Two thousand men, out of a population of 60,000,000, control $4,000,000,000 of the wealth of the country.

It is now estimated that 3 per cent. of the property owners of the New England States own more property than the other 97 per cent.

DR. HARRISON is the first peace President to increase the public debt. The August augmentation is one of the doctor's first samples of Harrisonian Statesmanship.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

SARAH ALTHEA, et al., eto., eto., says she wants to be buried beside her husband. While there seems to be a popular desire to carry out her wish in this matter, the transaction requires a mathematical calculation far beyond the power of the ordinary sexton.—Washington Post.

GOVERNOR FOWLER is represented by a Hot Springs correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger with saying: "The quaker North Carolina gets rid of the negro population, just so soon as she is able to induce happy white men from the North and other places to come in here and settle. But as long as 500,000 to 600,000 negroes live here, outside white men will not come in to any great extent."

No usurpation or centralization of power in the Federal Government; no taxation for surplus; no taxation for bonuses; no Trusts; tax reduction through tariff reform; no infringement of personal liberty; no discrimination against labor in legislation or administration; no misuses of public funds; ballot reform in the interest of free and pure elections, these are the demands of the Pennsylvania Democrats.—New York World.

WHAT well-directed training schools can accomplish is illustrated in the case of the dairy schools of Denmark. The government has for years spent over $50,000 yearly for the maintenance of dairy schools. The result has been an immense improvement in dairy product, and a lively demand for Danish butter. Within twenty years Denmark's exports of butter have increased from $2,100,000 to $12,000,000 per annum.—Norfolk Virginian.

WHETHER Mr. Cleveland is in the ring for a nomination for the Presidency in 1892 or not, it must be gratifying to him to see the hold he has upon the Democratic masses of the country and the hearty applause with which his name is everywhere greeted. In the State conventions which have thus far assembled the mention of his name has never failed to evoke the most cordial greeting, notably so in the late convention at Harrisburg where, as an allusion to him, the convention cheered itself hoarse.—Wilmington Star.

MAJOR JOHN HUGHES.

This community mourns the death of Major John Hughes, who died at Beaufort, Monday morning Sept. 9th, 1889 in the 60th year of his age.

John Hughes was no ordinary man. In the home circle, in society, and in the Church, he was a pillar, firm and unyielding.

It is not for us to portray his excellencies, but we must chronicle some of the events of his life evincing his character and showing the estimation in which he was held by his countrymen.

Major Hughes was a native of New Berne, but, in early life he moved to Pennsylvania where he so impressed himself upon the people of his adopted State as to receive from the Whigs, of the district in which he lived, a nomination for Congress. He bore himself gallantly in the campaign and won plaudits from all parties. He was not elected but he greatly reduced the Democratic majority in the district. Not long after this sectional issue precipitated the war between the States, and John Hughes returned to North Carolina to share the fortunes of her people. He early enlisted in the army of the Confederacy and did efficient service on the staff of General Hoke. After the war he addressed himself to affairs of peace with sagacity and energy. In 1872 he was nominated by the North Carolina Democracy for Lieutenant Governor, on the ticket with Judge Augustus S. Merriam, and it is no reflection upon the distinguished men with whom he was associated to say that he led the ticket in that memorable contest.

In 1884 he was again brought forward for nomination for the same office, but his friends having united his fortunes with those of Octavius Coke for Governor, he was defeated by the Scales and Steadman combination.

For twenty one years, Major Hughes was President of the First National Bank of New Berne, and during his presidency the bank prospered more than any other similar institution in the State.

In 1877 and 1878, during Governor Vance's administration Major Hughes was President of the A. & N. C. Railroad company.

But whatever may be said of Major Hughes' public life, it was in society and in the church that he was most potential. The influence of himself and family in giving tone to society is not to be exaggerated, and his wise council will be held in grateful remembrance by the church for years to come. He represented his diocese in the General Convention of the church for many consecutive sessions, and was always distinguished for conservatism and influence. John Hughes has gone to his reward. Peace to his ashes!

Shipping News.
The steamer De fiance of the Clyde line cleared for Baltimore yesterday.

The steamer Eglet of the E. C. D. line sailed yesterday with lumber, naval stores and other exports, among which was the first bale of cotton of the season. The Annie of this line will sail tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The steamer Kinston arrived from up Neuse river last night.

