THE New Berne Winter Fair will be the best of the season.

THE Rocky Mount Fair begins today. We hoped to attend it, but must attribute to the necessity that impels our absence. Success to the Rocky Mount Fair.

It is said that President Harrison will make his message very short. The collapse of last Tuesday knocked the breath out of him, and out it short.—Wilmington Star.

THERE is much anxiety in Paris. It is rumored that the Monarchy electors will march to the Chamber in a body and protest against the annulment of Boulangers election.

WHITE agricultural labor is what this state needs, and any move that will tend to increase the white farm labor of the State should be encouraged.—Charlotte Chronicle.

BOISE of Iowa having come to the front reminds one of the toast once given to South Carolina. "Her Kellets are all oars; her Boyce are all men, and her Brooks mighty rivers."

SENATOR VANCE says he is drumming for Fayetteville. He wants a big crowd from Charlotte to go to the Centennial with him next week. That settles it, Charlotte will be there.—Charlotte Chronicle.

It is said that Col. Calvin S. Brice will be the successor of Senator Payne, of Ohio, in the United States Senate. If the contest is narrowed to a choice between Brice and McLean we certainly prefer the former.

THE elections of Tuesday show heavy Republican losses in all parts of the country, and they are heaviest where the issues were most largely of a national character, where the National Administration was most closely identified with the State organizations, and where the party as a whole was most definitely put upon trial.—New York Times.

ANOTHER change is soon to be made in the New York Ledger. The new issue will be sixteen pages instead of eight as at present. As its many readers will testify, the Ledger has long been one of the ablest literary papers in the United States. Within the last few years it has undergone a number of changes, everyone of which seems to have been an improvement.

NOW that President Harrison is contemplating a visit to Wilmington within a week or two, would it not be a good idea for the Fayetteville people to invite him to attend the Fayetteville Centennial?—Wilmington Messenger. We trust that President Harrison will be invited to Fayetteville. The event we celebrate is a national one, and the President would give credit to the occasion.

TODAY the seed sown a year ago comes back to us a rich harvest. The educational campaign did not end with the election of Harrison. The battle has been going on ever since. And with what result yesterday's election shows. From one end of the country to the other, today the democracy is rejoicing over the victory. And that victory is the sign of their honorable defeat of a year ago. He longer best who laughs last.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
WANTED—A good male cook. WM. COHEN—Executor's sale.
F. ULICH—Virginia cheroots.
L. H. CUTLER—Headquarters, etc.
WM. L. PALMER—If I can't sell, etc.

A lot of fine mules and horses arrived for J. W. Stewart yesterday morning. There will be a foot tournament at the residence of N. P. Willis, near Vanceboro on Thursday, Nov. 28th.

The Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad will give special rates of travel to the Fayetteville Centennial celebration.

Mr. Wm. Sultan, one of the largest merchants in the city, has bought out the entire stock of gents furnishing goods of M. Cohen, on Middle street.

We were shown yesterday a very fine grape, known as the "Tokay" variety. It is large and luscious and commands a high price in market. North Carolina is so well adapted to the grape that we think this specie might well be tried.

The building one door south of Mr. L. J. Moore's residence, on Craven street, is to be removed to the vacant lot on Queen street, nearly opposite the railroad offices. Mr. E. K. Bishop has purchased the building and will have it improved when it is put in its new position.

It is quite a metamorphosis that the JOURNAL announced in its "State News" yesterday morning, in publishing the interesting fact that Miss Mamie Hatcher's "fair sister" of the Press had become a Fairbrother of the Press.

Two hearts with but a single think. Two hands however to "sing the ink." A gentleman from upper Jones county tells us that next Friday is to be a big day among the "exodusters." Quite a number of the negroes in Jones and Lenoir counties will leave for Arkansas and other States. We have heard, too, that there is considerable talk about leaving among some of the white people of a section of Lenoir.

We haven't said a word about "Thanksgiving turkeys." So many old chestnuts have been revived and flung unmercifully at the readers of the State papers that we have just made up our mind to not say a word about the subject. The fact is, we don't care a cent about Thanksgiving turkeys, any more than we do Christmas turkeys, but we must say that Christmas turkeys are "mighty nice." We don't want to be misunderstood in this matter.

