SULLIVAN has been convicted of prize fighting in Mississippi.

Mrs. TERRY has secured a warrant for the arrest of Judge Field as accessory to the killing of her husband.

THE convicts in the Iowa State Penitentiary have decreased from 370 to 219. Iowa is not as strong a Republican State as she used to be.—Wilmington Star.

SQUARD'S Elixir sinks into insignificance in comparison with the elixir our Northern friends apply as a healing balm for the crime of murder. "The dead dog, was a rebel."

Now let our brethren over the border bend all their energies to the election of McKinney and throw an avalanche of Virginia's Sacred Soil on top of the traitor Mahone.—News and Observer.

ATTORNEY GENERAL MILLER has been interviewed relative to the shooting of Judge Terry by deputy Nagle, and he expresses the opinion that the shooting was justifiable homicide. Where now is protection for the citizen?

DR. CHARLES DUFFY JR. of New Berne has been appointed a member of the Board of Public Charities and has accepted. Dr. E. B. Haywood, Lawrence J. Horton and J. P. Sawyer have also accepted positions on the Board.

We are ready, and if they can stand the racket let them put up their great ring master Billy Mahone. The State of Virginia is Democratic by 30,000 if we press the issue on true Democratic principles, and that is just what we will do.—Richmond Times.

MR. DUKE tells his friends in Durham that his house will not sell out for five million dollars although they have received such offer as reported, for they would not know what to do with the money. They hope to make a million apiece and keep up the business for spending money.

CALIFORNIA and its Judiciary came to the front yesterday. Terry was killed for assaulting Judge Field, and Judge Pierce of San Diego was shot by a cowboy because he had rendered a distasteful opinion in a divorce case.—New York World. Is California lapsing into barbarism?

We congratulate the Farmer's Alliance on the election of our old friend Mr. Elias Carr, of Edgecombe, to be president of the great organization. He is a farmer of advanced ideas and owns one of the finest farms in the South. We are also gratified at the re-election of Col. L. D. Polk as secretary. He is a live editor, and a man of brains.—Wilmington Messenger.

THE President is certainly having a very hard time of it in his distribution of federal patronage in the South. In the first place, there are, of course, at least ten applicants for every possible vacancy, so that each appointment makes nine bitter critics for the President's policy, and your disappointed Southern office-seeker is an exceedingly uncomfortable and difficult man to deal with. If he does not start a small rebellion in his district he is pretty certain, through the agency of his Congressman, to make his disappointment very sharply felt before the administration hears the last of him. Instead of strengthening Republicanism in the South President Harrison has simply given it another wrench every time he has made a Southern appointment.—Providence Journal, Ind.

VIRGINIA has its Richmond Dispatch, South Carolina has the Charleston World and its excellent competitor the News and Courier. In Georgia, there is the Atlanta Constitution and the Savannah News, in Alabama, the Birmingham Age Herald, and the Anneton Hot Blast, and in Louisiana, the New Orleans Times-Democrat. Thus the list could be continued until every Southern State is mentioned with the discouraging exception of North Carolina. Here we have no representative newspaper that will compare to those mentioned as the journalistic exponents of the States named, and in New York newspaper offices it has been said that there is not a journal in North Carolina the name of which could be readily quoted.—Durham Globe. Very modest, and strikingly unique.

In the killing of David S. Terry yesterday California derives a substantial benefit. From the day of his entry into that State Terry has been a turbulent and menacing citizen. He represented the aggressive pro slavery element which endeavored to dominate the State back in the fifties. He fastened a quarrel upon the gallant Broderick, challenged him and killed him with deliberation and premeditation. Of late years he has been a disappointed, despised man. He allied himself to a depraved courtesan in the hope that he might share the millions of Senator Sharon. Foiled by the courts his venom and malice were directed against Judges and lawyers who had stood between him and the realization of his hopes. In view of his murderous instincts and his threats his assault yesterday upon Justice Field justly merited the intervention of the United States Marshal who travelled with the Justice in the capacity of escort. The killing was apparently justifiable.—New York World.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
IGN. FISCHER—New music.
W. B. FLANNER—Rubber goods, etc.

The services at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon were unusually interesting.

Mr. Joseph Taylor, a young man living near Pollocksville, was bitten on the finger by a whiteoak snake last Friday.

