VOL. VIII.—NO. 9.

NEW BERNE, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 1889.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

DICKENS WORKS—The sample copy of the "Box" edition of Dickens is now on hand. Regular library size, good cloth binding and clear print. We club these works complete with either the DAILY or WEEKLY JOURNAL at astonishingly low prices. Call and see sample.

PIDGUES, Cultivators and Harrows at very low prices.

JAMES REDMOND, WHOLESALER LIQUOR DEALER, has just received a good assortment of Native Wines and Brandy, and also some of the famous California Wines known as the "Angelica," made from the famous and delicious Angelica Grapes. This Grapes is only successfully cultivated in the Southern part of California; it is a very delicate grape and requires certain conditions of climate to bring it to excellence, which conditions are only met in that "paradise" of the United States. His native North Carolina Wines and Brandy from the villages of Garrett & Co. and J. Wharton Green are of very superior quality and are very pure.

DENTAL CHEWING GUM—Cleanses, Preserves and Beautifies the teeth and sweetens the breath. Recommended by dentists. Sold by druggists and confectioners. Try it.

FAMILY MEAT CUTTERS at GEO. ALLEN & CO.

FLOWERS for decorations, bouquets, large and small, or floral designs for any purpose furnished on short notice by leaving orders with Sam. Radcliff on Middle street.

FOR SALE—Cow with young calf.

IMPORTED FRENCH BRANDY AND HOLLAND GIN, just received and for sale by JAMES REDMOND.

FERTILIZERS for Truckers and for Cotton Planters, at GEO. ALLEN & CO.

JUST RECEIVED—Another lot of GARRETT'S COGNAC BRANDY for sale by JAMES REDMOND.

ONE Thousand Rolls Wall Paper at very low prices.

PURE WINES AND LIQUORS for Medicinal and other uses for sale by JAMES REDMOND.

EVERY town ought to have an efficient fire department.

SAVANNAH has had another big fire. The losses are placed at $100,000.

We are gratified to learn that the crops in this section were not materially injured by the late cold snap.

Spring, that was so savagely knocked out last Saturday, is slightly disfigured but still in the ring.

In the removals in the postal service of this section, we do not see the Italian hand of Wanamaker, but the bronze fist of Sipio Agricanus.

No one has yet got what he wanted from this administration, but every one except Bradley has accepted what he got.—Philadelphia Times.

We take our hat off to the Goldsboro Argus. Its late anniversary number was just splendid. When Goldsboro does the handsome thing, we participate in the pleasure.

Of our "Georgia Confederate Home" the Atlanta Constitution says: "We are going to build it. That's all there is about it. The movement is but one day old and yet the subscription has passed $10,000. That the next week will see it pass the required limit we have not the shadow of a doubt."

A COMPARISON of the vote just cast in Rhode Island with the Presidential vote in November is interesting and instructive. The total vote is 48,000 against about 40,000 last fall. The Republican vote has fallen off nearly 4,000 and the Democratic vote has increased about the same number. Boodle can't save the tariff lords next time.—N. Y. World.

STANLEY has suffered enough in Africa, for the world's benefit to be enabled to fair play till he can speak for himself. A man like Stanley, with such a record of endurance, sagacity and heroism, is not apt to jeopardize his entire fame by descending to slave trading or any other questionable money getting conspiracy.—Washington Post.

PRESIDENT HARRISON needs rest. He has been in office but little more than a month and yet he wants to get away from Washington for a day or two to breathe fresh air at Fortress Munro. The President is described as looking pale, careworn, half sick. The cares of State weigh heavily on the shoulders of the President, but the importunities of office seekers are irritating, and wear down not only his patience, but his physique.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
C. S. WALLACE—Stock for sale.

Capt. Terry's steamer, Nannie B., is on Howard's ways.

The placing of the rock on the cemetery road is progressing busily.

Stewart's four-in-hand was the attraction on the streets yesterday afternoon.

Capt. E. M. Duguid is making quite an improvement on the corner of Metcalf and Pollock streets.

Quite a batch of colored women was before the Mayor yesterday morning for violating ordinances.

Our neighbor, P. H. Pelletier, Esq., has added to his law practice the business of negotiating loans on short time.

An old angler went out fishing yesterday and returned with two pockets full of perch. Good luck, if his boat had kept off that snag.

The ward meetings for nominating candidates for city councilmen will be held on Monday evening, April 15th. Official notice is given elsewhere.

The storm of Saturday and Sunday last has delayed the oyster boats in bringing up oysters to the cannery. Operations have been suspended for a day or two.

The truckers are shipping radishes and asparagus daily. A truck car goes with the regular mail train and is pretty well loaded every day. The regular truck train will be put on as soon as the peas begin to come in.

New Berne will be represented in the Teachers' Assembly European party, which will sail from New York on the 4th of July, by Miss Maude H. Amyette. This is the only New Bernean found in the list as published in The N. C. Teacher, but the old town will nevertheless be well represented.

