The present difficulty originated in complications in regard to Behring Sea. Some years ago the United States purchased from Russia the "Russian Possessions" on this continent, including, by Sea. By this purchase the United States claims to have acquired exclusive right to control its treasures of seal and other aquatic animals. England claims that Behring sea is ately lessened. The visit was made an open sea, and that traffic in its waters is governed by the law of nations, and that the United States has no exclusive rights acquired by the purchase from Russia.

LENOIR, Caldwell Co., July 26, '89. Having previously spoken of Lenoir and some of its attractions further of this cozy little mountain town.

It is connected by rail from Hickory on the W.N.C.R. and sits just at the foot of the Blue Ridge in a pretty little glen. The high peaks arising about it are densely covered with a growth of dark green shrubbery, presenting a scene of great loveliness, and the drives are extremely beautiful. The And robes the mountain in its azure loftiest peak near by is Hibriten, 2,200 feet above the sea level and ,100 feet above Lenoir. In company with about a dozen others of air line, its attractiveness immediin backs over a winding foad of six miles. The journey was a pleasant one save a light rain and heavy fog which almost entirely destroyed the view. Among the attractive places near. Lenoir are Beall's carp ponds, Hibriten Cave, Happy Valley, Warrior Mountain, Table Rock, B. B. B. Grandfather Mountain, Linville

The present difficulty arises from the fact that this government, in scordance with its declaration, absumed possession of the sea in question and sent the revenue cutter Rush to patrol its waters and prevent the depredations of any foreign power. "On the 11th of July the Rush overtook the British sailing vessel Black Diamond and ordered her to heave to. The captain of the Black Diamond refused to obey the order. Thereupon the commander of the Rush ran out her guns. This action caused the schooner to heave to. Capt. Shepard and Lieut. Tuttle Major Harper has formed a deep asked for her papers. The officers of the Black Diamond offered no armed resistance, but refused to deliver the ships papers. Capt. Mr. George Harper and Miss Ella Shephard at once broke open the Harper, and Miss Rankin, a sister cabin and forced the hings of the sealskins which had been taken in Behring Sea. Capt. Shepard placed a non-commissioned officer in charge of the Black Diamond and noir. While penning these lines ordered the vessel to be taken to Sitka to await futher orders."

It is useless to shut our eyes to the fact that the situation is exceedingly grave. England is not the nation to tamely submit to insult, and, if the facts are as stated. she must resent the "outrage" in a manner that comports with her standing among the nations.

We see but one honorable way either nation finds herself in the
