

THE DAILY JOURNAL

VOL. VIII. -- NO. 92

NEW BERNE, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 18, 1889.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

WANTED. To buy a share of stock in the A. & N. C. R. Co. Apply at 167 1/2

SEWING MACHINES repaired and put in good order by J. EDWARDS, 106 North Third Street, opposite post-office.

JOHN W. BREED, 417 1/2 W. Main Street, Milam County, Texas, has for sale Early Reapers, Harrows, and a full line of agricultural machinery.

FRUIT and VEGETABLES for sale by H. H. BRIDGES, 100 1/2 W. Main Street, New Berne.

PURE BLACKBERRY JUICE for medicinal purposes at 117 W. Main Street, JAMES REDMOND'S.

FIRST-CLASS job work executed at this office on satisfactory terms. a28 tf

PLOUGHS, Cultivators and Harrows at very low prices. GEO. ALLEN & CO.

IMPORTED FRENCH BRANDY AND HOLLAND GIN, just received and for sale by JAMES REDMOND.

FAMILY MEAT CUTTERS at GEO. ALLEN & CO.

JUST RECEIVED—Another lot of GARRETT'S COGNAC BRANDY for sale by JAMES REDMOND.

ONE Thousand Rolls Wall Paper at very low prices. GEO. ALLEN & CO.

PURE WINES AND LIQUORS for medicinal and other uses for sale by JAMES REDMOND.

THE President is reported as looking "worn and tired." He needs rest.

THE President seems to have no advisers among the leading men in Congress.

SAMUEL WHITE, formerly of Henderson N. C., was drowned in the James River, Richmond, Va., last Sunday night.

THERE are but two important diplomatic positions that remain to be filled, those of Minister to Russia and Minister to China.

HON. JOHN NICHOLS, of Raleigh, has been appointed chief of the mail and files division of the Treasury Department salary $2,400.

THERE are now five avowed candidates for speaker of the House of Representatives. They are Reed, McKinley, Capron, Burrows and Henderson of Iowa.

It is firmly believed that the President will call the Congress together in extra session about the first of November, but no one seems to have any idea what the President's message will be about.

J. N. TRAINER, the spinning mill man of Paterson N. J., who offered to furnish the machinery for a cotton factory in the South, taking his pay in stock in the factory, has accepted an offer from Rock Hill S. C.

"THE daughters of Julian Hawthorne are named Hildegard, Gwendolen, Gladys, Beatrice, and Imogen." That settles it. Mr. Hawthorne never wrote the "Arthur Richmond" letters with all those girls teasing him.

MR. EDWARD A. OLDRAN having resigned the editorship of the Charlotte World, has purchased the Durham Tobacco Plant which he will change to a morning paper with press dispatches. It will be known as the Durham Daily Globe.

JOHN FITZPATRICK, of New Orleans, referee in the Sullivan-Kilrain fight, has voluntarily surrendered to Gov. Lowry. Preliminaries were waived and Mr. Fitzpatrick gave bond in the sum of 1,000 to appear at Purvis, Marion County, on Thursday the 18th.

"THE Duke of Wellington used to say that he attributed his success, in some measure, to always being a quarter of an hour earlier than he was expected and that the wise course in politics is to attack your enemy at the moment he is preparing to attack you."

BROOKLYN may be a slow and uninteresting town, but 2,925 building permits, involving a cost of $15,629,736, have been issued for the first six months of this year to 2,117, at $12,764,448, for the same period last year. Evidently somebody lives there.

THE President evidently has given up all idea of being a candidate for re-election. No man with a grain of political sense desiring re-election, no matter what his inclinations might be, would outrage all decency in his appointments to public office as Mr. Harrison has done.—Kansas City Times.

HORACE A. TAYLOR, of Wisconsin, succeeds General Joseph E. Johnston as Federal commissioner of Railways. The Washington correspondent of the New York Post says: "General Johnston has conducted the office on a high plane, but he has not been able to bring sufficient energy to the administration of the office, which could hardly be expected in a man past 70 years of age."

It is interesting but not astonishing to see how unanimous the desire is growing to have a magnificent World's Fair in this country in 1892. We say country instead of city, because it is far from true that the entire press is urging the desirability of holding the celebration in New York. Such oneness of feeling upon that particular question could not be expected.—New York Journal.

