"IMAGINATION is that part of a man which magnifies his own troubles and his neighbor's joys."

It is understood that the editorial succession to the late Allen T. Rice will fall to General Lloyd S. Bryce.

PARNELL may be convicted by the court, but he stands acquitted by the enlightened judgment of mankind.

SAM JONES' meeting at Dauville, Va., closed Wednesday. About 1,000 persons professed conversion during the meeting.

MR. ROBERT L. LINCOLN, the new American Minister to England, accompanied by his family, arrived at Liverpool on the steamer City of Paris, on the 22d, and proceeded at once to London.

THERE is a shade of hair known in New York State as the schenectady blonde. It comes from a town that is not far from Auburn. It is the same way with the hair.—N. O. Picayune.

"THE law enacted by the Arizona Legislature fixing death as the penalty for train robbing is a step in the right direction. If the robbers will 'hang up' trains they should themselves be hung up."

In his testimony before the Parnell Commission, Mr. O'Brien attempted to enter into the details of the outrage instigated by the Government, but Attorney General Webster objected, and his objection was sustained by the court.

WE trust that this receipt, furnished by the Philadelphia Times, may be of value to some of our Republican neighbors: "The fellow who wants to get there first under this administration should begin by marrying a Harrison."—Norfolk Virginian.

No other administration has put so many colored men in the mail service as that of President Harrison. Every newly appointed postal clerk on the Atlantic Coast Line, and the Richmond and Danville, running from this city, are colored men.—Goldboro Dep't Wilmington Messenger.

THE wife who has labored in the home to earn or to save, while the husband has labored in the field, the shop or the counting room, is justly a partner in his earnings and their savings, and should share in all his plans for disposing of their small accumulations, so as to make them more productive if all goes well.—Locomotive Engineers' Journal.

A UNITED PRESS dispatch from Wichita, Kan., says: A peculiar case of wholesale poisoning on the farm of Mr. Hayden, sixteen miles northwest of here, has been reported. A father, mother, child and hired girl are deathly sick, and two cows and a horse lie dead in the barnyard. It would seem from the death of the animals that the poison came from the well.

JOHN JARRETT, the new Consul to Birmingham, is chiefly distinguished for the dirty work he did in defeating Wm. R. Morrison for Congress in 1886. Mr. John F. Pinner, of New York, who is appointed a Government Director of the Union Pacific Railroad, was unknown to fame until he attracted attention as an indefatigable collector of funds for the campaign fund last fall. These are both appointments of the John Wana maker type.—Boston Herald.

It is not improbable that more capital is flowing out of North Carolina than is flowing in, and the circumstance is not encouraging. According to the Atlanta Constitution the growth and prosperity of Southern Georgia is something marvelous, owing to the fruit and vegetable industries. At the close of the war that section of the country was almost a wilderness. Today the lands that were not valued at more than twenty-five cents an acre at the close of the war are worth five and ten dollars an acre.—Wilmington Messenger.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. HUMPHREYS' VETERINARY SPECIFICS, S. W. & E. W. SMALLWOOD—Burlaps. LEAMAN & KERR—Commission merchants.

NEW BERNE THEATRE—Esther, the beautiful queen.

The telegraph office building is having needed repairs made.

Esther, the beautiful Queen, at the Theatre next Tuesday night.

Sheriff Campen, of Pamlico, took one prisoner up to the penitentiary yesterday for three years.

The first box of beans of this season was shipped by steamer Manteo yesterday.

The directors of the A. & N. C. R. passed down to Morehead City last night.

Dr. T. B. Kinshury has accepted a position on the Wilmington Daily Messenger. He did not remain out of harness long.

The entertainment at the Theatre next Tuesday evening will be the best that our people have had an opportunity of attending for many months.

A flying fish was brought to the JOURNAL office last night. He is quite a curiosity. It is about thirteen inches long and has wings about five inches long.

Joe Gibson and George Moore, both colored, were brought over from Beaufort county yesterday by Sheriff Hodges and lodged in jail. They are wanted here to answer to the charge of larceny.

In our report, yesterday, of election of County Superintendent of Health, it would seem to appear that Dr. Frank Duffy was a candidate for the position. This was not the case. We are informed that he did not desire it, but in deference to the municipal authorities who elected him Port Physician and who thought the public interests would be better served by combining the two offices in one man, he felt it would be his duty to serve if the Board insisted on electing him.