L. J. Moore, Esq., has returned from Lenoir county court.

"The Mountebank."
A special train will leave New Berne at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon for Goldsboro, for the accommodation of those who wish to witness the performance at the opera house on Saturday night. Frederick Wards will appear in "The Mountebank." The fare for the round trip, including admission to the play, will be $1.50 from New Berne, $1.50 from Kinston and $1.25 from La Grange. The train will leave Goldsboro for New Berne immediately after the performance.

Severe Accident.
Mr. Jeff Ipock, of Swift creek, but recently working at Bell's Ferry, was severely hurt at the latter place last Friday. He was employed at the shingle machine of Mr. J. F. Heath. There was a choking of sawdust near the saw and Mr. Ipock undertook to clear it away with an axe handle. The heavy struck the saw and was thrust against the head of Mr. Ipock, breaking his jaw bone and otherwise injuring him. Also one of the teeth from the saw was broken out and struck him on the shoulder, inflicting another painful wound.

CHILDREN ENJOY
The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

Beaman's Pills cure bilious and nervous ailments.

Division of Spoils.

Quite an amusing scene was presented on Craven street yesterday. A colored couple had trouble in their home, got mad with each other, and on Monday night separated. When the question of dividing the personal property came up the husband claimed a little more than the wife was willing for him to take. But he managed to get his part of the household and kitchen furniture on a dray, and following close behind himself, started to move it to another house. But the wife came running after the dray, as it passed down street, and would dart in between her husband and the dray and attempt to take off pieces of the furniture. She made trial after trial to slip a chair or some other article from the dray. The husband had a "time of it" to keep her off, and, in spite of his efforts, she got a few articles. Persons on the street watched the scene with much amusement. There seemed to be no attempts at violence on either side—the main object was to "d'wide dem things right." They passed down Craven street and up South Front beyond Hancock street. The drayman, who had not taken sides with either the husband or the wife, was a little put out when they arrived at the appointed house and the husband said: "Look er heah! You charged me eighty cents ter move dese things, but yer didn't bring all here. I ain't goin' to pay yer a cent tell dem things all brought here. I saw yer stillin' at her. Youner's in favor of her anyhow."

Mayor's Court.
City Councilman Ferdinand Ulrich is acting Mayor in the absence of Mayor Williams, who has been at Morehead City and the banks during this week, catching fish and ponies. We unintentionally omitted to say that acting Mayor Ulrich presided at the courts reported in yesterday's JOURNAL.
One case came up yesterday. Samuel Howard, jr., charged with violating chapter 5, section 3, of the city ordinance, by being disorderly, cursing and swearing, submitted. He was fined $2.50 and cost.

Shipping News.
The steamer Eaglet of the E. C. D. line sailed yesterday afternoon with full cargo of general exports. The Annie will arrive tonight.
The steamer Defiance, of the Clyde line, sailed for Baltimore last night with a cargo of lumber, shingles, cotton, etc.

The steamer Howard arrived from up Trent yesterday with a cargo of cotton. The steamer Newberne, of the O. D. line, sailed for Norfolk yesterday with cargo of cotton and other freight.

Suspended.
The Durham Globe has suspended. The editor, in the last issue, November 12, says:

With this issue the Globe ceases publication. The cause which produces this result, is simply a lack of substantial patronage on the part of the business men of the place. The existence of the paper might have been prolonged by lowering its standard, but rather than consent to a depreciation of its value as a newspaper, the publisher has preferred to discontinue its publication.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Please allow me through the DAILY JOURNAL, to express my high appreciation of the Missionary Concert exercises given at the Methodist church on last Sunday night.

The program, consisting of missionary recitations, songs and reports, was indeed an interesting one. All the selections were appropriate and well rendered, and the young people who recited deserve the highest commendation.

The very large congregation present was not only entertained, but also delighted, and the sentiment of all was, "well done." The music, by the Sunday-school choir, under the leadership of Mr. J. K. Willis, was entirely new and was pronounced by competent judges very superior.

The entertainment was, as a whole, in good taste, of an unusually high order and was regarded by all present as a perfect success. We feel sure such exercises will do great good in developing and instructing the young people of the church as well as in giving new life and interest to their important work.

