The Bonlangest party was defeated in the late French elections.

The Colorado Mining Exchange have adopted a resolution to investigate the constitutionality of the act restricting the coinage of silver.

No man, says Prince Krapotkin, "can be happy who lives without an object, or whose object is some worn-out relic from a former age, which can never be revived."

One of the most pleasing political signs of the times is the fact that Judge Robert W. Hughes, a prominent Republican and one of the ablest men in Virginia, announces his intention to support the Democratic State ticket.

ALTHOUGH the receipts of cotton at the outports the past week were 130,348 bales, the actual movement from plantations was 139,852 bales, the balance going to increase the stock at the interior towns. Last year the receipts from the plantations for the same week were 104,804 bales and for 1887 there 217,782 bales.—Financial Chronicle.

JAMES DAVIS brought the first press to the province of North Carolina in 1749. Two years later he printed Swann's Revisal. Davis was employed to issue paper money, was a mail contractor, post-master of New Berne and a magistrate under Tryon. In December 1755, he issued the first number of the North Carolina Gazette.—University Correspondent of News and Observer.

MR. CLEVELAND has well described the situation, remarks the Boston Post, in saying, with epigrammatic force, in reference to the tariff reform movement in the Democratic party, that "Party honesty is party expediency." In adopting the clearly defined principles of reform for which Mr. Cleveland stood, and turning its attention to living issues, that party took the first step necessary to give it a permanent ascendancy.—North Virginia.

When this number the Star enters on its forty-fifth volume, and still shines for all. In the twenty-two years in which it has been published, it has been a faithful chronicler of current events at home and abroad, an earnest advocate of progress, State and local, and a conscientiously defended champion of its principles, upon the responsibility of this country.

by being true to its mission in journalism and true to the people it has won hosts of friends, so it will continue to be true to its mission and true to them, and thus endeavor to prove worthy of their continued confidence and support.—Wilmington Star.

Captain Southgate and Captain E. B. Roberts, of the Old Dominion line, and Mr. A. N. Lookwood, one of the proprietors of the New York Graphic, with his family, all went down to Morehead City last night to enjoy the fishing sport today. We'll say in advance that they will have a merry, good time, for we hear that it takes a live man to keep the fish off his hook down there now.

Dissatisfaction With the Mail Service.
Almost daily reports reach our ear of irregularities in the mail service and inconvenience at the postoffice. We have never heard the cleverness of our postmaster disputed and we are confident any just complaint made to him will be remedied as far as possible. One gentleman tells us that he subscribed to a paper six weeks ago and that he has just received the first copy along with the whole supply. The publisher affirms that it was mailed every week. Another says, that he received only one copy of a daily paper during two weeks. Letters have been delayed and given no little trouble. A lady informs us that a letter that had been enquired for at the postoffice time and again, was at last picked up across the river and returned to her. Numerous other annoyances have been reported which we trust will be speedily rectified.

Our public building is badly needed for the better distribution of the mails and convenience of the public. The space is entirely too small for the business of New Berne. The trail usually at the general delivery often reaches across both entrances and the group inside is sometimes so compact as to make it quite difficult to get to the boxes.

Dietary after eating, heartburn, sick headache and indigestion are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It also creates a good appetite.

Caroline Holly, colored, larceny; sent to jail. Caroline played a wicked joke on a country fellow. She and one or two of her chums asked him to change a quarter last Monday night, while on the street. The man took out his pocket-book to get the change, when the girls snatched it from him and ran. The book contained about ten dollars.

Resolutions.
At the regular meeting of the Ministerial Association of New Berne and vicinity, in St. Cyprian school house, the following preamble and resolutions were presented by Rev. W. E. Carr and were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, in the infinite wisdom of Almighty God it has pleased Him to call from this life Rev. Joseph Green, an humble, zealous and patient worker for the cause of Christ, and an exemplary minister of the A. M. E. Zion church with which he was identified as one of its pioneers in this State, therefore:

Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Joseph Green this Association has lost a beloved member, the cause of Christianity a valuable friend and advocate, the people for whom he labored a benefactor, and the church, in which he labored, an honored representative. But our loss is his gain, and we bow in submission to the decree of infinite love and wisdom.

Resolved, That while we sensibly feel the loss of this venerable servant of God, we rejoice in the hope that he has gone from his earthly work to the rest and joy promised to the faithful beyond this vale of tears.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the afflicted wife and children of our deceased brother and desire to comfort them with "the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted of God."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the late Brother Green, a copy to the New Berne Journal and one to the Star of Zion for publication.

Rev. W. E. CARR, Pres.
Rev. P. W. CARR, Sec'y.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.
The Governor's mansion at Raleigh is to be completed. Work will begin at once.

