THERE is a great deal of vital air in loving words.

THE word "protection" has an alluring sound: the thing it really stands for is damnable.—New York Herald.

JUDGE TERRY was infinitely the Superior of Judge Field in all that makes up high character and worth.—News and Observer.

DR. J. D. ROBERTS, of Durham, at one time superintendent of the Insane Asylum at Goldsboro, is a candidate to succeed Dr. Grissom at Raleigh.

DR. GRISSOM in a private letter to a person in this city says that he will leave the Insane Asylum as Gov. Fowle has "packed" the Board against him.

ALL the members of the cabinet are now absent from Washington, and, with possibly one exception, none are expected to return for several weeks.

THE Murphy N. C. Advance announces the death of Mrs. J. S. Murphy, which occurred at her home on Valley River near Murphy. She was said to be 121 years old.

THE American exhibit at the Paris Exposition is all right now. Edison, the "King of Light" is there. All Europe combined can't match him.—Wilmington Star.

THE Russian Minister of Finance intends to tax the Protestant churches in the Baltic provinces with a view to diminishing the influence of the German Protestant clergy.

THE prize ring is the child of a brute's love of cheap notoriety and gate money: the duel is the offspring of a fool's idea of honor. The duel and the prize fight must go.—Danville Register.

THE subsidiary high court of the Ancient Order of Foresters at Minneapolis voted to sever all connection with the high court of England and organize an American high court. The difference arose over the admission of colored men to the Order, the English high court insisting on it and the American objecting.—Norfolk Landmark.

A NEW YORK special to News and Observer of Aug 20 says: Twenty Arabs of both sexes who came on the Steamer La Normandie are detained at Castle Garden until the Turkish consul can be consulted. It is said that there are 70,000 Arabs awaiting to come to this country provided these twenty are passed through.

THE Farmer's Congress, in which a dozen Southern States were represented met in Montgomery last Tuesday Col. Polk made an admirable address, and Resolutions were offered and referred recommending the use of cotton bagging and declaring against the use of jute. Also commending the State Commissioners and Secretary Hunt for their efforts in behalf of cotton bagging.

To win the Legislature, insure just apportionment, congressional as well as legislative, to render sure the election of a Democratic successor to Evarts in '91, and to plant the standard of the State firmly within the entrenchments of the national Democracy, are the glorious results that can this year be accomplished by "a long pull a strong pull and a pull all together."—New York Star.

We have read of robbing churches, stealing Bibles and other articles of unadmitted depravity, but we never heard of an educated man trying to seal a tomb, until recently. The other day an Englishman named Verona tried to run away with a large piece of the famous tomb of Romeo and Juliet. He is fit for treason, strategems and spolia.—Wilmington Messenger.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. A. & N. C. R.—To agents, etc. IGN. FISCHER—Robin's farewell.

The thermometer registered eighty-eight degrees yesterday. "Where does your liver live Sister Jones?" "I lives cross de academized railroad."

We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket to the State Fair October 14 to 19.

On Tuesday September 3d the steamer Tahoma will run a special excursion from New Bern to Ocracoke. Particulars will appear later.

A gentleman from Onslow informs us that $182 were raised at the Tabernacle festival held a few days ago. A large crowd was present.

Mr. C. C. Perry has shown us two well matured open bolls of cotton, raised from his farm about two miles from the city on Trent road.

We intentionally omitted to state yesterday that the census of colored children in the eight township was being taken. The census of both races is taken, of course.

Three for-2-cents was the price of a lot of watermelons at the market dock yesterday. We'll bet John Sullivan's bet would hide one of them and that there is from one to fourteen chills in each.

The hot weather is again here after a long wet and cool spell. The continued heavy rains did serious damage to the crops, but with a late and favorable season from now, they can much improve and make a fair yield.

The JOURNAL detective did some very fine work yesterday. He reports spying at least three news items lurking about our usually quiet city. He says that these mysterious strangers must be immediately captured and brought to justice.

Joseph Taylor, from near Pollockville who was bitten on the finger a few days ago by a whiteoake snake, is getting along all right since he had the finger amputated. From the same neighborhood a little five year son of Mr. N. M. White had a finger bitten off by a horse.

Mayor's Court. The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

Colored—Martilda White, violating chap. 5, sec. 3, cursing and swearing on the streets. Dismissed. Clarissa Johnson, violating chap. 5, sec. 3, cursing and swearing on the streets. Dismissed.

White—James Lane, violating chap. 8, sec. 11, disorderly conduct, fined $2 and cost.

Look to Small Things.

During the last few days some fine apples and pears have been retailed on the streets, and a good many peaches also, though they are of rather inferior quality. Farmers can well afford to look after raising nice fruit, berries, vegetables, etc. It furnishes them with a little ready money at a season when they get returns from no other source and better enables them to make cash purchases instead of buying on time. Wives and children can to a great extent look after this part of the business and when carefully conducted will prove a great incentive in eking out an independent living.

Personal.

Miss Nannie Hugbes went down to Morehead City last night.

Miss Emma Henderson, Miss Charity Bell, Miss Staub and Miss Annie Arendall, and Messrs. A. H. Powell, Ben. Neal and Master George Henderson were passengers for Morehead City last night.

Railroad Discussion.

In the absence of the editor, who is on a visit to his old home in Lenoir county, we shall have to discontinue all communications in reference to the A. & N. C. R. As he is better acquainted with the facts on the subject than any one else connected with the office, we ask correspondents to withhold their articles until the return of Mr. Nunn. He will be absent about two weeks in search of recreation which he has been in need of for sometime. There are a number of articles desirous of space, enough to monopolize so small a paper as the JOURNAL, and some of them much longer than we ought to submit to, but in fairness to them, they will be granted reasonable space upon the return of the editor.

