JAMES REDMOND, WHOLESALE LIQUOR DEALER, has just received a good assortment of Native Wines and Brandies, and also some of the famous California Wines known as the "Angels," made from the famous and delicious Angelos Grapes. This Grapes is only successfully cultivated in the Southern part of California; it is a very delicate grape and requires certain conditions of climate to bring it to perfection, which conditions are only met in that part of the United States. His native North Carolina Wines and Brandies from the vineyards of Garrett & Co. and J. Wharton Green are of very superior quality and are very pure.

SAVANNAH suffered another heavy loss by fire on last Tuesday. The Savannah cotton mill, valued at $150,000, was burned and totally destroyed.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has decided to eradicate the race question. His way of doing it is to appoint white men to office regardless of color.—Kansas City Times.

AT Manson, Iowa, last Tuesday, Robert Schideler and wife were driving when a spark from Schideler's pipe ignited the clothing of his wife, and she was burned to death.

GENERAL and Senator Sherman have joined in the request, it appears, that General Joe Johnston be retained as Commissioner of Railroads and the famous Confederate, it is thought, will be retained in office.—News and Observer.

In the Mormon Conference, Salt Lake, Monday evening, the statistics of the church were presented, showing a total population of 153,911; the entire population is classified, and the church dignitaries alone number over 30,000.—Wilmington Star.

THREE thousand women, representing twenty-two different clubs, held a meeting at Cooper Union, New York, Monday night, and not a man was allowed in the hall. That's as bad as a star chamber session of the Senate.—Washington Post.

THE Belgian government has informally warned Boulanger to abstain from political agitation, which the government will not tolerate. The General has been informed that if he complies with the wishes of the government in this respect he will not be expelled from Belgium.

THE Atlanta Constitution and the Augusta Chronicle are firing at Senator Colquitt. They are making a noise, but as Colquitt is entrenched in the hearts of Georgians they will injure themselves instead of the Senator. He has just been given six more years in the Senate, and he will continue to represent the people, the Constitution and the Chronicle to the contrary notwithstanding.

EX-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND and party passed through Wilson last Friday, and it is said he seemed greatly disappointed in not seeing us at the depot.—Wilson Mirror. That is a mistake. The editor of the Goldsboro Headlight was on the ex-President's car, and Mr. Cleveland would not have permitted the conversation between him and the editor to have been interrupted even if all North Carolina had been at the depot yelling for him.

A BOSTON, MASS., dispatch of the 7th says: Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., the brilliant young pastor of the Dudley Street Baptist Church, announced to his people today that he had accepted the call of the Twenty-third Street Baptist Church, New York. Although but twenty-five years old Mr. Dixon, who is a North Carolinian, was a lawyer and legislator before he was ordained to the ministry at Wake Forest College in 1886. He goes to New York with the intention of building up a popular church, and his admirers here expect to see him succeed. Mr. Dixon is a typical "Tar Heel," tall and dark, with aquiline features, fearless in debate of public questions and a lover of baseball. He will preach his last sermon here on next Sunday.

THE Daily Norfolk Virginian of Tuesday, April 9, says: The storm of Saturday night and Sunday appears to have afflicted Norfolk sorely beyond all other seaports, though future advice may show its effects in another light. The estimated damage in this immediate vicinity will probably range between $400,000 and $600,000. The heavy loss to our energetic and liberal people will elicit general sympathy, and yet it is satisfaction to our people that other sections of Virginia and the country escaped with comparatively small damage. The pluck, courage and enterprise of our people is a guaranty that they will regain their losses in due season. In the midst of their own suffering, they have room in their hearts for condolence for Savannah, because of the terrible devastating fire of Saturday night.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
NUMA NUNN—Detroit Free Press.
SIMMONS & GIBBS—Attorneys at law.
F. ULRICH—Nails for pea boxes, etc.
MRS. SCARBORO & JONES—Spring millinery.

The buildings on the George street extension to the A. & N. C. R. are being moved so as to make room for the cemetery road.

Several more quarries are to be opened on Rocky run or Deep gully for obtaining rock for the cemetery road. The force is making good headway in putting it down.

Capt. T. M. Southgate's many friends will regret to hear that he was prevented from coming on the last trip of the Manteo on account of sickness. We trust that it is not serious.

The local board of Underwriters published a letter in this issue from the South Eastern Tariff Association in regard to property in the neighborhood of the oil stored near the foot of Craven street.