There was a lively scene in front of the Cotton Exchange yesterday when a rat made a sortie in search of the enemy and was confronted with a couple of pickets on post. The chase was an exciting one, but the rat made good his retreat and returned without loss to his fortress under the building.

There is great activity in the shops of the A. & N. C. R. now. Engines and cars are being put in repair for the truck traffic and summer travel. The Atlantic hotel will be under first-class management this summer and preparations are being made for a large crowd. Morehead City is without doubt the finest summer resort south of Long Branch, and this fact is being made known throughout the country.

The conductors on the A. & N. C. R. look well to the interest of passengers. An umbrella without label or other means of ascertaining the owner, left on the passenger car, was taken and placed in the baggage car and taken care of for two weeks before the owner called for it. When we remember the difficulty in recovering a lost umbrella this circumstance seems a little bit remarkable and at once proves them to be a clever set. At any rate the owner of the lost umbrella thinks so.

Shipping News.
The steamer Annie of the E. C. D. line sailed yesterday afternoon with cargo of cotton, lumber, truck, etc. The Vesper of this line will arrive today.

The steamer Tahome will arrive this afternoon.

To Rebuild.
Ex-Sheriff Stinson is taking steps to rebuild his dry kiln and will make it large enough to meet the demands of his mill. His loss by the fire was heavy but he has plenty of pluck and knows what work is.

The Opening Ball.
At Avoca on the evening of April 24th, under the auspices of Drs. R. Dilard, W. D. Hathaway and B. A. Capehart, and Mrs. J. C. Wood and Cullen C. Tucker, promises to be one of the most delightful events of the season. Beautiful ladies from every section of the United States will be present to grace the occasion, and nothing will be lacking to make it the most attractive ball given in the South for many years.

Kinston College.

Prof. Thos. Hume, D. D., of the State University will deliver the annual address at Kinston College Commencement on the 30th of May.

The commencement exercises will begin this year one week earlier than usual.

Uncle Abe on the Cyclone.
On Saturday last two colored men were standing in Mr. J. N. Foscoe's yard in Jones county, while the wind was raging fearfully. A black, portentous cloud was approaching from the south-west when George asked:

"Uncle Abe, w-h-w-h-wot is dat yonder?"

"I dunno but looks like er sow-coon" replied Uncle Abe.

Personal.
Joel Kinsey, Esq., was at the Exchange yesterday with cotton.

J. N. Foscoe, Esq., and Mr. F. Wilcox of Jones county, were in the city yesterday.

Mr. A. L. Follett of Durham arrived last night and will spend a week or two at his old home. Says he likes Durham, but New Berne is good enough for him. He complains of his new home because he could not find a walking cane there when he got ready to leave yesterday.

Ex-Sheriff Chas. H. Foy of Jones county, arrived last night.

A Composition on War.
In the March number of the N. C. Teacher we find the composition given below, written by Harlowe Parrott, a thirteen year old student of Kinston College. It was written for the editor of The Teacher, while on a visit there, at the desk without assistance from any one and with no book to consult. Young Parrott is a grandson of James Harlowe Dibble, deceased, who was for many years a prominent citizen of Kinston as a carriage manufacturer and a farmer, and who will long be remembered by the people of Kinston and the adjoining counties, as a kind-hearted, enterprising, good citizen.

WAR.
When one nation fights another they are at war. Wars are destructive. Men fight man and numbers are killed. Some are captured and others die of disease. They are exposed to all weathers. Sometimes insufficiently fed or clothed. Summer hurts the soldier less than any other season, but even then they have to march in the sun, and some have sunstrokes. Some fight in swamps, but can't fight much, for when they try to shoot they sink knee-deep in mud. The swamps give them fevers. In Africa the French soldiers fought the Arabs on the Sahara. There they rode on camels. Sometimes they couldn't get water. Sometimes they were wounded and suffered very much. Sometimes they got limbs shot off and were helpless for life. The French under Napoleon, after the burning of Moscow, beat a retreat through the snow and many were frozen. The Romans made prisoners (taken in battle) and their families slaves or let the wild beasts tear them to pieces. The Indians burnt their prisoners over a slow fire. Whole nations of Indians have been butchered. Liberty comes to us through war sometimes. The first battle was fought by Cain and Abel. Cain killed Abel. War is caused by greediness or revenge. There was once a war in heaven. The devil stayed there then. He got up a rebellion among the angels and he was cast out and fell to earth, bringing down many stars with him. Finding himself outside and no chance of getting back he renewed the warfare. God loves men, therefore the devil does everything in his power to hurt men's souls.

Ladies Auxillary.
At the regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxillary, April 9, a committee of three gentlemen were requested to be appointed from the Young Men's Christian Association to meet Thursday night after prayer meeting at the residence of Mr. K. B. Jones, with the three ladies appointed by the Auxillary, (Misses Mamie Allen, Florence Bryan and Leah Jones,) to confer with them as to the best way of increasing interest in the Association, etc.

