LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS
J. H. TAYLOR—Lard, hams, etc.
J. W. BENNETT—Steamer at auction.
HOWARD & JONES—Jas. Means shoes.

Prof. G. T. Adams arrived last night and will begin setting things in order for the opening of the High school on the first Monday in September.

J. F. Taylor, at the foot of Middle street, boasts that he can fill any order in the grocery line, but he received one yesterday that stumped him. It was "five cents wuff of cooked flounders."

A snake measuring five feet two inches was brought in by Mr. H. Staub yesterday morning from his plantation near the city and left in front of the JOURNAL office for exhibition and to ascertain what species of reptile it is. It was examined by many people and received many names, among which were sting snake, horned snake, water moccasin, highland moccasin, and we believe one gentleman pronounced it a rattlesnake. We believe "moccasin," either water or highland, had the majority.

Shipping News.
The steamer Eaglet, of the E. C. D. line, arrived yesterday with cargo of general merchandise and will sail this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Annie, of this line, will arrive tomorrow morning.

New Berne High School.
Prof. Adams has secured the services of Mrs. A. B. Ferree for the primary department of the High School and Miss Mary L. Allen for the intermediate department. These assistant teachers are well known in this community and need no commendation from the JOURNAL. They are competent in every respect and apt to teach.

Mail Hours.
Our postmaster requests us to call attention to the fact that the mail for Washington, N. C., Hyde county and Pamlico closes promptly at 6 o'clock a. m. He says letters are often brought to the office ten and fifteen minutes after the mail has closed and writers are surprised that they don't get an answer by return mail. The hours of closing all mails are published regularly on the fourth page of this paper. The postmaster makes another request which is very easy to comply with, and will prove a great help to him, and that is, put the stamps on the right hand corner of the envelopes.

Personal.
P. H. Pelletier, Esq., left yesterday morning for Maine. He goes on an important mission. May the blessings of Heaven rest upon him and Mrs. Pelletier that is to be.

Mr. J. T. Lincoln of Bayboro and daughter, Miss Roa, were in the city yesterday and left last night for Morehead City.

H. D. Gibbs, Esq., has returned from Ocracoke. He reports a delightful trip and that a large crowd is still there.

The Blackwell Case.
HILLSBORO, N. C., August 13.—In the case of the Raleigh National Bank and others against V. Ballard and W. S. Halliburton, trustees of W. T. Blackwell and J. S. Carr, the preliminary motion for the removal of the trustees, the appointment of a receiver and for declaring the mortgage held by J. S. Carr to be void, was argued before Judge Graves at this place. The Judge refused all the motions of the plaintiffs, but required the trustees to give bond in the sum of $35,000.

THE RETURNING FIREMEN.

How They Were Received.
Notwithstanding the fact that the train was delayed and the rain was pouring down, a large crowd assembled at the depot to welcome our returning firemen from the Raleigh Tournament.

The New Berne Company and other members of the department, headed by the Star band marched to the depot, where many citizens had already assembled. Mayor Williams met the firemen at Goldsboro and returned with them.

At a little after seven the train arrived amidst music and applause from the crowd. When the firemen were off the train and marched over to the new station. Hon. C. C. Clark appeared and delivered a most appropriate and beautiful address of welcome. Many thought that, for a short talk, it was one of his best efforts. They were then conducted to the hall of the New Berne Co., where a rich and luscious repast was spread, and after a few remarks from Mayor Williams, was enjoyed by all. This was tendered by the New Berne Company as a token of the high regard entertained for their brother firemen who won so many compliments while at the Capital. Elsewhere we copy a few paragraphs from the press which will show what impression the Atlantic Company and the N. B. S. F. E. Band made at the Tournament.

Major R. S. Tucker.

We beg this gentleman's pardon for using his name in discussing the A. & N. C. R. question, but we assure him it is not for the purpose of casting any reflection upon him as a gentleman and a good citizen of the State, but because he has an interest in common, as a large stockholder, with the people of Lenoir, Craven and Pamlico in the A. & N. C. R.

Major Tucker is a man of wealth and influence; he is no doubt a valuable citizen in the community in which he lives, and is a gentleman of integrity and high character. The people of this community are glad to have and will always welcome any man of capital who desires to invest his money with us.

In the A. & N. C. R. stock held by the counties of Lenoir, Craven and Pamlico is much greater than that held by Major Tucker, and the actual cost of this stock to these counties is at least twenty times greater than the cost to Major Tucker for his stock. But there is a greater interest still, and in this the counties of Wayne, Jones and Carteret share equally with the stockholder counties. So the interest held in the A. & N. C. R. by these counties is inconceivably greater than that held by Major Tucker.

But we recognize the fact that Major Tucker is a large stockholder in this property, and as a prudent business man it is not only his right but his duty to manifest some interest in the management of the same. On the other hand Major Tucker must recognize the fact that the counties we have mentioned have a much larger interest than he, in fact these counties are more directly interested and are more effected by this property than all the balance of the State.

