A large number received the bleesed sacrament with feelings of solemn sadness at the thought that he who had so often broken the bread of life to them would probably never do so again. During the day, it being his last in the Parish, Mr. Shields was actively engaged-at the eleven o'clock services, preaching and administering the Holy Communion; in the afternoon adminis toring baptism to an infant in private. and at night solemnizing the rite of matrimony to a couple at the church. This was the closing act of his ministry in the Parish; a ministry of over eight years, in which he has baptised 192 persons, presented for the holy rite of confirmation 75, read the burial service over 115, and unifed in holy wedlock 49 couples, in the Parish, besides others outside of it. In some families all of these services have been performed for some of its members by him.

No minister has ever left a better record behind than he has, and none ever left a community in which a more general regret was expressed at his oing. This regret is not confined to his own congregation, but is felt and expressed by all denominations alike May the Great Shepherd grant to his essor a like measure of psefulness and esteem.