A PROMINENT Republican who has been in Washington, until recently, since the 4th of March, said in that city on last Tuesday, "I have seen fifteen Republican Congressmen in both branches since I have been here. Most of them are leaders of the party. There was not one of them who did not express discontent with the administration."

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. THE COMMITTEE—Festival.

Good crowds are going down to Morehead City by nearly every train.

Ten prisoners are in Craven county jail and it is near five months before court.

An interesting paper on "One Hundred Years Ago" appears on the editorial page of this issue.

The frame work of Dr. F. W. Hughes' two dwellings on the corner of Craven and Pollock is going up rapidly.

The Wilmington Messenger would be appreciated more if it would arrive on time. Two at a time is too many.

The cost of feeding prisoners in Craven county jail will not fall short of $500 before another court convenes. Would it not pay to have a criminal court?

Suppose Craven be put with New Hanover and Mecklenburg in a criminal court district. We are of the opinion it would pay.

Mayor's Court. Isaac Forbes, colored, and Thomas Hancock were up for failing to comply with ordinance in regard to backyards. The cases were submitted, and the parties discharged upon payment of cost.

Forbes filed an affidavit that he was unable to pay the cost and was discharged.

At the Court House this Morning. Sheriff Foy of Jones arrived yesterday evening with Calvin Simmons, colored, who is held upon the charge of burning a stable. He will be taken before Judge Brown, who will arrive this morning from Morehead city, upon a writ of habeas corpus at the court house at 9:30 this morning. L. J. Moore Esq., appears for the petitioner.

The Co-Operative Factory. There was a fair crowd in attendance of the meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms last night. A constitution and by-laws were adopted and a committee of four appointed to collect the entrance fee of twenty-five cents for each share for the purpose of perfecting the organization.

The committee on advertising submitted an encouraging report which was accepted.

Missing ad journal subject to the call of the chairman.

A Good Haul. Policeman Gaskill went to Kinston yesterday and returned with three characters who are wanted here to answer to serious charges.

Henry Huskins, the harness man who made his escape last Sunday night, had been already arrested in Kinston, and Mr. Gaskill went up to bring him down. But upon arriving at Kinston he received information that Perry Chadwick and David Hines, two colored boys, and old offenders were there. The boys knew Gaskill well and as soon as he stepped off of the train at Kinston they took to their heels. Hines was soon captured, but it took about a two hour's chase to overtake Chadwick.

These boys are charged with larceny. The store of Mr. Henry Gaskins on Queen street was broken into on Tuesday night and the dwelling house of Mrs. Fred Hancock was broken into on Monday night and various goods, clothes, etc., taken out. These boys are suspected of the crime and sufficient evidence has been obtained to justify their arrest. Chadwick has served one term in the penitentiary and Hines was before the last term of the Superior court but won the sympathy of the court and was sentenced to jail with the privilege to hire out. He was hired out to a good man, but work is not what he is looking for if it is to be done outside of the penitentiary. The three were brought down on the train yesterday evening and placed in the lock-up and will have a hearing today.

The Alliance in Craven. Mr. H. H. Perry has given notice that he will meet the farmers in the vicinity of New Berne at the court house on Wednesday, the 31st day of July for the purpose of organizing an Alliance.

For some cause the farmers of Craven county are not as enthusiastic Alliance men as those of the adjoining counties, or at least they do not exhibit as much zeal as some others. No matter how good the organization or how sound the principles upon which it is built, it cannot be of much service to the farmers unless they chose to make it so. A man to be benefited by the Alliance must not be a drone in the hive, he must benefit the Alliance and the Alliance will, in turn, benefit him.

Our Firemen in Wilmington. The following item from the Star shows how our boys were received in Wilmington:

The New Berne firemen arrived on time yesterday evening and were met by the boys of the "Atlantic" engine company, who, preceded by the Hickory Military Band, marched from their engine house to the Front street depot, accompanied by the chief of the fire department, Mr. Martin Newman, and a large concourse of citizens. At the depot the firemen formed in line, and greeted the visitors with cheers. A procession was formed, with the Hickory band in the lead, the visitors were escorted through the city to the engine house of Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company No. 1. The line of march being down Front to Market, up Market to Fourth, and thence to the engine house. Here the visiting firemen were formally welcomed in a short speech by Mr. T. C. Craft, and after a short stay at the engine house they were escorted to the Orton for supper, and thence to the opera house to attend the performance of the "Little Tycoon."

