NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
E. S. STREET—Mules received.
J. C. HARRISON—Administrator's sale.

A new water tank is being built at the depot.

A car load of mules was received by Mr. E. S. Street yesterday.

A piazza is being added to the south side of Judge Seymour's residence, on Neuse street.

About two hundred colored emigrants from Craven and adjoining counties left yesterday for other States.

There were four marriage licenses issued by the Register of Deeds last week. Two were for white couples and two for colored couples.

The remains of Hon. Jefferson Davis will be kept in state until Wednesday at 12 o'clock noon, when the funeral will take place. Appropriate ceremonies will be held in this city.

The committee appointed will meet at Mr. John S. Long's office on Monday at 10 o'clock a. m. to make arrangements for the memorial services in respect to the memory of Jefferson Davis to be held at 12 o'clock on next Wednesday.

Work has been begun on a new saw mill for Mr. Daniel Stimson. It is to be built on the same ground on which the one which was burned stood and is to be of the same size. The boilers have been placed in position and work of the frame work will begin tomorrow.

IN RESPECT TO JEFFERSON DAVIS.

Meeting of the Citizens at the Court House Yesterday.

In answer to a call by the board of city council, a number of the citizens of New Berne met at the court house on Saturday, December 7, at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of taking appropriate action in regard to the death of Jefferson Davis.

His Honor Mayor Williams called the meeting to order and stated the object of the meeting. He then called W. G. Brinson, Esq., to the chair.

Roscoe Nunn was chosen secretary.

On motion, W. G. Brinson was elected permanent chairman and Roscoe Nunn made permanent secretary.

Hon. John S. Long, chairman of the committee on resolutions, appointed at the meeting of the city council on Friday night, read the following preamble and resolutions:

When the South has been keeping green for a quarter of a century the graves of her martyr soldiers, when nearly every conspicuous leader on both sides has long since passed to his reward, and when almost a new heaven and a new earth of material prosperity gladden the nation, Jefferson Davis, our heroic and stately leader, goes down to the tomb, full of honors and full of years. He was the great political support of the Confederacy, as Lee was the matchless military arm. But through our days of darkness and distress, while we have never ceased to think of his glorious public life, we have thought chiefly of him as the weary heart carrying the burden of our offenses. And so we have plucked him out of the memory of the reverse of the war, and given him a home by every fireside in this Southern land. Therefore the people of New Berne, mourning in him the death of one of the dearest of their own households, do resolve,

First, That they owe to Jefferson Davis the heritage of a spotless life and a glorious fame; that he has conquered for them in peace the exalted treasures of a character purified by suffering; that as the lamb before its shearer is dumb, so he faced the furious hate of his enemies with the saintliness of silence. So that he has glorified both his country and himself more nobly in defeat than in victory.

Second, That no richer legacy will go down to our children than his eloquent words, his stainless public acts, his record as a soldier, statesman and orator. And the crowning memory of all will be, that he wore his chains as heroically as he wore his laurels, and laid every interest and every hope upon the altars of his beloved South.

Third, That we, the people of New Berne, who always loved, honored and revered him, are the stronger for having known his virtues and his sufferings, and hereby extend to his afflicted families our sympathies and regrets, trusting that the Merciful Ruler of nations may comfort them in their sorrow.

Mr. Long spoke to the resolutions and in eloquent terms paid tribute to the memory of the departed hero.

General Robert Ransom also spoke very feelingly of the noble character and pure life of Jefferson Davis, he having known him intimately.

General C. A. Battle followed in brief remarks, adding his testimonial of the lofty character, the patriotism and the genius of the deceased.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

On motion, the gentlemen who composed the committee on resolutions, Mayor R. P. Williams being added, were appointed a committee to make all necessary arrangements as to time, place, etc., for holding memorial services. The committee consists of Hon. J. S. Long, Hon. C. C. Clark, General Robert Ransom, J. A. Bryan, Esq., Capt. K. B. Jones, Dr. F. Duffy, Gen. C. A. Battle, Capt. Matt. Manly and Mayor R. P. Williams.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

Graven County Superior Court.

The court adjourned for the term yesterday, having been in session two weeks, the limit of the law as to the length of the term. A great deal of work has been done by this court. An old fellow who has attended court pretty regularly, remarked in our hearing, "That is the workingest Judge I ever saw." Judge Boykin is a working Judge, and he has made himself popular in New Berne by his courtesy, ability, and methods of transacting business. And we must say that we have an idea that His Honor has been very favorably impressed with our city. It was hinted to us that he was even reluctant to leave. We hope that it may be our fortune to have him preside over our court again soon.

Little business of general interest was transacted yesterday.

The case of James A. Bryan et al vs. Washington Spivey et al came up again. This is what is commonly known here as the "James City case." Just after the war a number of negroes were settled on the land in question by the Federal Government. Since that time the settlers have claimed the property, many transfers have been made and titles given, and the case has become quite a complicated one. There are over one hundred defendants in the case. The defendants made a motion for severance, demanding a separate trial for each defendant. The Court granted the motion as of right. The plaintiffs accepted and appealed to the Supreme Court. This appeal will be heard at the February term of the Supreme Court and be certified down and will probably be tried in the June term of Craven county Superior Court.

