THE Young Men's Democratic Club of New York have tendered a public dinner to ex-President Cleveland.

NOTHING has been heard from the missing steamer Danmark. It is now probable that she went down with over 600 souls aboard.

THE North German Gazette say that the Boulanger trial is likely to have as paltry a result as the leaders of the Patriotic League.

PRESIDENT HARRISON might wear boxing gloves to receive in, and the reserve the bare knuckles for the bores.—Washington Post.

THE White Protection League down South is an Easter egg that will hatch little turkey buzzards to pick the bones of poor old Cuff. Cuff now works dirt cheap and has to pay a tax on his salt, his clothing, his ax, his knife, his fork, and the Lord knows what not.—Philadelphia Record.

A UNITED press dispatch to the Virginian dated New York, April 16, says: Three bales of cotton sent here from Galveston, Savannah and Atlanta Cotton Exchanges were sold at auction today on the floor of the New York Cotton Exchange for the benefit of the Confederate Soldiers Home at Austin, Tex., and realized $195. The prices paid ranged from 12c. to 14c. per pound.

HISTORY records that when the British man-of-war Glorice was about to sink off the Cape of Good Hope the ship's band stood on deck and played "God Save the King." It may be that Admiral Kimberly remembered this when he ordered the band of the Trenton to play the "Star Spangled Banner" as the gallant flagship was vainly fighting against wind and waves in the harbor at Apia. But whatever may have been his incentive Admiral Kimberly showed himself a hero and a patriot by this romantic deed. So long as the glory of the flag is entrusted to such men as Kimberly and his sailors America need not worry about her fame on the salt seas. Do not such men deserve warships worthy of their manhood?—N. Y. World.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS
STEAMER HOWARD—New schedule.
DUFFY & NIXON—Attorneys at law.

Good Friday.

Look out for the glanders among horses.

The cemetery road force has crossed Pollock street with the laying of the rock.

Four bales of cotton were sold at the Exchange yesterday ranging from 9 1/2 to 10 1/4.

The first sturgeon of the season was brought in yesterday and measured seven feet.

J. W. Stewart has received another lot of horses and mules among which are some very pretty animals.

The Easter eggs and cards at F. S. Duffy's are beautiful. The handiwork of Miss Alice shows up admirably.

The jury to condemn and assess damages on the extension of George street will meet this morning at 9 o'clock at the foot of the street.

Our livery men and those owning stables can not be too careful about glanders. If a case is developed it should be removed at once.

Durham is to vote on local option the second Monday in June. The town already has prohibition but the "antislavery" want another whack at it.

The services at the M. E. Church are being well attended and considerable interest shown. There will be preaching this afternoon at four o'clock and at night also.

Yesterday was a lively day at the Sheriff's office. A number of levies on personal property for taxes were made. The Sheriff will be compelled to settle by the first of May, and for that reason he can no longer delay.

Thomas Canady makes complaint that he is not treated fairly and justly by the city in taking a portion of his lot for George street. We have been assured by Councilman Williams that every effort was made to obtain sufficient width of the street at a fair price, but it was impossible to do so, and the city was forced to condemn it and have damages assessed by a jury as the law requires. We feel sure the city authorities will be just towards all the parties and pay damages as soon as possible.

Personal.

D. E. Sanderlin, Esq., of Onslow arrived last night bringing a lot of corned hams which he banters the State to best.

J. W. Mills, Esq., and W. T. Cox, of Richlands, arrived last night.

Another Law Firm.

The law card of Duffy & Nixon appears in this issue. Mr. Duffy has been a practicing attorney for several years. Mr. Nixon has recently obtained license. They are both young men of fine talent, business capacity and all the necessary qualifications to make a safe, reliable and successful law firm.

Shad Hatching.

We surrender our editorial space today to an interesting interview on shad hatching, found in the Washington Press. Our people remember Mr. S.G. Worth as the fish commissioner of North Carolina and will be glad to know he is successfully prosecuting his favorite study, the artificial propagation of fish, as Superintendent of the Potomac shad hatchery. He shows conclusively in this interview that the increase of shad has been proportionately to the number of shad produced by the hatchery.

Shipping News.

The steamer Annie of the E. C. D. line will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The steamer Vesper of this line will arrive tomorrow.

The steamer Tahoma will sail tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock.

The steamer Mantoo of the O. D. line arrived yesterday and will sail this morning at 9 o'clock for Norfolk.