Personal. Mr. J. M. Hines left the city yesterday on a canvassing tour for the Davis Sewing Machine, which he represents. Mrs. C. W. McLean is in Washington City for a few weeks.

Joseph Kinsey of Fort Barnwell, was in the city yesterday. He reports the outlook for crops in his section as being very poor.

Miss Maude Moore is visiting friends at Bell's Ferry.

Miss Hunt, who has been visiting at the residence of Mr. W. E. Clarke, returned to her home at Asheville yesterday.

Shipping News. The steamer Annie of the E. C. D. has sailed yesterday with a cargo of lumber, truck and general exports. The Eagle of this line will arrive this morning.

The steamer Tahoma sails this morning.

The steamer Danvers of the Clyde line arrived Tuesday night from Baltimore, with a cargo of general merchandise and sailed last night with a cargo of shingles, lumber and naval stores.

Thanks. We are requested by Mayor Williams to return thanks to Mayor Hill, the chief of police, and citizens of Kinston and vicinity for their timely assistance in arresting the parties brought from there yesterday evening by policeman Gaskill. We are sure our Mayor will reciprocate whenever the opportunity offers.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Wilmington Advertiser: Mr. James Hewitt, near Jumping Run, killed a coachwhip snake last Saturday which was six feet long and about six inches in circumference. This is the first snake story we have been called upon to record this season. It was a monster—the snake we mean, the story is all right.

Durham Tobacco Plant: They say fleas, mosquitoes and sand flies abound as the encampment, and are sources of great worry to the soldier boys. Try Morehead next year.—A committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, to whom the matter was referred, has after prayerful consideration decided to hold protracted services in the rooms of the association from the first Sunday in August.

Wilmington Star: The dwelling of Mr. J. R. Register, on Fourth between Bladen and Harget streets, was entered by a burglar last Saturday night, who robbed Mr. N. D. Casteen, a boarder, of about $2.50 in money. Mr. Casteen was in bed asleep. His clothing was found in the back yard Sunday morning. The same night the house of Mr. Joseph Farrow, on Wooster between Sixth and Seventh, was robbed of $37.87.

Goldsboro Mercury: We are requested by a gentleman from this city to request our exchanges to give us the date, the day, day of the month, and the year, when the celebration was held in Greensboro for the construction of the N. C. R. R., and the election of the board of directors of said road at the time when Ex-Gov. Morehead was elected as the first President of the road. The day also when the first shovel of dirt was thrown at that point in the construction of said road.

Charlotte Chronicle: Information has been received in Charlotte that Burwell Evans was shot and killed by W. J. Davis at Fort Worth, Texas, last Thursday. Eight years ago Mr. Evans went from Chesterfield county, S. C., to Fort Worth, where he opened a store and did a large business, having a fortune of probably $500,000 at the time of his death. Mr. Davis was one of the clerks and shot Evans in a difficulty. Davis was formerly a clerk at Monroe.

Raleigh Call: The funeral services of the late Col. L. C. Jones were held at Jonesboro yesterday, and were probably witnessed by a larger crowd of people than ever attended a funeral in North Carolina before. The friends and acquaintances of the deceased gentleman, from all over the State were in attendance. Four special trains arrived in Jonesboro during the morning, all bringing hundreds of admirers of the deceased gentleman who desired to pay him the last possible earthly tribute of respect. The starting points of the trains were Wilmington, Fayetteville, Rutherfordton and Raleigh. About one hundred and sixty people were in attendance from this city.

Lowry and the Fighters. JACKSON, Miss., July 15.—Gov. Lowry still expresses his determination to have Sullivan and Kilrain arrested, unless they go out of the United States.

Proceedings will also be begun immediately against Charles Rich, on whose property the fight took place.

FITZPATRICK SURRENDERS. JACKSON, Miss., July 15.—John Fitzpatrick of New Orleans, referee in the Sullivan-Kilrain fight, arrived last night. He went to the Governor's office this morning and informed the Governor that he had come to answer any charges there might be lodged against him for alleged violation of the laws of Mississippi. Preliminaries were waived and Mr. Fitzpatrick gave bond in the sum of $1,000 to appear at Purvis, Marion county, on Thursday the 18th. This bond was promptly signed by citizens of this place.

