"A FEW days ago Oklahoma was called the Land of Promise. Unfortunately it promised too much."

The popular jewelry establishment of F. D. Johnston & Son, Lynchburg, Va., was destroyed by fire last Saturday.

It seems that the contest for Public Printer has narrowed down to Mr. Nichols of North Carolina and Mr. Osborne of the Pacific Slope, with chances in favor of Mr. Nichols.

THIRTEEN miles of procession in New York on Centennial Day! This beats anything George Washington ever saw—at least before he left the country.—Indianapolis Journal.

VALENTINE, the distinguished Richmond sculptor, was never busier than he is at present. He is at work on the Stonewall Jackson statue, and is rushed with private orders.—Richmond State.

THIS writer was not far from General Pryor when he was captured. He was censured for disobedience of orders in exchanging—or attempting to exchange—papers with the enemy, but nothing more.

THE Washington Post has once or twice referred to editor Roscoe's interview with ex-President Cleveland as the "South Carolina editor's interview." That's just the way of it, somebody is always trying to rob North Carolina of her glory.

ON last Friday the Washington Post received the following by mail: "Hear O earth, for I will speak, and let all the nations of the earth give ear unto my words: The great day of the Almighty is at hand. Yet four days and time shall be no longer.—A PROPHET, Washington, April 26, 1889."

NINE companies of the Fourth Artillery, U. S. A., are to be stationed this summer at the new barracks being erected near Atlanta. Four of the companies will be quartered there permanently, with a large corps of officers and the regimental band. The Government is to spend about $150,000 in building and equipping the barracks.—The State.

WE regret that Mr. J. I. McBee has retired from the editorship of the News and Observer, a position which he has filled "to the entire satisfaction of the company," and the many readers of that excellent paper. Mr. McBee is to be succeeded by Mr. C. T. Grandy of Sampson county, a gentleman of scholarly attainments and journalistic experience. Both gentlemen, as well as the News and Observer, have our best wishes.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

W. P. BURRUS—Brick.
J. F. TAYLOR—Tobacco.
A. & N. C. R.—Truck train.
F. ULRICH—A big break in prices.

Mrs. J. C. Green and children are on a visit to relatives in Raleigh.

Attend the singing class at the Young Men's Christian Association tonight.

The M. E. Church Working Society will meet at the parsonage this evening at 8 o'clock.

Between fifteen hundred and two thousand boxes of peas went over the A. & N. C. R. yesterday.

Elsewhere in this issue is notice of a special truck train for points below New Berne. This train gathers the truck from the different stations and cross roads and brings it to New Berne in time for the fast truck train.

The serious illness of Capt. R. H. Hilton causes much regret and sorrow among his many friends. He has been confined to his room with carbuncle on the nose for several days, and his condition, though more hopeful yesterday, is not entirely satisfactory to his friends.

Governor Hill, of New York, has appointed our townsman Wm. H. Oliver, Esq., a commissioner of deeds for the State of New York. The term of office expires April 27th, 1893. The commission bearing the great seal of the State and the signature of David B. Hill, Governor, countersigned by the Secretary of State has been received by Mr. Oliver, and he will at once enter upon the duties of the office.

There was a very good congregation at the various churches yesterday morning at the hour appointed for prayer and praise. At Christ Church there was held an order of service as appointed by the Bishop of the diocese, and the same, we believe, as held by the various congregations of the P. E. Church throughout the country, which is in main features the same as was used, on the occasion commemorated, 100 years ago at St. Paul's Church in New York city.

The steamer Eagle, of the E. C. D. line, arrived yesterday from Wilmington, Del., where she had been for several weeks undergoing a general overhauling and extensive improvements, chief of which are an entire new boiler and the more recent improvements in machinery. Handsomely painted and all her colors flying in honor of centennial day, she presented a very fine appearance lying at her dock yesterday. The Eagle goes into commission today, sailing this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and is seemingly capacious enough to transport all the truck that growers may want to forward.

Shipping News.
The steamer Eagle, of the E. C. D. Line, will sail this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Annie, of this line, will arrive tomorrow.
The steamer Tahoma will sail tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock.

Will Report Tonight.
J. W. Williams, who attended the emigration convention of negroes at Raleigh, has returned and will report to a mass meeting tonight at the old ice house, near the depot, what was done. He says there was about three thousand in the convention and that it was the most intelligent body of colored men ever assembled in North Carolina.

An Ex-Confederate Gone.
John W. Dowdy died yesterday at his residence in this city, aged about 46 years. He leaves a wife and two children. Funeral from the M. E. Church this afternoon at four o'clock.

