WANAMAKER is making money on Government contracts for clothing.

GENERAL ALGER has been elected Commander of G. A. R. for the next twelve months.

MR. CLARKSON has appointed a North Carolina burglar a postmaster. — Florida Times Union.

THE New Orleans Times-Democrat says that by adopting cotton instead of jute bagging the Southern planter will save annually $3,000,000.

TANNER says that if Congressman Flood's brains were blown through a crane's bill into a mosquito's eye the mosquito wouldn't even wink.

SENATOR FRYE of Maine is authority for the statement that the Democrats of the House can prevent any change in the rules in the house if they please.

"AN Educational Institution in Chicago has been offering collegiate degrees at rates varying from $10 to $40. If you want to gather honors in college at bottom prices go to Chicago.

PATRIZING home industries, home enterprises, and everything else produced at home, is one of the chief secrets of the success attending a small city, whose business and commercial facilities are limited. — Petersburg Progress.

No words that the Republican Convention in this State could speak in favor of Civil Service Reform would be heard above the ceaseless clatter and ghoully glee of Headman Clarkson's gory gull-litine. — New York World.

THERE is nothing more certain than that every Democrat who in the past was a consistent supporter of Mr. Cleveland, and is still in full sympathy with the cause which the late President represented will earnestly support the ticket to be nominated by the Syracuse Convention. — Buffalo Courier.

THERE is irrevocable conclusion in that Vance will be his own successor. The talk about his having "been honored enough" is entirely too previous. Vance and the North Carolina Democracy constitute a mutual admiration Society that cannot be dissolved. — Charlotte Chronicle.

MARONE'S nomination means the desperate fight of a reckless and discredited faction against all the responsible and wisely progressive elements of life in Virginia. Mahons will, no doubt, make a rampant canvas, but it will not avail against McKinney's solid popularity backed by the enthusiastic support of the Democracy, reinforced by a large and influential independent and conservative Republican vote. — N. Y. Star, Dem.

ALL Russia is said to be stirred by Kennan's letters giving an account of the way the exiles in Siberia are treated. The Government has sent a commission to investigate the truth of the charges. This is a fine example of the power of the press. Kennan is an American. — Wilmington Messenger.

THE dedication of the Confederate monument at Manassas, Va., which takes place today, will be a grand occasion. Hon. E. E. Meredith will deliver the oration on behalf of Ladies Memorial Association of Manassas, and it will be received by Hon. John W. Daniel. Gov. Lee will also deliver an address.

BILL DUDLEY, the Indiana trickster and briber, is credited with the remark: "We'll put some elixir of life into Virginia politicians before we get through with them." Come down, William, and try your little game; and before we get through with you we'll put you in the penitentiary, where you belong. — Lynchburg (Va) News, Dem.

SENATOR HAMPTON went straight to the mark when in a recent interview he said, touching the proposed efforts of certain Republican leaders to raise the economic issue in Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, and Alabama, that it would fail "because there is one interest which, in these States, transcends all others—the question of honest and efficient local government." Local self government and the preservation of Southern civilization are paramount to all other considerations. — Richmond Dispatch, Dem.

THE Republican brethren have now given one or two objectionable negroes one or two postoffices in conspicuous Southern cities, thus arousing the protests of the white people and distracting public attention from the otherwise total Republican abandonment of the black man. The noise is adequate. The sensation, politically, is the sensation of "negro supremacy." But the poor negro is not supreme. The same Republicans who are so full of glee over the coup at Atlanta are kicking negroes off the steps of the Chicago post office. — Chicago Herald.

THE price of eggs is on the upward tendency.

Summer is fast fading away to be succeeded by autumn.

The schooner Mattie Hiles is on Howard's ship railway for repairs.

The Clyde wharf is being repaired, preparatory to the fall traffic.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Mace have returned from a visit to relatives in Hyde county.

Miss Narcissa Fonville of Warsaw, has returned to her home from a visit to Miss Sophie Jones.

Mr. H. C. Whitehurst and family have returned from Baltimore.

Sound Sense.

