"THE Co-Operative Society of the Poets of Chicago" has recently been formed with a capital stock consisting of several barrels of manuscript and $3,000 to secure their publication. A co-operative society of poets who publish their own productions would be a relief to the newspapers.

A REPORT is in circulation in New Orleans that the Governor of Mississippi intends to prosecute every body who was present at the recent prize fight; a detective was in New York yesterday, armed with a requisition from Governor Lowry, for the arrest of the two men who looked after Kilrain's interest in the fight.—Wilmington Star.

CARDINAL GIBBONS has prepared for the Cosmopolitan Magazine a paper on the dignity, right and responsibilities of labor. It is a defense of the labor organizations, as having the same right as those of capital to organize for self protection. He advocates the encouragement of unions sanctioned by Government and public opinion, in preference to secret societies and conspiracies. He believes in the rule of the people, faulty though it may be, rather than government by any class which regards itself as supreme.—Washington Post.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

W. B. LANE—Schedule "B."

Warmer and showers. Among the passengers for Morehead City last night were Senator Vance, Hon. T. J. Jarvis, Judge Faircloth and J. S. Carr, Esq.

Our former townsman, J. V. Williams, now of Richmond, Va., arrived last night. We are glad to learn that he contemplates coming back to New Berne and continue the manufacture of ink here.

A colored man applied to policeman Gaskill yesterday evening to be put in the lock-up, in order to see how it felt to be in jail. Mr. Gaskill accommodated him a little more than he desired—after being locked up he forgot to turn him out until this morning.

The board of trustees of the New Berne Academy will meet tomorrow afternoon to select a Principal of a High School to be opened this fall. We trust they will select wisely and then we would urge our citizens to join in and have a school that will be the pride, not only of New Berne but Eastern Carolina.

The prayer meeting services under the auspices of the young men of the Baptist Church will be held this morning at half-past nine o'clock at the market dock, in the market house building; J. B. Holland, leader; At the Long wharf at a quarter past five; R. Hancock, jr., leader. All persons are cordially invited to attend these services.

Captain Hardy B. Lane, who retires from the custom house, has held the position of deputy for a little over four years, and we venture to say there has not been a better kept office anywhere in the country. He at once knew the duties of the office and has faithfully discharged them. The officials appointed by President Cleveland in this section go out with clean hands.

Correction. In the advertisement of Prof. Neal's school, which appeared in yesterday's issue, there was an error. The price of tuition is from $1.50 to $3.50, instead of $3.50 as it appeared yesterday.

Morehead City. It is certainly delightful at the seashore now. The Atlantic Hotel has a good crowd, many of them from Tennessee and Georgia. A party of twenty ladies and gentlemen arrived in a special palace car from Knoxville last Tuesday night and are enjoying themselves hugely. The management of the hotel is spoken of in the highest terms on every hand. The southwest breeze is steady, strong and bracing, and is delightful to all.

The New Berne House is rapidly filling up with families who are well pleased with the management, being the best they have had there for years. Now is the time to go to Morehead City. Every one who goes will feel the better for having gone, and those who want their families to have a month of rest and recreation should send them to Morehead City.

For a disordered liver try Becham's Pills.

DR. GRISSON Acquitted on Every Count.

A telegram received from Dr. Grisson by Governor Jarvis yesterday evening while the train was at the depot, announced that he was acquitted on every count in the charges preferred against him before the board of directors.

It would seem to be in order now to bring Doctor Rodgers and Mr. Thompson to account. If Dr. Grisson is not guilty of any of the charges preferred against him, then a most damnable conspiracy has been concocted to ruin him. Men who will engage in such a conspiracy certainly ought not to be retained in high, responsible positions.

Well Said. The following paragraph from the Wilmington Star is a compliment to one of the most enthusiastic firemen in North Carolina:

Mr. Jas. W. Moore, foreman of the Newbern Steam Fire Engine Company, has been twenty years a fireman and chief of the Newbern Fire Department for several years. He is the prince of good fellows and a great favorite with the members of the "Atlantic." His son, Master Herbert Moore, is with the company. He is a chip-of-the-old-block, the pet of the company, and accompanies them on all their excursions.

Personal. C. B. Aycock, Esq., of Goldsboro, who has been in the city on professional business in a case before P. H. Pelletier, Esq., as referee, returned yesterday. Capt. Broadhurst of Wayne, who was also interested in the case, returned yesterday.

Mr. J. K. Willis is off on a summer trip to the mountains.

Clement Manly, Esq., and M. DeW. Stevenson, Esq., were in Carteret yesterday on professional business.

Mr. Geo. N. Ives and family are spending the summer at the Atlantic Hotel, Morehead City.

Miss Sadie Manly came up from Morehead City yesterday morning.

Mr. G. T. Adams of Fayetteville arrived last night.

All are cordially invited to participate in these services. Ushers at the doors. Y. M. C. A.—Bible reading this afternoon at 6 o'clock. Subject, "One or Other, Which?" Leader, A. B. Carroll. All men are invited to attend.

How They Were Entertained. The Wilmington Star gives the following account of the manner in which our firemen were entertained on their recent visit:

The visiting firemen were taken to Carolina beach yesterday by their entertainers the boys of the "Atlantic," and from all accounts had a "splendid time." The weather was delightful, a cool breeze from the southwest tempering the warm rays of the sun, and making a fine surf on the beach.