Ill Winds.
That blow "nobody any good" are plenty on the storm-taxed Atlantic, to say nothing of the occasionally typhoon swept Pacific. The hapless voyager, when shaken up by the heavings of the "briny," should take that pleasant and most salutary of doses, a winged glass of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest stomachic and tonic that ever warmed, regulated and quieted the human interior. Railroad jolts and steamship shaken travelers will exercise a wise provision by supplying themselves with a sufficiency of this incomparable medicine for the journey. So will mariners, emigrants to the West, and others "about to seek fresh fields and pastures new." Malaria, the scourge of newly cleared and mining districts, is completely conquered and surely averted by the Bitters. Liver, bowel and kidney complaints and incipient rheumatism it annihilates.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.
They are raising tobacco in Pitt county right along. The Oxford Day says Mr. Ole Forbes, who took the premium at the Weldon Fair of fine tobacco, sold four grades that averaged $120 per hundred the other day.

News and Observer: Josiah Stancill, the Selma postmaster who was arrested Saturday evening for robbing registered letters, failed to get up his bond and was committed to jail. Jesse Creech, his assistant, gave bond for his appearance and was released.

Mr. Julian S. Carr is opposed to the removal of Trinity College, except upon conditions. He thinks that $20,500 and a site in Raleigh will not put the college in better condition than it is now. He favors Raleigh as the place, if the college is to be removed to any point for a site and $20,500. He says: "There is a minority in the church opposed to the removal of the college upon any basis, and a still larger number opposed to the removal upon the basis of a site, and $20,500, one of whom I am myself."

Wilmington Star: This week's Wilkesboro Chronicle reports the discovery in Wilkes county of coal, or what it calls coal stone, which upon being put in the fire burned freely. This is the first discovery of anything resembling coal in that county. It seems that the discovery was made in uprooting a tree under which the coal was found. Here is the third report within a few weeks of the finding of coal in unexpected localities, in two places in Granville and now in Wilkes. We take occasion to remark again that thorough geological survey might throw a good deal of light on the mineral resources of North Carolina.

A fellow in Montgomery county has "struck it" in the way of a big gold find. A telegram from Salisbury, on Nov. 8, says: "News comes here today of a rich gold find in Montgomery county by Tebe Saunders. Last week he took out 2,000 penny-weights, and sent, besides, seven pounds of gold ore to the Charlotte mint. In one rockful of grit four ounces of gold was found. The gold is in placers, and is the richest ever found in the State. Two peck-baskets full of gold and specimens were taken out of the mine yesterday. Tebe has one hundred hands at work, and gets so much gold that no pretense is made at weighing it except on a pair of grocer's scales, or to measure it in a half-pint cup to pay the royalty, which is shared by the hands. Below the grit small veins are found that are more than half gold. There is no fraud about this, for the gold shows for itself, and it has created intense excitement here."

LATEST NEWS.
CROSS AND WHITE DOOMED—THE MURDER OF MRS. BROWN—CATHOLICS IN BALTIMORE, ETC.

The most important events in the history of the Catholic Church in America began in Baltimore on Sunday—the celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the appointment of the first American Catholic Bishop, the inauguration of the first Congress of Catholic Laymen held in the United States, and the dedication of the new National University for Catholics. At least ten thousand visitors are in the city to attend the ceremonies, which are of the most imposing character. Many of the highest dignitaries of the church are present, together with many eminent men of the laity, who attracted much attention from the assembled thousands.

The United States Supreme Court has affirmed the decision of the Supreme Court of North Carolina in the case of Cross and White, bank officers who were convicted of forgery and making a false entry in the books of the bank, for the purpose of deceiving the National Bank examiner as to the financial condition of the bank. The effect of the decision will be to compel Cross and White to suffer the penalty of the Wake county court, which sentenced Cross to 7, and White to 8, years hard work on public roads.

RALEIGH, Nov. 11.—A special from Selma states that John Starling, son-in-law of Mrs. Cenia Brown, who was murdered Friday night, was arrested today, charged with her murder, and that of her little grandson. The arrest was the result of the coroner's inquest today.

Starling was taken to jail at Smithfield. It was thought up to this time that negroes had murdered the woman to prevent her from being a witness against Shadrach Peters, colored, who is on trial for his life.

Scat! Sciatica!!

Mr. A. T. Lyon, the best known photographer in the three States of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, says: "I have suffered excruciating pains from Sciatic Rheumatism. Stepping on uneven surfaces of sidewalks would give me perfect agony. Various remedies had been tried, but with no effect, until I commenced the use of Guinn's Pioneer Blood Renewer, which has relieved me of the least semblance of pain, and given me the entire use of my limbs. I conscientiously commend it to the public."