Call and Sign. We have a petition to the Postmaster-General setting forth the necessities for increased mail service over the A. & N. C. R. and asking the Department to aid in increasing the service.

We want all business men to sign this petition. It can be done in a minute when passing the JOURNAL office.

Shipping News. The steamer Eaglet of the E. C. D. line sailed yesterday with a cargo of truck, lumber and naval stores. The Annie arrived yesterday with general merchandise.

The steamer Manteo of the O. D. line sailed yesterday with a cargo of truck, etc., and passengers. The Newberne arrives tonight and sails Tuesday at 3 o'clock.

Personal. J. W. Grainger, Esq. of Kinston, arrived last night.

Mr. John E. Overton, of Portsmouth, Va., is in the city representing the commission house of Leaman & Kerr, 165 West street, New York. Mr. Overton has been with the firm for five years and guarantees satisfaction to his Carolina and Virginia friends.

Mrs. R. H. Hilton left yesterday on the steamer Manteo for Baltimore, her future home. The prayers and good wishes of a large number of her late husband's warm friends go with her and the little one.

Rodolph Duffy, Esq., of the law firm of Duffy & Nixon, returned from the low county yesterday.

Hon. F. M. Simmons is on a business trip to Beaufort.

The Y. M. C. A. Excursion. The Y. M. C. A. excursion yesterday was one of the most delightful of the season. Promptly at 3 o'clock the steamer Trent left her dock with about a hundred as happy people as ever went in pursuit of recreation and pleasure.

Trent river was never more beautiful and the air never more balmy. The party went up to the point where rock is blasted for the cemetery road, and witnessed the blowing up of huge stones with dynamite. Captain Wallace in charge of the work gave his visitors every attention, and placed them under obligations for kindness and courtesy. An organ was aboard the boat, and on the return trip a number of ladies and gentlemen furnished delightful music.

The excursion was a success financially and socially, and will long be remembered with pleasing emotions.

On Wall Paper. A fac-simile of the Vicksburg Daily Citizen of July 2d, 1863, has been handed us. It was the last issue of that paper during the siege of Vicksburg by General Grant. It is five columns, one page, printed on wall paper and only on one side. In the first column are several items of casualties that occurred on short rations and much suffering. One item speaks in high terms of a steak of Confederate beef that was sent the editor, which he relished very much notwithstanding it was known to be from the tender hind quarter of a mule. The meat of a cat was also pronounced delicious.

The good deeds of citizens are also chronicled. Mr. F. Kiser is specially commended for his generosity in dividing his supply of corn among the needy in order to prevent starvation until the siege could be raised. The extortioner is also condemned in severe language. There is considerable news from Lee's invasion of Maryland and Pennsylvania, the substance of which was that Gen. Lee had given Hooker, Milroy & Co., one of the best and soundest whippings on record.

In the third column we find this item: "ON DUTY—That the great Ulysses—the Yankee Generalissimo, surnamed Grant, has expressed his intention of dining in Vicksburg on Saturday next, and celebrating the 4th of July by a grand dinner, and so forth. When asked if he would ask Gen. Jo. Johnston to join, he said 'No, for fear there would be a row at the table.' Ulysses must get in the city before he dines in it. The way to cook a rabbit is, 'first catch the rabbit,' etc.

At the bottom of the last column is the following:

NOTE. JULY 4TH, 1863. Two days bring about great changes. The banner of the Union floats over Vicksburg. Gen. Grant has 'caught the rabbit,' he has dined in Vicksburg, and he did bring his dinner with him. The 'Citizen' lives to see it. For the last time it appears on 'Wall paper.' No more will it sulogize the luxury of mule meat and fricasseed hiteen—urge Southern warriors to such diet never more. This is the last wall paper Citizen, and is, excepting this note, from the types as we found them. [Printer: soldiers see this note and worked the form. It will be valuable hereafter as a curiosity.]

In Memoriam. New-born N. May, 1872. Officers and members of the Young Men's Christian Association, in remembrance of a noble and noble-minded man, who died in the city of New York, on the 24th inst. of the month of May, 1889.

Seldom was a noble-minded man so mourned as was the noble-minded man whose physical and mental faculties were so highly developed, and whose home in the city of New York, on the 24th inst. of the month of May, 1889.
