JAMES REDMOND, WHOLESALE LIQUOR DEALER, has just received a good assortment of Native Wines and Brandies, and also some of the famous California Wine known as the "Angelica," made from the famous and delicious Angelica Grape. This Grape is only successfully cultivated in the Southern part of California; it is a very delicate grape and requires certain conditions of climate to bring it to excellence, which conditions are only met in that paradise of the United States. His native North Carolina Wines and Brandies from the vineyard of Garrett & Co. and J. Wharton Green are of very superior quality and are very pure.

To err is human; to keep it from being found out is divine.—Atchison Glove.

JAY GOULD now approaches Mayor Grant with his hat off, and all the newboys stand around to see the show.

It is often said "give him rope and he will hang himself." That's just our opinion of the Harrison administration.

The letter-carriers of New York have sent a strong protest to Washington against the reappointment of Postmaster Pearson.

BIRMINGHAM's last utterances in regard to Samoan affairs indicate perfect agreement between Germany and the United States.

If the Republican party is held to a strict observance of its platform it will scarcely survive the four years of national control upon which it has entered.

The proclamation of the President declaring Behring's Sea a closed sea may lead to complications with England. Excitement prevails at Ottawa, Ont.

The annual migration to Europe will be exceptionally large this year. It is already beginning in fact, and all the signs point to an exodus beyond precedents.—Tribune.

The JOURNAL is in favor of the confirmation by the Senate of the President's nomination. Let the whole responsibility of the Government rest on Republican shoulders.

PRESIDENT HARRISON charges the importunate office-seekers with monopolizing so much of his time that he cannot "turn the reins over so rapidly as he otherwise would."—N. Y. World.

The speech of Secretary Tracy, going to show that a protective tariff will increase the wages of American laborers, is being circulated in the manufacturing districts of the East, much to the disgust of the proprietors of mills and factories.

As is generally known that ex-President Cleveland is now in Cuba. All along his route from New York to Key West he was received with every demonstration of approval and affection.

THE JOURNAL believes in keeping before the people the fundamental principles of the Democratic party because they are essential to the welfare of the people and the prosperity of the country.

THE "gentleman" who stole the mailing list of the New York Voice has been rewarded, and yet Dudley remains in the cold. Why should an exposed hoodler be treated worse than a detected thief?—Nashville American.

It is reported that the Cotton Bagging Trust which suspended at St. Louis under the fire of the farmers has survived. Our farmer friends have only to remember the words of Gen. Taylor at Buena Vista, "a little more grape, Captain Bragg," and down it comes.

New Berne's Fair Heard From.
The news of our late Fair has gone throughout the length and breadth of the land and by the next annual exhibition will be thoroughly advertised throughout the United States, and the third exhibit will begin to approach the full measure of what we can show. The following notice is from the Chicago Belgio-Philosophical Journal of March 19th:
New Berne, N. C., has just held an oyster and game fair, which was largely attended. The exhibits of oysters, clams, shad, rockfish and trout were remarkably fine. The game department was a surprise to all visitors. Live deer, wild geese, ducks, turkeys, swan, partridges, robins and many other birds known to sportsmen were exhibited in great profusion. The agricultural display indicated great natural wealth of resources and products. Over one hundred specimens of marl from several counties were shown, and nearly fifty varieties of natural wood.

ADVICE TO FATHERS.
Mrs. Whelan's SCOTCH SYRUP should always be used for children's coughs. It soothes the child, softens the gums, slays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.
Nashville Arsonist: Mr. William Collins, ex-Treasurer of Franklin county, died of heart disease on the 2d inst. He was a prominent and useful man in his county. Mr. Cromwell Braswell, near Cassatia, met with the misfortune of losing his tobacco barn by fire last Saturday with 2.0 bushels of cotton seed a buggy and most of his farming tools.

Tarboro Southerner: Spinning has begun at the cotton factory, but only on one frame. Since last week the frames for the spoolers have been put up. Now the machinists are at work on the warping machines. Rooms like mumps are catching, and Edgecombe county is not standing idle while its county seat is going forward. The Swift Creek and Shiloh Oil Mills sites, this as well as the proposed one at Conetoe. The idea seems to have gone out that the raw products of the country should be utilized.