We learn that Rev. H. W. Battle will lecture at Wake Forest College in the early part of May, and deliver the baccalaureate sermon at the Commencement of Chowan Female College in June.

Rev. Mr. Crawford has a large attendance every evening at the M. E. Church. His sermons are plain, practical and simple, but full of earnestness, and persuasiveness, and manifest a deep love for the cause of the Redeemer.

The JOURNAL is indebted to the Middle street clothier, W. B. Flanner, for a number of handsomely gotten up blotters in the shape of "The Gold and Silver" shirt which he keeps in stock. Mr. Flanner has recently opened business in the city and carries a large and attractive stock of clothing, shoes and other goods. He keeps his business before the people in the columns of the JOURNAL, and has a popular and reliable salesman in the person of Mr. B. B. Ball.

Shipping News.

The steamer Manteo of the O. D. line sails this morning for Norfolk at 9 o'clock.

The steamer DeLancey of the Clyde line arrived yesterday afternoon from Baltimore with a cargo of general merchandise. She will leave on return trip this morning.

The steamer Vesper of the E. C. D. line arrived yesterday with a cargo of general merchandise and will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The Annie of this line will arrive tomorrow morning.

New Law Firm.

We publish today the law card of Mr. Simmons & Gibbs, office next door to JOURNAL office.

The firm of Simmons & Manly has dissolved. Mr. Manly is attorney for the banking house of Green, Foy & Co., Mr. Simmons is attorney for the National Bank. Mr. Manly will remain at the old office on Middle street where his friends and patrons will always find him ready to look after their interest with his usual zeal and good judgment.

Mr. Simmons of the new firm needs no commendation from us. He is well known throughout this section as one of the leading lawyers in whose hands the interest of clients never suffer. Mr. Gibbs is a worthy young man who has recently obtained license to practice and possesses the necessary qualities to make a successful lawyer.

New Station at Morehead City.

The A. & N. C. R. has just had completed at Morehead City one of the handsomest stations in the State. It is a two-story building of native pine, trimmings mahogany color, hard wood finish, comfortable seats, water closets, etc., etc.

The second floor is for engineers and conductors' sleeping room; the first floor is the ticket office, baggage room, sleeping room for baggage master and reception room. It is so arranged that an additional reception room can be added if necessary. It is located near the warehouse and supplies a convenience that has been needed for some time. Like other work that has been done on the A. & N. C. R., it is good and substantial.

The Teachers' Assembly.

The next session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly will be held in the hall at Morehead City on the 18th of June to 2d of July. The outlook for a large attendance and a successful session is very promising. Senator Z. B. Vance is expected to deliver the opening address. The Assembly has already given an impetus to education in North Carolina that has been felt throughout the State, and it is capable of accomplishing great good in the future. Every teacher, not already a member, who makes or intends making teaching a business should at once correspond with Capt. Eugene G. Harrell, the Secretary, at Raleigh, with a view of becoming a member.

The Atlantic Hotel will furnish board to all members of the Assembly at $1.00 per day.

The City Election.

Next Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock is the time set apart by the Democrats to assemble in the different wards and nominate candidates for Councilmen to be voted for on the 6th of May.

We wish now to put in a plea for harmony in the Democratic ranks. They have three out of five wards in the city and have complete control of the city government if they so desire. Every voter should attend his ward meeting and make an effort to nominate the best man for the position. Our city election too often turns on who is to be Mayor, who is to be tax collector and who is to be city marshal. The first thing to do is to elect a board of competent gentlemen in whom the people have confidence. This done we can all safely trust them with filling the other positions. Let all, therefore, attend the ward meetings and when the nominations are made, vote for the nominee.

New Bern is ready for a forward move. It is important that her city affairs be administered wisely, prudently and economically. Let there be no scramble, but a determination to elect a good Board of Councilmen.

Charlotte is making it warm for the burglars. Other towns ought to be on the lookout. If run out of Charlotte they will carry their devilry into other places.

Local Board of Fire Underwriters, New Bern, N. C.

The matter in reference to the oil storage was submitted to the Executive Committee at a meeting held on 1st inst. The committee directed me to address you a letter and request your Board to increase the rates 1 per cent on all property effected by this oil storage. The Association would promulgate an increase in rates, but New Bern being an excepted city, it is proper for your Board to take action.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Goldsboro Argus: The electric light that the Argus are so unrelentingly advocated for Goldsboro during all these slow-lapsing months and revolving years, is at length on the eve of materializing into a full fledged, radiant reality.—There are any quantity of letters being received here just at this time by their former employers from numbers of colored people who went West from this section some weeks ago with the exodus fever. Poor, deluded "nigs," went West. And they are asking money to come home on.

