THE approaching fair will go far beyond anything of the kind ever seen in this State.

GOLD dollars are practically out of circulation, and can only be bought from bankers at a premium.

THE Voice claims that Fisk was counted out. Fisk and Dockery should hold an indignation meeting.

THE people along the projected line of the North Carolina Railroad are enthusiastic advocates of extension.

ST. PAUL, MINN., is denied the pleasure of an ice palace and carnival this winter on account of the mildness of the weather.

THE Democratic members of the Legislature will meet in caucus tonight to nominate a candidate for the United States Senate. May the best man win.

YOUNG men should meet all the duties of life with indomitable energy and unconquerable courage. "We're beaten back in many a fray, Yet never strength we borrow; And where our vanguard treads today, Our rear shall camp tomorrow."

GOVERNOR SCALES is a good man and has made a good Governor, but the people of Eastern North Carolina do not think that justice has been done them during his administration.

THE Voice is calling on all Prohibitionists to contribute twenty-five cents towards a campaign fund for 1892. It is the early bird that catches the worm, and it is the early worm that gets caught.

GOVERNOR-ELECT FOWLE is a big formed, big brained and big hearted man. We do not expect him to transcend his official obligation to Eastern North Carolina, but we do expect justice at his hands.

THE Democratic position in regard to suffrage is unchanged. The ballot is an opinion recorded, a choice expressed, a conviction crystallized. It means manhood enthroned. It should be freely cast and honestly counted.

WHAT'S in a name? A club in Tennessee which meets once a week to play checkers has taken the name of "The Seacoast Fishing and Shooting Club." A company of wide-waking, rollicking young fellows in Alabama was called The Sleeping Beauties.

"DESTROY the cave, ignorance and you destroy the mole, crime." What is required to make these phantoms vanish? Light, floods of light. Not a single bat can resist the dawn, so light up the lower strata of society.

THE total yield of California vineyards during the past year was 17,000,000 gallons, an increase of 1,000,000 gallons over the previous year. Of this amount 4,000,000 gallons will be distilled, producing about 600,000 gallons of brandy. The remainder of 13,000,000 gallons will consist of dry and sweet wines.

THE Voice, Prohibition organ of New York, convicts Matt Quay, President of the Republican National Committee, I. S. Clarkson, vice President and W. W. Dudley, Treasurer, of having bought for $250 cash, the mailing list of that paper, knowing at the time that it was stolen.

The police in chasing a colored wife beater on Sunday morning before day, found it necessary to fire off a pistol several times in order to frighten him into a surrender. He was captured and taken before the Mayor yesterday and fined one penny and cost.

We will be glad to receive names from persons where they think said names might come to our Fair so that we can mail them a copy of the Fair edition. Furnish us a list of names, and what is very important, write them in English. Our mailing clerk is not well versed in all the different languages.

The Week of Prayer, which was observed in this city by the New Berne branch of the Evangelical Alliance, closed on Sunday evening with a sermon by Rev. L. W. Crawford. A large audience was present, the music was fine and the sermon one of the best we ever heard from Mr. Crawford. It was appropriate, impressive and full of earnestness.

Premium Lists.
The officer of the Fair Association have a few more copies of the premium list on hand which can be obtained on application.

Personal.
Clement Manly and M. DeW. Stevenson, Esqs., left for Pender court yesterday where they go to try an important case.

Capt. H. W. Wahab and Sheriff Tunnel of Hyde county, arrived on Sunday and will leave for Raleigh this morning.

Mr. O. Marks returned from Richmond last night and brings the welcome news that Mrs. Marks is improving.

N. J. Rouse, Esq., of Kinston, and Mr. W. L. Kennedy of Falling Creek, arrived last night.

Admitted to Bail.
A considerable crowd gathered at the court house yesterday to hear the preliminary trial of Jesse Dunston charged with the murder of Joe Herring. Justice W. M. Watson, who had associated with him Justice Wm. G. Brinson, heard the case. Solicitor Geo. H. White appeared for the State and Jas. E. O'Hara, Esq., for the prisoner.

