THE more we study, we the more discover our ignorance.—Shelley.

NOTHING great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.—Emerson.

MOST people would succeed in small things if they were not troubled with great ambitions.—Longfellow.

THE charity which hides a multitude of sins isn't half so much needed nowadays as the sterner virtues which rawhides them.—Pack.

DISCRETION of speech is more than eloquence; and to speak agreeably to him with whom we deal, is more than to speak in good words, or in good order.—Bacon.

CANDOR is the seal of a noble mind, the ornament and pride of man, the sweetest charm of woman, the scorn of rascals and the rarest virtue of sociality.—Benjamin Stearns.

THE late meeting of the Democratic National Committee elected Calvin S. Brice of Ohio, to the chairmanship made vacant by the death of Hon. W. H. Barnum, of Connecticut.

If we do have to go to war with England about the fur seals, American wives and bachelors will have to do all the fighting. You can't entice American married men on the subject of seal-skins.

AMERICAN pickpockets are flocking into Paris. It is earnestly to be hoped that the authorities of that city may take care of them and persuade them to become permanent citizens.—Philadelphia Press.

It is reported that Mr. Blaine has refused his assent to the conclusions reached by the commissioners to the Berlin Conference, and has sent instructions to our representatives which have not been made public.

WHAT a beautiful object is the beautiful eye! How much fresh inspiration is there in it! And how dark and repulsive is the glance of that eye which has a sinister shadow over it. The poet Nathaniel P. Willis wrote in one of his poems: For it is the blood of an old man's heart And makes his pulses fly, To catch the thrill of a happy voice And the light of a pleasant eye!

SIX saloon keepers were arrested in this city yesterday for keeping open on Sunday, and the corners of two new churches were laid. In addition to this a large force of men were kept employed during the day on new cable lines. It is a great thing to live in a town whose moral progress keeps pace with its material development.—Kansas City Star.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

O. H. GUNN—Commissioner's sale.

W. G. PATTERSON—Patterson mineral springs.

W. M. WATSON—Meeting board of trustees.

A nice shower yesterday morning. The tide for Morehead City will begin to flow the present week.

The Mayor's street gang numbers eleven now, and they are doing some good work.

Apples are coming in in small quantities and selling at $1.25 per bushel, peaches $1.50.

Special train to Morehead City this morning, leaving New Bern at nine o'clock. Fare, $1.00 for round trip.

Some of our farmers have made a ten strike on potatoes this year—that is, provided the price keeps up a few days longer.

An important meeting of the Board of Trustees of the New Bern Academy to-morrow afternoon. See notice elsewhere.

The steamer Howard will leave her wharf on Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock for Pollockville and Oliver Landing on Trent river.

Several new subscribers have been added to our Daily list recently. The JOURNAL is not only holding its own, but gaining in popularity.

The train from Goldsboro has been from one to two and one-half hours late every evening for more than a week. The delay is on account of waiting for trains on other roads.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Memorial Association on Tuesday next, June 18th, at the residence of Mrs. John Hughes, at six p.m. All members are requested to attend to decide some matters of importance.

The Raleigh News and Observer says President Bryan has arranged for Fullman cars to run through to Morehead City this summer. This is all good enough, but a double daily mail and passenger train would be a great deal better.

Prayer meeting services will be held in the office of Frank Hill, market dock, this morning at 9:30 o'clock, and at the Long Wharf this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. These meetings are under the auspices of the young men of the Baptist church, and they extend a cordial invitation to all to be present.

The steamer Tahema with a full cargo of potatoes, and two vessels in tow also loaded with potatoes, from Bayboro, broke her shaft when near Johnston's point on the Neuse yesterday morning. One of the vessels came on under sail and one of the E. C. D. steamers went down and brought up the Tahema and the other vessel. The cargoes went out on the E. C. D. line yesterday evening.

Personal.

H. L. Gibbs, Esq., has returned from Hyde county and reports the crops, where they were not drowned out in the spring, as being excellent.

Hop. F. M. Simmons returned from Washington, D. C., last night.

Mr. Hughes Holland returned from Trinity College last night.

Mr. J. K. Willis left for Morehead City last night.

Mayor's Court.

