The Democrats of Virginia are confident of a splendid victory in November.

"ELECTRIC wires are of such quick tempered metal it is dangerous to cross them."

"THE man who is nearly always wrong does the most crowing, when he happens to be right."

TWELVE inches of rain has fallen in Maryland since Wednesday, doing immense injury to crops.

STORMS are reported to have done great injury in Ohio, Wisconsin and Illinois within the last few days.

A LETTER from Wm. A. Guthrie, of Durham, shows that the Raleigh Insane Asylum is no place for nervous patients.

THE five men accused of the murder of Dr. Cronin were arraigned in the Chicago Court Monday. All pleaded not guilty.

FORTY experienced lock makers have gone from New Haven Conn., to work in a lock factory at Florence, Ala., on a three years contract.

THE President is censured for delay in appointing an Associate Justice to the place on the U. S. Supreme Court bench made vacant by the death of Stanley Matthews.

A GANG of desperadoes in Patrick county Va., on the North Carolina border, are committing many depredations and are defying the officers of both States.—Wilmington Star.

THE Wilmington Messenger says: Mr. J. S. Carr says the sale of the Durham Plant was bona fide and he fully indorses the management of Mr. J. B. Whitaker. He will not back the Globe, the new paper, Mr. W. says."

ASSISTANT SECRETARY of State Bussay has decided that the widow of a soldier who was killed in a drunken brawl is not entitled to a pension because he was not killed in the line of duty. The decision is right, but it will raise a howl in his party.

WILL the dissatisfied Republicans of North Carolina give the organization of the House to the Democrats in return for the magnificent snubbing the President has treated them to? This is an interesting question in current Republican politics. They can, but will they? We think not. There is not that much sand in them.—Norfolk Landmark.

ONE of the most hopeful signs of the day is the warm interest the people are taking in the matter of selecting delegates to nominate the Governor. It is an encouraging fact that there is apparent everywhere a concern which amounts already to enthusiasm. When the Democrats of Virginia are fully aroused there is every reason to expect an old time victory.—Norfolk Landmark.

THERE seems to be no doubt that the rating of the pension claim of Senator Manderson, without his application, whereby his pension was doubled, and a neat sum of arrears placed in his pocket, was done to establish a high precedent, which would render easy and less conspicuous the filchings of the subordinates in the bureau. That it was thus followed is notorious, and the investigation now in progress, if conducted in the interest of the public service, will make some startling revelations.—Norfolk Ledger.

MR. MORLEY expected to move in the Commons yesterday an amendment to the proposed grant to the Crown for pin money to the Princess Louise, imposing a condition that no further grants of similar character shall be asked by the Crown. The large minority vote upon the rejection of Mr. Labouchere's substitute shows a very strong distaste for even the diluted monarchism which is still maintained in the British system of government. The question that is constantly suggesting itself to the English people is; why, and how much longer, shall we contribute to the splendid uselessness of royalty. Louise will be lucky enough to get her money, but the effort is almost certain to completely close that source of supply for her younger brothers and sisters."

August.
The morning showers come with regularity.

The Alliance picnic tomorrow at Street's Ferry.

Grand dress ball at the Atlantic hotel tonight, complimentary to Governor Fowle.

The failure of the present crops in this section is almost a foregone conclusion. Farmers ought to save all the fruit possible and plant all available fall crops.

The term of office of the new Justices of the Peace appointed by the last General Assembly begins today. S. R. Street, Esq., is ready for business as is also our friend Mr. Wm. H. Oliver.

Come to Morehead City.

The State Alliance meets in Fayetteville on the 18th inst., this year. We trust the farmers of this section will make a strong effort to have the meeting next year at Morehead City. It is the best place in the State for summer gatherings.

The Ball at Morehead.

Preparations for the ball at Morehead still continue. The grounds around the hotel will be illuminated and the best music will enliven the occasion. The evenings of August 1st and 2d bid fair to be memorable occasions at the Atlantic Hotel.

The Revenue Cutter.

We do not understand why the revenue cutter should have been ordered from the waters of Pamlico and Albermarle sounds. The department certainly does not propose to open such a temptation to smuggle as would be in the event that no cutter traversed these sounds.

