Spier & Quinnerly's Mill at Grifton (Bell's Ferry) Blown Up-Dick Butts Killed.

A correspondent writes as follows : "The little town of Grifton (Bell's Ferry) was thrown into the wildest excitement on Friday evening at 4 o'olock. While all the hands at Spier & Quin nerly's mill were at work, and every thing moving on in most precise order, the boiler at the lumber and shingle mill exploded and the building was entirely blown up and totally destroyed, and Dick Butts, manager, was thrown several feet in the air and fell dead. Mr. Butts had only taken a seat on a pile of lumber in front of the engine when he met with his unheralded taking off. Three or four hands at the mill were slightly wounded. The explosion has thrown the shattered building on and covered the mill owned by J. F. Heath, and it is impossible for > Fourth. The East Carolina Land and Railway Company have submitted a mons, Mr. Tomas Spruils, Mr. Augustus proposition that the city of New Berne in its corporate capacity subscribe fifty thousand dollars to the capital stock, and the line will be run from Jacksonville to New Berne-being a continuation of a line now being constructed from Wilmington to Jacksonville.

Fifth. That this proposition is the only one before the people, and the accomplishment of the project it is designed to aid will be an important forward step on the road to progress. Sixth. The Rallway Company assumes all the cost of the election, and if the proposition is approved preference shall be given to residents of this city and county in the work of construction. Before an engine is run on this road hundreds of thousands of dollars will be spent for labor and material, and this will be the first step on the road to Every consideration of in terest and pride urge us to vote for this proposition, for as the construction of this road is a foregone conclusion, its coming to New Berne is almost a question of commercial life or death to us. Ninth. This question appeals strongly to the laboring man, as well as the mechanic and tradeeman, and it behooves them to look after their own interests without regard to what may be said by those who, having a plenty, don's care whether others have or not. This is a people's question, and if they fail interest, and do not seize the opportunity, the fault will be with themselves. Z.