Louise Harper and Matilda White answered to the charge of disorderly conduct when court was called to order yesterday morning. They were fined $5.00 each and cost of thirty days on the streets.

John Smallwood was arrested for disorderly conduct and adjudged guilty. Fined $20.00 and cost of twenty days on the streets.

In the afternoon session Alfred Ward was up for disorderly conduct. The evidence was that he carried and abused without provocation a dog whose name is Akood, who arrived from Bayboro on a boat loaded with potatoes. Ward's conduct, according to the evidence, was very ugly and the judge gave him the full extent of the law—$5.00 and cost of thirty days on the streets.

COMMENDATION is due Dr. W. Lee O'Fall of the New York bar who has written a plea for the world's orphans, maintaining that orphans should not be regarded as orphans.—There is something inspiring in this plea of humanity and justice to suffering

Proceedings of the New Bern District Conference of the N. E. Church.

MOOREHEAD CITY, June 14, 1889.

Conference convened at 9 o'clock. Devotional exercises conducted by Rev. J. E. Thompson.

The minutes of the afternoon session of the preceding day were read and approved. The arrival of the following members of conference was reported: W. B. Lane, Craven circuit; Rev. F. S. Beeson, Straits circuit; Josiah Evans, Seaw Hill circuit; J. E. Jackson, Kingston; D. McKain, Carteret circuit; Rev. W. J. Crowson, W. H. Applewhite, Fremont circuit; C. F. Davis, La Grange circuit; M. W. Beeson, Lenoir Mission.

Rev. F. L. Reid, of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, was introduced to the conference.

On motion, the election of delegates to the annual conference was made the special order for Saturday 9:30 p. m.

The hearing of reports of the different charges was then continued until a few minutes before the hour, 11 o'clock, fixed for adjournment, when Rev. J. T. Gattis, agent for colportage, addressed the conference. He was followed by Presiding Elder Willis, Rev. L. W. Crawford and the Bishop, all speaking briefly in regard to the sale and distribution of the church literature.

The morning session was then adjourned. At 11 o'clock Rev. W. H. Puckett preached an excellent sermon.

The conference convened at 3 p. m. Religious exercises conducted by Rev. F. A. Bishop.

Minutes of the morning session read and approved.

The reports of the remaining unreported charges were heard.

At this hour Rev. F. L. Reid appeared, and stated that he had just been commissioned to perform a pleasant duty, and in a happy manner he presented, in behalf of the ministers and laymen of the district, a beautiful Oxford Bible, to Presiding Elder Willis. Mr. Willis accepted the gift with appropriate remarks.

Rev. C. A. Woodson, of the Baptist church, was introduced to the conference and he briefly addressed the body.

The committee on education, through its chairman, Rev. Mc. Rona, reported a resolution in regard to establishing a high school somewhere in the district. It was moved and seconded that the resolution be passed, and several ministers and laymen spoke in its favor. It was unanimously adopted.

A communication from Mr. J. M. Rhodes, Principal of Littleton Female College, was referred to committee on education.

Conference adjourned. At night Bishop Granberry preached to a large congregation in the Baptist church. His text was taken from Matthew 9: 35, 37 and 38.

Distress Call.

SUPREME LODGE, KNIGHTS OF HONOR. OFFICE OF SUPREME DICTATOR. AUBURN, MA., June 8, 1889.

To all Lodges of the Knights of Honor: Again the cry of distress has reached our ears. The most dreadful calamity of this century has left penniless and almost naked, not only living Knights of Honor, but the widows and orphans of those who went down in the flood. The need is immediate and great.

I earnestly ask the members of the Order, which has never yet left unheeded the cries and tears of widows and orphans, and which has never left a Brother uncared for in the hour of his distress, to give abundantly to the sufferers of the Pennsylvania floods.

Send contributions at once to Joseph W. Branch, Supreme Treasurer, St. Louis, Mo., and arrangements will be made for their proper distribution.

Fraternally, in O. M. A. A. R. SAVAGE, Supreme Dictator.

Attend: B. P. NELSON, Supreme Reporter.

New Bern, June 15, 1889.