The last Congress passed a bill authorizing the construction of a new cutter for the district but we are not informed as to whether an appropriation was made. The cutter is of much advantage to the commerce of these waters, which is constantly increasing, besides preventing the smuggling in of foreign goods.

If the order is for a permanent removal, an effort should be made to have it rescinded.

Shooting an Owl.

A member of the New Berne Cotton Exchange was visiting his farm in Jones county a few days ago and while walking around the plantation with gun in hand discovered a very large owl in the branch of a tree. He let go one barrel of his gun at the owl but it sat right there on the limb—was neither killed nor frightened. He then began moving around so as to get a fair shot from another direction, and while keeping his eye on the owl stepped on the brink of a ditch and slipped in. He recovered however and found the owl still there rolling its eyes in every direction, and concluded to make the best of the situation and let him have the other barrel. But this time the gun failed fire. Mr. Jno. T. Heath living close by was called for, and he hastened to the spot with his gun, and took deliberate aim at the owl and fired, but the owl was right there; did not move a feather.

After the snake had cleared away Heath surveyed the owl carefully and sang out, "Why hello F. S. cant you tell an owl from a cob-web?"

THEY CALL IT AN OUTRAGE.

Excitement in Montreal over the Seizure of a Schooner.

CHICAGO, July 30.—A Tribune special from Montreal says: The seizure of the schooner Black Diamond in Behring Sea, caused quite a sensation here. This outrage, as it is called, coming when assurances are made of the friendly relations between England and America, raises excitement to a high pitch, and government supporters demand an immediate call on the United States to release the schooner, and for full indemnity. A leading member of Parliament said last evening:

"The end has been reached. Canada can no longer submit to insult and seizure of her vessels on the high seas. We must show our hand, and we have sufficient force in the Northern Pacific waters to enforce any demand we make."

If the same feeling prevails throughout Canada, there is serious trouble ahead.

SEIZED BY THE "RUSH."

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The Treasury Department has received information by telegraph of the seizure, by the revenue steamer Rush, of the British sailing vessel Black Diamond, on July 11th for violating the sailing laws. The telegram stated that particulars would follow by mail.

DETAILS OF THE CAPTURE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 30.—The steamer Dora arrived from Behring's last night, and brings the first detailed news of the capture of the British sealer Black Diamond by the United States revenue cutter Richard Rush. On July 11, the Rush overtook the Black Diamond and ordered her to heave to. The Captain of the Black Diamond refused to obey the order. Thereupon the commander of the Rush ordered a lowering of ports and the guns were run out. This action caused the schooner to heave to. Capt. Shepard and Lieut. Tuttle then boarded the English craft and asked for her papers. The officers of the Black Diamond offered no armed resistance, but refused to deliver the ship's papers. Capt. Shepard at once broke open the cabin and forced the hinges of the strong box and the Captain's chest, thereby securing the papers. A search of the vessel disclosed 103 sealskins which had been taken in Behring's Sea. Capt. Shepard placed a non-commissioned officer in charge of the Black Diamond and ordered the vessel to be taken to Sitka to await further instructions.

The captain of the Black Diamond made the statement that when in Victoria he had been ordered to pay no attention to the Rush in case he was overhauled by her. He said that he would not have surrendered if the Rush had had a force inferior to his own.

A passenger by the steamer Dora says that on the way down from St. Paul's Island, the Rush was seen in close pursuit by six sealers, and that additional captures have undoubtedly been made by this time.

DIED.

At her home in Beaufort, on the 30th of July 1889 Mrs. Aloza Thomas, daughter of the late Dr. J. L. Manney. She was much beloved by a large circle of friends in Beaufort and surrounding community.

PROGRESS.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most on the diuretic known.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Murphy Bulletin: The farmers are in jubilant spirits over the good crops they will harvest this year.—The apple crop is said to be the largest for many years.

Goldsboro Argus: We regret to know that our good friend, Major W. A. Hearne of the Messenger, is confined to his room at the Hotel Arlington on an attack of fever. We hope he may not be long confined.

Durham Tobacco Plant: Durham now has sixteen passenger trains a day. When the D. & N. puts on another passenger, to connect with the fast mail on the Raleigh & Gaston road, and the Lynchburg road is put in running order, there will be no telling how many trains we will have.