Now to the point: Major Tucker knows, it seems to us if he knows anything, that Mr. Bryan, the present President, is very objectionable to a large majority of the people in these counties. Knowing this, why is he so anxious for Mr. Bryan's reappointment? It may be asked, how do you know he is anxious for Mr. Bryan's reappointment? For two reasons, 1st, we have been reliably informed that Major Tucker denied himself the pleasure of a European trip this summer in order to look after the appointment of Mr. Bryan, 2d, at a meeting held in Raleigh last winter by gentlemen from New Berne and other counties solely for the purpose of considering a plan for the extension of the road, Major Tucker was called upon for his views and in giving them clearly showed his anxiety for Mr. Bryan's reappointment, although the meeting was not for the purpose of considering the Presidency of the road at all, as every gentleman who attended the meeting will testify. Again, it may be said, where is your evidence that Mr. Bryan is objectionable to a large majority of the people?

In answer, we say did not the magistrates of Carteret county and a large number of citizens assemble at Beaufort and unanimously pass resolutions requesting the Governor not to reappoint Mr. Bryan? This will not be denied.

Did not the County Farmer's Alliance in several adjoining counties pass resolutions asking the Governor not to appoint him, and sent a delegation to Morehead City to inform the Governor of their action and lay before him their reasons, which was done in writing? This cannot be denied.

Lenoir county pass a resolution, unanimously, asking the Governor not to appoint Mr. Bryan? This is true.

Did not the association of business men of Kinston in a meeting of about seventy-five members unanimously pass a resolution asking the Governor not to reappoint Mr. Bryan? We have been so informed.

At the recent appraiser's meeting held in this city, in which every county which the road touches had a representative, we have been informed that it was the unanimous opinion of the board that Mr. Bryan's own statement as to the condition of the road ought to be sufficient to prevent his reappointment.

And again, so great was the opposition to Mr. Bryan in Lenoir county that prominent Democrats there had to pledge themselves to use every effort with the Governor to have Mr. Bryan removed in order to keep them from drawing out the Governor on this question when he spoke in Kinston before the election.

Was there ever such opposition shown to any man who aspired to the presidency of the A. & N. C. Railroad? But Major Tucker may reply, "Mr. Bryan has given us a successful business management and he ought to be retained." The figures, taken from Mr. Bryan's own reports, published elsewhere in this issue, show that he has not given such a business management of the road as increased its receipts.

And again, the Major may insist that the fact that Mr. Bryan is objectionable to the people has not lost the road any business. In reply to this read the following paragraph from the Kinston Free Press, which we can verify as we have heard shippers use similar language at that point. Speaking of the small receipts of the road that paper says:

Who is to blame if not Mr. Bryan? If "Truth" will come to Kinston and consult our shippers he will find many of them who will never patronize it when they can avoid it, so long as Mr. Bryan is president. A competent business man would secure much more freight traffic from Kinston, and we believe other places on the road where there is competition.

Now come, Major Tucker, let us reason together. There are plenty of men in this section who have railroad experience and will conduct the road on business principles and not make themselves so universally objectionable.

LET THE RECORD SPEAK.

The Chaplain Visits Mrs. Maybrick, LIVERPOOL, August 13.—Mrs. Maybrick, the condemned murderess, is in a very depressed state. She passes much of her time in moaning for her children and weeping copiously. The chaplain of the prison is devoting much of his time to the condemned woman and she appears to greatly appreciate his visits.

OUR FIREMEN AT THE TOURNAMENT.

What the Raleigh Papers Say.

[News and Observer.]
The New Berne boys gave a fine display with their steamer yesterday evening.

None of the visiting companies made more friends among the Raleigh boys than the New Berne company. They are as fine a set of fellows as we ever had in our midst.

Mr. Bill Ellis, chief of the New Berne fire department, made countless friends in Raleigh, and so did his splendid chestnut horse, which is one of the best and best trained animals in North Carolina.

The New Berne band honored the News and Observer with a delightful serenade last night. There is not a better band in the State than the New Berne band and not a more gentlemanly set of fellows.

[Raleigh Call]

The cornetist of this band, Mr. A. W. Cook, won applause all along the route by his superb playing—in fact there were many who said directly that his playing has seldom if ever been equaled here. The band itself is a magnificent organization, performs splendidly, and is already the recipient of numerous appreciative expressions and high compliments. Then came the Atlantic fire company of New Berne, the largest company here. They have uniforms of bottle green sack coats, caps to match, with gray corduroy pants. In the march the company carried slender canes. Their appearance was very good.

[Raleigh Correspondent of Wilmington Messenger]

The New Berne firemen are a handsome body of men. They wear green, double-breasted jackets, brown corduroy trousers and green caps. On duty they wear white duck. The effect is very pleasing.