Nominating Convention.
At a meeting of the City Democratic Executive Committee, held at the office of the city clerk on April 10th, it was ordered that the electors of the different wards meet at the following places to nominate candidates for members of the city council: 1st ward, at city hall; 2d ward, old engine house on Broad street; 3d ward, Mechanics' hook and ladder house on Middle street; 4th ward, J. B. Lane's shop; 5th ward, Cook's shop; on Monday evening, the 15th inst., at half-past eight o'clock.

IS CONSUMPTION INCURABLE?
Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

James Middlewars, Doan's, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at R. N. Duffy's Wholesale and Retail Drug Store, New Berne, N. C. 12 per dozen, wholesale.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Twin City Daily: Mr. J. J. Robertson, while at work in Vance's machine shop this morning, caught one of his fingers in the cog wheels of one of the machines, severing the finger at the first joint.

Wilmington Review: It has been cold enough here to damage vegetation. Forest fires have been raging in Brunswick county for several days and the light is plainly visible from the city at night.

Biblical Recorder: Rev. William Turner, an aged and most devout servant of Christ, died suddenly of heart disease on Saturday evening, April 6th, while on his way home from his appointment at New Friendship church. Our dear brother died as he had often wished, while in the harness working for the Master. He was one of our most faithful and most beloved pastors, and had devoted a long and consecrated life to the preaching of the gospel.

Charlotte Chronicle: Calvin Locke, Charlotte Steele, and Mattie Davis, all negroes, were arrested yesterday morning on the charge of robbing W. F. Snider's house sometime ago.

Thomas Nielsen, who boards at Mrs. Caldwell's on Fourth street, was waked yesterday morning about 4 o'clock, by a noise at the back door. Going to the door, he saw a man who had been trying to get into the house. The man ran as soon as he heard Mr. Nielsen coming, and jumped another man who was on horseback in the street. They both made their escape as Mr. Nielsen had no firearms. Both men were masked.

Raleigh News and Observer: Upon the opening of the Supreme Court this morning at eleven o'clock, the portrait of the late Hon. John Hall, formerly a Judge of the Supreme Court, will be presented to that tribunal by the relatives of the deceased. The presentation speech will be delivered by Mr. R. H. Battle and the response by Chief Justice Smith. Dr. P. D. Jones, father of conductor P. D. Jones, died at his home in Hillsboro on Saturday, Dr. Jones was about 75 years old, and had been sick for some weeks past. He was one of the most prominent men of Hillsboro, and was well known and respected throughout the State. The funeral took place Sunday.

Durham Tobacco Plant: A petition is being circulated asking the county commissioners to call an election upon local option for the second Monday in June. We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Matilda Woody, eldest sister of our townsman, Rev. A. Walker, which occurred at her home near Bethel Hill, Person county, on Thursday last week. The colored mail agent on the R. & D. road, Nocho, who was displaced some months ago by Mr. James Lumley, of Raleigh, has been reappointed to his former position. Mr. Lumley was an efficient officer and we hear no charges against him. He is a Democrat, though, and this is sufficient cause for removal in the eyes of the powers that be.

Charlotte Daily News: It was pretty cool hereabouts on Saturday and Sunday nights, but the thermometer did not fall lower than 37 degrees. There was no frost and the fruit crop is still safe.

The residence of Mr. D. Rankin, about 8 1/2 miles from Mr. Holly was entirely destroyed by fire, at 11 o'clock last Saturday. The fire originated by a spark from a chimney lodging in the shingles on the roof. Part of the furniture and bedding was saved, but fully one-half of the contents of the house burned. Several out-houses, including one crib, were burned. The loss is $2,000 no insurance. The police had hold of a wild cat this morning. It was Otto Nerwis, who keeps a book store in Dr. Gibbon's building, nearly opposite the Second Presbyterian church, on North Tryon street. It all grew out of Nerwis' impudent refusal to recognize the sanitary laws of the city.

Goldboro Argus: The death of Mr. J. Tyler Smith, in the 49th year of his age, from pneumonia, is reported from his home in the upper section of the county, as occurring Saturday. The deceased was a brother of Mr. R. V. Smith of this city, and of the late Major W. A. Smith of Johnston county. He was well known in this city, where he made frequent visits and conversed with many. The dead body of a young negro man named Isaac Knight, of Greene county, who was in this city last Saturday and left for home in the afternoon in company with two young white men on a wagon, was found Sunday morning near the county gate, on the Snow Hill road. Foul play is suspected, and the two young men, we learn, have been arrested and are now in Snow Hill jail to await an investigation. The board of county commissioners, in adjourned meeting yesterday to consider the local option petition, issued an order in pursuance of the petition submitting the question of "license" to the voters of Goldsboro corporation, the election to be held on the second Monday in June, coming.

$500 Reward offered by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy for an incurable case.
