It would be a good idea for the Legislatures in chartering colleges to limit their power in conferring degrees by the curriculum actually taught. It is becoming a source of chagrin to many to see a large part of the alphabet attached to names of men who should be in the Freshman class of a University.—High Point Enterprise.
It is extraordinary how the electric cars climb the high hills in Richmond, where it is difficult even for a horse or a man to go with any facility in hot weather. They tally leap from crag to crag, so to speak, and it is hardly to be wondered at that they make irregular lines and are not altogether satisfactory. Richmond is a hard road to travel even for electricity, but the people there cannot realize it.—Northland.
The President has appointed Mr. Lewis H. Parsons, a Northern Virginian, to be United States Marshal at Raleigh in the Southern and Middle Districts of Alabama.—Washington Herald.

Lewis H. Parsons Sr. was a northern man who went to Alabama in early life. He was a fine lawyer and popular Whig leader before the war. During the reconstruction period he was Governor of Alabama. Young Parsons is a good lawyer, and popular, for a Republican.
If the estimates given by Willett & Hamlin in their circular yesterday are correct, and approximately they doubtless are, the Sugar Trust cleared a profit of $14,000,000 in 1888, and have, up to the 1st of June this year, cleared a profit of $6,230,000, a total of $20,230,000 in seventeen months. These are imposing figures, and those who view the development of capital in the form of Trust combinations as dangerous to the people, will be apt to regard the figures conclusive proof that the Sugar Trust is enriching the stockholders by abnormally advancing the price of one of the necessities of life. Yet the Republican party—the party of Harrison and Blaine—sustains and protects such monopolies, and purchase the national elections, through the assistance of a division of the profits.—Norfolk Virginian.

Call on the Governor.
Governor Fowle will go to Morehead City on Thursday (tomorrow) evening and will remain there for eight or ten days.
In a few minutes conversation with the Governor yesterday morning he requested as in say through the JOURNAL that he would be pleased to talk with the people interested in the management of the A. & N. C. R. He is anxious to do whatever is best for the people of this section, and wants to know their views. "You are perfectly right," said the Governor, "when you state that anonymous communications cannot have any weight with me. Of course I could not give any consideration whatever to such communications. There are three methods which I have adopted to ascertain the wishes of the people on this question: 1st, by meeting the individual face to face and getting his views; 2d, by letter from those whom I cannot meet; and 3d, by considering such communications as those who desire to speak through the public press over their own signatures."
We think the Governor has adopted a very sensible plan to ascertain the real wishes of the people, and we hope those who call on him will speak their honest sentiments without reservation.

STELLA, N. C., June 9th, 1889.
EDITOR JOURNAL.—The following is a copy of the resolutions adopted by the Sabbath school at Stella, N. C., at its recent meeting on June 9th, 1889:
Whereas, Miss Fannie Terry and Miss Hattie Dall, who spent the winter and spring in our midst, have returned to their respective homes, Miss Fannie to New Bedford, Mass., and Miss Hattie to New Bern, N. C., and
Whereas, while at Stella they identified themselves with us, won the hearts of all, threw a charm over our community; and by their ceaseless devotion to our struggling Sabbath school, untiring energy and intelligent efforts in its behalf, they formed important factors in placing the Sabbath school at Stella in its present fine condition on a solid financial basis; therefore, we the teachers and pupils of Stella Sabbath school do
Resolve, 1. That Miss Fannie Terry and Miss Hattie Dall were pleasant and valuable additions to our community and school, and that we keenly feel their loss.
Resolve 2. That we tender them our hearty thanks for their influence and usefulness while with us, and extend them a cordial invitation to visit us again, and promise them a warm welcome on their return.
Resolve 3. That we congratulate the people of their respective communities that Miss Fannie and Miss Hattie have returned to them, and trust that they will appreciate them as highly as we do.
Resolve 4. That one copy of these resolutions be sent to Miss Fannie Terry, one to Miss Hattie Dall, one be spread upon the minutes of our school and one be sent to the NEW BERNE JOURNAL for publication.