Wilson Mirror—Saturday morning Mrs. Robbins, the mother of Mrs. John Y. Moore, yielded to the summons of the Master, whom she had so faithfully served and honored, and went up to that home of rest to live with Him amid the blest.—The protracted meeting at the Methodist church closed on Friday night. A good and glorious work was done in the cause of the Master. Sixty happy souls have found the pearl of great price, and now rejoice over the God given peace which passeth all understanding.—The Rev. Miles S. Reed of Franklin, Virginia, who recently preached a sermon in the Baptist church in this place and made such a fine impression upon all who heard his earnest and fervid and impressive discourse, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the church in this place, and will occupy the pulpit on the first Sunday in May.

Charlotte Chronicle—Yesterday morning, about 4 o'clock the residence of Miss Minnie Bell, corner Third and G streets, was robbed of a great deal of clothing and other articles. The thief entered the front door and robbed three rooms, in two of which persons were sleeping.—Destructive fires are reported in the turpentine regions of Richmond and Moore counties.—On Monday night at Leesville, a drunken man who was put in jail, set fire to the jail to burn his way out. The jail was burned down and the man was burnt up.—The eighth annual meeting of the stockholders of the Mutual Building and Loan Association of Charlotte was held last evening at the Mayor's court room. Among other things, the Secretary's report shows that the average profit is 10 per cent per annum, and that for the past two years all taxes have been paid by the Association.

Elizabeth City Economist—We were informed by one who knew that up to Thursday of last week there had been brought to this town to be reshipped North, sixty thousand more shad than were shipped to the same date last season, and that the fishing interests were greatly increasing, and now exceeded in value all the agricultural products in this vicinity. When our oyster fundum is fully developed we shall see a country of such marvelous resources, such as the world has rarely seen.—Our city dads have done well and generously. At their last meeting they appropriated fifty dollars toward the entertainment of the medical guests who will honor the old town by holding their annual State convention on the 16th, 17th and 18th inst. with us. The sessions of the convention will be open to the public and we are of the opinion that we shall get our jaws so twisted by learned words, that it will take us sometime to get back to the linguistic pork and greens of the English tongue.

Washington Progress—The prisoners made an unsuccessful attempt to break jail on Tuesday night last. They had nearly made good their escape, which would only have required about fifteen minutes longer, when they were discovered and their plans defeated. They had loosened several bars of the same window that Newton made his escape from.—The mill belonging to Mr. Rufus Fleming, located about thirteen miles above here on Tar river, was burned on Wednesday night last. The mill was a new one which was built about one year ago. The mill, 40,000 shingles and 40,000 feet of lumber was all a total loss, with no insurance.—The people of Washington are especially favored at this time with the opportunity of spiritual improvement. The Episcopalians are conducting a special service, it being the Lenten season. There is a series of meetings in progress at the Presbyterian church with considerable interest shown, and the Methodists are conducting a protracted meeting with favorable results. Our colored friends are also at work on this line.

Durham Tobacco Plant: We have heard it stated that Mr. Robinson said on last Thursday, standing on Peabody street looking westward: "I would give $25,000 for the privilege of running my railroad up this street." This was Thursday evening. Saturday night brought a severe blizzard, and five of our reputable city aldermen met and voted the franchise worth, according to Mr. Robinson's own statement, $25,000, free, gratis, and for nothing, besides enforcing damages amounting to thousands of dollars upon the property of some of our best citizens.—We were surprised to learn this morning that Messrs. Bowers & Arendell, dealers in dry goods, had made an assignment. The preferred credits amount to over five thousand dollars.—A warrant was issued today for B. Price to answer the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. It is said that Price passed an advertising bill in imitation of a $100 bill of money, upon the clerk at Vickers' bar, at Hicktown, and obtained therefor one pint of liquor and ninety-nine dollars and seventy-five cents in good money. Price had not been found at our latest advice.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Town Talk.

H—O, John, there is one thing I wish to impress on your mind, that there is the finest lot of samples ever brought to New Bern town at R. Sawyer's, the Fashionable Tailor, and his prices just suits the times.

J—Yes, its true. Just see this suit I have on. It can't be beat for the money in all the towns around.

H—Now, this was once a double-breasted sack and he altered it into a single-breasted sack. If you want to economize R. Sawyer's is the place to go. [April 12-13]
