SCOLDING is never in order. NEVER use harsh means when gentleness will answer the purpose. "BARTH'S crammed with heaven. And every common bush affire with God."

PATIENCE and industry are more than a match for genius and slothfulness.

"Age is linked to age, and, in the struggle of good and evil which prevades all the ages, Victory is seen slowly, but steadily, declaring itself for the good. THE VICES DIE, THE VIRTUES NEVER DIE."

THERE is no conflict between science and religion. The deeper downward science mines, and the higher upward science soars the more concomitant her declaration, "The things which are seen are temporal."

THE ambition to bring up boys without the necessity for work leads them to acquire a taste for dress, style, luxuries, and amusements, which can not form any solid foundation for manly or gentlemanly character.

A SMOOTH sea never made a skillful mariner, neither do uninterrupted prosperity and success qualify for usefulness and happiness. The storms of adversity, like those of the ocean, rouse the faculties, and excite the invention, prudence, skill and fortitude of the voyager.—Christian Advocate.

If God gives me work to do, I will thank Him that He has bestowed on me a strong arm; if He gives me dangers to brave, I will bless Him that He has not made me without courage; but I will go down on my knees and beseech Him humbly to make me fit for my task, if He tells me it is only to stand and wait.—Jean Ingelow.

NEXT in importance to knowing what to say in public address, is knowing where to stop. Many a preacher who has impressed a great truth on his hearers by his earnest spoken words; dissipates or neutralizes that impression by continuing to talk after he has said enough. In praying for power in his pulpit work, every preacher ought to pray for grace to stop at the right time. S. S. Times.

The moment that the religious idea is lost the glory of a school of learning is lost. We all know that the unconscious influence of the teacher is the chief element of his power. When the teacher of Mathematics may generate and diffuse through his class-room an influence for or against Christ. Students are quick to discover the presence or absence of this influence; they readily and accurately discover the measure of a teacher's religious life and power.

WHY cannot people differ as to the guilt or innocence of men without presuming to have a monopoly of all sense and honesty and relegating those that differ to that class who are both foolish and corrupt. Entertain your own opinion in charity. While we pity an Agnostic we would make him happy forever and save his soul.—Wilmington Messenger. We always hesitate to differ with the Messenger, and always accord its honesty of opinion and purity of purpose.

"INTEGRITY, frugality, perseverance and toil will benefit the young and prepare manhood for commercial wealth and literature for healthy and stimulating teachings. All science, all art give lessons. The natural philosopher of today may dwell amid conceptions which beggar those of Milton. "Look," says Tyndall, "at the integrated energies of our world, the stored power of our coal fields; our winds and rivers; our fleets, armies and guns. What are they? They are all generated by a portion of the Sun's energy, which does not amount to one-two hundred and thirty millionth of the whole."

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. MISS MARY L. ALLEN—Select school. G. T. ADAMS—New Berne high school.

The continued rains make the outlook exceedingly gloomy for farmers in this section.

Preparations for the grand ball at the Atlantic Hotel, Morehead, on the evenings of August 1st and 2d still continue. We shall shortly publish the reduced rates to same.

The Goldsboro Argus has not made its appearance in the JOURNAL office for three days. As the bundle comes regularly to the city—we presume the JOURNAL has been excommunicated.

The colored Teachers institute for this county will hold the closing exercises at the Theatre on Monday night. The Institute has been quite successful this year, both in attendance and work done.

The mission prayer meetings of the young men of the Baptist church will be held at the market house building at 9:30 o'clock, J. C. Whitty, leader. At Long Wharf 5:15 o'clock. All persons are cordially invited to attend and unite with us in these services.

The steamer Kinston will be thoroughly overhauled and put in first-class order for the fall and winter work. While she is being repaired the same regularity which has heretofore existed will be observed by having a steamer make regular trips between New Berne and Kinston. Please note change of schedule from time to time.

