SELP-RIGHT POUSWES

Rise in mists of flattering praise warfed conditions of the mind, Stunted growth and stunted ways!

Imperfect is the human race, And every one may sometimes err; There is no name, nor is there place Where wrongs may not sometime self may at enthroned on high, May rule in rotes of saintly grace: Self may pray, and purr, and sigh, O'er all the sins of all the race !

Honeyed words may flow like oil.

Bible precepts fill the air—
Self for self will onward toll, Sulf for self will do and dare !

Self may stab with righteous word, Self may stain a righteous cause— May strike at truth—and then the Lord Strikes back, through His eternal laws.

Self may rise, but self will fail, Shattered aims about will lie; But the freedom gained for all Leads the human hosts on high! -Sunday Inter-Ocean.

There Are Two Ways to Propose, Here are two styles of "proposing." This one is the kind you read about, but the other is the one most popular in the realm of fact : My angel, I have long waited for this opportunity. You must have detected ere now the growth of my love for you. From the day I first met you that love took root, and tonight it is strong and sturdy, unwavering, undying. Your sweet smiles have lighted up my life, your every word has been to me a note of exquisite music, thrilling, enthralling me. You have filled a place in my heart, in my affections, that no one before has ever occupied. My lifelong happiness de pends upon the answer you give me. Say you will be mine to love, caress, cherish, idolize through time and eternity, and makes me of all men most envied: But if you ref-Oh, I cannot! I cannot! The thought is madness. You will be my wife? I see the answer of your heart mirrored in your lustrous eyes; you know I love you as no other man ever has loved you, or even can love you, darling. I know you will not thrust me off."

The angel assumes a stereotyped really-this is-so-sudden expression, and assures Mr. Wordie she would Cotton Gine., &c., belonging to the derive great pleasure from being business of his sister.

Here is the other way : "Maude, I've been thinking seriously lately."

"Really, Fred, you ought' to be more judicious than to do anything so rash as that," my mental capacity, but then I was fied that payment must be made at an always reckless that way. This early day. Indulgence cannot be ime, however, I think I have been thinking to some purpose. In fact, I've been thinking you would'nt object to having your name changed."

"When ?" "Just as soon as possible." "Will it at home or church ?" "Church, of course; we want to do this thing in style." "Have you asked pa?" "Certainly not. I don't want to marry your father." "Well, I know; but for form's

"All right, dear; for form's sake I will see pa, and maybe you had better prepare ma for the ordeal.''
"Oh, she won't mind it."

Deep silence reigns again, save as it is broken by the soft sighing of the tree tops, awayed by a gentle breeze. Gleefully the stars twinkle; the moon looks beamingly down from heaven to earth, and discovers on a vine-bowered plazza two forms with but a single chair.—Exchange.

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with a bacess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an Incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bettle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made Jesse Middewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. The art of putting the right men in the right places is first in the science of government; but that of finding places for the disconted is the most difficult.

Blate Says It's All Right.

Mr. S. O. Blate, Chicago, says: "We could not keep house without your Clarke's Extract of Flax Skin Cure and Cough Cure. We have used both for numerous troubles, especially for our child. We recommend the Cough Cure to every family having children. We used it for whooping cough with remarkably quick and satisfactors seatts, and use it for any and every trueff the family may have."
