PRICE 5 CENTS.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

SELLINGS has just received another lot of that fine beef by express from the West, which will be served to his customers this morning. Also keeps on hand choice smoked pork sausage, smoked all pork sausage, Frankfort and Bologna.

LOST, R. R. STOCK. Notice is hereby given that certificates of stock No. 296, A. & N. C. R., having been lost, application will be made for duplicate. nov-1m. Mrs. HANF.

NO WELL-regulated family can afford to be without a "Zeb Vance" Cook Stove. Oct-11th. WHITTY & GATES.

BILL HEADS and Statements neatly printed at this office. All and leave your orders with us.

LOADED SHELLS. Club shells, wads, French-loading guns, repeating rifles, etc. at low prices. Oct-11th. WHITTY & GATES.

LETTER and Note Paper furnished and neatly printed at the JOURNAL office. Give us your order.

JUST RECEIVED. A new lot of Job Stock. Good work, low prices. Call and see samples. [over 19] St.

JERSEYMAN DAVIS continues very close New Orleans.

THE day of small things will never pass, and an aggregation of small things sometimes has a tremendous effect. —Charlotte Chronicle.

THE motto of San Diego for two months past has been hell on earth and all will toward man. No wonder the consequences are unhappy. —San Diego Sun.

Since our editorial on the "Officers of the House of Representatives" was written we learn with great pleasure that Milburn was elected Chaplain.

THE aim of the Rads in the Fifty-first Congress will be to turn out seventeen Southern Democrats. If they have not got out of practice they will prove themselves experts in this business. —Wilmington Messenger.

In 1864 there were four men of National prominence upon the Presidential tickets — Abraham Lincoln, George B. McClellan, Andrew Johnson and George H. Pendleton. The last of these four has just died. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

THE first naval battle that has occurred between the States since the late civil war took place on the Chesapeake between a Virginia steamer and a Maryland schooner in which the latter was run down and sunk. Pity that such a quiet, peaceful, silent creature as the oyster should stir up bad blood between neighbors, and become the subject of contention. —Ashville Citizen.

THE Republican majority in the House is not large, and it is possible that there may be some stormy times in the effort which is likely to be made to increase it. The fight is pretty certain to take place over the adoption of amended rules, and Mr. Reed will have an early opportunity to prove his fairness as well as his firmness as a presiding officer. —New York World.

PRESIDENT HARRISON's extra care to keep the suggestions of his first message profoundly correct to the last moment before the reading of the document in Congress shows that the Administration's programme for the session has been subjected to many amendments since the Fall elections and that the work of revision is still incomplete. —St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

THE most remarkable feature in the elections of the present year is the verdict they have rendered on the part of the people upon Republican representative men. The Republican party receives a rebuke for its general policy, but it is in every case milder than the rebuke administered to its leaders. We doubt if the history of the country will furnish an instance of public disapprobation so generally and so pointedly expressed for the men put in nomination by any party for the first time in importance as is seen in the Republican candidates this year. —New York Herald.

EX-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND received an offer of nearly $150,000 for Oak View, his country seat near Washington. He made answer that Oak View is not for sale, as he expects to occupy it himself some time in the future. Mr. Cleveland and his wife were always fond of Oak View, and the happiest days they spent during his Presidential term were passed at the pleasant little cottage. It seems strange, however, that Mr. Cleveland should care to hold the property when he can sell it for five times what it cost him. The present tenants of Oak View are the family of the late Dr. Henry S. Lindsley, for many years one of the leading physicians of Washington. —New York World.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
F. ULRICH—Salt, etc.
R. G. MOSELEY—Administrator's notice.
L. V. BRANSON—Branson's directory.

Put your coal ashes on the sidewalk and have a good pavement.

J. K. Willis, the marble man, was filling orders from Hyde county yesterday.

Owing to the illness of Prof. Skinner the lesson of his vocal class which was to have been held tonight will be postponed.

The new building for the S. H. Gray Manufacturing Company is going up. It will be the same size of the one blown down.

Trinity College is to be removed to Raleigh. The Conference voted on the question on Monday night and decided as above stated.

Rev. Mr. Thurber has been assigned to St. Peter's church, colored, as pastor for the ensuing year by the conference recently held in Wilmington.

"Only a Farmer's Daughter" will be presented at the theatre tonight by Miss Adelaide Cherie. She will also appear tomorrow night in Bartley Campbell's play "Fate."

"The King of the Stars," Captain Arthur Kafer, and the "Swift Fools," Captain Clarence Smith, baseball clubs, played a match game on the Academy Green yesterday afternoon. Score 10 to 4, in favor of the "King of the Stars."

