WILMSBARE, PA. and vicinity experienced a severe earthquake shock last Tuesday night.

ANOTHER mysterious murder has occurred in the slums of London. Ghastly Whitechapel is without a rival.

THE present administration never removes a Democrat without cause—cause some Republican wants the place.—Florida Times-Union.

It is estimated by a San Francisco paper that the 40,000 Chinese in that city annually drain it of $12,000,000, which goes to China never to return.—Wilmington Star.

HEAVY storms have prevailed on the Atlantic coast during this week. They have been especially severe at New York, Coney Island, Cape May, Ocean City and Newport.

QUAY wants to be President. And he wants it just about as bad as the small boy without a penny desires all the sweet meats in a candy store. Everything must go to satisfy the craving.—Philadelphia Record.

In two months the Administration has succeeded in furnishing the Democratic party with some very effective campaign material, and the effect of that material should certainly be felt in the approaching fall elections.—New Orleans Times Democrat.

THE Democratic Convention of New Jersey assembled at Trenton on last Tuesday and nominated Leon Abbott for Governor by acclamation. The platform adopted reaffirms the doctrine adopted in the national Democratic platform of June 1888. So the ball rolls on.

At San Francisco, last Tuesday, argument was commenced in the United States circuit Court on the subject of the jurisdiction of the Federal court in the case of Deputy Marshal Nagle. Attorney General Johnson opened on behalf of the State, and Attorney Messick followed for the Federal authorities.

THE real gets away with the ideal every time. The late newspaper fake of the little girl carried away by a cluster of toy balloons is now realized in the perilous trip of Eddie Hill, aged twelve. Becoming entangled in the ropes of a hot air balloon at Portland, Ore., the lad was carried up 1,000 feet, drifted several miles, and returned to the earth unharmed.—Washington Post.

CAMPBELL, the Democratic nominee for Governor in Ohio, was a good soldier, and was awarded a pension for disability when discharged. When he regained his health he reported the fact, and had his pension stopped. There are some who don't like him for the reason, as an example is a reflection on them. It has not had any big crowd of imitators.—St. Paul Globe.

HENRY WATTERSON calls the Southern support of the Blair school bill "a cowardly hope that the Federal Government will do for us what we ought to do for ourselves." That is nutshell talk. It says it all, and is the kind of spirit of self help which the South needs.—Alta California.

THE South is better off as respects material wealth than for many years past. Its social, intellectual, moral and political condition has improved, it is believed, at an almost equal rate. The white population, not having been affected by immigration, is American still to the backbone, and is animated by sentiments of devotion to constitutional government which render the South the conservative element of the Union. Its growth in wealth, in culture, in population and political influence is, therefore, in the interest of free institutions, to be desired by the whole country.—Baltimore Sun.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
NELSON WHITFORD—American house reopened.

There are now ten prisoners in our jail, all colored.
Dr. Robey, of Goldsboro, is expected to die at any hour.

Very quiet in the city yesterday. The excitement was at Morehead City. The young trees set out on each side of the macadamized road are growing off finely.

Watermelons are about played. A few in market, but they look like they have the small-pox.

The sidewalk in front of Mrs. Ellis' house, on Pollock street, is much improved by the use of shell rock.

Two bales of new cotton sold at the exchange yesterday. It was graded low middling and sold for 10¢ cents.

An important meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held at the rooms tonight. Every member is earnestly requested to be present.

No track has been laid on the Wilmington and Onslow railroad. The track has been graded nearly to Scott's Hill, which is 12 miles from the city, says the Review.

The fine weather has given the farmers an opportunity to save their fodder and many of them are wisely making some hay, too, while the sun shines.

Cottage prayer meeting of the young men of the Baptist church this evening at eight o'clock at the residence of Capt. Abbott on East Front street. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mr. Nelson Whitford will reopen the American House on the 15th of September. This reporter remembers when it was well kept under Mr. Whitford's management. A good square meal and a good lodging could always be obtained there.

We note in the press dispatches the announcement of the death of Dr. Henry J. Meninger, in New York, last Monday. He is no doubt remembered by many people in New Berne. After the war he was editor of the New Berne Republican, and subsequently elected Secretary of State of North Carolina on the Republican ticket. He went to New York from here, where he has since held prominent positions.

