms. Services tonight at the M. E. Church.

Shipping News.—The steamer Manteo of the O. D. line arrived yesterday morning from Norfolk with a large cargo of general merchandise. She will sail Friday at 12 o'clock on return trip.

The steamer Eagle of the E. C. D. line sailed yesterday with a full cargo of cotton, lumber and general merchandise. The Vesper of this line will arrive today and sail tomorrow afternoon.

The steamer Tahoma will arrive tonight.

The Milk in the Cocosnut.—The State Chronicle is speaking of our Fair says:

It will embrace all exhibits, but fish and oysters will be the leading exhibits. The editor of the Chronicle, when in New Bern a few weeks ago, took a look at the suitable buildings erected for the Fair. They are large and creditable. Ten thousand people ought to be in New Bern to see the exhibit. There is but one way to get there, and that is to induce railroads to reduce the fare to one cent a mile. The experience of the State Fair managers has been that it is the low railroad fare, rather than the exhibit, that brings a big crowd. New Bern will give a novel and attractive exhibit, but if the railroad fare is high only a few will see it. The Chronicle wants 10,000 people to see the Fair, and it knows they will be pleased.

Cheap railroad fare is what we must have to make the Fair a grand success. We intend to make it a success anyhow, but the railroads can do a great deal towards it. The managers of the A. & N. C. R. did a good part by us at the last Fair and it resulted in good for the road also. We hope all the roads will see the advantage in getting cheap rates this year.

We have no hesitation whatever in recommending Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup for children teething or suffering from wind colic, diarrhoea or dysentery.

There are two important considerations, which commend Laxador to general adoption as a staple remedy for all bilious complaints, namely, the purity of its constituents and promptness of action.

The Railroad Meeting Yesterday.

According to previous announcement quite a number of our business men convened at the Board of Trade rooms, with gentlemen from Goldsboro and Charlotte, yesterday.

The meeting was called to order by Jas. A. Bryan who briefly explained its object.

A permanent organization was made by electing Jas. A. Bryan chairman and Jos. E. Robinson and H. S. Nunn secretaries.

Major John Hughes briefly outlined a plan for extending the A. & N. C. R. as agreed upon by the committee appointed by the Board of Trade of New Bern.

Col. Wm. Johnson of Charlotte, being called upon for his views, gave an interesting description of the country lying between Goldsboro and Charlotte and beyond the latter point, and gave strong reasons why the State should consent and aid in an extension of the A. & N. C. R. to that point.

This brought on a lively discussion, which lasted for two or three hours and was participated in by Major Hughes, Col. Johnson, J. J. Wolfenden, Jos. E. Robinson, Capt. S. H. Gray, J. C. Whitty, K. R. Jones, Dr. W. H. H. Cobb, Jas. A. Bryan, Esq., and others.

There was no dispute about the necessity and practicability of an extension, but how it should be done and what plan the General Assembly and the stockholders of the road would accept were the topics discussed. The sale of the State's stock to the C. F. & Y. V. and an extension of the road itself by private subscription and a re-mortgage of the present road were the main points at issue, and without coming to any definite conclusion the meeting adjourned to 7:30 p. m.

The meeting convened again at 7:30 p. m.

The plans for extension of the A. & N. C. R. submitted by Major Hughes and Col. W. Johnson were again taken up, and the one submitted by Col. Johnson was adopted. This plan is to be submitted to a general meeting to be held in Raleigh on the 29th of January at 12 o'clock, at which meeting all the friends of extension are invited to attend or send delegates, and the private stockholders are specially requested to be present.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

The Way to the West.

The Wilmington Messenger which takes a lively interest in all that concerns every section of North Carolina, in speaking of the difficulties in the way of New Bern's progress, says:

New Bern occupies the same position at the head of the great inland system of navigation—the sounds of North Carolina—as Chicago with reference to the great lakes. She is the natural granary of a large and important portion of North Carolina.