Assignment. On yesterday Geo. Allen & Co., assigned to L. S. Wood for the benefit of creditors.

The continued depreciation of property, the failure of crops for several years in succession and the complete failure to realize any profits from the last truck crop, and the refusal of a large creditor to give longer indulgence forced Mr. Allen to take this step, deeming it best for both himself and his creditors.

A more enterprising, energetic, public spirited, kind hearted and obliging man than Mr. Allen is hard to find.

His indomitable energy will not flag; he will still labor for the upbuilding of New Berne and his section, and in this he is entitled to and will command the respect of all good citizens.

Personal. Rev. L. W. Crawford came up from Morehead City yesterday morning. Mr. J. E. Noble of Jones county is in the city.

Miss Bella Wharton of Washington, N. C., is visiting Miss Besaja Plummer. John H. Small, Esq., of Washington, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. R. A. Richardson and family are at the New Berne House, Morehead City, for the summer.

Among the passengers for Morehead City last night were Mr. C. E. Foy and family, Jas. A. Bryan, Esq., Capt. J. A. Richardson and Mr. James Thomas.

Miss Mamie Kinsey, of Jones county, is in the city visiting friends.

PROGRESS. It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

Is This True?

In 1880, the monopolists bought enough white operatives in mills—we know precisely what we are affirming—to give a majority of the votes to Garfield, a man of low moral character.

The above sentence is from an editorial in the Wilmington Messenger of July 26th. Was Garfield a man of low moral character? It is true he passed through the ordeal of a political canvass in which his character, both private and public, was thoroughly discussed and the usual mud slinging was indulged in, but we hardly think a true history of the man will put him down as one of low moral character. He was not a ruling elder of the Presbyterian Church, as was Mr. Amis who acquitted Dr. Grissom, but we think those who knew him and are not in the gall of bitterness and prejudice will accord to him a high moral, Christian character. Mr. Garfield was truly a self-made man. The JOURNAL did all in its power to prevent his election because it was not of that party, but we see nothing to be gained by characterizing him as a man of low moral character because we do not believe the facts in the case justify it.

John Morford. One of the saddest events that has occurred in this community was the death of Mr. John Morford which took place at his home, near this city, on Friday afternoon, the 26th inst.

Mr. Morford came from New Jersey, to New Berne, and engaged in farming on one of the truck farms of Dunn and Willet.

We question if a stranger ever made a more favorable impression than he did upon the people of this community. Kind, gentle and accommodating in disposition, and noble and generous in his emotions, he won his way to the esteem, confidence and affection of all with whom he came in contact. It is pleasing to know that our people did all for him that human sympathy could suggest and the highest professional skill accomplish, and that in his last hours he expressed his gratitude for the "immeasurable kindness that had been shown to him."

On yesterday morning the body of this excellent man was forwarded by express to his friends in New Jersey.

Caught and Flogged.

The passenger trains between New Berne and Morehead have of late been annoyed by having missiles thrown at the coaches, and a few evenings since a little girl from Beaufort had her hand cut by a piece of glass from a window broken by a lightwood knot hurled at the passenger train. One day last week a party of railroad men accompanied by the necessary legal officers, made a descent upon a house where the suspected guilty parties resided, and succeeded in capturing them after a search of some little time. They proved to be two boys and confessed the crime. Owing to their youth they were given the alternative of a flogging or a prospective residence in the penitentiary. The former proposition being accepted, a female relative was deputized to administer the punishment, and from the accounts of an eye-witness, it was a chastisement which the offender will long remember, well and long put, and such a lesson as the boys will not soon forget.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Bayboro Tribune of Pamlico: Ground is being broken for the building of the Pamlico Male and Female Institute new school building.

Elizabeth City News: The crops were never known to grow more rapidly than they are doing now.—It is astonishing what a large amount of lumber is being manufactured at Elizabeth City.

Statesville Landmark: The Grand Lodge of the State colored Odd Fellows will meet in annual session here on the 6th of August and remain in session three days, the exercises closing with a parade on the 8th.