We are requested to state that there will be a tournament at Rachel Ireland's, near Willie's bridge, Craven county, on December 26, given by the young men of the neighborhood. Messrs. Duff Willis and Duncan Willis are the managers.

By mistake, the solo of Mr. W. W. Clark was not mentioned in the report of the dedicatory services of the church of the Disciples on Sunday. Mr. Clark, it is well known, has a fine tenor voice, and his solo was a very enjoyable feature of the evening service.

Mr. F. L. Perry, of Morehead City, is in the city, and reports that the gray trout have appeared again similar to a month ago. From seven to eight thousand were caught last Saturday and Monday by hook and line. It is surely a remarkable occurrence.

The man Hudson, who killed Capt. Westcott at Trenton on Saturday night, was brought to this city yesterday and confined in the jail here. There were threats at Trenton of lynching by some people, while others, Hudson's friends, threatened to rescue him from the jail. As the Jones county jail is not a very safe one, it was thought advisable to bring Hudson here.

Election of Officers.
At the annual meeting of the New Berne Fire Engine Company, held on Monday night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Engineer, E. M. Pavie; foreman, J. W. Moore; assistant foreman, M. H. Sullivan; secretary, E. Gerook; treasurer, E. W. Smallwood; representatives, Jule Congdon, E. Gerook.

Branson's Business Directory.
We have on hand a copy of Branson's North Carolina Business Directory which is much more complete than any former edition. It has over seven hundred pages and will be a valuable book when free from errors. We recognize the difficulty of making it entirely accurate. It gives all the towns and cities in the State and their population, county officers, town officers, townships and their location, magistrates, post-offices, churches and their pastors and ministers. Also hotels and boarding houses are mentioned, factories, mines, mills, corporations, lodges, banks, railroads and newspapers. The names of lawyers, physicians, school teachers and farmers are given, besides a great deal of other information.

THE FIFE MEETINGS.

Union Service under the Auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association at the Baptist Church.

There was no service at the Baptist church in the forenoon yesterday, but at 3 o'clock p. m. a large congregation, principally ladies, assembled to join in devotional exercises.

Before the talk by Mr. Fife a large number of requests by various persons for prayer for friends and relatives were heard, and then the congregation bowed in prayer.

Mr. Fife's talk was directed to Christians. He urged them to do all in their power, by the help of God, to show sinners the way of eternal life; urged them to fully consecrate themselves to God, so that they would be willing to accept any position in life, do anything, to bring sinners to Christ. After Mr. Fife's remarks many professing Christians signified their desire to be true, devoted servants of the Master.

NIGHT SERVICE, 7:30 O'CLOCK.—If it were possible, there was the largest audience yet, to hear Mr. Fife last night. The building was packed and men even stood outside the doorway to hear. After the dismissal for the evening meeting many went out, but still enough were left to fill the church comfortably full.

Service again this evening at 8:30 o'clock and tonight at 7:30 o'clock. This will be the last night of Mr. Fife's meetings as he leaves in the morning.

Shipping News.
The steamer Eagle, of the E. C. D. line, sailed yesterday with a cargo of cotton, lumber, naval stores, etc. The Annie, of this line, will arrive tonight.

The steamer Tahoma will sail for lower Neuse and Bay river at 7 o'clock Friday morning.

The steamer Newberne, of the O. D. line, sailed for Norfolk yesterday with a cargo of general freight.

The steam tug Oceanic, Capt. S. F. Blockson, of the Oceanic line, came into port yesterday afternoon to "coal up," for the purpose of taking out two large barges, one of which brought stone for the light-houses in Albemarle and Pamlico sounds. The other was in port a few days ago and took out a cargo of lumber from Blades' mill.

Personal.
Mr. I. W. Brook, of Cypress creek, Jones county, is in the city.

At Gaston House: R. B. Williams, N. C.; John Biddle, Tom Lane, Fort Barwell, J. T. Winfield, Washington, N. C.; C. J. Tucker, R. S. Quinncry, Bells Ferry, N. M. Brick, Wayne Co., C. B. Felton, Beaufort; W. H. Stookly, Philadelphia.

WM. E. CLARKE, P. M.

Branson's N. C. Directory, Addenda.
As estimated in the body of the book, I am compiling an editorial book or pamphlet in which will be placed all the additions and corrections that I may be able to obtain, so as to bring the Directory, as nearly as possible, up to the last of this year. This addenda will be forwarded free of charge to every one purchasing a copy of the Directory. Let the friends send into me by mail such corrections and additions as they may note. I will give attention.