Wilmington Star: The Wilmington Gas Light Company will soon begin work on a building for the electric light plant on their premises at the foot of Castle street.—The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Honor, was adjourned at Waynesville last week. Wilmington was selected as the next place of meeting of the Grand Lodge.

Goldsboro Mercury: It is somewhat a curiosity to those people up north, that it would be if they could see the sight, just to see negroes lying around in a postal clerk car. We dare say if the South held the balance of power, and could elect a President who when he got in went to filling Northern post-offices and postal clerk positions with negroes, that whole section would secede in less than it took the Southern States to go out in 1861.—The many friends of the Hon. W. T. Dorch will be pleased to learn that he is still improving. He was able to be out to his office this morning.

Raleigh Call: A terrific storm and cloud burst is reported from Fayetteville, deluging the place with a perfect flood of water, and turning the creeks into raging torrents. Three bridges were swept away, and the dam of the Fayetteville cotton mills blew out, washing away the picking-house and undermining a part of the main building. The damage to the mills is at least three thousand dollars. The city's loss on bridges, etc., is twenty-five hundred dollars.

Asheville Journal: The West Asheville Improvement Company are planning progressive movements, which will result in extending the limits of Asheville westward across the French Broad. The above named company, composed of wide awake capitalists, have purchased a large body of land west of French Broad, opposite the mouth of the Swannanoa, and extending to the Sulphur Springs, a distance of three and a half miles from the court house. The company purpose building a new iron bridge across the French Broad, near the mouth of the Swannanoa, which will be completed by the first of October next.

Raleigh News and Observer: It would be an accommodation to the newspapers if the various towns at their indignation meetings would adopt a set of resolutions which have already been adopted by some other town and precinct.—One of the hardest rainfalls that Raleigh ever saw occurred yesterday about 1 o'clock. It was accompanied by terrific wind and thunder. Several large trees about the city were prostrated. The roof of one of the buildings of Shaw University was damaged by having some of the iron sheeting blown off. When the east bound passenger train arrived here the rain was coming down with such driving fury that passengers were forced to sit on the train sometime to await an abatement before going off.

The Union Stands Firm.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Yesterday's meeting of Typographical Union No. 6 is said to have been the largest ever held in this city. A thorough discussion of the troubles of the past week was had, and by a vote of about 800 to 400 it was decided to resist to the utmost any reduction in the price of composition. Many members were unable to get into the hall where the meeting was held, and waited outside to hear the result. Some few were not averse to the making of concessions to their employers, and others desired certain modifications, but the great mass opposed a change in the present scale. They regard Big Six as the backbone of trade-unionism in the United States, and it is assumed that if the scale were reduced here, the printers' stronghold, reductions would follow in the trade all over the country. Fears are also entertained that other trades might be affected.

Two hours of discussion preceded the vote. Some difficulty was had in deciding upon a further course of action, but it was concluded to leave the matter in the hands of a committee with power, the committee to be selected by the chapels of the offices in which the dispute lies.

One of the delegates to the recent convention in Denver said that unions all over the country have urged No. 6 to resist the proposed reduction, and that promise of support had come from all trades.

Chapel meetings were held by the various offices. Work is proceeding as usual tonight, but trouble may arise at any moment.

The Mail and Express has solved the difficulty with the printers by abolishing piece work in the office. All the men there now work eight hours a day, and are paid a salary of $21 a week. The same system is in operation on the Evening Sun and World.

Building and Loan Association. The regular monthly assessment is due today (Thursday). Payments will be received at the National Bank. J. R. B. CARRAWAY, Secretary and Treasurer.

Failure of a Boston Shoe House.

BOSTON, July 30.—E. and A. H. Batchelor and Co., one among the largest boot and shoe houses in Boston, doing business at 106 Summer street, have assigned. Nothing definite as to the extent of the liabilities, etc., can be learned at present. Most of the indebtedness is to banks and individuals. The leather trade will not suffer as the firm paid cash for most of its leather. The firm is one of long standing and was rated by Bradstreet's "G. A." The failure creates great surprise. Mr. Batchelor of the firm states that the liabilities as near as can now be ascertained will reach $125,000, with nominal assets about the same figure. An expert accountant is now going over the books and a report will be made to the creditors as soon as possible.