Mr. Dowdy when yet in his "teens" volunteered as a private of Co. K, 3d North Carolina Regiment, and went through all the hardships of that regiment during the war between the States. He was a brave, courageous, true and faithful soldier, never shirking duty but always ready when the command was given. His comrades, who bear testimony to his fidelity as a Confederate soldier, will bear his remains to their last resting-place this afternoon. His wife and children have the sympathy of the community.

Building and Loan Association.
Regular assessments are due today. Payments can be made at the National Bank during banking hours.
J. R. B. CARRAWAY, Sec.

I HAVE been deaf in one ear ten years and partially deaf in the other for two months; have been treated by ear specialists, doctors and received no benefit. Having used Ely's Cream Balm for about a month I find myself greatly improved, and can hear well and consider it a most valuable remedy. I had also nasal catarrh, with droppings of mucus into my throat, and pain over my eyes, which troubles also have entirely disappeared.—D. B. Yates, Upper Lisle, Broome Co., N. Y.

The New J. P.'s.

The following are the Justices appointed by the General Assembly for Craven county:

- No. 1 township, Geo. J. Dudley and J. B. Gardner.
- No. 2 township, S. E. Whitford and Geo. R. West.
- No. 3 township, J. E. Kornegay and Joseph Kinsey.
- No. 4 township, Wm. E. Satter and John S. Morton.
- No. 5 township, T. H. Mallison and B. E. Williams.
- No. 6 township, Wm. Foy and G. L. Hardison.
- No. 7 township, W. G. Brinson, H. A. Marshall, W. F. Rountree, S. E. Street, J. J. Tolson, John Humphrey, Wm. M. Watson, W. P. Burrus, Nathan Tisdale, B. B. Lane, C. E. Foy, W. H. Oliver, E. B. Cox, S. W. Smallwood.
- No. 8 township, A. E. Wadsworth, M. W. Carman and John J. Spear.
- All these have qualified except W. E. Satter of the 5th township and T. H. Mallison of the 6th.

A Nation at Prayer.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—As today the whole American nation has, by common consent and at the request of the chief magistrate of our country, been engaged in prayer, I will, with your permission give a brief account of the first prayer in Congress, as I learned it as will be seen below.

EXTRACT FROM A LETTER FROM PHILADELPHIA, 1833.

Another venerable institution that I have always delighted in my visits here was called at today, that is "Carpenter's Hall. This building is well preserved and has the appearance of being still in use as a meeting place for the Society of Carpenters, which was organized in 1724.

Among the relics of interest here is an engraving representing "the first prayer in Congress" with a letter press description of it, and how it came about.

Massachusetts Bay was invaded and the town of Boston thought to have been destroyed by the British forces. In their consternation and helplessness, a member arose and moved that some minister be requested to attend the next morning's session and address a petition to the Throne of Grace. Two members objected, one from Massachusetts, I think, and the other from South Carolina; not because they did not believe in the propriety of it, but the expediency on account of the difference in the religious faith of the members.

There were, they said, members who were Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Anabaptist, Congregationalist and Quakers; and they thought it objectionable to introduce any form of worship not agreeable to all. Some one, of the Puritan faith I believe, stated that he was willing to hear any man of a Godly character and upright life offer prayer, and that he understood, one Mr. Ducho, an Episcopal minister, was such a man, and therefore moved that a committee be appointed to wait upon that gentleman and request his presence for that purpose on tomorrow. The committee was appointed and returned the reply from Mr. Ducho that if his health would permit, he would surely be present. At the hour of meeting he was present with his clerk and in his clerical robes. He read the Psalter for the 7th day of the month, morning prayer, which was the 35th and 36th Psalm, and proceeded with the prayer for the Church of England. But having finished such of the collects as he could appropriately use on the occasion, he closed the book and led off in a most impressive extemporized prayer, especially invoking Divine assistance and blessings upon the congress, and protection to Massachusetts Bay and the town of Boston then under sore trials and afflictions.

The picture represents the congress in the attitude of prayer; some are standing, and others kneeling; one old friend with his hat on. But the earnest countenances and devout appearance of all the members would compare favorably with that of any congress of the present day, no doubt.

A Little Made Miserable
By dyspepsia is scarcely worth the living. A loss of appetite, heartburn, puzzling nervous symptoms, increased action of the heart after eating, sinking in the abdomen between meals, and flatulence after, are among the successive indices of this harassing complaint. Two things only are hopeful for its removal. A resort to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and persistence in its use. These remedial measures being adopted, a cure is certain. Taken immediately before or after meals, this great stomachic promotes secretion of the gastric juice, the natural solvent of the food. The nervous and bilious symptoms consequent upon chronic indigestion disappear, as the complaint gradually yields to the corrective and invigorating influence of the Bitters. Appetite returns, sleep becomes more refreshing, and as a consequence the body is efficiently nourished, muscular power increases and the mind grows sanguine. Use the Bitters for chills and fever, and rheumatism.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Nashville Argonaut. Carpenters have already commenced work on the Methodist parsonage.