But she is hemmed in and cut off. She cannot distribute her cereal collections through the interior of the State, and her trade suffers, and the farmers of the East, who are her customers, suffer. There is but one remedy. That lies in a coast line of railroad to Wilmington, once the principal market of the grain that accumulates at New Bern, from Hyde and the other "North counties," Wilmington and New Bern are mutually interested in a line of direct communication, and intermediate between the two lies Onslow county, ready and anxious to assist in the construction of a road uniting the two cities. We are ready down here, and only await the action of the New Bernians, to begin operations. If they do not move soon, we may begin anyhow, with reference to a connection of our own with Onslow.

But why don't the people of New Bern move? The road would certainly bond for money enough to pay the cost of its construction, and there are surely men of energy and means in New Bern to set such an enterprise on its feet.

Once to New Bern the road would go on to Washington, and bring these two cities in communication with the Albemarle counties. There are the remains of large business for both. Wilmington would then be the deep water outlet for Eastern Carolina, from the Albemarle to the Cape Fear.

Right here is the connection with Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway that New Bern and Eastern Carolina want.

We are anxious for the road from this city to Wilmington but we are also anxious for an extension of the A. & N. C. R.

We hope the time is not far distant when we will have both. In the mean time we trust the Messenger will continue to help us in making an effort to induce our people to action.

THEIR BUSINESS BOOMING.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at R. N. Duffy's drug store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted. For sale, wholesale and retail, at R. N. Duffy's drug store.

The National Bank.

The recent change in the ownership of the majority of the stock in the National Bank names Maj. Hughes as President and J. A. Bryan, Esq., succeeds him.

Maj. Hughes has presided for nearly one year, during which time the bank has prospered as but few institutions of the kind has in the State. He possesses large executive ability and will succeed in whatever capacity he may be called to serve, where executive talent is essential.

Mr. Bryan, who succeeds Maj. Hughes, is a man of close business application and insures the continued success of the institution.

The following is the letter of Maj. Hughes to the stockholders and the resolutions adopted by the directors and stockholders.

NEW BERNE, N. C., Jan. 7, 1889.
To the Stockholders of the National Bank of New Bern:

GENTLEMEN:—As the official relations that have so long existed between us are about to be terminated, I desire, in parting with you, to say that for 21 years I have held the office of President of this bank by the unanimous vote of its stockholders and board of directors. I am now the only officer connected with the bank who held office at the time when I was first elected. During that interval many changes have taken place in its official corps. It has had a Vice-President, Cashiers, and several different boards of directors. Scarcely half dozen of the then stockholders now remain. In taking a retrospective glance over my official career during this long period of time, I feel that I can truthfully say, in laying down my office, that I do so with a clear conscience and clean hands, and I am gratified to be able further to say that the bank has prospered in its affairs so greatly that its stock is now worth over 100 per cent, more than was when I first became President.

I am profoundly grateful to you for your long continued confidence and kindness, and I hope the bank may be so managed that its present prosperity may prove an earnest of its future success.

I would be doing great injustice to the other officers of the bank, whose fitness, thorough familiarity with, and intelligent discharge of the very arduous and responsible duties of their respective offices have contributed so largely to the present flourishing condition of the institution, if I should omit to commend them heartily to your favorable consideration and well earned confidence, which I now do with great pleasure.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) JOHN HUGHES.

THE NATIONAL BANK OF NEW BERNE, N. C., Jan. 7th, 1889.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors, held this day, on motion, the following paper was adopted and ordered to be spread upon the minutes.

We, the Board of Directors, desire to record our appreciation of the pleasant and harmonious relations that have for so many years existed between the President and the Directors of this Bank; and to express our regret at the prospect of losing from the board our esteemed President, Major John Hughes.

2. We hereby express our appreciation of the value of the services of Major Hughes to the Bank, as a wise, conservative and prudent President, ever watchful for the interests of the Bank; courteous and mindful of the wishes and needs of the community and of the customers of the Bank.