We copy the following from the Wilson Mirror. It is just what we have often thought. Read:

The brilliant and sensible Thad. Manning of the bright Gold Leaf, says that no reasonable man, who is not an object of charity, would think of going into a grocery store and asking the proprietor to wrap him up ten pounds of sugar or a bushel of meal as a gift. Yet there are hundreds of persons in every community who seem to think the columns of a newspaper are public property, and the editor a man whose business it is to "puff" every private enterprise of whatever nature, publish calls for public meetings, church fairs, obituary notices, resolutions of thanks, tributes of respect, and pay for house rent, blank paper and printers' hire for the privilege of doing it; and they do not hesitate to ask the publisher to give them dollars upon dollars' worth of free advertising, when they would not think of asking their grocery man to make them a donation of ten cents' worth of goods. This is wrong, and the whole system needs changing. The columns of a newspaper represent the stock in trade of the proprietor—his means of livelihood—and to ask him to give away his space, is an injustice and imposition upon a generous, patriotic, home-loving class of citizens—the editors of our land—who are entitled to more considerable treatment and better things at the hands of their people.

Shipping News.

The steamer Eaglet of the E. C. D. line arrived yesterday with a cargo of general merchandise, and will sail at four o'clock this afternoon. The Anette of this line will arrive tomorrow.

The Manteo of the O. D. line sails today at 12 o'clock for Norfolk.

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

Tempy Carter, violating chap. 5, sec. 8, loud and boisterous language. Dismissed at cost of the plaintiff.

Parker Roberts, Henry James, Jacob Fulcher, Brice Moore and Winsor Smaw, violating chap. 9, sec. 8, dog tax, released upon payment of taxes and cost.

John Williams bound over to Superior court.

The Preliminary Trial of John Williams.

The preliminary trial of John Williams charged with obtaining money under false pretense came off yesterday before Mayor Williams. The prosecution was conducted by James E. O'Hara and the defense by Clark and Clark. It was charged that Williams obtained twenty-five dollars from the Immigration Association through a telegram which was shown to have been forged. The point in controversy was whether the telegram was the means by which Williams received the money—the prosecution affirming and the defense denying. The defense claimed that the money was contributed for Williams and that he would have received it if no telegram had been presented.

The Mayor held that there was sufficient cause for sending the case up, and bound over the defendant in the sum of $250.

A Word to the Girls.

To begin with, we beg pardon, for our girls are good girls already, and scarcely need the dictation of a newspaper, especially one edited entirely by the opposite sex. Nevertheless should there be any room for improvement, we are presumptuous enough to offer these suggestions.

Girls are only immature women, therefore it is of the most importance that their training should receive great care and forethought while they are young and developing into womanhood. If the greater precaution should be given the rearing of either girls or boys, we would say the former every time. Young maidens must recognize the fact that they belong to the weaker sex, and cannot share equal privileges with their sterner companions.

The girl of today needs to become more practical and we believe they are every day, but still there is much room for improvement. Learn to sweep and dust the rooms, adjust the furniture and keep everything tidy even if there are mischievous chaps and awkward brothers around to tear up and confuse. Do not be afraid to go into the kitchen and try your hand at preparing a meal. It is not at all necessary that you should have attended a cooking school or have on hand one of the latest receipt books handsomely bound in gilt and full of French words, telling how to cook eggs nineteen different ways, etc. This is a very important branch in the household affairs, and there are but few ways in which you can better keep on the good side of the men folks than giving them something good to eat. A man can't be an angel and have the dyspepsia at the same time. Keep his appetite pleased and you are pretty sure to have a mortgage on the balance of his affections.

The appearance and dress of girls and young ladies is something else that cannot be too carefully guarded. Luxuries should only be enjoyed by those who can afford them. A diamond necklace is no guarantee to a bright intellect or a pure heart. Extravagance is sinful and often an index to failure and poverty. Neatness and taste in your dress and toilet cannot be too highly estimated. Above all things never wear an ill-fitting dress. It is repulsive to the eye, and detracts fifty per cent. from your looks. A slovenly girl is to be deplored.