Siler City News: Our merchants are shipping a considerable quantity of chickens to Richmond, Va., by express every week. On Thursday last fifteen crates of chickens were shipped from this depot. They contained about fifty chickens.

Rocky Mount Plain Dealer: Most everybody is talking about the condition of the crops. From the general reports the tobacco crop is fine and some very good cures have been made but the cotton and corn, with a few exceptions, is very inferior.

Roanoke Herald: Work on the new court house is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible, and if the weather continues good it will be finished in time for the fall term of court. When it is completed it will be one of the handsomest buildings of the kind in the State.

Wilmington Messenger: A party is being organized in the city for the purpose of lynching the first burglar caught at his work in the city.—The building for the electric light plant at the Wilmington Gas Works will be completed by the middle of next week.—The burglars get in their work every night in some section of the city. The thing is getting to be monotonous.

Raleigh News and Observer: All arrangements for the great firemen's tournament to be held here August 13th and 14th are maturing. Chief Engelhard says a general interest in the occasion is being manifested all over the State, which insures a successful tournament.—The board of the penitentiary adjourned yesterday after transacting the usual monthly business. In addition to this the board decided to have the work of completing the west wing of the penitentiary pushed forward at once. When it is completed, which will be as soon as the work can be done, it will be used as the penitentiary shoe factory, which will then be operated on a larger scale. The work of completing the wing with the material and labor on hand will, it is estimated, cost from $5,000 to 7,000.

The Factional Troubles.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The Star this evening, speaking of Southern appointments, says: The Postoffice Department has had an awful time of it settling the Jacksonville postmaster'ship. Mr. McMurray, who was Goodrich's candidate for the place, was appointed several weeks ago, and did not get his commission. When the appointment was first given, other candidates came up to Washington in hot haste to protest. They made charges against him and had the commission held up. The charges were not proven, however, and the President signed the commission after waiting some time. It is understood now that there is another hitch, and Postmaster-General Wanamaker is still withholding the commission. It will be pretty well thumb worn if it is not delivered soon.

"Nearly all the southern appointments seem to get involved in some sort of way. It is now said that others of the Virginia 'kickers, who have not yet gotten anything out of the deal, are not willing to endorse the compromise which Mr. Brady agreed to. Brady got the Richmond internal revenue collector'ship, and some others want to kick themselves into something.

"The President has a way of sending factional leaders off to settle their own fights before recognizing the supremacy of either side."

Starving Coal Miners.

CHICAGO, July 26.—Members of the relief committee left this morning with eighty tons of provisions and supplies for the starving locked-out coal miners of Spring Valley, Ill. There are about 2,000 idle miners in the district, making with their families about 6,000 souls. The arrival of the train there this afternoon was greeted with great demonstrations of joy. Everywhere there were to be seen evidences of the most pinching poverty and destitution. Men, women and children were most scantily clad in the cheapest of materials and there was great dearth of foot gear among them. Their faces bore unmistakable evidences of pinching hunger. These people have been locked out nearly three months and are absolutely on the verge of starvation.

Beccom's Pills cure bilious and nervous ill.

First a Pigmy—Then a Giant.

We are too apt to regard a small ailment much as we would some pigmy, unpleasant of aspect and prankish in deed, but incapable of serious mischief. We ignore the fact that it grows prodigiously, strengthens in proportion, and begets evil progeny. A fit of indigestion, a slight bilious attack, sensations of unrest and languor when the system should have been braced by recent sleep, unaccountable nervousness, inactivity of the kidneys or bladder—what are these but the precursors of obstinate and serious bodily disturbance? In either of the above emergencies, common sense and experience unite in indicating Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as the best preventive. Particularly should its use be prompt when the languor, yawning, chilliness down the back, and feverishness that precede a malarial attack, manifest themselves. Incipient rheumatism grows apace. Don't neglect it. So with constipation and debility.
