ALL the provinces of Brazil have signified their adherence to the Republic.

It is said that a rupture has occurred in the relations between Germany and the Vatican.

HON. GEORGE H. PENDLETON, late United States Minister to Berlin and formerly United States Senator from Ohio, died in Brussels last Sunday night.

In Utah the Harrison administration is persecuting the Mormons for conscience's sake with great energy. At the same time it is appointing them to post offices in Missouri.—St. Louis Republic.

The first Assistant Postmaster General has made his annual report. On the 1st of July the number of postoffices in the entire country was 59,999 of which 2,683 were Presidential there are 8,583 money order offices, and 401 free delivery post offices.

To tell the truth, much of the joyous spirit with which all us expected to herald statehood has been lacking. The people of Montana must be vindicated, popular suffrage assured, and the sovereign right of the majority to rule must be settled before the people of the State will feel perfectly at home in a circle of States that never permit fraud to taint their title.—Anasoda (Mon) Standard.

SENATOR INGALLS has occupied a very equivocal position on the question of prohibition, and both parties are loudly demanding that he come out of cover. Whenever he does he will have either the prohibitors or the antis reaching for his scalp. The only visible avenue of escape for the distinguished Senator is to divert public attention to Jeff Davis and the question of secession.—Nashville American.

THERE is marked improvement in the Goldboro Mercury under the editorial management of Major W. A. Hearne, who has long ranked as one of the best equipped and most forcible editorial writers in the State. His pen is always warm enough to keep the Mercury pretty high up in the journalistic thermometer.—Wilmington Star. True. The Mercury has not been received at the Journal office for some weeks, and it is greatly missed.

VIRTUOUS Republicans of the George F. Hoar school, who consider their party a collection of all the saints in the country, and the Democratic made up of the sinners, will read about the killing of three men in the bloody vendetta that has been raging for years in Perry county, Ky., and compliment themselves to themselves that it is only what is to be expected in an overwhelming Democratic community. But the Tribune Almanac shows that Perry county is another of those "Whig" strongholds in eastern Kentucky, casting 600 votes for the Republican party only in the year 1880, and casting 500 for the Democratic party in 1888. Give it a try.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

REGISTRATION NOTICES.
N. WHITFORD—Pork sausage

The National Bank and the banking house of Green, Foy & Co. will be closed today.

Today will be holiday in the JOURNAL office, consequently there will be no paper issued tomorrow.

The steamer Annie of the E. C. D. line will arrive this morning and sail this afternoon. The Eagle of this line will arrive tomorrow.

There will be union Thanksgiving service at the Baptist Church this morning at 11 o'clock, to be conducted by Dr. Vass. Regular service at night at 7:30 o'clock.

We are in receipt of a ticket to the Sampson county Fair to be held Dec. 4, 5 and 6. It would give us pleasure to attend. Gen. Fitzhugh Lee delivers the address.

Thanking prayer meeting will be held at Hancock street M. E. Church this morning at 9 o'clock with J. V. Williams as leader. The public is invited to be present.

The business portion of Lynn, Mass., was almost entirely destroyed by fire Tuesday. The latest reports show that an area of a mile square was burned over, and that the loss will probably reach ten million dollars.

Mr. G. T. Huffman came to the city yesterday with his hands badly out from a saw mill at upper Broad creek. All the fingers on the left hand except one were cut off and the right hand was badly lacerated.

Captain Dixon, of the steamer Kinston, shot a beautiful gull on Tuesday. The gull was flying near the steamer Kinston's wharf, on Trent river, when Capt. Dixon killed it. Several gentlemen who saw it consider it the most beautiful gull they ever saw. Its feathers were white, tinged with gold, and the end of the wings dark blue. Mr. W. E. Clarke purchased it.

The two negro boys, Perry Chadwick and Dave Hines, who were convicted of larceny in the Superior Court yesterday, and sentenced to the penitentiary, have done considerable meanness in this community, and it will be a happy riddance when they are gone. Mayor Williams deserves credit for his shrewdness in bringing the young rascals to justice. The Mayor says there has not been nearly so much petty larceny and incendiarism since these boys were incarcerated a few months ago.

Give Thanks Today.

Yes, give thanks today and at all times. We can't be too grateful for the many blessings that have been bestowed upon us by the allwise Creator who doeth all things well. While we should be thankful for the many favors that have been granted us, let us not overlook the needy. We hope that those of our readers who are possessed of an abundance or a reasonable share of this world's goods will not forget to remember the poor and the unfortunate; that they may feel that there is something for them to be thankful for.

The Free Graded School.

The lowest department of the Free Graded School has been divided into three classes according to the advancement of the pupils. The C class is received at 9 and dismissed at 12. The B class is received at 10:30 and dismissed at 1:30. The A class is received at 12:15 and dismissed at 3:15.

By this arrangement the teacher will be able to give more thorough instruction to the little ones, although they will not be confined in the school room so many hours.

These lectures are intended to supplement the regular instruction by the Faculty. Students are required to attend. The public are respectfully invited.

THE FIFE MEETING.

Union Service under the Auspices of the Y. M. C. A., at the Baptist Church.