The following letter received last night gives an account of the match game played at Kinston yesterday. Probably the best player among the New Bern nine was unavoidably absent, but it is the usual luck of our club to reverse the tables at the second contest.

The game of baseball between New Bern and Kinston, came off today, the game was called at 2 o'clock, R. C. Strong, acting as umpire, both clubs did fine playing. Manly and Rhem did excellent work for the New Bern team while Cameron and Stanly perhaps did better playing than any of the Kinston nine. The umpire's decisions were considered just by all present, and no unpleasantness occurred during the game. The score stood on the first half of 9th inning 18 to 8 in favor of Kinston, the Kinston boys giving up their right to the last half inning.

The New Bern boys are a gentlemanly set of fellows and created a fine impression on the home team. H.

Shipping News.

The steamer Annie of the E. C. D. line arrived yesterday with general merchandise and will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The Eagle of this line will arrive tomorrow morning.

The Manteo of the O. D. line sails today at 12 o'clock.

New Bern's Gratitude.

Under the above caption we copy the following article from the Twin-City Daily published at Winston. Our citizens are grateful people and are willing to bestow proper honors upon the deserving. We may divide on some questions and take stands that are not always wise, positions that sometimes prove injurious to both ourselves and the progress of our city, but, be it said to our credit, when we have occasion to show our appreciation of a worthy public servant, we can lay aside any manner of ill feeling and render due honor to the meritorious. "There is one thing that can be said to the credit and honor of New Bern. Her people are never selfish in their praise of those who have served her interests faithfully. Only last week and her citizens turned out en masse and met her fire company that had just returned from the tournament at Raleigh, and bestowed unstinted praise upon them for the victories they achieved.

"When Hon. F. M. Simmons returned home this past winter at the expiration of his term in Congress he received a grand and spontaneous ovation from the whole people of that ancient city of the elms. The citizens vied with each other in doing honor to him for the faithful and valued services he had rendered his district.

"A little later and the Board of Trade of New Bern acknowledged in a befitting manner the debt of gratitude that city owed to editor H. S. Nunn for his valuable services in working up through his paper the fish and oyster fair, by passing a resolution of thanks. And years still further back in the times that tried men's souls, Hon. W. T. R. Bell, a member of the State Senate from the counties of Carteret, Onslow and Jones, secured the passage of a bill through the legislature that altered the boundaries of the different wards of New Bern, taking its municipal affairs out of the hands of a thieving set of incompetent officials, and placing them in the hands of the honest and intelligent property holders of that town. This deed, while it was but the plain and simple duty of any North Carolina Representative, did not go unrewarded. For upon Captain Bell's first visit to New Bern he was met at the depot by the dignitaries of the town and many of its most prominent citizens, and from whence he was taken in a carriage to the principal hotel, followed by a band. There he was treated to a royal reception. No, the people of New Bern have big hearts and they never forget their friends. They are not so selfish that they would be ashamed to acknowledge their appreciation of a kind service, while those who serve them are always assured that they have not served an ungrateful people."

Wm. Dunn for President.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Governor Fowle could not perform a better act, and at the same time please the people along the line of the A. & N. C. R., than to give the Presidency to the above named gentleman, who has proved successful in all he has undertaken, practical and can show as good business record, especially as a railroad man, as this or any other State can furnish.

CITIZEN.

For a disordered liver try Becham's Pills.

Atlantic & North Carolina R. R. Co., GEN. FREIGHT & PASSENGER OFFICE, New Bern, N. C., Aug. 23, 1889.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Will you please insert the following clipping from the JOURNAL and my letter to Gov. Fowle. I have somewhat more to say on this subject. Yours truly, S. L. DILL.

LET THE RECORD SPEAK.

Receipts of the A. & N. C. R. For Four Years Past.

Newspapers in the State that have claimed such a fine administration by Mr. Bryan, if they desire to do justice to the people of this section who never did approve of the appointment of Mr. Bryan, will publish the above record.

Atlantic & North Carolina R. R. Co., GEN. FREIGHT AND PASSENGER OFFICE, New Bern, N. C., Aug. 16, 1889.

GOVERNOR D. G. FOWLE, Raleigh, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—As the attached clipping from the New Bern DAILY JOURNAL seems to be a standing advertisement in that paper; in order that you may know the facts in the case I desire to lay before you the following statement as published in the annual proceedings of the company in general meeting. I shall endeavor to be as brief as possible.

Comparative Statement for four years of President Bryan's administration with four years of President Whitford's administration:

EARNINGS FROM TRANSPORTATION.

President Bryan's Four Years. President Whitford's Four Years.

1886... $110,987.31 1880... $84,307.36

1887... 117,038.09 1881... 102,640.21

1888... 119,452.24 1882... 112,117.56

1889... 124,465.84 1885... 121,391.18

Totals $471,934.48 $420,956.31

During the years of '82 and '83 the road was in the hands of Mr. Best.

I would here call your attention to the fact, that while Mr. Bryan's four years show a net gain over Col. Whitford's of $50,000, it has been done with lower rates of freight than has ever been on the A. & N. C. Road before; and besides, during the years of '84 and '85, Col. Whitford was managing the Midland N. C. Railway, between Goldsboro and Smithfield, and during this time the A. & N. C. proportion, derived from that source from freights alone, would amount to about $10,000 a year in round numbers, total about $20,000 for the two years '84 and '85.

Please find below comparative statement of rates charged during Mr. Bryan's administration with that of Col. Whitford's:
