He Could Safely Wear the Watch.

A good story is told of a French advocate, who had made it a rule never to take up a case in which he did not thoroughly believe. One day he chanced to be entertaining a distinguished company at dinner, when he was informed that a client urgently requested an interview.

It turned out to be a man whose acquittal of stealing a watch he had that morning procured. Appearance had been strongly against the prisoner, who, it was thought, had been not a little assisted by the character of his counsel. Doubtless the poor fellow was impatient to express his gratitude, and an audience was not unwillingly accorded. He looked somewhat abashed at the presence of the guests; but, reassured at the kindly tone of the host, began:

"Monsieur, it is about that watch."

"Yes, my friend; I congratulate you on the triumphant vindication of your innocence."

"Then the trial is quite over?"

"Why, of course!"

"And I can't be tried again?"

"Certainly not!"

"They can do nothing more to me?"

"How could they?"

"Then I may safely wear the watch," said the fellow, as he pulled the stolen article from some mysterious recess of his coat and walked off in triumph, leaving the astounded lawyer to the merciless railery of his guests.

Good books improve the mind and afford valuable aid as educators. The publishing house we are dealing with do an immense business and give us such rates for their books as can not be obtained by others than publishers. While these books are real handsome and worthy a place in any library, one other strong point should not be overlooked, the print. The type is large, clear, and will not injure the eyes. A large supply will be kept on hand, but should any selection not be in stock it will require only a short while to order it. Now is a good time to begin or enlarge your nice library. Remember that when books are to be sent by mail, 10c. extra will be required for postage.