W. S. CHADWICK, PRESIDENT.

The Stockholders' Meeting of the A. & N. C. R.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the A. & N. C. R. convened at Morehead City yesterday at 12 m.

President Bryan called the meeting to order and requested Col. P. F. Faison to act as temporary chairman.

Capt. F. W. Hancock was made temporary secretary.

These officers were afterwards made permanent.

The committee on proxies submitted their report which was adopted.

The State's proxy, Clement Manly, Esq., announced the following Directors on the part of the State: W. S. Chadwick and Thos. D. Webb of Carteret; W. G. Brinson of Craven; P. M. Pearsall of Jones; Col. A. C. Davis and Dempsey Wood of Lenoir; W. T. Cahoon of Pamlico and Chas. Dewey of Wayne.

Mr. Wood of Lenoir, declined the appointment.

The following Directors were elected by the private stockholders: P. F. Faison, J. L. Morehead, Arnold Bordon and E. H. Meadows.

Finance Committee: J. C. Wooten, T. H. Mallison and Thos. Daniels on the part of the private stockholders; on the part of the State, C. H. Foy and I. S. D. Saul.

Proxy Committee: W. L. Arendall, J. H. Davis, J. A. Pridgen, C. H. Fowler, L. E. Duffy and O. H. Guion.

At a meeting of the Directors the following officers were elected: President, W. S. Chadwick; Secretary and Treasurer, F. C. Roberts; Attorney, C. C. Clark.

Considerable interest was manifested in the meeting, which was the largest for several years. The business was transacted with dispatch, and the meeting at 5 p. m. adjourned sine die.

Further particulars, including extracts from the President's report, will be given in tomorrow's issue.

He Changed With the Wind.
Railroad employee to friend—"Well, its gone against us, the jig's up." He sighs.

Friend—"Why, don't you like the new man?"

R. R. employee, in a soft tone—"Well, he is a mighty nice man, I like him—he's a splendid man."

Friend—"The other man is gone—no doubt about that."

R. R. employee, brightening up—"Yes, well, I'll tell you, this new man is going to make a fine president."

In a whisper, "I believe he can beat the other one."

Friend, disgusted—"You didn't say so three days ago."

R. R. employee, looking at his friend with eyes flashing patriotism—"Did you know I was born and bred in Carteret county?"

"Kansas" Meeting.
It was reported last night that George Price, of Wilmington, was to speak to the colored population on the exodus question. A JOURNAL reporter struck out for West End and found a small crowd gathered at the foot of West street. When Price arrived, L. H. Smith, secretary of the Emigration bureau, told the crowd that owing to certain circumstances Price could not address them. It is understood that Price wants to preach Mississippi to them, and they think this is a money scheme. The popular cry is "Arkansas, California or Texas." They say they want to get out of the South.

A New Railway.
Mr. O. Marks has established a money railway in his mammoth store. It has three main lines and a grand junction. The principal stations are Wadsworth, Jarvis, Rountree and Howerton, and there are several way stations. There has been no contention about the Presidency as Miss Maude Moore holds that position with headquarters at the junction, where she presides with ease, dignity and grace, and is courteous and kind to all passengers. We predict that the net earnings of the road under her management will be large and satisfactory.

Dyspepsia
Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. We know of no remedy for Dyspepsia more successful than Hood's Sarsaparilla. It acts gently, yet surely and efficiently, tones the stomach and other organs, removes the faint feeling, creates a good appetite, cures headache, and refreshes the burdened mind. Give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial. It will do you good.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Salisbury Truth: Miss Bettie Verble, about 70 years old, who lives two miles and a half from town, says the most money she ever had at one time was 25 cents.

Raleigh Visitor: The approaching reunion of North Carolinians residing in other States, to take place during the fair, will be of great interest. There are hundreds of North Carolinians living abroad who will avail themselves of the opportunity to be present.

Elizabeth City Carolinian: Lucy Morgan, an old colored woman of Powell's Point, received a pension check last week for $2,400.—The managers of the Elizabeth City Fair are making increased effort to make this year's exhibition a thorough exponent of the agricultural and industrial interests of this section.

