JAMES REDMOND, WHOLESALER LIQUOR DEALER, has just received a good assortment of Native Wines and Brandies, and also some of the famous California Wine known as the "Angelica," made from the famous and delicious Angelica Grape. This Grape is only successfully cultivated in the Southern part of California; it is a very delicate grape and requires certain conditions of climate to bring it to excellence, which conditions are only met in that paradise of the United States. His native North Carolina Wines and Brandies from the vineyards of Garrett & Co. and J. Wharton Green are of very superior quality and are very pure. fe2 1m

A PIN is worth fighting for if a principle is involved.—Admiral Porter.

GEN. LEW WALLACE will probably be the next Minister to Mexico.

THE strike at Fall River, Mass., continues without indication of yielding on either side.

THE lamplighter goes posthaste to business and he always makes light of his work.—Detroit Free Press.

It is said that New Berns is the best place in the State to buy goods. For particulars see advertising columns.

THE National contest in Hayti has degenerated into a war of extermination. Prisoners are hacked to death with fiendish barbarity.

ON Tuesday New Hampshire voted on the Prohibitory Amendment to the Constitution, and it was defeated by a large majority.

THE World says Mrs. Eaton, sister of President Harrison paid $23 on Inauguration Day for a cab to take her from the Arlington Hotel to the Capitol.

ADMIRAL PORTER has full confidence of the success of America in a naval contest with Germany. At the outset Germany might have the advantage, but the tables would be soon turned.

THE American baseballists, now visiting England, have been treated with distinguished consideration in London. The Prince of Wales has been especially gracious, and the Dean of Westminster invited the team to be present at a special service at the Abbey on Sunday.

"THE Virginians" is the name of a new association of New York gentlemen, organized for the special purpose of stimulating public interest in Virginia's history and celebrate notable events in that history. Membership is strictly confined to gentlemen of Virginian birth or ancestry.

THE friends of Boulanger, who were arrested by the French Government, affirm their adherence to the Republic. The public have searched the houses of sixty members of the Patriotic League for incriminating documents but have discovered nothing.

"HERE is a nice kettle of fish," Attorney General Miller has requested District Attorney Watts of West Virginia to resign. This is because Mr. Watts has commenced legal proceedings against leading Republicans for illegal voting and bribery. He has very properly refused to resign and throws on the President the responsibility of his removal.

WHAT is "Mortonism?" It appears to be the raising and contributing of money with which to corrupt voters. It gets its name from our distinguished Vice-President, who is said to have contributed $1,000,000 and to have raised another $1,000,000 for various Republican campaigns. The new Postmaster-General is thought to be guilty of "Mortonism."—Savannah News.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
THE WASHINGTON POST.
C. E. SLOVER—Hams, etc.
NUMA NUNN—Detroit Free Press.
J. F. TAYLOR—Pure corn whiskey.
WANAMAKER & BROWN—Sales agent wanted.

The base ball game yesterday evening between the Heavy Hitters and the King of Diamonds resulted in favor of the former club by 34 to 5.

Ward politics, or any other politics, must not be allowed to interfere with New Berns progress. If offering reasonable inducements will bring us some factories lets have them.

Major Dennison is driving piling around his Trent river front above the railroad bridge with a view of filling in. It will secure him about two acres of valuable river front.

The Baltimore Manufacturer's Record has shown for the last two or three years that there has been a steady flow of capital to the South for manufacturing. Let us bring some of it to New Berns.

A few factories with our already extensive saw mills, other industries and extensive truck farms, will make New Berns the liveliest town in the State. Concert of action and earnest work will bring these.

Remember that in subscribing to the bonus fund for a factory that it is not paid to the parties unless the factory is established and put to work. It is not money thrown away on an uncertainty.

Every banker, every merchant, every grocer, every real estate owner who has property to lease or rent, would be directly benefited by the building up of factories, therefore all should subscribe to the bonus fund.

The sites offered for factories are available being convenient to both water and railroad transportation. Lets raise a thousand dollar bonus for the first man who will erect a factory on one of these sites with a reasonable amount of capital.

On last Tuesday night at F. M. Bowden's store on Middle street a negro burglar entered the second story from a shed through a window, doubtless for the purpose of concealing himself until Mr. Bowden left. Being discovered he made for the window at which he entered, and after being twice knocked down by Mr. Frank Stilly, who was in the store, finally made his escape. It is thought there is an organized gang of thieves in that portion of the city. The abuse of the colored boy who aided in the arrest of Matthew Bell on Thursday night ought to be investigated. Those who wanted Matthew released must have more than an ordinary interest in his welfare. Matthew's condition is very interesting to them if it involves their own safety.