One other subject that girls and young ladies sometimes think about is getting married. There is nothing particularly objectionable about that, for sometimes boys are accused of the same offence, but do not be in too great a hurry. It is a life business, and a mistake here is rather a serious thing. Don't be under the impression that you must accept the first love-sick youth that comes along and vows that he cares more for you than the balance of the world, and that it is life or death about your acceptance. A happy marriage is a Garden of Eden and an unhappy one is the reverse. Some writer has styled the first as heaven and the last as the other place.

Of one thing girls may feel sure, and that is, that the young men who make the best sons and brothers, are apt to make the best husbands. Vice versa, girls that make the best daughters and sisters are pretty certain to make good wives.

The Big Strike Still On.

LONDON, August 28.—At a meeting of the striking dockmen, this morning, Mr. Burns, leader of the strikers, said that he had heard that 4,000 Belgians would be imported unless the strike was ended. He at once telegraphed to the Belgian Workingmen's Union and blocked that move of the employers. The strikers have reached the number of 150,000. The leaders express a determination to press their claims and march through the streets until the demands of the dockmen shall have been granted.

A report comes from the officials of the Commercial Dock Company to the effect that there is a prospect for a settlement of the differences, and a feeling of increased hopefulness prevails. There is less intimidation and affairs have generally quieted down. In the vicinity of St. Pancras depot, however, there is still some excitement. Many coalheavers are resuming work at an advance in wages, which course is violently opposed by the strikers, who urge that no work should be resumed until the advance demanded is conceded to all.

A mob of howling strikers, numbering several thousands, attacked the coal vans leaving the yards under police escort. They divided the chains and traces, compelling the drivers to return.

Hay Fever.

I have been a great sufferer from hay fever for 15 years. I read of the many wonderful cures of Ely's Cream Balm and thought I would try it. In fifteen minutes after one application I was wonderfully helped. Two weeks ago I commenced using it and now I feel entirely cured. It is the greatest medical discovery ever known or heard of. — Duhamel Clark, Lee, Mass. 273 w.

For a disordered liver try Becham's Pills.

THE LADIES DELIGHTED.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowel.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.
From the State Papers.

The teachers' trip to Europe cost each, necessarily, $147.

Hookerton Clipper: Mr. I. C. Hardy brought to this office last week a stalk of corn with 175 ears on it. This sounds like "too many squirrels up one tree" but it is the truth.

Washington Progress: The crops are doing well since the showers have ceased.—We are informed that the wire for the Jamesville and Washington telegraph line has arrived and that the line will be in working order as an early day.

Lenoir Topic: The fruit crop has been so abundant that the demand for fruit jars has been the greatest ever known in this section.—For the fourth time in two months our mail reached its destination on time Monday. Two and three papers of different issues, some of them marked "missent" came in with the balance.

Wilmington Review: One of our weekly subscribers called in this morning and paid us for nine years' subscription, from December, 1882, to December, 1891, seven years back and two years ahead.—[Brother, where does that man live? What's his name? Was there anything curious-looking about him?—JOURNAL.]

Raleigh News and Observer: The Durham Globe learns of the death of Grandy Coston, at Murphy, N. C. She was 121 years old pensioner and remembered the battle of King's Mountain. Her corpse weighed only fifty pounds.—The great revival at Chapel Hill continues. Much interest is manifested. Fifty one persons joined last Sunday. There have so far been 95 conversions in all.—We learn that there are thirty-six candidates for the chair of Pure Mathematics in the University. Most of them are strong men and the Trustees will have no difficulty in getting a suitable successor to the very able and lamented Prof. Graves.

Elizabeth City Economist: Everything points to a successful exhibition of the Elizabeth City Fair on October 23, 23 and 24. The management is now busily engaged making extensive improvements.—A new market house, a new jail, new stores, new residences, two new church buildings, new mills, two fairs, an electric light plant and several other things we do not now recall, are the sure indications of the steady march of our town in the path of progress and improvement. If the new census is properly and accurately taken it will show that the population of the town is keeping up with its business. According to the estimates of population from the registered vote the population at this time will exceed 5,000, which is a remarkable advance from 2,800 reported in the census of 1880.