LEVI BRANSON, Raleigh, N. C.

P. S. Newspapers friendly, will please copy the above.

Ringling's Notes
In the ears, sometimes a roaring, buzzing sound, are caused by catarrh, that exceedingly disagreeable and very common disease. Loss of smell or hearing also result from catarrh. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, is a peculiarly successful remedy for this disease, which it cures by purifying the blood. If you suffer from catarrh, try Hood's Sarsaparilla, the peculiar medicine.

The Universal Verdict of the People
Who have used Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Skin Cure award it the first and highest place as a remedial agent in all cases of Skin Diseases. Erysipelas, Eczema, Pimples, unsightly blotches, humiliated eruptions, boils, carbuncles, tetter, etc., all yield to this wonderful preparation at once. Price $1.00 for a large bottle at F. S. Duff's drug store.

Clarke's Flax Soap is good for the skin. Try it. Price 25 cents.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

CONDENSED NOTES.
A fire occurred in Philadelphia Monday which resulted in a mother and four children being burned to death, and the father escaping only half dressed. Another family, consisting of a man, his wife and one child were rescued with difficulty.

Near Gallatin, Mo., Saturday night, a man recently released from an insane asylum as cured, killed his son with a large butcher knife, and attempted to kill his wife, who escaped by locking herself in her room. The lunatic then started out in a general killing expedition, and attempted to take the lives of several persons, and finally he had to be killed before a stop could be put to his murderous career.

A TRAGIC AFFAIR.
HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., November 30.—About five o'clock this evening, A. E. Posey, Esq., a prominent young lawyer of this place, shot and killed Mr. Furman Forest, also a young man and resident of Hendersonville. A difficulty had occurred in the course of the day between Forest and Sherman, the proprietor of a bar room, and Mr. Posey was employed as counsel for Mr. Sherman in the trial which followed. During the progress of the trial Posey and Forest became involved in a dispute on a matter connected therewith. After the conclusion of the trial, the parties met on the sidewalk above the Globe hotel, and in front of Mr. Posey's office, when the altercation was renewed. In the fight which ensued, Posey shot Forest twice in the chest which resulted in the latter's death in a few minutes thereafter. Posey is confined in the county jail.

The Duties of the Day.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—That Eastern North Carolina has the shortest crops that has been gathered in for many years is a patent fact; that it is no fault of the husbandmen, nor of the soil or climate is equally true.

That it is the direct visitation of Divine Providence is to all right thinking people beyond dispute. Excessive rains and hail have been the destructive agents of an Almighty power, sent no doubt, in Almighty wisdom and goodness, to teach a lesson to the objects of infinite love and mercy.

The crops are short and the burden of the results will fall with greater or less weight upon nearly every one in this section. The farmer feels it first, but the weight of it will quickly be transmitted to all other callings and professions. None are exempt; but the worst of the burden falls upon those who are in debt and dependent upon the results of honest toil to meet their obligations. These are well nigh overwhelmed by the misfortune and many are sorely discouraged.

Now I would not, if I could, intrude a sermon on the subject. That is more legitimately the work of the minister and more properly delivered from the sacred desk. But I would throw out a gentle hint to both debtor and creditor that may be of some service to them, and through them to all other people. If indeed there be any who do not belong to one or the other of these classes.

It has long been said, and never yet contradicted, I believe, that "a nimble sixpence is better than a slow shilling." And in all times of stringency in financial matters this is demonstrated. Then it is all important to keep the sixpence nimble in times like these now upon us. Let every debtor feel doubly bound to pay as far as he can, as soon as he can, and as much as he can. This must necessarily satisfy every reasonable creditor and encourage him to wait with the more patience with his debtors, until the better times come. A different course will destroy the confidence of each in the other, and double the severity of the misfortune on both.

If this course is pursued with strict punctuality, the short crops of 1889 may prove the greatest blessing to this section of the State that has been experienced in many years.

It will restore much of the lost confidence of our people in each other. It will do more to abolish the mortgage system than the legislation of a decade. The mortgage has been relied upon to supplement personal integrity until it has about failed to be able to sustain itself, and therefore can be no longer relied upon to supplement anything. Now then let personal honor and honest purpose step to the front and supplement the mortgage. Let every debtor, therefore, pay as much as he possibly can on his indebtedness, even unto the restriction of the necessities of life, and out of an impending calamity, may be drawn, under Providence, an immeasurable good. The nimble sixpence will be far better than the slow shilling.

Do you suffer with catarrh? You can be cured if you take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. Sold by all druggists.

MARRIED.
A correspondent from Swansboro sends us the following marriage notices:
