> We urge our friends in the country under the suspices of the Methodist to come to town on that day and join in Sunday school yesterday to Seven the exercises. It is fitting, right and proper that all should join together on this day and keep green the memory of those whe yielded their lives for a cause which we all believed to be right.

We cheerfully give space to the following letter:

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 29. EDITORS JOURNAL: - In furtherance of the scheme undertaken by the Wilmington Messenger toward the building of a Soldiers' Home, I propose at an early day to request a meeting of the citizens of Charlotte for the purpose of getting from them an expression as to ways, means, feasibility, etc. In addition to data that will then be submitted, it is desired to have also personal letters. from old soldiers giving personal needs, hight willingness and desire for such a home. Should you be able either through solicitation or from your own experience to furnish such information, you will much oblige.

Yours truly, W. E. CHRISTIAN, Ed. Democrat.

We hope there will be a general response to this request. In whatever movement is made for the relief of the Confederate soldier there should be UNITY, and it is only by an interchange of views on the subject that the right Harper 17. Hartsheld 15. Hyant 19 plan can be agreed upon.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Twin City Daily: Alfred Hill, col., a county prisoner under goard, while at work on the public road with a gang of hands just beyond the Salem limits on Saturday evening made a break for liberty. As he ran off he was fired upon by Neal and Sanders, the two guards, with double barrel skot guns loaded with buck shot, several of the shot taking effect in the hip, preducing rather dangerous, but not necessarily fatal wounds.

Wilmington Star: Geo. W. Price and John Holloway are ardent and eloquent in their advocacy of negro emigration from North Carolina, and there is much curiosity to know whether or not George and John are going to head the procession. - Rt.