All contributions for the above purpose will be received and forwarded by John Miller, Treas. of New Bern Lodge No. 100, I. O. O. F.

J. E. HALL, Dictator.

A Fraud.

OFFICE Supt. PUBLIC INSTRUCTION. RALEIGH, N. C., June 9, 1889.

I have been informed that an agent of Messrs. Ivison Blakeman & Co., publishers, has been selling a Reading Chart to school committees, and that he represents that the State Superintendent favors such sales. This is to say that any such representations are utterly false, and I specially request all County Authorities not to purchase these charts. If I am correctly informed, the price is very high. Then, too, our school fund is too small to justify such expenditure, and our county school houses are, as a rule, so inferior and unsafe as to render proper care of such charts almost impossible. Besides, comparatively few of our country teachers can use these charts to better advantage than they can the books recommended by the State Board of Education.

When we shall have a larger School Fund, better houses and more expert teachers, I shall be in favor of recommending a chart and fixing a reasonable price at which it shall be sold. At present I do not think this is the best use that can be made of the money. This is by no means to condemn the use of charts under favorable conditions and at proper prices.

S. M. FINGER, Supt. Public Instruction.

The Johnstown Horrors.

JOHNSTOWN, June 14.—Rain is pouring down this morning and has effectually stopped work of all kinds in this stricken city which should go ahead as rapidly as possible. Even the soldiers have sought shelter of their tents and the newspaper correspondents missed this morning with considerable relief the familiar "Have you a pass?" from guards at different places. The wreckage at Stone Bridge, which was fired last night, has been dampened considerably and unless the rain stops soon that invaluable work will also come to a standstill.

The crowd around the commissaries, which seem to increase with each day, are a mud-bagged set. The entrance to each station is very narrow yet. Into them women and children, each with capacious baskets, crowd like sheep into a pen. The line is long, and those who are so unlucky as to have arrived after six or seven o'clock have been standing unprotected, and in some instances half old in a pouring rain. Their baskets are generally well filled, yet on leaving the commissaries complaints are heard on all sides of "No butter nor anything fresh after two weeks."

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 14.—In one way the rain today is regarded as a blessing, as the terrible stench from the burning flesh, which was almost unbearable last night, is scarcely noticeable. A number of lumber men from the Clarion region were engaged clearing the wreckage with their hooks last night and this morning and their work was so effective that another detachment has been sent for. It has been decided to tear down all unsafe buildings in town and burn the wreckage.

List of Letters.

Remaining in the postoffice at New Bern, Craven county, N. C., June 16th, 1889:

Cassy Baing, Charley Osnig, J. M. Eure, Miss Amelia Fuller, Rev. Isaac Felton, John L. Hoffer, Rebecca Hawkins, Thomas Price, Liller Smith, Wm. Henry Shaw (2), Wm. J. Shell, Mrs. Ellen Spruill.

Persons calling for above letters, will say advertised, and give date of list. The regulations now require that one cent shall be collected on the delivery of each letter advertised.

A special meeting of the Board will be held at the office of the President, Monday afternoon, June 17, 1889, at four o'clock.

Final action will be taken upon the proposition to establish a High School. W. M. WATSON, Sec. and Treas.

The Cronin Case.

CHICAGO, June 14.—At opening his court this morning, Judge Tuley said he would not be ready to announce his opinion in the matter allowing Alex. Sullivan's release on bail until 3 o'clock. It is reported that this course was taken because it is thought the grand jury will take some action in the matter today.

SULLIVAN RELEASED ON BAIL.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Judge Tuley this afternoon released Alexander Sullivan on $20,000 bail, which was promptly given. The Judge held that the coroner's jury had been influenced by outside sentiment.

MERIT WINS.

We desire to say to our citizens that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell so well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. For sale by R. N. Duffy, wholesale and retail druggist. Price per dozen bottles, $8.00. Jan 22 '89

A Bank President Arrested.

CHICAGO, June 14.—A special from Savannah, Mo., says Judge Miller, President of the Savannah Savings Institution, which failed Wednesday last, was arrested yesterday for receiving deposits, knowing that the bank was insolvent. The liabilities of the bank are $25,000; assets over $10,000. Only $800 was found in the safe.