State vs Isaac H. Smith, colored, for assault and battery. Defendant submitted and judgment was suspended on payment of cost.

The case of Schelley vs. Patterson was referred to H. R. Bryan, Esq.

The dockets have been pretty well cleared up. All of the officers of the court have been prompt in performing their duties. We acknowledge obligations to Deputy Clerk John B. Willis for assistance in getting reports of the proceedings of the court. He keeps his records, minutes, etc., in good style, and is accommodating to the members of the bar.

MERCURIAL POISON.

Mercury is frequently injudiciously used by quack doctors in cases of malaria and blood poison. Its after effect is worse than the original disease. B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) contains no mercury, but will eliminate mercurial poison from the system. Write to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., for book of convincing proof of its curative virtue.

A. F. Britton, Jackson, Tenn., writes: "I caught malaria in Louisiana, and when the fever at last broke, my system was saturated with poison, and I had sores in my mouth and knots on my tongue. I got two bottles B. B. B. which healed my tongue and mouth and made a new man of me."

Wm. Richmond, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My wife could hardly see. Doctors called it syphilitic iritis. Her eyes were in a dreadful condition. Her appetite failed. She had pain in her joints and bones. Her kidneys were deranged also, and no one thought she could be cured. Dr. Gillam recommended B. B. B., which she used until her health was entirely restored."

K. P. B. Jones, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was troubled with copper colored eruptions, loss of appetite, pain in back, aching joints, debility, emaciation, loss of hair, sore throat, and great nervousness. B. B. B. put my system in fine condition."

LOWER THAN THE LOWEST

We won't say anything concerning our stock of WINES, LIQUORS, Etc., which is well known to be the largest in the city, and a glance into either of our establishments will convince the most skeptical that we are in the position to sell lower than any retail house in the State.

A trial will convince.

The best the country can do is to hope that in its effort to prove that it still has a purpose, the Republican party will not do anything to disturb the peace or retard the prosperity of the Country or of any section of it.—Charlotte Chronicle.

GOV. LEE in his speech at Clinton in referring to the mineral resources of North Carolina said that he understood that there was too much sulphur in the iron. God gave North Carolinians their sulphur in this world, some people would get theirs hereafter.

MR. BUTLER, the courtly gentleman and able editor has shown himself to be a great boomer. He has boomed Clinton and the Sampson County Fair most successfully, and we hope he will now come forward and boom the New Berne Fair. Let us hear the blast of his trumpet rallying the people.

WITH a Republican President and a Republican Congress there can be no shifting of responsibility for governmental blunders within the next two years. The Republican party alone will have to answer to the people for the records in all branches of Government.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Gov. Lee, in his speech at Clinton said that it was not contemplated by the Confederate Commander that the attack on the third day at Gettysburg should be made as it was made. It was expected that Longstreet would attack with his whole corps. The charge of Pickett and Pettigrew was a splendid and awful exhibition of bravery, but it was not Shipping News.

The steamer Eaglet, of the E. C. D. line, sailed yesterday with a full cargo of general exports. The Annie, of this line, is due today and will sail tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Attention! Memorial Ladies.
The members of the Ladies Memorial Association are earnestly requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. Vasa, on Monday December 7th, at 12 o'clock, to meet a committee of gentlemen and take suitable action in reference to the public memorial services on the death of Hon. Jefferson Davis. It is hoped that every member of the Association will be present at this meeting.

Church and Sunday-school to be Organized.
There will be service at the new Disciples, church this morning at 11 o'clock and at night at 7:15 by Rev. W. R. Stancill.

At the morning service the church and Sunday-school will be organized for regular work. It is especially requested that all members of this denomination be present to become charter members. The church was dedicated last Sunday under most flattering auspices and will no doubt push forward and wield a good influence in this community.

Personal.
Col. John D. Whitford made a business trip to Kinston and returned yesterday.

Judge A. S. Seymour returned last night from Raleigh.

W. B. Rodman, Esq., of Washington, is in the city, on his return, from a trip to Raleigh.

Beautiful Improvement.
The extensive lawn around the Presbyterian church is always pleasing to the eye. Its beautiful trees, elm, poplar, china-berry, and magnolia, and its verdant grass sward, have made it very attractive—thanks to the constant care for many years of Geo. Allen, Esq.

The grounds have just been improved by the addition of thirty or forty trees and evergreens, consisting of hickory, black walnut and pecan trees, and golden arbor vites, American arbor vites, and firs. Also the new lot, recently purchased on the west side of the church, has been set out with trees. In a few years, when these are well established, these environs of God's house will be indeed beautiful. We hope this example will be followed by our citizens.

Rev. Dr. Vasa received these trees and evergreens as a present from Mr. Thomas Swan, market gardener and florist in Goldsboro. He and his wife know how to raise fine trees and plants, and have been supplying the surrounding country, and endeavoring to cultivate a taste for ornamentation of grounds. Mrs. Vasa has her taste and care to the proper placing of this valuable donation, and it has been well done.