Yesterday morning's meeting was one of the best of the series. Following the usual course, [Mr. Battle read requests for prayer that had been sent forward and then Mr. Fife asked those in the congregation to make known their requests. Many persons asked prayer for friends and relatives. Several volunteer prayers were made for the conversion of the penitent and the out-pouring of the Spirit in the community. Mr. Fife followed in one of his best talks, taking for his subject "Search the Scriptures." He showed clearly the duty of and the benefit of searching the Scriptures, and his own familiarity with the Word was a beautiful and powerful illustration of his theme. In the course of his remarks he said no two persons have the same experience. If you attempt to lead a service by your experience you may err, but with the Bible as your guide you cannot go wrong. There is no perplexity which God's word cannot remove. Jesus Christ met every temptation of the devil with a Bible quotation, and the weakest child of God can vanquish the advocacy of souls with a passage of Scripture. Mr. Fife closed with a most pathetic reference to his own experience. He then requested the choir to sing "We shall meet beyond the river," and asked those who were determined with the grace of God to meet their loved ones beyond the river to come forward and give him their hand during the singing. Almost every one present went forward, and a hallowed joy pervaded the assembly.

At night the weather prevented the usual large attendance, but the body of the house was nearly full. Many requests for prayer were made, and after several prayers were offered, Mr. Fife conducted an impressive service, in which the promises were repeated by persons in the congregation and commented on by Mr. Fife.

After the benediction was pronounced an enquiry meeting was held, and many seekers after God were directed in the way of life.

Murder in Onslow County.
News reached this city yesterday that Mr. G. W. Winberry, of Onslow county, had been shot and killed by some unknown person. No particulars concerning the affair could be learned here, but the Wilmington Star of yesterday contains the following:

"A correspondent of the Star, writing from Sneed's Ferry, in Onslow county, gives particulars of the brutal assassination of one of the best citizens of that county near that place on last Saturday. The victim was Mr. George W. Winberry. He left his residence that night shortly after supper to visit a neighbor whose home was about a mile distant. Mr. Winberry reached the place about half-past 8 o'clock and was on the door-step of the house when he was fired upon by some person with a gun charged with buckshot. The whole load entered Mr. Winberry's back and left side, and the unfortunate man fell and died on the spot, almost instantly.

"The person who committed the horrible act is unknown, and so far there is no clue that will lead to his detection."
"Mr. Winberry was about 55 years of age. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn their loss. He was in good circumstances, his occupation being farming and the cultivation of the 'Winberry oysters,' which have quite a reputation in Wilmington."

Resumed Publication.

The "Atlantic Seaside," published at Beaufort and Morehead City by Mr. R. M. Garner, has resumed publication after a suspension of about two months. The "Seaside," during its former existence, was a good paper and labored earnestly for the upbuilding and prosperity of the two cities by the sea. It was a lack of proper appreciation, we presume, that caused the temporary suspension, but Mr. Garner, not to be baffled, is once more willing to make an effort to keep a newspaper at a place amply large for its maintenance.

That town or city which fails to place value on its home paper does itself an injustice, and cannot be looked upon by outsiders as a place of vim and thrif. If there is any one thing more than another indicative of the backbone and life of a community, it is the home paper. It is the mouth-piece and circulates in many places where readers have the opportunity of judging the people and place at which it is published.

Special Meeting of City Council.

A special meeting of the Board of City Council was held this evening at half past three o'clock. Mayor Williams presiding. Present: Councilmen; Ulrich, Lane, Bishop and Willis. A quorum not being present, board adjourned, subject to a call of the Mayor.
SILAS FULCHER, Clerk.

New Berne, Nov. 27.

Hollister—Bryan.
On Wednesday morning, November 27, Mr. Charles S. Hollister and Miss Mary C. Bryan, both of this city, were married at the Presbyterian church.

At 8 o'clock, while Mr. R. Berry rendered a beautiful wedding march on the church organ, the attendants filed in and took their places around the altar as follows: Mr. John T. Hollister and Mr. C. L. Ives, Mr. W. P. M. Bryan and Mr. E. K. Bishop, Miss Sadie Hollister and Miss Mary Meadows, Miss Annie Berry as Maid of Honor. Then the bride, on the arm of her father, Mr. E. K. Bryan. Then the bridegroom, with Mr. William Hollister, jr., as best man.

The beautiful marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. L. C. Vass.

The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion.

The party went directly from the church to the depot, where they took the train for a bridal tour North.

Mr. Hollister, the bridegroom, a young man held in high esteem by a host of New Berne friends, received their congratulations. The bride is one of New Berne's fairest daughters, beautiful and lovable. They were the recipients of many handsome presents from numerous friends who wish for them a life of happiness together.

Thanksgiving Services Today.

There will be Union Thanksgiving Services today, at 11 a. m., in the Baptist church, instead of the usual separate services.

A Thanksgiving collection will be taken up, according to the notices and customs of the several churches. Each donor is requested to enclose his contribution in a sealed envelope, upon which is written the object for which it is given.

Baptists will mark theirs "For the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville." Presbyterians will mark theirs "For the Presbyterian Synodical Orphanage at Charlotte." Methodists, "For Oxford Orphan Asylum."

Whatever special direction is written on the envelope will ensure the contribution's going as indicated.

All general gifts, not so specified, will be equally divided between the three named Asylums.

Dr. John D. Clark, and Messrs. John C. Whitty and Sam'l R. Ball, will be a committee to take charge of the collection, and distribute it properly.

We hope the attendance will be very large; that the people will come with grateful hearts, and will give liberally. Let every person today make a suitable thank-offering to God for his great goodness in the past.
