JAMES REDMOND WHOLESALE LIQUOR DEALER, has just received a good assortment of Native Wines and Brandies, and also some of the famous California Wine known as the "Angelica," made from the famous and delicious Angelica Grape. This Grape is only successfully cultivated in the Southern part of California. It is a very delicate grape and requires certain conditions of climate to bring it to excellence, which conditions are only met in that paradise of the United States. His native North Carolina Wines and Brandies from the vineyards of Garrett & Co. and J. Wharton Green are of very superior quality and are very pure. fe2 lm

My parched Coffee are just splendid. Try a pound and be convinced—25, 30 and 35 cents per pound.

To any merchant in or out of the city I will sell Lorillard Snuff by the keg at 40 cents per lb., less 2 per cent off, for cash. Very respectfully,

It is now said that "Me Too" will get there.

HARRISON complains that his friends talk too much.

ARCHDUKE RUDOLPH, Austrian Crown Prince, died of apoplexy last Wednesday.

THE Arkansas Legislature has re-elected James K. Berry to the United States Senate.

BLAINE is nervous. He is afraid the Samoan affair will be settled before he "takes a hand at the job."

CONKLING'S ghost don't stand the ghost of a chance of frightening Harrison out of the appointment of Blaine.

"BENJAMIN HARRISON will be 55 years, 6 months and 14 days old when he is inaugurated President of the United States."

MRS. NELLIE GRANT SARTORIS, who it will be remembered married an Englishman, is now on a visit to her mother in New York city.

MRS. HARRISON is said to be a very quiet woman, who never encourages gossiping and absolutely abhors all manner of defamation.

JOHN M. CLAYTON, of Arkansas, brother of the once noted Powell Clayton, was assassinated by unknown persons last Sunday night.

It is remarked that Dudley is suing New York newspapers in blocks of four. But he keeps as many blocks as possible between him and the court room.

INFORMATION has been received that Prince Bismarck has sent a communication to this government in relation to Samoa, which will arrive by due course of mail.

We have been asked to assist the Star in its fight with the Chicago Tribune. We have only to say, that when the Star had concluded, the argument was exhausted.

If Mr. Harrison cannot bribe Southern man as Indiana floaters were bribed, he is expected to reach them by giving them offices. One scheme is as much a sale as the other, and they are equally as honorable. — Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Now comes the report that Sir Julian Ponceforte has been offered the English mission to Washington. Ponceforte will be more acceptable than Sackville, whose forte is not diplomacy."

GEN. FELIX AUGUS says that "next to being President, the best thing in life is to be an editor." He must have been the little fellow who, in a class of two, boasted that he was next to head.

"ROB INGERSOLL has been black-balled in the Players' Club on account of his agnosticism. He was proposed by Edwin Booth." Poor Ingersoll! Not even Booth's endorsement can make agnosticism current in theatrical circles.

A CORRESPONDENT of the World finds that the Stalwarts of Oneida county, Mr. Conkling's late home, are bitterly indignant over the prospect that Mr. Blaine will be in Gen. Harrison's Cabinet. They feel that they have been deceived because a gentleman close to Gen. Harrison wrote a letter to Mr. Theodore Pomeroy last fall before the election assuring him in effect that Mr. Blaine would have no part in the Administration.

The Ground Hog Today.
When the ground hog comes out today if he sees his shadow he goes quickly back to his quarters, being admonished by this simple but certain indication that winter is not over, and that he should keep in the winter root sometime yet. Early truck growers and others interested in this matter have but to watch the movements of this weather wise animal today and await development for further and fuller information.

The Elizabeth City Economist gives the following notice of the Fair: "We are indebted to the managers of the Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Fair, to be held in New Berne on February 10, 20 21 and 22, for an invitation to attend. Our heart yearns to do so, and if possible, we shall be there, for we regard it as a pleasant occasion, and as one of the great auxiliaries in the progress not only of New Berne but of all Eastern Carolina."

