THE FIELD-TERRY AFFAIR.

It will be remembered that soon after the killing of Terry by Nagle the JOURNAL denounced it as a foul murder. We have seen nothing since then to change our opinion.

Night before last we received a pamphlet, from the Fresno Inquirer printing house, compiled and published by the friends of Judge Terry, in which it is asserted that the killing was the result of a conspiracy, and charging Justice Field, U. S. Marshal Franks and U. S. Attorney Carey with being the conspirators.

The evidence of conspiracy is very strong. The following letter is regarded as laying the ground work:

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE,
 WASHINGTON, D. C. APRIL 27, '89.
 John O. Franks, United States Marshal, San Francisco, Cal.

Sir:—The proceedings which have heretofore been had in connection with the case of Mr. and Mrs. Terry in your United States Circuit Court have become matters of public notoriety, and I deem it my duty to call your attention to the propriety of exercising unusual caution, in case further proceedings shall be had in that case, for the protection of his honor, Justice Field, or whoever may be called upon to hear and determine the matter. Of course I do not know what may be the feeling or purpose of Mr. and Mrs. Field in the premises, but many things which have happened indicate that violence on their part is not impossible. It is due to the dignity and independence of the Court and the character of the Judges that no effort on the part of the Government shall be spared to make them feel entirely safe and free from anxiety in the discharge of their high duties.

You will understand of course that this letter is not for the public, but to put you on your guard. It will be proper for you to show it to the District Attorney, if deemed best. Yours truly,
 W. H. H. MILLER,
 Attorney-General.

We cannot give the letter of Marshal Franks, written in reply to the Attorney-General, on the 6th of May, but, in it he said:

"I have given the matter careful consideration with the determination to fully protect the Federal Judge at this term trusting that the Department will re-emburse for any reasonable expenditure."

"I shall follow your instructions and act with more than usual caution. I have already consulted with the U. S. Attorney, J. T. Carey, Esq., as to the advisability of making application to you for me to select two or more detectives to assist in the case, and also assist me in protecting Justice Field while in my district. I notice remarks in regard to the publicity of your letter, and will obey your request. I shall be only too happy to receive any suggestions from you at any time."

On the next day, May 7, 1889, U. S. Attorney Carey addressed a letter to the Attorney-General from which we extract as follows:

"Marshal Franks exhibited your letter, bearing date of the 27th ult., addressed to him upon the subject of seeing due caution by way of protecting Justice Field and the Federal Judges here in the discharge of their duties in matters in which the Terrys are interested."

"I write merely to suggest that there is just reason in the light of the past and the threats made by Judge and Mrs. Terry against Justice Field and Judge Sawyer to apprehend personal violence at any moment and at any place as well in court as out of court."

 Mr. Franks is a prudent, cool and courageous officer, who will not abuse any authority granted him. I would therefore suggest that he be authorized, in his discretion, to retain one or more deputies at such time as he may deem necessary for the purpose suggested. That publicity may not be given to the matter it is important that the deputies whom he may select be not known as such; and that efficient services may be assured for the purpose indicated, it seems that they should be strangers to the Terrys."

"This is of course is not intended for the public files of your office, nor will it be put on file in my office."
 "Prudence dictates great caution on the part of the officials who may be called upon to have anything to do in the premises, and I deem it of the greatest importance that the suggestions back and forth be confidential."

"I shall write you further upon these cases in a few days."
 It is to be presumed that further correspondence passed between these officials, but the letters have not been made public. It is reasonable to suppose that what was subsequently done was the direct product of this correspondence and the personal interviews in regard to the subject matter of it.

The pamphlet says that, "on the 17th of June, a detective, giving the name of Fenton, telegraphed Constable Barker, of Fresno City, Cal., to know if the Terrys were there. On the same day Nagle was taken out of the License Collector's office in San Francisco and made a Deputy United States Marshal. On that day the conspiracy to murder Judge Terry was hatched."

It is further asserted that Nagle was instructed as to his duties, and immediately set out to meet Judge Field.

"Fenton informed officer Barker, on his arrival at Fresno, on the 17th, that he was a detective from Fenness's Detective Agency, on California street, San Francisco, and was detailed to watch the Terrys." He was known to keep both Nagle and Field informed by telegrams of every move the Terrys made.

"Judge Terry had intended leaving for his home on a certain train but was misinformed of the time. Field went on that train expecting to meet Terry. Field proceeded to Los Angeles and started back to San Francisco on the 13th of August. On that day Fenton had telegraphed Field at Tehachapi that Judge Terry would take that night train. Judge Terry ordered a carriage to call at his home that night in due time to take him to the trains. Fenton shadowed his home, saw him and his wife take the carriage, got up with the driver and went to the train, where he found Nagle and communicated with him. Nagle told Field. The train moved on and the next morning stopped at Lathrop for breakfast. It was the custom of Judge Field to take his breakfast when traveling in the sleeper, but he got out of the car and went into the dining room and took a seat opposite that which Judge Terry uniformly occupied when at that house. Soon afterwards Judge Terry entered and took his accustomed seat."

Mr. Lincoln, one of the proprietors of the house, in his testimony, says:

"I was just setting a cup of tea down for Field—was right by Nagle. I did not see Judge Terry strike Field. I was looking right at him—was within a foot of him. He leaned over as if he was going to speak to Field, and instantly, without a word or motion, Nagle threw up a pistol against Terry's breast and shot him. Judge Terry did not speak, but sank to the floor dead."

The friends of Terry say that at the time he was killed, he was in no condition for a personal difficulty. He had just been released from a six months confinement in jail; his strength was reduced to the weakness of a child of tender years, his strength and muscle all gone, his eyesight greatly injured and his health completely broken. Any boy could have handled him in a fight, and this they knew. Does any one imagine that Franks or Cary intended to have peace preserved when they deputized this man Nagle and armed him with a pistol two feet long, holding six rifle balls of 45 calibre, and dressed him in citizen's clothes?

It will be seen that the evidence of conspiracy is very strong, and the proof of murder well nigh uncontested.

Whatever may be thought of the killing of Terry, the wresting of Nagle from State authority was an outrage that smacks of a despotism destructive of the rights of the States and the liberties of the people.

 If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get
 "In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own brand of Hood's, he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. That taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's
 When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it. Mrs. E. A. A.