Edenton Advocate: We have never seen fruit so abundant as it is now. Our farmer friends are learning to raise more peaches, pears and apples, than cotton, and they will soon learn that it is far more profitable.—We have just learned that the army worm has made its appearance and we are told that its depredations on the growing cotton is alarming.

Wilmington Messenger: There seems to be a rivalry between Mississippi and Arkansas as to which shall be the "promised land" of the colored emigrants shortly to leave Wilmington for the west and southwest. We learn that some of the emigrants desire to go to the Mississippi Delta while others have made up their minds to go to Arkansas. The Mississippi agents are looked for in a few days, and for fear that the emigrants might get somewhat mixed, the Messenger has been requested by a colored man interested in the Arkansas party to state that no agent for that route has arrived in the city as yet. In other words the Arkansas crowd is warned not to get mixed up with the other crowd and be carried off to Mississippi.

Raleigh Call: On Saturday afternoon, Maryin Whitaker, aged 16, and Andrew Snelling, aged 14, were in the city on a business and social visit to their uncle, Mr. W. N. Snelling. They left early in the day for their homes in St. Mary's township. On arriving at young Whitaker's home they decided that they had time to take a squirrel hunt and began preparations for one. Whitaker took a breech-loading rifle and began to clean it up. While handling it, he proceeded to insert a cartridge in the breech, not conscious of holding the muzzle toward Snelling who was a few feet away. There was a sudden explosion. Young Snelling put his hand to his left breast, walked rapidly around in a small circle once or twice, then fell dead. The bullet had struck a vital part near the heart.

Elizabeth City Economist: We had the pleasure of a call on Friday from Messrs. Thos. Mann and Cartwright of Hyde county. Their accounts of crops in Hyde, except rice, are unfavorable and gloomy. They report the public feeling of the people of Hyde as decidedly adverse to the administration of Gov. Fowle, because of the removal of the convict labor of the State from the Broad Creek and Alligator Canal, which is an important work for Hyde county and would enable the farmers to drain their lands effectually. This work is of the first importance to the county and to the commerce of this section.—The Nags Head property was offered for sale at the courthouse in this place, on Saturday and was knocked off to John P. Overman, who was the last and highest bidder at $1,500.—W. W. Carraway (the former D. R. Walker of the News-Observer staff) made us a call on Tuesday. He is now a postoffice inspector and was en route officially to Manteo. He is the best informed man upon public men and matters in North Carolina, that we have met in many a day.—Oyster planting is going on at Far Creek. Mr. Makeley has planted 25,000 bushels, and is still employing men in the business.

Y. M. C. A.
To the officers and members of the Young Men's Christian Association: You are most earnestly requested to attend the regular monthly meeting of your Association tonight at eight o'clock promptly. A full attendance is desired as the annual election of officers will take place and your vote is needed in order that a wise selection may be made.

W. P. M. BRYAN, Pres.

The College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts.
The laws of North Carolina incorporating this institution, provide one free scholarship for Craven county. The President of the Board of Trustees requests me to hold a competitive examination to fill this place. The candidate must be unable to pay his own way in the College. I therefore give notice that I will hold this examination at my office on Wednesday, Sept. 25th, 1889, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. Persons wanting information must see me personally and not write letters.
JOHN S. LONG.

Two Men Lynched.
RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 11.—A mob of 100 men broke open the jail at Morganton at 8 o'clock this morning, took out Franklin Stock, a white man, and David Boone, a negro, and hanged them. Stock ambushed Robert Parker, a student at college who killed Stock's brother some months back, and Boone shot and killed a man at a camp meeting. The people of Morganton propose to ferret out the lynchers and punish them.

The many remarkable cures Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes are sufficient proof that it does possess peculiar curative powers.

The Storm.

The terrific hurricane which prevailed on Tuesday along the North Atlantic coast was continued all through Wednesday, and the reports from all points show that immense damage has been done. New York City was completely drenched, and the water in the rivers was a foot higher Wednesday than on the previous day. All the seaside resorts sustained heavy damage, and a large number of vessels have been driven ashore and wrecked, with some loss of life.—Wilmington Star.
