"I have been troubled for some years with a complication of difficulties. After trying various remedies, and not finding relief. I tried Paint's Celesy Compound. Before taking one full bottle the long troublesome symptoms began to subside, and I can truly say now, that I feel like a new man. Direction has improved, and I have gained ten pounds in weight since I have commenced taking the Compound."

Upon whose tender cheek the roses blew. Her ripe and luscious lips besweet with dew, Where ruby portals, cupid cut, and where In milky sheen, shone pearls beyond

Her bonny ourls had filched the sunny

Of amber-tinted grain which ripening Beneath her faithful "Davy's" nurt'ing

The azure mist on old Baid Mountain's peak Mirrored itself her laughing eyes

While on the velvet of her ruddy cheek And on the softness of her rounded chin, The dimples timidly played hide and

ED. A. OLDHAM.

A Lost Handieraft Recovered.

From Mr. Albert Fleming's arthe revival by him of "Hand Spinning and Weaving in Westmoreland," we quote as follows: "First of all, to answer the question, Does it pay? which is the average Eng-Ishman's first question. I want For Sale my project to be, as all honest schemes ought to be, self supporting; so I am glad to be able to reply that it does pay, even in the hard and fast commercial sense. I had been mindful of a maxim of Mr. Howells, in one of his books, Before you learn to do a thing pray be sure people want it.' I find people do want the Langdale linen, for without advertising or publicity I have orders from all parts of England for many hundreds of yards. And it pays too in a coin, current in another kingdom than this; pays a hundred told in the glad, uncounted treasure of brightened homes and hearths made happy with sweet and honest labor. I reap, too, all to myself, a Mules and Horses. little harvest of pleasant sights and sounds. It gladdens me greatly to pass a cottage door and to hear from within the soft marmur of the wheel. Once, too, on a wild November day, I saw a strange weird vision of the Fates, not Narcissuscrowned, but here alive before me as three Westmoreland women. Little did the three spinsters think as they drew and cut the tangled thread from the distaff that they were setting forth in homely fashion under the crags of Loughrigg the tremendous myth of life and death preached centuries ago under the olive groves of Greece."

A Cheerful Spirit.

Cheerfulness and a festival spirit And wonders, How is it that I can sell fill the soul full of harmony; it so much lower than any one clse? composes music for churches and hearts; it makes and publishes glorifications of God; it produces thankfulness and serves the end of charity; and when the oil of gladness runs over, it makes bright and tall emissions of light and holy fires, reaching up to a cloud, and making joy round about; and, therefore, since it is so innocent, and may be so pious and full of holy advantage, whatsoever can innocently minister to this holy joy does set forward the work of religion and charity. And, Indeed, charity itself, which is the vertical top of all religion, is nothing else but a union of joys concentrated in the heart, and reflected from all the angles of our life and intercourse. It is a rejoicing in God, a gladness in our neighbor's good, a pleasure in doing good, a rejoicing with him; and without love we cannot have any joy at all. with him; and without love we cannot have any joy at all.
