WM. E. CLARKE, P. M.

Taken Unaware. Unsuspected causes for malaria exist everywhere. A sunken lot partly filled with water in the vicinity of your abode, a new location upon land filled in, but formerly overgrown or marshy, and causes far more occult than these produce the atmospheric miasmata which ripen into fever and ague and congenial maladies.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Beaufort county at May term, 1889, in Samuel Conard vs. The Pamlico Lumber Company, I will sell for cash, on Monday, November 25, 1889, at 12 o'clock M., at the court house in the city of New Berne, all the pine timber fit for milling purposes upon a certain tract of land in Craven county, N. C., and known and described as lot No. 5 in the partition of the lands of Moses Erul, being the portion assigned to Burton Erul. The lot is in a tract of land to be sold as particularly described in a contract between Adolph Cohn and wife and The Pamlico Lumber Company, recorded in the Register's office of Craven county. Also all the standing timber fit for milling purposes upon the undivided two-thirds interest of Adolph Cohn in a tract of land in said State and county, and fully described in the tract above referred to in the contract between the said Cohn and the said Company.