The presentation of a handsome whip to our firemen recently at Raleigh was by Mrs. W. F. Wyatt and not E. F. as formerly stated.

The Tuesday night's prayer meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at Mrs. Stanley's, on Broad street tonight at 8 o'clock.

Sluggo Sullivan has caught it. Twelve months in jail for bidding defiance to the laws of Mississippi. Referee Fitzpatrick got off with a fine of $200.

The young men's prayer meeting of the Baptist church will be held this evening at 8 o'clock. An invitation is extended to unite with them in this service.

Rev. Fred D. Thomas conducted the services at the Baptist church Sunday night. He preached from the text found in Romans vi, chapter, 23d verse. His style is clear and powerful. The congregation enjoyed a very good sermon from the young preacher.

Shipping News.
The steamer Annie of the E. C. D. line sailed yesterday with a cargo of lumber, etc. The Eagle of this line will sail tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock.
The steamer Newberne of the E. C. D. line will sail for Norfolk today at 12 o'clock.

Some Facts Concerning the Figures.

The figures concerning the receipts of the A. & N. C. R., which we again publish are doubted by some who refuse to examine the published reports. They refuse to examine the published reports because they are anxious to believe that Mr. Bryan has given a very successful business management.

We again assert that the figures are just as found in the published reports and we challenge anybody to deny it.

We do not doubt but reasons can be given why there are increases in some items and decreases in others. For instance in 1888 there was a large increase in the passenger receipts which can be accounted for by the Teacher's Assembly meeting at Morehead which was largely attended in June 1887, the otherwise large travel to Morehead City that summer, the New Berne Fair, the holding of the General Conference of the A. M. E. Z church in New Berne, the Pearson meetings and such extraordinary occasions which help to swell the receipts.

But to whom are we indebted for the organization of the company that constructed the Atlantic hotel, and caused the teacher's Assembly and other large gatherings to follow? Hon. W. T. Faircloth, the President of the company gives Col. John D. Whitford the credit. He went forward when the organization was about to fail and subscribed the necessary stock in his own name to save it and the road afterwards reimbursed him.

But the JOURNAL has always declared its intention to be perfectly fair towards Mr. Bryan; we will give him credit for encouraging the establishing of the Teacher's Assembly at Morehead City, and giving encouragement to our Fair, though, as the A. & N. C. R. makes more money out of the Fair than anybody else, we hardly think it has done as much for it as it ought to. Nevertheless, we will not complain on this point.

But does it take any great business tact to secure travel over a road where there is no competing line? If people from any direction in the interior want to go to Morehead City they are bound to go over the A. & N. C. R. The principal thing that induces people to go there is good hotel accommodations, which Col. Whitford, not Mr. Bryan, aided in securing, and the sea breeze. So we are unable to see where he is entitled to any great credit for increasing the passenger receipts.

Mr. Bryan will not make any explanation through the newspapers. He wishes the newspapers to make all the mistakes they can and he will go in person to Governor Fowle and point them out and say they are made intentionally to injure him. He don't like newspapers; his prejudices have become so strong against them he will not even give them an item of news. As evidence of this we will mention an instance. A few days ago he was in the JOURNAL office and casually mentioned the capture of some parties in Carteret who had been placing obstructions on the road. (He is exceedingly diligent in this line and we say it to his credit.) Immediately our associate editor drew his pencil and asked for the particulars. Mr. Bryan positively refused to give any information, but the Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger says he telegraphed an account of the capture to Governor Fowle. He evidently wants the Governor to discontinue the use of newspapers from this section and get his news by wire from him. We presume that hereafter when an engine knocks a cow off the track or a boy is caught in the act of throwing a brickbat or a lightwood knot at a train he will telegraph a full account to the Governor.

Tomorrow we will take up the freight items in the figures we publish, which are from the printed reports, and will give Mr. Bryan the full benefit of the loss of the Smithfield road.

Attempt at Suicide.
A man by the name of Charles Brinkley, attempted to take his life last week by swallowing an ounce of laudanum at Jasper in this county. He was from Lenoir county and was being pursued by the authorities from there for skipping a bond. He first came here, but the officers were chasing him and he fled to Jones county. There he was again spotted and shot at twice, but without effect. He was next seen at Jasper, this county, where he took the drug, saying that he had rather die than live any longer. He was brought to New Berne by Mr. J. J. Spier for medical attention and sufficiently recovered to again get away, and it is thought back to Jones.