Blind Stagers.
Dr. F. L. Kilborne, of Washington City, has been in New Berne and surrounding country for two days, but has not examined any diseased stock. It is reported that there are several cases of staggers in Pamlico, but none were brought up for examination.

In conversation with him last night he gave us the following prescription: To prevent staggers, 1/2 oz. aloes, 1/2 oz. podophyllum and 1 oz. ginger in a half pint of water; give it to the horse once in 36 hours. For a horse that has an attack of staggers double the dose above every 36 hours. Horses that have staggers should be given loose diet.

We advise the people in communities where the disease exists to try this remedy on their horses.

Mr. Simmons' Lecture.
We take pleasure in announcing to all the JOURNAL readers that Mr. E. S. Simmons of Washington, will lecture in this city on Wednesday night, the 11th inst. Mr. Simmons' lecture is on "The Existence of a Personal God," and the Washington, Greenville, Edenton, Hertford and Elizabeth City papers speak in the highest terms of praise of the able manner in which the personality of the Deity is defended. Mr. Simmons is a member of the Washington bar and lost his sight about one year ago. He is now prosecuting his chosen profession and delivering his lecture in various cities of the State which is already proving a valuable contribution to Christian science. We bespeak for him a full house.

An Important Element
Of the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is the fact that every purchaser receives a fair equivalent for his money. The familiar headline "100 Doses One Dollar" stolen by imitators, is original with and true only of Hood's Sarsaparilla. This can easily be proven by anyone who desires to test the matter. For real economy, buy only Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold by all druggists.

Major Graham Daves arrived in the city last night.

Clement Manly, Esq., has returned from Western North Carolina.

Moses, Wm. Cohen, Moses Cohen and Wm. Sultan have returned from the North.

Mr. Wm. Colligan left for New Jersey.

No oysters yet.

Entertainment at the Methodist parsonage tomorrow night.

John Robinson's circus car arrived last night with a force of bill posters.

The remains of Major John Hughes were brought up from Beaufort on a special train last night.

The funeral of Maj. John Hughes will take place from the Episcopal church this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Elsewhere we publish a notice to the New Berne bar to meet at the court house today at 10 o'clock to take action in regard to the death of Major Hughes.

According to the school census just taken in the 8th township there are 788 white children and 2,131 colored children between six and twenty-one years of age.

It was an unusually good meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday evening. The annual meeting for the election of officers comes off this week at which all members are requested to be present.

The regular Tuesday night's prayer meeting of the young men of the Baptist church will be held this evening at 8 o'clock. A very full attendance is requested. All persons cordially invited to attend.

A lady who owns a plantation about two and a half miles from this city says that she will give four or five worthy young men tracts of 15 or 20 acres of good land for a year free of rent, if they will cultivate it.

The trial of R. D. Rodgers, colored, for carrying concealed weapons, was had before Justice W. G. Brinson yesterday afternoon. Rodgers was found guilty and fined $10 and cost. This is the fourth trial resulting from the Tin Cup Alley church row.

We were present at the Baptist church Sunday evening to hear the sermon of Rev. Edward Bull on "The Fact and Method of the Final Triumph of Christianity." The statistics and many ready quotations furnished showed conclusively that the discourse had been closely studied and carefully prepared.

We learn from the Durham Globe of the marriage of "Miss Mamie Sims, one of Durham's most esteemed and charming young ladies, to Dr. Julian A. Smith, also of this city, a rising young practitioner, who has made an enviable name in his profession." Dr. Smith is well known in New Berne, and his friends here wish him and his bride a life of happiness and prosperity.

FROM LAST NIGHT'S PAPERS.

The London dock companies have conceded the demands of the strikers, and work will be resumed at once.

The Cabinet yesterday discussed the question of calling an extra session of Congress, and the impression is that a negative decision was arrived at.

John L. Sullivan, the prize fighter, has written a letter to the New York Sun, announcing his willingness to enter political life, and will become a candidate for Congress from Boston.

Two negroes, now residents of Nashville, who were driven out of Fort Bend county, Texas, have instituted suit against about forty citizens of Fort Bend for damages aggregating about $100,000.

The new steel cruiser Philadelphia was successfully launched yesterday from Crump's ship yard, Philadelphia. Twenty thousand persons witnessed the launch, including a number of distinguished visitors from Washington.