Raleigh Progressive Farmer: We verily believe that the State Fair of 1889 will be the most interesting and the largest ever held. Everybody who can should attend and bring their families.

Wilson Mirror: We learn that Thos. Haywood, of Nash county, sold tobacco from five acres of land for sixteen hundred dollars.—Mr. Isaac Williams, of Greene county, has six hogs that will weigh 500 pounds each at this time.

Senator Ransom will deliver the oration at the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the adoption by North Carolina of the Constitution of the United States, which will be held in Fayetteville, November 21, 1889. Ex-President Jefferson Davis will be present.

Burlington News: Mr. George Simpson, of Morton's township, was found dead in his room one day last week, whether he had gone a day or two before with a jug of new brandy, saying to a negro on the place that he would drink enough to kill him. Such a sight is seldom seen as met the eye when his room was forced open.

Charlotte Chronicle: Sunday was a red-letter day for the church-goers of this town, the events of the day being the dedication of the fine new Y. M. C. A. building, and two sermons by Evangelist R. G. Pearson. His hosts of warm friends and admirers were delighted at the prospect of a week's meeting conducted by Mr. Pearson, and nearly everybody else felt interested. It was thought to be especially appropriate that Rev. Mr. Pearson should preach the sermon at the dedication of the Y. M. C. A. building, as the friends of that institution accord to him a large part of the credit of raising the funds necessary to secure the building, and the building itself, large, convenient, well equipped and imposing in appearance, is one of which the Association here is justly proud. Above the rostrum in the main hall hangs a portrait of Mr. Pearson. The dedicatory sermon was preached from the text found in Matthew xvi: 18.

Peculiar.
In the combination, proportion, and preparation of the ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations entirely fail. Peculiar in its good name at home, which is a "tower of strength abroad," peculiar in the phenomenal sales it has attained, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most successful medicine for purifying the blood, giving strength, and creating an appetite.

THE MORAVIANS AT BETHABARA.
The Indians Declare War Against all White People.—Perilous Times With the Brethren, but God Protects Them.

The former war was known as the French war but in October 1759 the Cherokee and Creeks declared war against all white people and murdered seven persons near Fort London (wherever that was.) The North Carolina militia was ordered to assemble at Salisbury in November. The Brethren being exempt from military duty, remained on their land, and Bro. Laesch received the commission of captain of the Dutch Fort and Governor of the watches in Bethabara and Bethania.

Daily communication between the two settlements was kept up by Bro. Spongenberg and Etwein, in person and other brethren as escorts. They went back and forth on horse-back at a rapid rate which caused the Indians who were prowling around to capture them, to say "The Dutchers have big fat horses and ride like the Devil." A watch was established day and night, on the burning ground at Bethabara, it being at the top of a high hill. The bell was rung every morning at dawn of day and it was afterwards learned that this simple device prevented the Indians from many contemplated attacks on the Fort. It was also learnt that one hundred and fifty warriors had encamped for six weeks within six miles of Bethavia and a smaller camp within three miles of it. But under the providence of God no assault was made nor no one captured by the wily enemy.

A wounded man came in to the settlement with arrows still sticking in his body, who with two other settlers from beyond the Yadkin, had been attacked by the Indians; his companions having both been killed and he wandering around in his wounded condition for over twenty-four hours.

A Baptist preacher, John Thomas, was killed near Abbott's creek and in a short space of time, no less than fifteen persons were murdered in that neighborhood.

A fall of snow in March caused the enemy finally to retire, whereby quiet was restored so that the blessed season for commemorating the Savior's sufferings, death and resurrection, proved a time of rich spiritual enjoyment. On Easter Sunday, a company of Orange County riflemen, sixty persons, arrived and requested Bro. Spongenberg, as the German preacher, was just over, to preach again for them in English, which he cheerfully did, selecting for his text Acts ii: 28.

The whole company laid down their arms and listened with awe and attention to the fatherly admonition of the venerable bishop whose words seemed to make a deep impression on many.

On April 27th he finished his labors in Wachovia, returned to Pennsylvania and thence to Europe in 1763, where he served as a member of the Brethren Elders Conference for nearly thirty years. He died in Berthelsdorf, in Saxony, September 18th, 1793, at the advanced age of eighty-eight years.

In 1761 the war with the Indians was brought to a close.

In 1763 peace being restored, a company of fifteen brethren and sisters arrived from Pennsylvania by way of Wilmington, among them brethren John Michael Gruff, afterwards bishop, and Abram de Gammers. They brought with them a small organ, the first in the settlement, an instrument but little known at that time in the colony. They also brought a ball for Bethania.

In July eight couples were married, among them L. G. Bachoff, minister at Bethania.

Bro. Etwein undertook a long missionary journey as far as Charleston, preaching and holding meetings wherever opportunity offered.
