For Government to foster capital is to make labor more dependent.

GENERAL MAHONEY'S outgoing documents amount to about a wagon load each day.

THE Virginia Midland railroad has made a big reduction in its freight charges, cutting them down 35 per cent.

SENATOR OULOM, of Illinois is announced as a Candidate for the Republican Presidential Nomination in 1895.

THE New York World of last Friday is embellished with a fine likeness of Col. Thomas H. Holt, Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina.

THE Democratic party is the journeymen party. In every part of the country it is attracting the majority of the young and intelligent voters to its ranks.

TIME, patience and just treatment will do more to solve the race problem at the South than any political measures whatever. An exodus is not possible.—New York World.

It has been officially announced that all who expect to have exhibits at the State Fair must arrange the space and place their articles in position before sundown October 13th.

A SALT LAKE CITY, special of September 19th says that "Mrs. Hiram Snell, of Malad, Idaho, has given birth to sixtets, three boys and three girls, they weigh eight pounds all together. All are bright and hearty and promise to live.

It is reported that Mrs. Harrison seems to dread a return to Washington. She has been very happy at Deer Park. As she detests society, and especially the heterogeneous gatherings which pertain to Washington life, her face has grown sadder as the Fall has come on.

CAPTAIN MCKINNEY says he has canvassed the State ever since the walker campaign twenty years ago, and that he has never seen the Democrats so united and determined to win as they are now. He says a hundred Republicans, Northern men at Roanoke shook hands with him and told him they would vote the Democratic ticket this year.—Norfolk Landmark.

When the lines of business that are by their very nature monopolies are left out, an examination of the subject will show that advances in production have not yielded as large returns in proportion to the investment when carried on a large scale as they have on a small scale. This is contrary to many assertions now published, but it will bear investigation.—National Economist.

We have been informed that the game laws of the State are not observed, they should be. Numbers of persons who are devotees of the sport of a few sportsmen take advantage of the laxity of the execution of the law in respect to the premature killing of game, and go on hunting expeditions fully a month before it is lawful for them to kill. This conduct is reprehensible. There is no excuse for it. It violates the law and it violates the ethics of honorable sportsmanship.

ON the night of the 19th a horrible disaster occurred at Quebec, Canada. Several tons of rock slid from Cape Diamond, and the end of Dufferin Terrace, and Champlain street, three hundred feet below, demolishing in its course seven dwellings. Ten corps and sixteen wounded have been taken out. It will take several days to recover all the bodies. The damage will exceed $100,000.

LOCAL NEWS.

Several cases of diphtheria in the city now.

"Did you see him there? Wasn't you surprised?"

It rained, but didn't they come, didn't they come to the circus?

There were thirty-seven boats in the market dock yesterday afternoon at one time.

There will be a meeting of the Cotton and Grain Exchange tonight at 8 o'clock.

Five bales of cotton sold yesterday. Prices from 10 1-2 to 10 3-4 cents per pound.

One hundred and twenty of the people connected with the circus were registered at Hotel Albert.

The Working Society of the Methodist church meets at the residence of B. G. Credle tonight at 8 o'clock.

Tonight is the time for the annual meeting of the Building and Loan Association. The meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms at 8 o'clock.

Cottage prayer-meeting of the young men of the Baptist church will be held this evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Marine Hospital on South Front street.

A time indicator has been placed at the passenger depot of the A. & N. C. railroad, so that no questions need be asked to learn the time of the arrival and departure of trains.

Among the trophies taken by Gov. Fowle's hunting party in their recent hunt in Carteret county, was an alligator, over four feet in length, which was killed by the Governor's son Daniel, a boy of nine years, who is an excellent shot with a rifle.

We were shown yesterday some very fine Irish potatoes which were grown in Black Mountain, this State. They were very large, and we think superior to the Northern potato. It is a pity we can't buy them instead of sending to New York after potatoes. But North Carolina freight rates are against us.

Saves a Sailing Party in Distress.

We copy the following from the News and Observer of Tuesday morning.

Gov. Fowle and a party of friends were out trolling Saturday evening, and espied a boat in distress near the bar buoy. The sea was running very high, but after much difficulty the Governor's boat rescued them. As it was near sundown there was no other boat out, and the party, consisting of the two sons of Dr. Ennets and Mr. Lewis, principal of the High School here, would certainly have been drowned but for their timely aid.

Shipping News.

The steamer Carolina arrived from up Neuse with cotton and other freight.