Steve Brodie successfully accomplished yesterday the daring feat of going over Niagara Falls in his rubber suit; he was tossed and whirled for a short time in the rushing, gurgling waters, but his friends boldly went to his relief and soon dragged him ashore; he was insensible and blood oozed from his mouth, nose and ears, but the prompt use of restoratives soon brought him to consciousness, and his injuries were found not to be of a serious character.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.
From the State Papers.

Durham and Raleigh are to be connected by Telephone, says the Globe.

Concord times: Our merchants have about all concluded that electric lights are cheaper than lamps and lamp chimneys.

Washington Gazette: While Capt. Bonner, of Washington, was cracking a block of ice he found imbedded inside a very neat, plain gold ring, no doubt lost from the finger of some ice gatherer in the far North.

Wilmington Review: A weasel, a rare animal in this locality, was exhibited on the streets today. It was caught in Onslow county and brought here in a cage. It looks like a rat, and is about six or eight inches long, with a tail about two inches in length.

Greenville Reflector: Pitt county people are blessed. They have better crops than can be seen anywhere from the railroad between Greenville and Weldon.—On Saturday we heard Mr. William Harris, of Falkland, say he had lost 76 hogs this year. Cholera is causing heavy losses in this county.

Raleigh News-Observer: The News and Observer is informed that the opening of the fall term at the University was very flattering. There was an increased attendance of new students, especially from Virginia and South Carolina. Students are coming in on every train. There is a small discount which is to be attributed to bad crop prospects but the opening shows a considerable increase.

Winston Sentinel: The Mr. Airy News tells of a negro who made his way into the office of Ashby's tobacco factory one night. His many attempts to pick the lock of the iron safe, proving futile, he fell supinely upon his back to rest and fell asleep and there he slept till next morning and was arrested, tried, convicted and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. He claimed to be a sleep-walker, but his tale wasn't swallowed.

Davidson Dispatch: Our friend Woodson Daniel, of Healing Springs, was in town Monday wearing the same pair of pants he wore when he attended the great demonstration in honor of Gen. W. H. Harrison at Salisbury in 1840. The pants were made the previous year by Ben. Frayley, a Salisbury tailor. They are still neat and clean, and are in a good state of preservation, though they have been worn a great deal at odd times since the campaign of log cabins and hard cider.

Winston Daily: The amount of manufactured tobacco shipped Monday and Tuesday of this week, from this place, was 120,383 pounds. On this shipment Uncle Sam received $9,631.04.—Mr. J. D. Tucker of Lexington visited the fruit fair here a few weeks ago. He was so impressed with the fine display of fruits that was made, and that are grown in the county adjacent to the Twin City, that he wants to establish a canning factory here, and is now negotiating for a lot upon which to erect one.

Entertainment.
The Working Society of the Methodist Church will give an entertainment at the Parsonage, corner of Middle and Neuse streets, on Wednesday night, September 11th.

The parlors, halls and grounds of the Parsonage will be thrown open to the public.

Refreshments, consisting of different kinds of ice cream, ices, cake, etc., etc., will be served from seven to eleven o'clock. A special table will be provided for children.

All who come may be sure of a warm welcome and a delightful evening. 24

Notices.
The members of the Bar of the city of New Berne are requested to meet at the Court House, this Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock to take appropriate action in regard to the death of Major Hughes.

Impurities of the blood often cause great annoyance at this season; Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and cures all such affections.

More New Cotton.

ED. JOURNAL.—The steamer Kinston arrived Monday afternoon with two bales of new cotton, one bale bought by Mr. Lamb Harvey of Kinston and was shipped by steamer Kigston, via New Berne, O. D. line to Mr. W. B. May & Co., late of Kinston, now a cotton merchant of Norfolk, Va. The other bale was bought by Mr. W. F. Stanly, agent steamer Kinston, N. R. N. Co., and was shipped by steamer Kinston to A. Tradwell & Co., Norfolk, Va., and could have come in ahead of the A. N. C. R. company if she had not brought her bale on the mail train on Saturday night. Steamer Kinston yet afloat. X.

TO DISPEL COLDS.

Headaches and Fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when coative or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

Beecham's Pills cure bilious and nervous ills.