THE LADIES DELIGHTED.
The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effective in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels. For a disordered Bowel try Bingham's Pills.

Explanations.

The Raleigh News and Observer copies the figures printed by the JOURNAL giving the total earnings from transportation for the years 1885, '86, '87 and '88. We are glad to find that the Observer does not dispute the correctness of the figures, as superintendent Dill did, because they are correct if the printed reports are correct.

But the Observer makes a serious error, doubtless unintentionally, when it puts down the passenger receipts for the year ending May 31st, 1888, at $66,540. These are not the figures we published and publish again today, nor are they the figures given in the published reports.

We have made no explanations at all about the figures. Col. Whitford can doubtless give explanations as to why the passenger receipts increased under Mr. Bryan and Mr. Bryan can make explanations why the freights decreased under his administration.

The Observer is also, we think, in error about the time the Smithfield road was sold. Col. Whitford reported receipts from it up to May 31st '88. We are of the opinion that it was sold after Mr. Bryan came in, and that Mr. Bryan was in "full accord with Governor Scales" in getting rid of it. His friends therefore have no right to complain that he lost the receipts of the Smithfield road because it was his and Governor Scales' fault that they were lost.

Our Schools.

All of our schools commenced on the first Monday in September. Nobody need fear the want of educational facilities in New Berne. He would be a queer compound who could not find a teacher to his mind in this beautiful elm city.

The High School, under Professor Adams and his accomplished assistants, and the Graded School, under the same general management, offers every facility for an academic and classical education to be found anywhere outside of the leading universities of the country.

Professor Neal's Private School, with high, intermediate and primary studies, will rank with any institution of its grade. With Mr. and Mrs. Neal as teachers, connected to this community with many chords of sympathy, this school will command a liberal patronage.

The Vance Male and Female Academy, Professor Skinner, Principal, is a new institution in our midst, but the gentleman at its head is well known in the surrounding country, and it is believed that the Academy will draw a large patronage from abroad.

Mrs. Jenkins stands deservedly high as an educator. Her discipline is firm, her teaching thorough, and her pupils distinguished by their ladylike deportment and gentlemanly bearing.

LET THE RECORD SPEAK.

Receipts of the A. & N. C. R. For Four Years Past.

As Mr. Bryan's friends claim that the Governor should retain him as President of the A. & N. C. R. because he has given a successful business management, we give below the receipts of the road for the last four years:

WHITFORD'S ADMINISTRATION.

What the receipts were for the year ending May 31st, 1889, we have not ascertained, as the finance committee's report has not yet been published.

Newspapers in the State that have claimed such a fine administration by Mr. Bryan, if they desire to do justice to the people of this section who never did approve of the appointment of Mr. Bryan, will publish the above record.

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

Colored—Chas. Hill, violating chapter 3, section 12, backing drag on the sidewalk; appealed to court. Ella Haywood, chapter 5, section 3, disorderly, fined $2.50 and cost. Virginia Fleming, chapter 5, section 3, disorderly, submitted and was fined cost. John Ombry, chapter 8 section 12, dismissed. Jas. Weston, chapter 9 section 3, dog tax, dismissed.

White—Haywood Hall, chapter 5, section 3, disorderly, $5 and cost.

Board of Public Charities.

We do not think that Governor Fowle would be guilty of intentional usurpation. We believe him to be wise, honorable and patriotic, but we seriously question his right to create a Board of Public Charities and appoint its members. It seems to us very clear that the Governor has usurped jurisdiction that belongs to the Legislature. While we believe that his act in this matter is not and was not intended to be an expression of an approval of his selection of men to constitute the board, so far as we are concerned the plan of knowing that no man in the community is more highly respected than Dr. Charles Duffy, and appointing him on the board would be accepted as a guarantee of wise and impartial administration.

Parsons.

Miss Sarah Moore and Miss Belle Wood, who returned from a visit to Baltimore.

Miss M. H. Baker, representative of Flanner's store, charged $5 with a make fall purchase.

Miss Florence Garner has returned to her home at Beaufort from a visit to friends in New Berne.

Mr. H. C. Carter of Raleigh arrived last night.

L. J. Moore Esq. attending court in court.

Mr. W. B. Hamner left for a trip North yesterday.