3. We congratulate him on his success as President (during the past twenty-one years) in largely aiding to bring the affairs of the Bank from comparative ruin to a marked prosperity; and we extend to him in his retirement from the position of President, our warmest sympathies and our best wishes for his future success and happiness.

At a meeting of the stockholders, held Jan. 8th, the above was read and unanimously endorsed and approved.

A true copy. G. H. ROBERTS,
Cashier, and Sec. of the Board.

Female Minstrels.

A theatrical performance by female minstrels is a new departure in New Bern, the novelty of which attracted a good crowd last night. Conspicuous through the audience were sundry bald-heads who showed not the least dissatisfaction.

The women were beautiful and gorgeously arrayed in rich costumes. The jokes were new and met with rounds of applause. The musical portion of the program was very good and often encored. All were delighted with the performance.

Another Candidate for the Cabinet.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 6.—Judge Samuel P. Rice, of Montgomery, will be recommended to Gen. Harrison as a representative Southern man to go into the Cabinet. He has been Chief Justice of the Alabama Supreme Court, but has taken little part in politics in the last few years. He is sixty-five years old and the most prominent lawyer in Alabama.

"How you brudder Ben?" "Me? Lor sister Charity, poorly sure's you born, I is wid de rheumatic a creepin' all about same as a tame snake." "Chile, buy Salvatica Oil, dey cure sartin'."

"The shorter the tunnel the sweeter the kiss, but the older the cold the harder the cure. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has broken many stubborn coughs."

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

ORGANIZATION COMPLETE.

LEAZAR ELECTED SPEAKER.

TITLE ATTEMPT AT BUNCOMBE BY THE REPUBLICANS IN SENATE.

The General Assembly convened in Raleigh yesterday. The following special to the Journal was received last night:

RALEIGH, Jan. 9.
The opening of the session of the Legislature today was in bright contrast to that two years ago. Almost every member was present at noon when President Siedman called the Senate to order, while Chief Clerk Bulla performed same service in House. A number are new to duty but are a substantial and fine looking body. There are only eight negroes of which two are in the Senate.

When Senate roll was called it was found that there were contests in two districts in 7th J. J. Groom contested seat of T. M. Emery of Halifax and in 26th A. M. Long contested that of J. T. Legrand.

Senate elected as its officers: R. M. Furman, principal clerk, D. E. Nelson, reading clerk, Wiley A. Clifton, doorkeeper, A. M. Noble, assistant doorkeeper, Mike Bradshaw, engrossing clerk. These were all Democratic caucus nominees chosen last night. The Republicans, led by V. A. Lusk, made an absurd attempt at buncombe by nominating and speaking for wounded Confederate soldiers in exchange against the Democratic nominees. There was a strict party vote each time.

The Senate disposed of its business quite early and adjourned.

When roll of House was called it was found that there was quite a list of contests. These were noted as follows: From Bertie, Lneas Kouliac contested E. R. Outlaw a seat, Graham, Joel I. Crisp, seat of Reuben Carver, Halifax, Jas. M. Pittman and Christopher J. Baker, seats of W. H. Anthony and T. H. Taylor, Jones, F. F. Green, seat of E. M. Fosseur, Pender, R. M. Cross, seat of R. C. Johnson, Richmond, John B. Covington, seat of T. J. Wooten, Wake, I. M. Green, seat of I. D. Bauchom. Contestants are in all instances Republicans.

Election of speaker was held, and Leazar, who was nominated by M. E. Carter, beat Z. Y. Waler, Rep. candidate, 81 to 77. Leazar was escorted to chair by T. H. Sutton and Waler, and made a speech so true in temper and tone that it attracted an unusual degree of attention.

The House then elected its other officers: T. B. Womack, principal clerk, H. A. Latham, reading clerk, D. R. Julian, principal doorkeeper, G. I. Kilpatrick, assistant doorkeeper, W. T. Crawford, engrossing clerk, J. M. Brown will be elected enrolling clerk.