The steamer Defiance of the Clyde line will arrive from Baltimore this morning and leave on return trip tonight.

Onslow Farmers.
Mr. D. E. Sanderlin of Onslow reports that the farmers of his section are pretty well along with their work, and are preparing more home made fertilizers and using less commercial than formerly. He is an old fashioned, well-to-do farmer that lives at home, and makes corn, hams and lard to sell as well as cotton.

He in company with other gentlemen came to town yesterday over the Quaker Bridge road and found it just passable. A subscription list was in circulation a few days ago to raise money to put it in order. We hope the effort was successful and the work will be done this summer.

Correction.

In yesterday's issue of the JOURNAL it was reported in the "Kinston Items" that Mr. J. C. Wooten, Sr., of South West township, and Miss Annie Henderson were married on Thursday of last week. A letter from Kinston last night informs us that the report was untrue. The item was not furnished us from Kinston but the report was circulated in this city, and we took, as we thought, all necessary precaution to ascertain whether or not it was true, and after hearing it from what we considered a very reliable source, we accepted it as true and published it as a matter of news.

We most humbly beg pardon of Miss Henderson and Mr. Wooten, and feel sure that they would grant it if they knew how we obtained the information.

Glanders at Wilmington.

Our friends in Wilmington are in the midst of an epidemic among the horses. Dr. Wray, a veterinary surgeon of Baltimore, in the employ of the U. S. government, has visited the city and pronounced the disease glanders. The Review says:

Dr. Wray found that the disease was the genuine glanders but hopes that he may be able soon to stamp it out. It is an incurable disease, and is dangerous alike to man and beast—to the latter, we take it, in the way of pyæmia, or blood poisoning, by its introduction to the human system through abrasions of the skin.

Later reports in the Star and Messenger say there are no more new cases.

A Merited Compliment.

Bro. Creecy, of the Economist, in a recent number of that paper, commenting on the paucity of Republican material in the South, and especially in North Carolina, from which President Harrison might select a member of his Cabinet, says:

"There is no Republican in North Carolina of whom we know or have heard that could begin to fill the place except Judge Seymour, of New Bern, and he is too level headed to swap his present judicial life tenure for a place that will become vacant in four years."

A very deserved compliment and one which his fellow-townsmen appreciate.

A Complaint.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Permit me to say through the columns of paper a few words relative to the moving of houses situated on George street. It is said that the city laws demanded 17 feet of our property for the macadamized road. I never was willing to let this perpetration upon the citizens living in that part of the city. But as they said it was city law, and it looks quite strange too, as we have been considered living in the rural district, that the city authorities were so anxious in getting 17 feet of our property after we have paid for it. But any way we gave up on conditions, and they are these: That they would repair all damages. We have been waiting upon them patiently for some days and they have not done one iota relative to agreements. Now our property in this part of the city cost us from $1.00 to $3.00 per foot. This fifty cents per foot was first inaugurated by the trustees of Bethel church, and all the rest of the property along the line had to come down to the fancy figures set by the above named trustees; and I venture to say that not one of those venerable trustees own, personally, any property in this section. Now we are suffering on account of our chimneys being down, and we earnestly hope that the city fathers will do better in the future than they have in the past in keeping their agreements; and build the chimneys run the fences on the line of the 17 feet, of which we agreed for the road, and underpin our houses, and pay damages.

Yours For the Right,
THOMAS CANADY.
New Bern, N. C., April 18, 1889.

A Card.

Having learned that a report is abroad that the recent nominations for councilmen of this city were made in the interest of Mr. Washington Bryan's railroad administration, the undersigned, who presided over the meetings of the second and third wards respectively, desire to assure the public that no mention whatever was made of Mr. Bryan or his administration at either of these meetings, and further that in their opinion no influence was used or sought to be used for or against Mr. Bryan in the selection of the respective candidates.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Goldboro Argus. The case of Mr. Kieffer Demark against the A. & N. C. R. R. has been postponed till the next term of court.—After a due investigation by a properly constituted board of examiners, Mr. W. E. Davis, a painter well known in this city, has been declared insane and ordered to the Asylum.

Asheville Citizen. A number of Cincinnati gentlemen have formed a syndicate to develop the marble lands down near Murphy, N. C., to the extreme southwestern part of the State. The capital of $1,000,000 is all taken, and $150,000 is paid in. In fact work is being done at the quarries now.