The steamer Stout of the Clyde line arrived last night.

The schooner Melvin arrived yesterday with a cargo of coal from Philadelphia. She was out in the recent storm and had a rough passage, but sustained no damage.

The schooner Geo. W. Howse, of Philadelphia, is loading lumber at Moody & Clark's mill.

Resolution of Thanks.

At a meeting of the Atlantic Fire Co. of New Berne, N. C., the following resolution was passed, and ordered to be printed in the New Berne DAILY JOURNAL, and a copy sent to Mrs. W. F. Wyatt, of Raleigh, N. C.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Company be tendered to Mrs. W. F. Wyatt for the presentation of the beautiful whip on the occasion of the Fireman's Tournament, held in the city of Raleigh, Aug. 12th, 14th and 15th, at which time this Company won the prize for quick steaming and distance throwing.

WM. ELLIS,
CHAS. E. BLANK,
W. D. BARRINGTON.

Old Seals of New Berne.

Our distinguished fellow-citizen, Henry E. Bryan, has in his possession two seals of the city of New Berne which have lately been sent to Col. W. P. Beasley by Mr. F. W. Smith, of Bridgeport, Connecticut, and then forwarded to Mr. Bryan by express. These seals were given to Mr. Smith by a Federal soldier who obtained them in the usual way. One of them seems to be quite ancient and has the word "New Bern" on it. The other is not so old and has the words "The Commissioners of New Bern." Col. Beasley also sent to Mr. Bryan the seal of the Court of Equity of Craven county. Mr. Bryan will present the corporation seals to the city at the next meeting of the city council, and the seal of the Court of Equity to the Superior Court at its next term.

Personal.

Gov. Fowle and son returned to Raleigh yesterday.

Mr. Robert C. Keogh and Mr. Charles M. Keogh left yesterday for Boston, Mass.

Mr. F. Ulrich and wife returned last night from a trip to Baltimore and New York.

Mr. E. K. Bishop returned from the North last night.

At Hotel Albert—G. E. Walraren, Philadelphia; R. I. Wade, Richmond; Geo. W. Spencer, Harry Stevens, Chas. E. French, New York; Daniel J. Joy, Frank Cooke, J. Hayes and L. Williams, Cincinnati; T. J. Barten, J. B. Gantry, C. L. Irwin and Henry Spencer, Chicago; Dr. Charles B. Woodley, J. A. Smith, Trenton; L. L. McGonigal, J. H. Mathews, Smith's creek; Prof. S. C. Bragraw, Pollockville; R. Rosenbaum, Atlanta.

John Robinson's Exhibit.

Though the weather was rainy an immense crowd witnessed the exhibition of Robinson's circus yesterday. The parade took place at 10:30, and after passing through the principal streets, took up at the tents opposite the fair grounds.

By an invitation from Mr. John Lowell we were taken through the menagerie in advance of the performance and shown all the animals and a description given thereof, a courtesy much appreciated.

There was some splendid and graceful riding and other features of remarkable ability, but the most pleasing and exciting was the grand hippodrome. The four pony chariot race, jockey and hurdle races, wheelbarrow race, barrel race, mule race, monkey race, and man against horse. As far as we heard the order and behavior among all connected with the circus was good and their language chaste.

Jones County Items.

Trent river is getting very low, too low for the timber men.

The crop of chinquapins is fine and the boys are busy eating them.

The cotton farmers say that they have the poorest crop of cotton that they have had for many years.

Trenton has another new bar-room opened and in full blast. Mr. Geo. E. Andrews is the proprietor.

The farmers report a very short crop of fodder. Many who have heretofore sold fodder say that they will have to buy fodder.

Mr. Nathan Henderson, of White Oak township, has lost his mind. He was brought to Trenton on Friday last, to be sent to the Asylum.

There is an old colored man in Jones county named William Dove, aged about 75 years, the youngest of 18 children, and his mother is still living.

Several sick horses in this vicinity, two have died in Trenton, Mr. Job L. Kinsey lost one about two weeks ago and Mr. E. G. McDaniel lost a fine horse last Friday.

The exodus meetings are held here every few days and are well attended. I enquired of one of the exodusers when they expected to start for their new homes. "Well," said he, "I don't exactly know," and then he said that President Harrison had written to the head man at New Berne that he would send them all the money they needed to defray their expenses in a few days. Won't these few days be many years! How simple they are to believe such reports.