Wadesboro Messenger. The fruit trees are beautifully supplied with young fruit.—The Pee Dee Alliance of Lilesville, at a recent meeting, subscribed $10 for the relief of Mr. J. W. Watkins who recently lost his house and all its contents by fire.

Snow Hill Baptist. Kator Ward, a colored man, was drowned in the creek at Fools' Bridge about six miles above here yesterday morning.—Rev. J. E. Thompson closed his meeting at the Methodist church here last Sunday night. Four were added to the church, others reconsecrated themselves to the Lord.

Oxford Ledger. A. P. Fleming, dealer in groceries on Commercial avenue, made an assignment Thursday the 16th inst.—While we are endeavoring to establish new manufacturing enterprises and inviting people from other places to come and abide with us let us not forget the ships and factories we now have.

Winston Sentinel. Capt. A. H. A. Williams has secured from Meredith (Crows, of Granville) and presented to the United States ground company the identical gun that Caleb Crows carried through the Revolution—Mr. J. W. Reid, who moved to Los Angeles Cal. about a year ago has returned with his family to Winston. He is looking well and speaks in high terms of California. He may decide to remain in Winston.

La Grange Sentinel. There will be a picnic under the auspices of the Farmers' Alliance at the New Bridge, on Saturday the 4th day of May and addresses will be made by Messrs. H. E. Shaw, W. A. Hardin and J. M. Mowborn. We are requested to say that all friends and sympathizers are cordially invited.—Monday night at nine o'clock the barn of Mr. J. A. Hattery, at Beaton, was burned. The building was a total loss, with about 100 barrels of corn. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary, as a copper match box was found on the premises. No insurance.

Fayetteville Observer. Mr. D. Cameron, of Keyser, was shot down from an ambush about three miles from his home Saturday night last with a double barreled shot gun, one lead taking effect in the back of his head and the other in his hip, causing almost instant death. Suspicion rests on one W. A. Deans, who has been arrested and is on trial at Charlotte this week, charged with the perpetration of this atrocious crime. Mr. Cameron is a relative to our countryman, Sam Cameron of Quailville.

Murphy Bulletin. There are twenty-five carpenters in Murphy and all are at work on the numerous buildings that are being erected. The city is more carpenters.—Prof. Robinson showed us last Saturday a beautiful specimen of granite which was found near Hawassee river. It was polished and was equal to any that we ever saw.—Over seven hundred carp. have been removed with in the past week, from R. H. Hyatt's fish pond, and placed in his new pond on the Meroney farm near town, and yet the number remaining in the old pond seems as great as ever, some of these fish weigh four or five pounds.

Rockingham Rocket. The old eye-ore on the academy lot, by courtesy called an academy in former days, is at last to come down and give place to a nice brick building.—The present outlook indicates an enormous quantity of fruit this year.—Some fiend tried to burn the dwelling of R. J. Lockhart at Laurinburg last Thursday night while the family were absent at church. The wretch broke into the house, knocked a hole through the plastering and stuffed it full of straw and scattered straw and rags over the floor, saturated the whole with kerosene oil and set fire to it. The fire was discovered and put out before much damage was done.

Newton Enterprise. Two car loads of negroes went up the Western road Sunday on their way to Arkansas.—There have been a good many farmers in town this week, and all are elated over the fruit prospect. They say there will be the largest crop of peaches this year we have had in a long time, and the apple trees are just over doing themselves blooming.—Mr. James Herman of Hickory township, is the owner of monocrotly in the shape of a colt. It has five legs, the fifth growing out from the shoulder of one of the front legs. The deformity is such that it will never be of any practical use, but Mr. Herman will probably keep it as a curiosity.

Fayetteville Observer. We had a pleasant chat with Mr. Perry, one of the gentlemen in charge of the construction of the MacKay Bennett and Postal telegraph company's wires for the new line of telegraph. Mr. P. reports fine progress in construction of the line and thinks Fayetteville will be in telegraph communication with Washington City and all points North and West via the new line, on or about the first of June.—The patriotism of the historic town of Fayetteville—the first capital city of the upper Cape Fear—made a prompt response to the call of a mass meeting of our citizens in town hall Tuesday afternoon, for the purpose of taking definite steps looking to a grand and glorious celebration of the centennial anniversary of the ratification of the Federal Constitution, by North Carolina, which event took place in this city November 21, 1789.

Notified to the West.
All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have at once a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to cleanse the system when constive or bilious. For sale in 50c. and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.