Personal.

M. Makejy, Esq., the representative of Hyde county, was in the city yesterday on his return from Raleigh.

Dr. Leinster Duffy has returned from Baltimore where he has been attending the college of Physicians and Surgeons.

Miss Nash, of Hillsboro, is in the city visiting the Misses Manly.

Mr. Whedbee, of Baltimore, is in the city.

Dividing the Spoils.

The news comes from Washington, D. C. that an agreement has been made as to the "spoils" to be given out in this city. Robert Hancock is to have the custom house and W. E. Clarke the post-office. These appointments will materially strengthen the Democratic party in this section, but the thing we want made strong now is the pull for a number of factories. All hands can join in this pull whether they be Democrats or Republicans. Subscribe to the factory fund and help the thing along.

Dangerous Fall.

Harry Askins, a boy about twelve years of age, on Craven street, started out for a horseback ride yesterday about 11 o'clock. His Texas pony wanted to go contrary to the way Harry wanted him to go. The pony whirled around a time or two throwing Harry to the ground, he still holding the bridle was dragged a few steps and then pawed on the head by the pony. He was taken up in an unconscious condition but soon rallied and was getting along well yesterday evening.

Take No Step Backward.

New Berns has moved a little within the last two or three years. We have been successful with our Fair, trucking is becoming more practicable and when judiciously managed, more profitable and certain; the cemetery road is under way, and the public building is assured.

When a prudent business man has a successful turn he follows it up. A live town or city will do the same thing. New Berns ought to follow up the success she has had lately and push on new enterprises. A few wood factories and a large cotton factory ought to be in operation by the time the next Fair opens. President Grant once said that the way to resume specie payments was to resume. So the way to get these factories is to get them.

A Young Thief Caught.

Matthew Bell, a colored boy, was caught in the act of breaking into S. H. Scott's store on Middle street Thursday night. He entered the store at the rear by ripping off the window shutter. The watchman passed the window after Matthew had gone in, and while examining the shutter which he thought the wind blew off, Matthew came to make his exit. The watchman commanded him to halt whereupon he ran up stairs and to the front window, walked out on the awning and leaped to the ground, about ten feet. In the meantime, John Henry, the colored boy that works with Mr. Ulrich, had come to the watchman's assistance and was ready to seize on Matthew when he jumped from the awning.

He was taken before Justice Brinson yesterday morning, and confessed that he went in the store and stated further that a man helped him to take off the window shutter.

It is reported that two or three colored men remonstrated with John Henry for intercepting Matthew. If this is true their names ought to be secured and an eye kept on them in the future. A good citizen will not quarrel with another man for intercepting and bringing to justice a thief.

Matthew was held for bail in the sum of one hundred dollars for his appearance at the next term of the superior court.

Inquest into the Killing of Captain Dawson.

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 14.—The inquest of Capt. Dawson's case began and concluded this morning.

Policeman Gordon testified that Dr. McDow, the prisoner, surrendered to him and that he admitted killing Capt. Dawson.

G. W. Harper, a colored hackman, testified that he was on the opposite side of the street when Dawson entered McDow's office; that after the shooting he heard the words, "You said you would take my life; now I have taken yours." Harper testified that a colored woman, a vender of peanuts, was peeping through the window, and that McDow's cook, Emma Drayton, came to the gate and ordered her away.

Moses Johnson, McDow's coachman, testified and denied all knowledge of the killing. He heard a shot in the doctor's office and was ordered by Dr. McDow's wife to investigate the cause, but swore he did not go.

Emma Drayton, the cook, also denied any knowledge of the affair, except as to hearing the pistol shot. She denied a great deal of Moses Johnson's testimony, also the testimony of policeman Gordon and hack driver Harper.

A woman named Jane Mitchell was arrested on suspicion of being the peepster seen at McDow's office window. She was not identified by Harper.

The testimony developed nothing new, and Dr. McDow having declined to make a statement before the jury, the verdict was as follows: "That the deceased, Captain F. W. Dawson, came to his death from a gun shot wound inflicted by a man in the hands of Dr. T. D. McDow, and that Moses Johnson, colored, was an accessory before the fact."

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Chatham Record. The cold weather and the late spring may enable us to have an abundant fruit crop as the buds have hardly yet begun to swell on the peach trees. At every depot the air is laden with the odor of the fragrant fertilizers and every road wagon is hauling it to the farms. Better buy less guano and make more manure.

