THE FUTURE OF AMERICA.

The people of these States have past celebrated the 4th of July, the day that is usually regarded as marking the commencement of our o auspicious. Whatever may be the opinion entertained of the present Administration, we look ee gave to America every ational advantage and people it with a brave, patriotic and progressive people.

The arts and sciences, mineing and manufacturies, agriculture and Imagine, if you can what the South will be when the Nicaragua Canal Canal, becomes the gate through which the products of the Missisippi Valley will go out to the nations of the world.

We have so often spoken of the benefits to result to the South by the Nicaragua canal, we will this merning confine ourselves to the Florida Ocean and Gulf Canal.

For more than half a century schemes have been proposed for abridging the distance by water bea charter granted by the State of Florida in August 1888, to James Florida Ocean and Gulf Canal Company, with a capital of $60,- ports and the Gulf ports of this country.

No enterprise for many years has swakened more interest than is being shown in this. A report of the Russian Government "says:

'By the construction of the Fiorida caught in his hands. I am informed that the managers of the Wilmington and Onslow Railroad (one of the great civilizers and enlighteners of which "K." speaks has been prospecting as to what they can get in New York and elsewhere for the Onslow county bonds taken in stock by said county, and

ssue of June 20th an article headed "Oligarchs in Onslow" and signed "K." in which it asks permission to make public through your columns some serious reflections upon the condition of affairs in Ouslow; and after going on at considerable length about State sovereignty and county sovereignty, county rights. &c., the only serious reflections I can see that he has made known is in the fact that the joint board of magistrates and commissioners, acting under the advice of the creditors and now and then an exofficial dead beat delegate at large, "levied a special tax of $3,000 upon the people of Onslow." Now, Mr. Editor, I have too much confidence in the honesty and integrity of our magistrates and commissioners to national existence. It is a matter believe for a moment that they of pride to every American that the would swerve from what they bepost is so glorious and the future lieve to be their duty, or shirk any responsibility under the advice of creditors, delegates or any one else, except a legal adviser. The truth of this thing is this: 'The board of forward to a day in the future that commissioners seeing that the State will greatly exceed in grandeur any had levied for State purposes eight to the past. A munificent Provi- cents on the $100 valuation of property and nine cents on the pell more than last year, thus reducing the amount left for county purposes and estimating our county expenses considerably higher than they were last year on account of rebuilding and repairing bridges, &c., they asked the board of magis commerce, education and culture, trates to give them two thousand have advanced until the whole dollars special tax for current excarth contains no greater nation penses, and they did it. Then not than the United States of Amer-honest debtors of the county said Onslow and ere the next Legislaonly the creditors but some of the ica. But a higher destiny awaits if they would levy a special tax for tive campaign, I hope and believe this Republic, and it is especially current expenses why not levy some that they will vote for no man who atilying that the signs of the to pay on the debt? And they times point to the South as the seat added $1,000 more to go on the debt. "K." says that this is some thing new, and asks if any one expected to find it in Onslow! He must not be very old if he does not the foundations of her greatness.

And that the people came forward and paid it cheerfully until they were stopped by injunctions; and he must also know that since that time Onslow, as well as a great many other counties in the State, has been com-pelled to ask the Legislature leave to levy a special tax until that body, seeing the trouble the counties were in, two years ago took the right of injunction from the tax payer and compelled him to pay it, if it was shown to be levied for a tween the Atlantic and Gulf ports legal or authorized purpose. "K." of the United States. "The latest must also remember that the comscheme has been projected under missioners, magistrates and a large number of the best people of Ons low are anxions to pay their county Florida in August 1888, to James debt, and two years ago asked their C. Spencer and others, creating a Representative in the Legislature corporation to be known as the to pass an act authorizing them to levy a tax for that puropose, which he did, provided the people voted for it at an election to be held for that purpose, but the people voted it down, and "K." must also know the Gulf of Mexico at Cedar Keys that at the last General Assembly the board of commissioners and magistrates in joint board assembled, passed a resolution urging our Representative to make some From the Gulf to the St. John's provision for the payment of our river along the proposed line is county debt. He must also know that there was a petition signed by all of the board of commissioners, John's end of the canal it is pro- 18 out of 26 of the magistrates and poced to reach the Atlantic Ocean 150 tax payers, many of whom aither by the river, 96 miles were the largest in the county, and sent up to the Legislature asking for an act authorizing the board of additional canal from the commissioners to fund the county debt into bonds payable in one, This additional canal would be two, three and four years, and to levy a special tax to pay the in-terest annually, and the bonds at maturity, all of which was either al from Cedar Keys on the refused or neglected to be allowed. What additional enterprises are in the womb of time, to be brought New Hanover if I am correctly th-formed has done the same thing this year. We hear of no oligarche in that grand old county. No, Mr. Editor, nor we would hear of none here EDITOR JOURNAL: -I see in your if it were not for the fact that the politicians and office seekers have conceived the idea that a large majority of the voters in this county are opposed to the levying of special taxes, hence the great interest manifested for the pockets of the dear people. Why it has become to be the first pledge a candidate makes to his dear pee ple, especially one for the Legis lature, that "I will not pass no act levying a special tax upon you without leaving it to you to vote on." That was why we didn't get the releif asked for from the last Legislature. There were four can didates for the Legislature and all belonged to the Farmers Alliance. The one that was elected was charged with being Murrill's candidate, and if he was elected he would levy a special tax in order that Murill might get his money. The others put their mental muscles together to beat him; they introduced and passed in their county Alliance a resolution pledging their members not to vote for any man for the Legislature who would vote for the leveying of a special tax without leaving it to the people to vote on, which frightened the Murrill man into the same pledge. And for fear he might forget and leave out of his bill the clause, leaving it to the voters of the county he introduced no bill at all for the relief of his county. But thanks be to the honesty and integrity of the better class of our people, I think they are becoming aroused to the "serious reflections upon the affairs" in the good old county of will not vote for an act authorizing