A Missionary on Africa.

To the Americans of today the fate of the great American explorer and German adventurer, Mr. H. M. Stanley and Emin Bey, is a matter of especial interest.

Before leaving Ogoombia eastern Sudan Central Africa last September, 1887, for Mouldourene, Egypt to meet the Khedive (nee King) Tewfik to ascertain who owned in fact the territory on which we lived proposed to establish a missionary colony, for the four following authorities owned it in theory, to wit: Tewfik, Khedive of Egypt; Sading, Mahdi of Saunking Sultan Victoria, Queen of England, E. of India, and Ali Ben Sed, Sultan of Turkey. Therefore before erecting a permanent Bungalow, for headquarters, it is necessary to strike the key note, so as to avoid future trouble; as my Khedive informed me the Khedive of Egypt would visit Mouldourene on the Nile river. So to avoid going to Cairo, I made all haste to reach Mouldourene before the Khedive left, to arrange matters with him in case he in reality owned the territory in fact.

My several tours threw me in constant contact with various bands and Bedouin Arabs, and small roving detachments of "Oyooos soldiers," the latter belonging to the command of Osman Digna, chief of the Mahdi's forces. Of course I made various inquiries as to the whereabouts of Messrs. Stanley and Emin Bey. So suspicious were the soldiers of Osman Digna, that I had to be very careful as to how I asked questions on the matter. So I even had to liberally reward them financially, in more cases than one before they would talk about it. So at last I had the pleasure of interviewing Sooka Ami, one of the petty chiefs of the Oyooos, on the matter, after helping his private purse to fit-out seeches (245.00) I learned from him that Stanley and Emin Bey were prisoners of the Mahdi near Greshubnia, the capital of that country, and that there being no political dispute between the Mahdi, and the U. S. government Stanley was apprehended for encroaching upon the Mahdi's territory without permission, with an armed band. Also he informed me that just as soon as the territorial dispute was settled Stanley would be set at liberty, providing he gave satisfaction to the Mahdi.

To my questions as to the writing of the Omani Digna letter, Sooka Ami became suddenly silent, but laconically said that it was none of my business, but intimated that by the paying of a liberal ransom to the Mahdi, Stanley might be set at liberty. Upon my informing Sooka Ami that the U. S. government paid tribute to no nation, he quickly replied that unless some one complied with the terms of the Mahdi Stanley would never leave Sudan alive.

A press of business hindered me from visiting Mr. Stanley, so I have not seen him personally since the 19th of December, 1887, but heard from him by letter nearly every month up to October 20th 1888, the time of my departure for the United States.

Abandoned the Idea.
PARIS, January 30.—M. Floquet, in receiving the bureaux of the Extreme Left, said that he had considered the advisability of resigning, but had abandoned the idea, deciding to face the intrigues and attacks of his opponents. He said he would ask the Chamber for a vote of confidence. He was introduced to act energetically and would introduce immediately a bill increasing the stringency of the code relating to attacks upon the Constitution and public laws. Also a measure affecting the press law. He would not propose to dissolve the League of Patriots, such a step would be useless as it would not prevent the members from forming a fresh league.

S. R. STREET, Chm'n.

I have been a sufferer from catarrh for the past eight years. Having tried a number of remedies advertised as "cure cures" without obtaining any relief, I had resolved never to take any other patent medicine, when a friend advised me to try Ely's Cream Balm. I did so with great reluctance, but can now testify with pleasure that after using it for six weeks I believe myself cured. It is a most agreeable remedy—an invaluable Balm.—Joseph Stewart, 624 Grand Av., Brooklyn.

He goes armed with credentials from the Secretary of State, and announcing that he is the accredited agent of the government to secure a copy of the certificate deposited with the judge of one of the district courts of Florida by the Florida electors. He will probably return Saturday and deliver the document to Mr. Ingalls, President of the Senate.
