A SPECIAL from Standing Rock Agency says: The Indians here held a big council Sunday, and all agreed not to sign the treaty unless paid $11,000,000 for their lands.

A WIFE, like a kiss, should be asked for with the eyes alone—and then when consent is evident should be taken without unnecessary questions or delay.—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

THE London Times is in for it. In addition to the Parnell suit, Sir Morell Mackenzie is demanding heavy damages for publishing certain libellous letters obtained by journalistic sharp practice.

A SITE has been selected for the erection of the Confederate Veteran's Home. It will be located in Atlanta, near Grant's Park, on a tract of land containing one hundred and twenty-five acres.

THE honors that are falling in the lap of the present administration is but the ripened fruit of trees planted by other hands. Even Mr. Blaine could not do otherwise than adopt Mr. Bayard's Samoaian policy.

"MINISTERS and maltsters, bishops and brewers, deacons and distillers, rectors and rectifiers can't work together," says Gen. Fisk. If Gen. Fisk wants to see two men who can work together he should contrive to be presented at a visit of the Governor of South Carolina to the Governor of North Carolina.—Courier-Journal.

THE "regal red poppy" has recently been found to have the valuable power of binding with its roots the soil in which it grows in such a manner that it will prove most valuable in supporting embankments. Already several French engineers have undertaken the sowing of railway embankments with poppies.—Scientific American.

"NEW ENGLAND manufacturers seem inclined to abandon the coarser line of textiles entirely, recognizing that the advantages of the situation and labor enjoyed by their Southern rivals cannot be overcome."

T. J. MCSPEIDEN, who went South from Baltimore with a party of English capitalists, writes that they will buy 400,000 to 600,000 acres of timber land in Georgia and Florida and establish a large lumber plant.

"THAT is a wicked joke on Wanamaker to print his picture as the American eagle with a ten dollar suit on, the noble bird perched on a fourth-class postoffice and the legend affixed: 'A ten dollar suit and a postoffice to agents who sell Wanamaker's goods.'"

IT is stated that H. M. Flagler, the standard oil millionaire, intends to build a hotel in Charleston, S. C., to cost $500,000; also that he contemplates the building of a system of fine hotels in all of the cities between Washington and St. Augustine, Fla.

IT is not English or Belgian iron, but Virginia, Tennessee and Alabama iron that our Pennsylvania friends will have to compete with hereafter, and the tariff will not help them. Protection is a nice thing when it protects, but when it does not—what then?

EDITOR GRADY, who has been looking over the political field in New York, writes to the Atlanta Constitution, "Unless there is a decided check to the current now setting swiftly, Grover Cleveland will be the next Democratic nominee for the Presidency. On the surface it is all Cleveland in New York."

A correspondent in this issue suggests that some kind of entertainment be gotten up for the benefit of the New Berne band. Our band has always been very generous in making music for charitable purposes, and to show a proper appreciation for the good music the band now makes, we think the public owe them some assistance.

"Esther."

Lovers of music and art are looking forward to the presentation of the cantata "Esther" at the theatre next Tuesday night with happy expectation. The rehearsals of the cantata under the direction of the Ladies' Memorial Association, have been held nightly during the past week or two and everything is being done to give the music a worthy presentation.

The coming of Miss Wentworth, who sings the part of "Esther," the title role, has given renewed interest to the other singers, who are studying diligently. The best talent of New Berne is engaged in the work, and this combined with the earnest effort being made by the managers is sure to yield a most pleasing and successful result.

The costumes will be gotten up with excellent taste and will be rich and brilliant. Magnificent jewels, costly stuffs of richest Eastern dye, ornaments of dazzling lustre, etc., will characterize the cantata.

The proceeds of the entertainment are to be put into the hands of the Ladies' Memorial Association, who will use it in the care of the graves of our Confederate dead. This is a worthy object and must find an echo of approval in every Southern heart.

The presentation of this cantata will be the result of a generous and unselfish effort on the part of the Memorial Association, and those who take part in it, for a most worthy cause, and will afford our people a delightful entertainment for next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Jas. M. Brinson.

We give below an extract from a very clever notice in the Goldsboro Argus of one of New Berne's bright young orators. Mr. Brinson delivered the annual address before Nahunta Academy, near Goldsboro. The Argus says:

"Of course the event of Wednesday's exercises on which the tip-toe expectation of all was centred was the 'Annual Address,' by Mr. Jas. M. Brinson, of New Berne. From the moment this young gentleman stepped upon the rostrum to speak to the assemblage he riveted the attention of all, and it tired not in its interest till the close. His audience discovered in him at once that nameless charm of manner that always characterizes the public speaker who is a born orator. Every thought was that of the philosopher; every sentence that of the polished rhetorician; every expression that of the gifted orator; every gesture, 'the poetry of motion.' He possesses the power of thought and the gift of language that years alone might be expected to yield to the diligent student of comprehensive reading and untiring research, and yet he is but twenty-two years of age; a graduate of Wake Forest College, whose characteristic application joined with his rare natural abilities, controlled and regulated as they are by the persuasive tenor of religion that has beautified all his days, are calculated to win for him in due time that recognition and promotion that North Carolina should be proud to yield to her gifted sons who are worthy of it."