Several witnesses were introduced on the part of the State to show the killing. The substance of the testimony was that the two boys, Joe Herring and Jesse Dunston, both colored, were employed at the stables on the left of the Henderson House and got into a quarrel; Herring, the larger of the two, was advancing on Dunston, and striking at him; Dunston struck at Herring once or twice with knife and missed him, but the second or third attempt the knife entered the left side of the throat and cut in two the internal jugular vein and he was carried into Dr. Street's office unconscious. Dr. F. Duffy was immediately sent for, Dr. Street being absent, and took steps to revive him by artificial means which succeeded. He was taken home and died in a few hours. It was in evidence that the deceased was fifteen or twenty pounds heavier than the prisoner; had threatened to beat the prisoner and was advancing on him when he struck the fatal blow.

After argument by counsel the prisoner was held in the sum of one thousand dollars for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court. Failing to give the bond he was recommitted to jail.

EAST CAROLINA FISH, OYSTER, GAME, AND Industrial Association.

Governor D. C. Fowle, Senators Vance and Hanson, and other prominent men to be present.

The second annual exhibit of the East Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association will be formally opened in New Berne on the 19th of February by Governor Daniel G. Fowle. We call special attention to the following arrangements for transporting articles to and from the Fair:

All articles intended for exhibition at the Fair will be transported upon payment of freight at regular rates, and receipted bill will be given to shipper by railroad agent, specifying articles in details and charges on each article. This receipted bill accompanied by certificate from the Secretary of the Fair Association that the articles specified were exhibited at the Fair will entitle the original shipper of such articles to free transportation of them back to the original shipping point. On delivery of any such articles after they have been transported back to station from which they were shipped in the first instance, the original shipper may return the receipted freight bill to the agent of the railroad company, and if accompanied by the certificate of exhibition, the agent will refund the freight paid on such articles as are returned. Unless demand is made by the shipper to have freight refunded at the time articles are delivered to him on their return, all right of claim will be forfeited. The above does not apply to race horses or horses used in tournaments.

The committee will take every precaution in its power to secure the safety of all articles and stock, after arrival and arrangements for exhibition, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur.

The grounds are nicely located and easily reached, being directly on the line of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, and a train will be run from the city to the grounds and return at short intervals; also cabs and carriages from all principal streets in the city.

Hotel and boarding house accommodations are fully up to the requirements of the occasion.

Strenuous efforts will be put forth to make this the most attractive and most successful Fair yet held by the Association.

The grounds and buildings will be lighted throughout by electric lights.

Embraced among the various amusements on the Fair grounds will be tournaments, base ball matches, polo games, sack races, climbing greased pole, walking and running races, barrel races, &c.

I have been a great sufferer from catarrh for over ten years had it very bad, could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep—had to walk the floor. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm and am using it freely. It is working a cure surely. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the only medicine now all others made to cure catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I thank God I have found a remedy I can use with safety and that does all that is claimed for it. It is curing my catarrh.—B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

Deadlock Broken.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12. It was generally understood about half an hour before the House met that the deadlock would be broken today, and one of the appropriation bills taken up for consideration immediately. Just how this result was to be attained was a mystery, except to a few members who have been taking an active part in the proceeding during the past few days. It was understood that Mr. Weaver would refrain from making any further dilatory motions, as that gentleman while admitting the fact, expressed himself as satisfied with the prospects for the Oklahoma bill.

Information as to the terms upon which he had capitulated was anxiously sought by many interested Representatives, but information was generally refused by those in Mr. Weaver's confidence.

One of the rumors current was that the Oklahoma people had learned that it was the programme of their opposition to allow the Oklahoma bill to come up immediately, and then kill it by an adverse vote, which, if true, would of course be ample reason for their failure to further insist on its consideration. Another story was to the effect that Mr. Weaver had been promised an opportunity to call up the bill on one of the last six days of the session, when it might be put through under a suspension of the rules, but the most probable explanation, (as appeared later upon the presentation of Mr. Randall's motion to rescind the rule requiring adjournment at 5 o'clock every afternoon) is that with unlimited sessions before them, the Oklahoma people believe that if they can get their bill up again before the House they can tire out the opposition and secure its passage. It is said to be a condition of Mr. Weaver's surrender that the committee on rules will report Mr. Randall's resolution favorably at the earliest opportunity.