READY TO PAY THE MONEY. NEW YORK, July 15.—Today is the time set for paying over to the victor of the recent fight, the $2,000 stake money, and to hand him the Richard K. Fox champion belt.

AL C. RIDGE, the stake holder, stands ready to deliver over to John L. Sullivan's representative the stakes as soon as he receives a formal statement from Referee Fitzpatrick that Sullivan won the fight.

FOX'S CONDITIONS. The Police Gazette, however, is not ready to hand over the belt. William E. Harding, of the Police Gazette, informed a United Press reporter today that Sullivan would not be allowed to take the belt until he had deposited $1,000 with Richard K. Fox as a security for the safe-keeping of the belt; and also as a guarantee that he will defend it against all comers.

KILRAIN PASSES PITTSBURG. PITTSBURG, Pa., July 15.—Jake Kilrain, the defeated pugilist, accompanied by his trainer, Mike Donovan, passed through the city on the Pennsylvania Railroad limited train this morning. Their stationroom was reached, but they did not appear for breakfast, and seemed fearful of their presence becoming known. No reporter was able to secure an interview.

Good Advice, Showing Result. Edward Silver, Chicago, gives testimony: "My wife had catarrh twenty-five years; suffered severely for six years before she began to use your remedy. Unable to breathe except through the mouth; in a most critical condition. Tried everything without relief, when Dr. Streeter advised her to buy Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Catarrh Cure. Relief followed immediately. She continued to use it until she is now entirely cured. Her health has not been so good in many years." Price $1.00. Wash the baby with Clarke's Flax Soap, 25 cents. F. S. Duffy, Druggist, now has the Flax remedies on hand. Beecham's Pills cure bilious and nervous tiffs.

A PENSIVE RETREAT. Let him who loves to worship nature come. To some deserted spot beside a stream, And watch the darting fishes' armor gleam. And listen to the busy insects hum. He long may read, the stream unfolds, Each passing bubble notes some pristine page. On which he might intently pore an age And never dream the sweetest thought it holds.

The saucy minners gather near and play, They glide across, around in splendid grace; But should he pass his hand across his face They vanish with a flash of silvery gray.

Beyond the stream the copper-head secure Behind the older bushes nurses wrath, Against him who presumes to cross his path. Usurper, acting as of welcome sure, The bull-frog leaps and leaves a widening ring. The terrapin ashamed slips from his log, The half-grown tadpoles lash the shallow bog. While up the stream the heron smooths his wing.

The stream flows on, the dreamer dreams of peace, His burning heart finds rest in broken lays. He leaves the present for sweet buried days: He wakens to learn this strife will never cease.

Till at the gate of dread eternity; We shall be callous to besetting sin, Our boats securely anchored then By heaven, Quintessence of felicity! HERBERT THURON.

Judge McAllister Takes the Whole Responsibility.

NASHVILLE, July 14.—The American tomorrow will publish the following card from Judge McAllister, of the Circuit Court, whose decision set John L. Sullivan at liberty last Thursday: I desire to state to the public that in delivering my judgment in the case of John L. Sullivan I did not mention the name of Governor Robert L. Taylor, nor did I ever refer to the practice of the Executive Department of the State of Tennessee in refusing to extradite for misdemeanor. I based my judgment wholly upon my own construction of the Constitution of the United States and the statutes of Tennessee.

The reports of the press, so far as they attempt to divide the responsibility of my judgment between myself and the Governor of the State, are wholly without foundation.

If there was any error or wrong in the discharge of John L. Sullivan I desire the people of Tennessee to know I assume the whole responsibility. Governor Taylor was not in the city of Nashville at the time I discharged John L. Sullivan because there was no requisition from the Governor of Mississippi nor any warrants of extradition from the Governor of Tennessee. The question of extradition for misdemeanors cut no figure whatever in my judgment.

WILLIAM K. McALLISTER, Judge.

Festival.

A Festival will be held on Saturday, the Third day of August, 1889, at Tabernacle Church. There will be an address at 10 o'clock in the morning. There will be dinner after the address; then after dinner there will be amusements such as are generally had at a Festival. Everybody is invited to be present on this occasion, and those who can conveniently do so bring a basket of dinner, and thus aid in a good work, as the money collected on the occasion is to be used in the repairing of Tabernacle Church.