Statesville Landmark: J. B. Connolly, the defaulting clerk of the Superior Court, who, with his wife and young-est child, arrived here Tuesday night of last week from Carterville, Ga., where the family had been located, was taken into custody at 9:30 a. m. last Thursday by Sheriff Allison, in the passage of the court house. The sheriff had laid off a dower in north Irredell, Wednesday, and did not reach town until Thursday morning, when he immediately executed his precept upon Connolly, who was waiting for him. The indictments upon which he was arrested were 1, for forgery, in the matter of what is known as the Fred Plyler check, 2, for embezzlement of the Plyler funds, and 3 for failure to make returns as clerk, as the law requires. The sheriff fixed the bonds at $1,000 for the forgery case and $500 each in the other two. The prisoner made fruitless efforts all day and up to 12 o'clock at night to secure bondsmen, and at midnight he was lodged in jail where he remained until Saturday morning, by which time the bonds were made up.

Chatham Record: Mrs. Celia Fields, of Gulf township, died very suddenly on Monday. She was about 90 years old, was the widow of the late Jack Fields, who was a soldier of the war of 1812, and had been living alone for several years, doing her own cooking and waiting on herself. She was found dead in her house, her body lying near a chest, and on a table was a pot of coffee and her supper untouched.—William E. Boudinot died suddenly at his residence, near this place, on last Friday, aged seventy years. On the morning of his death he ate a hearty breakfast, dressed himself, and about 11 o'clock walked into an adjoining room and suddenly falling unconscious, died without a struggle in two or three minutes. He was quite a remarkable character and his life reads somewhat like a romance. He was born at Wilmington, was appointed a cadet at the Naval Academy at Annapolis through the influence of Senator Thomas H. Benton, served for many years as an officer in the United States navy, from which he resigned shortly before the late war, was appointed a captain by the Confederate States government, and ever since the war has resided near Pittsboro. He had travelled all over the civilized world, and had accompanied Commodore Perry, in 1852, on the first expedition to Japan. He was a skilled navigator and a scientist of unusual attainments. He was the first to suggest the signal service system which is now so valuable.

THE SHAD.
"When the angels made shad
The devil was mad,
Because he knew they would be a source of delight;
So to break up the scheme
He plunged into the stream,
And stuck in the bones out of spite.
"When the strawberries red
Fires illumined their bed,
The angels looked down and were grieved.
The devil, 'tis said,
Felt like punching his head,
Because he had stuck all the bones
in the shad."
E. D. B.

"Not Bulk, but Business!"
Is the way a Western man put it, expressing to a friend his complete satisfaction in the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. So small and yet so effectual, they bid fair to supplant entirely the old-style pill. An ever-ready remedy for Sick and Bilious Headache, Biliary Disorders, Constipation and all blood disorders. Mild in action, wonderful in effect. Put up in vials, convenient to carry. Their use attended with no discomfort. These sterling merits account for their great popularity.

DICKENS' WORKS.

HOW TO OBTAIN THEM.
Any subscriber to the DAILY or WEEKLY JOURNAL, who has paid one year in advance, will be entitled to 10 per cent discount on a set of CHAS DICKENS' WORKS. For the money, this is the best edition on the market. Compared with the cost of former, even recent days, it is amazing how the price of standard books are now reduced. This is especially true of the works of Charles Dickens, and the most marvellously cheap edition of his works ever published is unquestionably the "New" edition, now issued by John B. Alden, the "Literary Revolution" publisher, New York, Chicago, and elsewhere. It is printed in good, clear, large-faced nonpareil type (from the same plates as Appleton's Popular Library Edition, price per set $10.00), double-column page, small quarto form, easy for the eye, convenient to handle, and is handsomely bound in cloth, in eight volumes as follows:
List of the Vols.—Over 130 Illustrations.
1. Martin Chuzzlewit, 2. David Copperfield, 3. Barnaby Rudge, 4. Great Expectations, 5. Little Dorrit, 6. Mutual Friend, 7. Hard Times, 8. Pictures from Italy, 9. Uncommon's Traveller, 10. Dombey and Son, 11. Old Curiosity Shop, 12. American Notes, 13. Oliver Twist.

Price Per Vol. $5c. Per Set $3.00.
Size of volume 5 3/4 x 7 1/4 inches; postage, if by mail, 12 cents per volume.
Sample copies can be seen at this office.