Wilmington Star. The surveyors running the line of the Onslow railroad have reached Macomber's Store about seven miles from town.—In the libel suit of Capt. J. T. Harper and others against the British steamship Albany, tried last week in the U. S. District Court at Norfolk, Va., Judge Hughes has decreed an allowance of $15,000 to the libellants.

Durham Tribune. Prof. Miss Lizzie M. Scutgate returned to Durham from New York a few days since, where she has been spending a couple of weeks. It is rumored on good authority that Miss Lizzie is considering a proposition to return to New York and accept a position as assistant in the New York Conservatory of Music at a salary of $1,000.—Yesterday afternoon, after comparing the names of petitioners with the registration book it was found that there were sufficient names upon the lists to secure an election upon local option, whereupon the county commissioners ordered that an election be held on this question in and for the town of Durham, on the second Monday in June next.

Wilmington Messenger. Dr. W. A. Wray, the United States Veterinary Inspector, sent here to investigate the cases of glanders among Messrs. Harper & Boney's horses, completed his examination in the city yesterday. He examined fully two hundred horses, but found no evidence of other cases.—We regret to learn of a painful and serious mishap to Dr. W. T. Finnet, of this city, on Monday morning last at Carysburg, while he was on his way to the annual meeting of the State Medical Society at Elizabeth City. The doctor had been early in the morning and was sitting alone before the fire in his room when he was suddenly taken with hemorrhage of the lungs. He fainted from loss of blood, and slipping for ward with his feet on the fire, was utterly unable to help himself until his left foot was frightfully burned, and his right foot painfully so.

Charlotte Chronicle. Col. D. G. Maxwell yesterday took Miss L. M. Morgan to the asylum in Logansville.—The city Democratic convention, last night, nominated E. R. McDowell as candidate for Mayor of Charlotte.—There was a strike yesterday at the knitting mills at Mt. Holly. About twenty-five hands refused to work, because the superintendent charged to them the needles that were broken while they were at work.—On Monday night a burglar entered one of the houses of the brick row near Gates factory and stole all the clothing he could lay his hands on. Yesterday morning, about 8 o'clock, a burglar entered the residence of F. A. McNinch of this city, and stole a gold watch and chain. He was discovered before he had time to finish his work, but he made his escape.

One Important Thing Needed.

Printer's ink is the medium that has been used all over the world for many years as a general means of advertising. When the art of advertising was in its infancy and men were less informed than they are at present any sort of advertising matter was read because people had more time to read it, but now the world has a great deal more to do, increase of population has given each person more work to perform as a necessary means of success, or even subsistence. To bring about more than ordinary success business people have beset themselves to put their different lines of merchandise before the world in as attractive manner as possible, and competition has made it so that now to even keep pace with those who surround us it is an unquestionable necessity that a man advertise.

Not only with individuals is this a necessary adjunct to success, but with States, cities, towns, localities also has it become a matter of self-preservation. We hardly question the fact that we must progress or not, and so long as we progress be it even so little we can feel encouraged.

Our city is surrounded by natural advantages that are unquestionably superior to many other localities that have prospered far more than we have, and which are still advancing rapidly to still greater prominence. The tide has turned southward. By waiting and biding one's time the future may be necessarily discover us to some inquiring settler looking about for undeveloped fields, but we, the present generation in the mean time have passed into oblivion unknown and unthought.

possible, a very appreciable result would soon be observed.

Important to Firemen.

As announced the executive committee of the State Firemen's Association met yesterday afternoon in the hall of the Capital Hose Reel Company. The object of the meeting was to select a place for the next meeting of the association and the next tournament Raleigh was chosen almost without a dissent and the time for the tournament was set for August 13th and 14th. It was intended to make the next meeting of the association of great interest.

The meeting promises to be of much interest to our firemen, and a gala day for the city. The following are the topics which will be discussed during the meeting.

First. Should not a special tax be levied on insurance companies for the benefit of firemen, and should not the State make an appropriation?

Second. What is the danger from electric wires, and how best to remedy the trouble?

Third. What class of men are best suited to make good firemen?

Fourth. What are the advantages of short-haired engines, and what value of fire engines?

Fifth. Which is the best fire hose, regarding strength, durability, cost and ease in handling, and what style of nozzle is best suited for fire service?

Sixth. Should there not be an inspector in every city whose duty shall be to inspect all buildings and to examine into the causes of all fires?

Seventh. How best shall firemen protect property from water damage?

Eighth. What are the benefits of a chemical engine, and how best used?
