THE JOURNAL.

IT CAME UPON THE MIDNISHT CLEAR

ROMUND HAMPLYON SEARS.

It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth,
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good-will to men,
From heaven's all-gracious king."
The world in solemn-stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world:
Above its and and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blossed angels sing.

But with the woes of sin and strife The world has suffered long; Beneath the angel strain have rolled Two thousand years of wrong;

And man, at war with man, hears not The love-song which they bring: Oh, hush the noise, ye men of strife, And hear the angels sing !

And ye, beneath life's crushing load Come swiftly on the wing: Oh, rest beside the weary road.

And hear the angels sing! For, lo! the days are hastening on By prophet bards foresold, When with the ever-circling years Comes round the age of gold:

When peace shall over all the earth Its ancient splendors fling. and the whole world give back the song Whi h now the angels sing.

Bullying the World.

Don't try to bally the world. It doesn't pay. Whoever enters the ring, for a rough and tumble fight eventually, to be "doubled up." If you desire to reform social evils or to disabuse your fellow men of their prejudices, the surest way not to succeed is to resort to denunciation and abuse. Kindness, conciliation, the influence of good example—these are the true and effective means and appliance of reform.

Provoke the world, set its will in arms against you, and you can never carry your point, be it what it may. For mankind has more power to resist than any unit of the mass has to insist. With what mildness, with what patience, with what loving kindness Christianity The World Stands Aghast was taught by its Sacred Founder, and His knowledge of human nature was more profound and perfect than that of any mortal.