It is real interesting to read the communication of W. in last week's JOURNAL, as it carries the old men like us back to stories and yarns of the hunters when we were boys. Well can I remember fifty-four years ago when the old men of Trenton township, John Mallard, William Harrison and Shadric Mallard and others would get together and relate their and their fathers' adventures with bears, wolves and panthers during the 17th century. But these good old hunters have all passed over the dark river, and their old hunting grounds have neither wolves or panthers, but occasionally a stray bear is captured that hunger has caused to venture out on the old hunting grounds to search for something to eat.

The hog cholera has given the citizens of this vicinity the go-by thus far. Should it make its appearance, let the farmers recollect that the last Legislature gave the farmers of Jones county a law compelling owners of sick hogs to take them from the range and place them where other hogs could not get to them, and when one dies the owner is compelled to bury him or else be subject to be indicted and punished for his neglect. Let us all attend to this and see that the law is enforced, as we firmly believe that it is our duty, not only for our own protection, but for the protection of all, even those who are too careless and neglectful to take care of themselves. We are confident that a strict enforcement of the law will fully convince every farmer that hog cholera can be stamped out among hogs just as can yellow fever and smallpox among human beings.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Charlotte Chronicle: Mr. Fife, the drummer evangelist, spent a few hours in Charlotte yesterday. He promised to return next week to aid Mr. Pearson in the revival. Great interest is being taken in Mr. Pearson's coming.

Washington Gazette: Mr. I. L. Chestnut, of Greene county, has been preaching in Hyde for some weeks past. He spent Sunday night at Pantego on his return home. Mr. Chestnut reports about thirty added to the church during his visit.

The newspapers, and the readers, and everybody else that is interested in the postal service, are having a grand opportunity to practice patience now-a-days. Complaints of the most absurd irregularities come from all quarters. It is time things were getting in shape. The excuse that new postmasters have been put in is too old.

Elizabeth City Carolinian: The fatal disease among the horses in Newland continues. During the past three weeks some twenty horses have died, valued at over $2,000.—When we hear a farmer say, "there is no money in farming," to our way of thinking it is a tacit acknowledgment that his management has been at fault.

Wilmington Messenger: The many friends of Mr. W. W. Holladay were shocked yesterday at the announcement of the death of his lovely and accomplished wife who passed away at 11 o'clock in the forenoon at the residence of her father. The deceased lady was formerly Miss Maggie M. Williams, daughter of our esteemed citizen, Mr. Geo. W. Williams, and was aged 24 years and 26 days.

Winston Republican: Near Longtown, in Yadkin county, N. C. recently, Mr. Wm. Leland breathed his last at the age of 105 years. He was a veteran of the war of 1812 and has been drawing a pension as such for 34 years.

the total sum thus drawn aggregating nearly $4,000.—Mr. W. K. Newgent, of Mt. Airy, was in town Monday and Tuesday exhibiting "Jumbo" the boss rattlesnake, captured less than a month ago in the "wilds" of Surry. The reptile had 13 rattles and a button, was 4 feet 6 inches long and was a perfect specimen of the North Carolina rattler.

Stonewall Items.

The circus has about depopulated Pamlico.

Sam Campen has completed his new store and filled it with new goods.

There seems to be an attraction for a Smith creek beaver in Stonewall. He makes his visits quite punctual.

Mr. S. G. Roberts and lady were down on a visit to Mrs. Ann E. Cherry, Mrs. Roberts' mother, and left for New Berne yesterday morning.

Cotton is receiving a set-back by the depredations of the worm. I hardly think there will be harvested more than one-half as much in Pamlico as was last year. Corn is an average crop, and potatoes bid fair to be an average one.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the members of the New Berne Building and Loan Association will take place at the Y. M. C. A., rooms at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening Sept., 25th, 1889.

J. R. B. CARRAWAY,
Secretary.

Vigor and Vitality

Are quickly given to every part of the body by Hood's Sarsaparilla. That tired feeling is entirely overcome. The blood is purified, enriched and vitalized, and carries health instead of disease to every organ. The stomach is toned and strengthened, the appetite restored. The kidneys and liver are roused and invigorated. The brain is refreshed, the mind made clear and ready for work. Try it.

Beecham's Pills act like magic on a weak stomach.

Cotton and Grain Exchange--Notice.

There will be a Regular Meeting of the Newbern Cotton and Grain Exchange, Wednesday, Sept. 25th, at Eight o'clock, p.m.

A full attendance is desired.