EDITOR JOURNAL—While the ladies and gentlemen are giving their entertainments, why not give the N. B. F. B. Band a benefit of one of them. I am sure they deserve it for what they do for the public generally without pay. It takes lots of time and money to keep up a good band, and we all like to have one. W.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Elizabeth City Carolinian: We believe that the coming census will show that the population of Elizabeth City will exceed 5,000.——Capt. Peter M. Warren, a prominent fisherman of Chowan, died last week aged about 70 years. He was the pioneer in the use of steam power in seine fishing.

Wilmington Star: Hereafter prisoners sentenced in the Mayor's court to work on the streets, in what is known as the "chain gang," will be clothed in striped suits, the Mayor having ordered about a dozen suits for this purpose.——Mr. John Murphy, one of the most prominent and respected citizens of Pender county, died at his residence in Point Caswell township last Wednesday morning of paralysis, and in the sixty-sixty year of his age.

State Chronicle: It gives the Chronicle genuine pleasure to state that Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., professor at Union Theological Seminary, of Hampden Sidney, Virginia, will preach the annual sermon before the graduating class at Peace Institute, Sunday, June 1st, in the First Presbyterian church. Dr. Moore is probably the youngest D. D. in the South. He is only 30 years old. He married a North Carolina lady, Miss Lula Fries, of Salem. Dr. Moore has the reputation of being an eloquent pulpit orator.

Lenoir Topic: The new Baptist church near the Cold Spring, on the Turnpike, is nearly completed.——Rev. R. M. Taylor tells us that the revival at Harper's Chapel closed Wednesday night. There were 20 conversions and 13 additions to the church, so far. The membership has been greatly revived and a weekly prayer-meeting has been established.——Wheat is looking well, on the average, better, we think, than it has looked for years this early in the season, and it is probable that harvest will be at least a week earlier than usual.——On Tuesday morning of last week Mr. Wesley Taylor, who lived in a small house just below the Icard bridge on the Catawba river, was awakened by smoke and found that his house was on fire. The house and everything in it, except the inmates, were burned.

Thanks.

NEW BERNE, N. C., May 24, 1889.

At a special communication of the X. T. O. V. E. S. Q. U. Y. P. E., held in their rooms, adjoining the Jawers Club, on the evening of the 24th, the following Pre-Amble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted:

That whereas that portion of Craven street directly in front of the rooms of the above Association, having been in a dilapidated condition for a number of years, and that whereas the honorable Mayor and his corps of assistants, recognizing the needs of the X. P. Q.'s, have placed the same in a most beautiful condition.

Therefore be it resolved, 1st, that the thanks of the X. P. Q.'s are due and are hereby tendered the honorable Mayor and his assistants for making the said beautiful improvements above alluded to; and resolved secondly, that a copy of the above Pre-Amble and Resolutions, duly engrossed, be presented in open meeting to the Honorable Mayor and that a copy of the same be sent to the JOURNAL, New York Herald, London Times and the Yang-tsi-kiang Globe, with a request that they publish the same.

AMOS HIGHSTRIKER, Sec'y.

Nota Bene:—A very rare chance is now offered Observer and Truth, of investing their spare ones and fives, in having the above translated in Chinese, and presenting the same to the Emperor of that Kingdom, by so doing the inside track would be open to them, for obtaining a contract from that august personage, to keep the pathway from the Celestial Empire to the Moon free from obstructions. Four Persons Burned to Death.

NORFOLK, May 26.—The residence of Rev. T. C. Clarke, near Virginia Beach, in Princess Anne county, was burned last night about 12 o'clock. He, his two daughters, and one son, and a niece visiting him, were consumed by the flames. His wife, Miss Ella Bidgood, the governess and two children escaped. The origin of the fire is unknown, though it is thought to have been incendiary. Mr. Clarke was pastor of London Bridge Baptist church, and was a preacher of note.

Additional particulars go to show that the origin of the fire was the result of accident. It is thought that Mr. Clarke's death is due to the fact that he returned to try and save a sum of money which he had put in a trunk for safe keeping, and before he could get out he was caught by the flames.

ONE of my children, a girl about nine years old, had a very bad discharge from her head and nose of a thick, yellowish matter. We had two physicians prescribe for her, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and much to our surprise there was a marked improvement. We continued using this Balm, and in a short time the discharge was apparently cured.—O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.

Ely Bros., I have been afflicted with catarrh. I purchased a bottle of your Cream Balm. It has effected a complete cure.—H. C. Abbott, 97 Grant Ave, Allegheny City, Pa. m13 2w
