THE JOURNAL.

"Do you like the Greek poets?" asked Miss Theodosia Thuddington of Brown who is not in the least "literary."
"Yes; better than any of the modern poets."
"For what reason?"
"Principally because they are all dead."

Good Points in a Woman.

A clear bright eye.
That can pierce the sky.
A rounded cheek.
Where the roses speak.
A chest so grand.
That the lungs expand;
A steady brain.
That can bear the strain,
A manner bright.
And a spirit light.
Who does not wish for these, or having them wish to keep them, yet when weakness, irregularities, sick headaches, nervousness and inflammations attack her, restoration can be accomplished by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a medicine designed for woman's use, and placed with all druggists for their relief. Sold under the manufacturers' positive guarantee of satisfaction, or money refunded.

"Does Julia's singing annoy you?" asked the landlady of the new boarder, after her daughter had been exhibiting her vocal powers at the piano half an hour.
"Oh, no," replied the new boarder, "I work in a saw-mill factory, and don't mind it."

Over the Pathless Ocean.

Athwart the vast continents traversed by mighty iron thoroughfares, many-armed like the fabled Briareus, myriads set forth daily to encounter the vicissitudes of travel, change of climate, unaccustomed food, and an atmosphere, possibly miasmatic, yet with a calm confidence that their health will be preserved. When this confidence is based upon the possession of the supreme medicinal defense, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, it is indeed well founded, otherwise not. Braakish water, bad food, the wearying and other bad effects of railroad jolting, sea sickness and nervousness, aggravated by a journey and its attendant discomforts, are shorn of their pernicious influence by this sterling alternative, pacifier and compensating medicine, invaluable for dyspepsia, feebleness, nervousness, constipation, malarial disorders, rheumatism and kidney complaints.

A MORAL character is attached to autumnal scenes: the leaves falling like our years, the flowers fading like our hours, the clouds fleeting like our illusions, the light diminishing like our intelligence—the sun growing colder like our affections, the rivers becoming frozen like our lives—all bear secret relations to our destinies.

DOCTOR Macgregor, the Governor of British Guiana, gives an interesting account of a trip through the Louisiana Archipelago and the adjacent group of islands. He found them all thickly inhabited, the natives being in thousands, and in many cases very wild—so wild, in fact, that he thinks it probable they had never seen a white man before. On some of the islands he found hot mud-springs, some of them being strongly impregnated with sulphur. Gold was found on many of the islands, but in no instance was it in payable quantities.

Blair Says It's All Right.

Mr. S. O. Blair, Chicago, says: "We could not keep house without your Clarke's Extract of Flax Skin Cure and Cough Cure. We have used both for numerous troubles, especially for our child. We recommend the Cough Cure to every family having children. We used it for Whooping Cough with remarkably quick and satisfactory results and use it for any and every cough the family may have." Only one size, large bottle, Price $1.00. If you want the best toilet soap get Clarke's Flax Soap, 25 cents. Ask F. S. Duffy, druggist, for these preparations.
Prosperity is no just scale; adversity is the only balance to weigh friends.
A Very Large Percentage
Of the American people are troubled with a most annoying, troublesome and disagreeable complaint called Catarrh. It is not necessary to be so troubled. It is demonstrated beyond question that Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Catarrh Cure immediately relieves and permanently cures Catarrh. A thorough and fair trial will convince you. Use Clarke's Flax Soap for the Skin. Catarrh Cure, $1.00. Soap 25 cents. At F. S. Duffy's drug store.

If we had no defects we should not take so much pleasure in discovering of others.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.
It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast; continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful discovery free at R. N. Duffy, Wholesale Druggist. For sale wholesale at 48 per dozen.