THE Carteret Resolution—Replies to Dennis and Oglesby.
MOREHEAD CITY TOWNSHIP, Carteret County, N. C.
MR. EDITOR:—I see communication from J. T. Dennis, Esq., finding a great deal of fault in the resolutions passed by the board of magistrates and county commissioners on the first Monday in June in Carteret county, and asking a great many questions and answers them all himself. He asked if the magistrates from Newport township, White Oak and other townships were present, and answered no. I can say without fear of contradiction from one of us that every township in the county was represented except White Oak. The vicinity of Newport had three magistrates, one of them with the board of the county, one has recently died, and L. T. Dennis, J. P., stayed home. A few years ago when J. T. Dennis, Esq., was a county commissioner, getting two dollars per day and mileage, he was seldom ever missing when the board of magistrates and county commissioners met, but since his look has changed so that he has to pay his expenses out of his own pocket there and back and lose his time as often, he stays home and cries out "miserable the powers that be, character, influence and property." He asks where were the Howlands, the Thomases, the Perkins, Morris, Bells, Garners, Humphreys and Sanders, men of character, influence and property. I answer, that Mr. Howland, Mr. Thomas and the three Mr. Bells, besides myself were there as our post of duty, as were all the rest of the magistrates of the county—men of as much character, influence and property as those that stayed home. Now I ask who are the men that ought to have a hearing from the powers that be? Is it those that assemble together in a body and perform their duty as their oath and the laws of their country requires them to do, or is it those that hang back from the discharge of duty and raise such a terrible yell?
Now some men remind me of a contrary mule that won't do anything but stand and kick at others.
The communication of J. T. D., Esq., leaves an impression that any one, O Lord, for President, except W. S. Chadwick, would suit the people of Carteret county.
Well, we don't find fault of Mr. Simmons; he is a fine gentleman, but we people of good old Carteret want a President of the A. & N. C. R. R. down here with us one time, and W. S. Chadwick is the man that we have centered on. He has led the Democratic party to success in this county for several years, and has yet backbone enough to lead it on in the future.
Very truly,
R. C. BELL.

That Roller-Tray Trunk.
Numbers of persons have felt the inconvenience in finding access to the lower compartment of their trunks with the inevitable tray in the way, to be lifted out at great disadvantage to themselves. This great inconvenience has often detracted from the pleasure of a journey or from the satisfaction of rummaging in the contents of ones own house—the trunk—at home. That trouble has been met and annihilated, as will be seen in an advertisement in this paper from H. W. Rountree & Bro., of Richmond. We have had the pleasure of examining the new Roller-Tray Trunk, and the new contrivance embraces the importance of the trunk at once, and renders its frequent use a pleasure rather than a task. It can be found for sale at any first-class dealers. Go and see the trunk and judge for yourself.

Some of the girders being used in Dr. Frank Hughes' house on the corner of Pollock and Craven streets were taken from the old McLean building. The timber is about twenty-five years old and is remarkably well preserved. It is pine heart. A carpenter would call it beautiful.
As the train passed Tuscarora, in this county Tuesday morning, Mr. Caswell Woods was at the depot with an ox cart, having brought out and discharged a load of Irish potatoes. The ox took fright at the train and dashed off at full speed up the road, throwing Mr. Woods out and hurting him, though not seriously. Mr. Woods ought to put on another barrel or two of potatoes next load.

THE Carteret Resolution—Replies to Dennis and Oglesby.
MOREHEAD CITY TOWNSHIP, Carteret County, N. C.
MR. EDITOR:—I see in the JOURNAL of the 13th inst., a communication from Oglesby, N. C., criticising the resolutions offered by myself in the meeting of the board of magistrates and county commissioners of Carteret county, in joint session first Monday in June. Mr. A. E. Oglesby says that he is surprised as to me for taking any such action, for it seems to him that it is a matter that they had nothing to do with.
It seems to me that the J. P.'s who are appointed by the Legislature through petitions signed by the people of each one's respective district, is the body that should take hold of such matters, for they are the proper representatives, and I think it their duty to make and help to make such changes as will benefit the people, the county and the State. Mr. Oglesby says that the majority of the good people of Carteret know a very little about and care less who is President and how the A. & N. C. R. R. is managed. He says it is only those that live along the line of the road that are any way interested or know anything about the management of the road. I say, whether they know anything about it or not, they feel the effects of its management. I know the people in this section get ties out and haul them eight and ten miles to the A. & N. C. R. R. for the promise of twenty cents a piece, and Mr. Bryan is so slow inspecting and paying for them until they have to sell their ties to the merchant and take their pay in trade such as they can get or do without necessities for their families for months. Now we will see how much timber there is in a tie that squares seven inches by ten at the end and eight feet long. Forty-six and two-thirds feet, plank measure, one inch thick, nearly all heart, for only twenty cents worth of goods at whatever price the merchant's conscience will let him charge, and they never get any money at all. But the fare and freights are well up, and that must be paid in money or no go; no trade there, Mr. Oglesby. And then you insist that the majority of the good people of this county are ignoramuses, know little and care less about the way their public affairs and the property of their county is managed.
Mr. Oglesby thinks that no one ought to have a hearing except those on the line of the road. He says that he hopes that such resolutions will in no wise offend the Governor. I don't think he need be uneasy about that, for I believe that Governor Fowle knows his business too well to be misled. I think when he goes to discharge his official duty he will exercise his best judgment to serve his people and his country, as the board of commissioners and magistrates did the first Monday in June in Carteret county.
A. E. O. says that I made the resolutions that I offered. I don't see that it makes any difference whether I wrote them or not; I intended them to be read to the people.