The Sylvan Grove left her wharf at 9 o'clock with fully 400 people on board. The trip down the river was enlivened with music by the New Berne band and by the groups of merry dancers who tripped "light fantastic" until the boat reached the pier. At the beach, the firemen made their headquarters at the pavilion, where an abundant supply of refreshments, both liquid and solid, was stored. They passed the day in floating and dancing, and chasing the breakers in the surf in company with crowds of visitors, fully a thousand people being on the beach. Dinner was served at the hotel, and the proprietor, Mr. Perry, spread an excellent table, the menu embracing everything that the sea and the land afforded.

The firemen returned to the city on the 6 p. m. boat, and after supper retired to the "Atlantic" engine house where the evening was spent pleasantly.

A Word of Caution.

In our zeal for organizing a co-operative factory we should be careful not to discount the industries we already have. We are not on the "downward" grade as some would think and as the following facts recently collected by the New Berne Board of Trade will show:

There are in New Berne and vicinity about twenty saw mills, several planing mills and dry kilns, with an annual output of about 60,000,000 feet of lumber, valued at over half million dollars. Other industries include grist mill, cotton seed oil mill, cotton ginning, oyster canning, guano factory, wool plate and wood pulp mills, ice factory, marble yard, buggy works, also furniture, candy, cigar, clothing and box factories, with products worth nearly half million dollars. The trucking embraces about 1,500 acres, and requires over a million feet of lumber for shipping boxes annually.

Cotton shipments from the port of New Berne about 40,000 bales, of which 15,000 bales are sold by the producers at the New Berne Cotton and Grain Exchange. The fish and oyster business amounts to over $200,000. The banking business of New Berne and the eight counties adjoining is transacted by the National Bank of New Berne, where capital stock is $100,000, surplus $70,000, and by the private bank of Green, Foy & Co.

More capital is needed to develop the great natural resources of the country.

Our Needs. If any one supposes that New Berne is wanting in self reliance and grit he is a stranger to the situation.

Look at the wood-pulp factory across the river. Who started it? Who has pressed it to the front, and is now making it a blessing and an honor to the city?

Who established our saw-mills, the largest and best in the country?

Who constitute the business intelligence that gives character to the city at home and abroad? All these are our own people who have buffeted the waves of fortune and won success!

The business men of New Berne are able to carry her to the front with a whoop, and the first thing anybody knows they will do it. The cotton factory will be built, the knitting mills constructed, and "what then?" A bridge across Neuse river! That's music for you. Good country roads and a bridge across the Neuse will more than double the trade of New Berne in five years. What a magnificent country lies adjacent to the city! Our opportunities are splendid, and with the blessing of heaven we will improve them.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers. Oxford Orphans Friend: Three new girls were admitted to the Asylum this week—Mary, Lula and Daisy Porter, all of Goldsboro. The problem now arises, how to sleep forty children in fifteen beds.

Wilmington Messenger. Goldsboro Department: A steamboat meeting at Seven Springs on the 25th. The determination now seems manifest to utilize the navigation of the river.—There will not be much longer delay in the electric light. The material is all on the way, and everything relating to contract, franchise etc., is now definitely settled.

News and Observer: A gentleman who came from Moore county yesterday reported a fearful occurrence there a day or two ago. A large Jersey bull attacked Mrs. D. C. Kelley, as she was walking outside her yard. The animal rushed upon her from behind, threw her into the air and injured her severely. A deep gash was cut in her thigh, and it is supposed that she is seriously injured internally.

Tarboro Carolina Banner: Harry Lewis, wagoner for J. K. Grannis lost life under very singular circumstances Tuesday morning. Harry was driving a double team down near the old A. & R. depot Friday morning about 9:15 o'clock when the bridle of his horse came off and he got down to put it on again when the north bound train came up and his team began to jump and lunge, Harry continuing to hold on until they backed him up against a tree and it was here that he received his fatal gore through the abdomen. Help soon came and the unfortunate man was removed to his home where all was done for him that could be done by our physicians, and after twenty hours of intense suffering he expired.

Statesville Landmark: Blanche, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gill, was last Friday evening going across the yard of her grandmother, Mrs. Abigail Foster, from her father's lot adjoining, and her father's horse grazing near the path she struck it on one of its hind legs with a switch. As she did so the horse kicked at her and she caught its hoof on her left side, just over the spleen. She did not appear to be greatly injured, but commenced vomiting and Dr. J. F. Long was sent for and administered to her. There was a red mark on her side, of the form of the horse's hoof, but no evidence of any serious injury. The child did not suffer much and was bright Saturday but as the day declined took an unfavorable turn and died before sunset—about 94 hours after having received the kick.

Advice to Mothers. Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children's teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Shipping News.

Jack the Ripper. LONDON, July 19.—An Englishman was arrested this morning on the charge of having murdered the woman whose body was found Tuesday morning in Castle Alley, near Whitechapel. After being taken into custody the prisoner confessed he had killed the woman. He said the weapon he used to accomplish his purpose was the ordinary pocket knife; he carried no other weapon. He declared he lied nowhere and that he had just arrived from abroad. The prisoner is six feet tall, fair complexion and carries himself with a military air. His actions indicate he is insane.

LONDON, July 19.—The identity of the man taken into custody by the police this morning on suspicion of being the Whitechapel murderer, is carefully concealed for the present by the authorities. He has confessed that he murdered all the women whose bodies have been found in and about the Whitechapel district. He gave the names of his victims, the dates upon which he killed them, and all the ghastly details connected with the terrible crimes. The police believe that he is a lunatic but that possibly the story he tells is true and that he is the man for whom they have so long been searching.

PROGRESS. It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.