Wilson Advance. There is some near being a serious conflagration in our busy town last Saturday afternoon. The roof of Mrs. Sue Brewer's residence was discovered to be on fire, but was fortunately extinguished before any serious damage was occasioned. A young man named Hales tripped down in Springfield this evening not long since and began circulating a petition to have himself appointed postmaster in that place. In an hour two he was approached and handed a notice that informed him if he was not out of town in fifteen minutes he would be swung up to the first convenient timber.

Durham Plant. There are repeated and flagrant violations of the local option law in Durham. Not even this we contend is better than the open bar rooms.—We learn that some for a plug tobacco factory has been located, is being manifested in the proposed shoe factory. It is proposed to put a fish memorial in the town of the memory of the late of W. Eugene Morehead.—Walter K. Land, messenger for the National Bank sustained painful injuries, while playing football. It is said that the muscle of one leg, between the knee and thigh is lacerated.

Goldboro Argus. The temperance people of this area are already moving for a summer campaign. Petitions for an election under the local option law are circulating for signatures.—The truck farmers of this vicinity held a preliminary meeting in this city yesterday looking to a permanent organization. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by laws and the meeting adjourned to convene again next Wednesday.—The water workmen are here, Messrs. Fuller and Nelson, refined, affable gentlemen they are too, and they say that they are here to bring work and not stop pushing it in the plant is completed, and the water pulsating throughout the entire system in our city.

Greenville-Kelley. Mr. S. V. Jayner of Heaver Dam township was telling us a few days since how he discovered cholera among his hogs. He says when the disease appeared he killed the sick hogs and has them buried, thus preventing a spread of the disease. Three different times he has tried this with good results, every trace of the disease disappearing when the sick hogs are put out of the way.—Minister Thos. J. Jarvis will open a law office in Green ville.—The cutting of the railroad grade through the large hill this side of the river has been completed. There is comparatively but little more work for the grading force to do. Contracts for the timber needed in the trestle each side of the river have been put out.

Washington Progress. Some Pennsylvania railroad men have made a survey from Jamestown to this town and will continue it on via New Berns to Wilmington, so we are informed.—The fire bell gave the alarm of fire at two o'clock on Saturday night last. The Eastern Dispatch warehouse had taken fire from the stove, but fortunately the watchman on Water street discovered it in time and it was extinguished before it had done little or no damage.—Mr. Francis Joyner tells us that the people up in Pitt county are far advanced in the preparation for the coming crop. They have their lands all broken up, composts put out, and will be ready for planting just as soon as the spring opens up. The farmers are using less guano than ever before. They made good crops last year, paid up their debts and are in a prosperous and hopeful condition.

Greensboro North State. Mr. J. W. Corbie had two barrels of carp on the market, Friday last, which sold readily for 25 cts. apiece. The fish would weigh about 5 lbs. each. They were very pretty (and attracted buyers, but we venture the opinion that the same parties will not purchase the next lot. The carp is a coarse, ill flavored fish—positively worthless as a pan fish.—In the superior court at Graham, last week, Albert L. Rippey was convicted of murder and sentenced to be hanged on the 8th of April. The prisoner shot and killed his father Abel Rippey near McCray's store in Alamance county last December. Rippey was at the time about thirty five years old and his father about sixty five. The murder was cool and deliberate, and one of the most revolting crimes we have ever heard of, the prisoner having invited his father behind the straw stack and placing the gun against his breast shot him dead. The defence in the trial was alcoholic insanity, and the jury did not see it that way. The prisoner appealed to the supreme court.

Roanoke News. Ward, the negro burglar, was not hung on the 8th for the reason that the opinion of the Supreme court was not handed down in time. The Governor will fix the day for his execution.—Mrs. Sarah E. Branch, sister of our townsman, J. L. Bass, Esq., died at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. James Batchelor, near Halifax, Friday night last, after a prolonged illness, aged 73 years.—Mr. A. Pops of this place, brought suit in the present term of the Superior Court for $3,000 damages against the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company for keeping up the pond just south of the town, alleging that it produces malaria and causes sickness.—The citizens of Seaboard have for sometime had a prohibition law, but an extensively signed petition was sent up in the Legislature asking that the law be repealed. The Legislature did so, and Seaboard is no longer a dry town.—The dwelling house near Highman's X Roads, about three miles from here, was burned Monday. It caught fire accidentally. Mr. W. T. Herring had recently purchased it from Gwathmey & Co., Norfolk, and was there making some needed repairs at the time. There was no insurance.

We have no hesitation whatever in recommending Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup for children teething or suffering from wind colic, diarrhoea or dysentery. There are two important considerations which commend Laxador to general adoption as a staple remedy for all bilious complaints, namely, the purity of its constituents and promptness of action.
